We are showing the New Norfolk Blouse Suits for boys and youths. This Style has become so popular in the larger cities that manufacturers can scarcely supply the demand. They look best in Fawn and Pearl Halifax Tweeds. Call and see them.

The most difficult Garment for a lady to choose is a light Print Dress, but if you call at Turnbulls you are sure to have no trouble as he can show you such a large variety in every color, every pattern and at any price.

A new material introduced this season is the Flannelette in fancy colored stripes and plains, the correct thing for ladies' wrappers and children's clothes, only ten cents a yard. Ladies handling it for the first time sometimes ask is it all wool. It is really all cotton but finished like a flannel.

As the weather gets warmer children require to have the heavy clothing changed for something light and cool, and mothers are often perplexed to know what to buy. We would call their attention to our Colored Washing, in fancy Stripes and Checks. They are warranted fast colors in fact the oftener they are washed the better they look. The prices range from 12½c. up.

MILLINERY.—We are still receiving daily New Goods by express. Another lot of Plaid Ribbons just received. Also some New Shapes, as the Blossom, Cape Town and Vallego. These are the correct thing for pic-nic hats.

GERMANY'S DEAD KAISER.

EMPEROR WILLIAM II. ISSUES HIS FIRST OFFICIAL ORDERS.

Preparations for the Funeral—The New Kaiser and Bismarck—The Policy of William II. to be Issued Tuesday.

BERLIN, June 18.—The first full declaration of the new Emperor's policy is now understood as taking the form of an address to the Prussian people, which is expected to be issued on Tuesday. The Reichsrath will be summoned to meet on June 25 to receive the message, and shortly afterwards the Emperor will formally take the oath of the constitution before the Landtag. Prince Bismarck has had a conference with the Prussian Ministry, and obtained an audience with Emperor William II. The impression in the ministerial circles is that the address will be brief, that it will be explicit upon the Emperor's desire for peace and guarded upon the subject of the relations between the Crown and the people.

The remains of Emperor Frederick were placed in a coffin and then carried to the catafalque which had been erected in the jasper gallery. The coffin is identical with the one in which Emperor William was buried. Count Von Moltke visited the mortuary chamber. Later he was received by the Imperial family.

Professors Virchow, Waldeyer and Bergmann went to Friedrichskron Palace at the request of Emperor William and remained for two hours. Their presence gave rise to an accurate report that Emperor William had ordered a post-mortem examination to be made although the Dowager Empress Victoria was averse to it. Public feeling in Berlin distinctly favored the holding of such an examination, and the supposed abandonment of the plan caused a revival of the excitement against Dr. Mackenzie, who was charged with omitting an autopsy in order that he might prevent a final authoritative report as to the true malady from which the Emperor died. Besides the doctors who conducted the autopsy Count Van Stolberg Wermgerode, Count Chamberlain, remained during the examination, which proved the existence of cancer. Dr. Mackenzie's friends state that he concurred in the holding of the post mortem. They also say he knew the character of the disease from an early period, but took the best possible course with the patient.

The funeral service was read in the jasper gallery by Chaplain Koegel. All the members of the Imperial family were present at the service. The transfer of the remains to their final resting place took place this morning.

Among those who have already arrived to attend the funeral are the King of Saxony, the Grand Duke of Hesse and the Duke of Saxe-Weimar.

Prince Bismarck has received the following telegram from Signor Crispi the Italian Prime Minister:

The misfortune that has befallen your country has also plunged Italy into mourning. Though foreseen and dreaded of for a long time this end, so tragic in its simplicity and grandeur is a cruel blow to our sovereign, who has lost a tried friend. The Italian nation, who saw in Frederick a sympathetic and venerated personification of the glorious German nation, is the faithful ally of your Government. The King transmits an expression of his profound sorrow, together with his ardent wishes for the prosperity of the new Emperor's reign. Accept my personal assurance of sincere sympathy in your sorrow. Your Highness has given so many proofs of great ability to bear with fortitude such painful losses occurring at such short intervals.

Sir Edward Malet, the British Ambassador has handed Count Herbert Bismarck a letter from Lord Salisbury expressing the profound grief felt by Queen Victoria when she received the news of the death of the Emperor, whom she so dearly loved. The Queen commands Lord Salisbury to express to the German people in the name of the British nation her heartfelt sympathy in the heavy loss sustained in the premature death of the Emperor, whom they rightly loved so ardently.

Emperor William and Empress Augusta Victoria will presently reside in the Marble Palace.

An Address to the Navy.

BERLIN, June 18.—Emperor William II. has issued the following general order to the navy:

I have to inform the navy, with a deeply moved heart, that my beloved father, the Emperor of Germany and King of Prussia, Frederick III, has departed this life, peacefully in the Lord, and I, stepping into the place assigned me by God's will, have assumed the government of the land, falling to me by hereditary right, and therewith, also, the chief command of the navy. It is indeed a profoundly grave period in which I address my first words to the navy, which has only just ceased wearing the outward signs of mourning for my ever-to-be-remembered and beloved grandfather, Emperor William I, who only last year, during his residence at Kiel, expressed in the warmest words the liviest satisfaction at and appreciation of the development of the navy under his glorious government.

The flags are already lowered for my much beloved father, who so greatly rejoiced at and took so strong an interest in the growth and progress of the navy. Yet a time of deep and sincere mourning chastises and fortifies men's hearts. Thus we shall look confidently to the future, faithfully preserving in our hearts the memory of my grandfather and father.

The navy knows that it not only gives me great joy to belong to it by an external bond but that since my earliest youth a warm and lively interest has, in complete sympathy with my dear brother, Prince Harry, united me with the navy. I have learned to appreciate the high sense of honor and faithful fulfilment of duty prevailing in the navy. I know that every member of the navy is prepared joyfully to give his life for the honor of the German flag wherever he may be.

Thus, in this sad hour, I can say with all confidence—we shall stand together firmly and surely, in good and evil days, in storm as in sunshine, ever remembering the glory of the German Fatherland, and ever prepared to shed our hearts' blood for the honor of the German flag. In this God's blessing will be with us.

WILLIAM.

Apprehension Felt in Paris.

PARIS, June 18.—It is useless to deny that under cover of assumed confidence, the death of Emperor Frederick has caused a feeling here very much like dismay. It was impossible not to notice the silent agitation which pervaded the Chamber of Deputies when the death was announced. It is worthy of remark that not a single journal published an exaggerated statement or a premature account of the death of the Emperor Frederick. He was respected here as a lover of peace, and mingled with the expressions of sorrow at his death are dismal speculations as to the political consequences. Rightly or wrongly, the hatred of France and a desire to render his reign memorable by fresh laurels culled upon the battlefield at the expense of his neighbors, lies.

A person who saw the Emperor at Charlottenburg preserved a paper whereon the Emperor has written the following:

"One of the most consoling circumstances of my severe trial is to be shown in what is said of me in the French papers. I certainly endeavored by every means in my power to mitigate the hardships of war when I was at Versailles, but still war was very rigorous, as it must always be to be conquered. It gives me fresh faith in human nature to find how the French forgot the evil I had to do them and only remember those that are good. Their present state of feeling makes me hate war more than I ever did in my life.

An Assurance of Peace.

LONDON, June 18.—Europe may be said to think of nothing and to speak of nothing but the long-expected death of the German Emperor. When the announcement was made in the House of Commons the members, who keep their hats on to everything but a message from the Sovereign, uncovered. There is among all classes but one feeling, nor could anything be more genuine than the homage which England, in common with the rest of Europe, offers to the memory of the Emperor. The grief is more personal here than elsewhere, save in Germany. What the press says of him here is well said. Due tribute is paid to his character, his stainless life, his high qualities, his services, his patient courage, and his devotion to duty amid miserable suffering. Europe feels that a valiant soul has departed.

The Emperor and Empress, accompanied by the Dowager Empress Augusta and the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Baden and other royalties, visited the Jasper gallery on Sunday morning. While they were assembled around the bier of the dead monarch Chaplain Koegel offered a brief prayer. Access to the gallery was prohibited to the public until the royal party had departed. On account of the want of space it has not been possible to accede to the request of provincial authorities for permission to attend the funeral services in the Friedricks kron. The only representatives of the Berlin authorities will be the leading officials in the Ministries and a Committee of the chief Church Council. The obsequies will begin at 10 a.m.

Berlin Briefs.

BERLIN, June 18.—The Empress Victoria bears her affliction bravely. Her health is not affected.

It is said that when Prince Bismark paid his first respects yesterday to the new Emperor the young man fell upon the Chancellor's neck and with tears in his eyes said: "I hope, I beg of you, that we may remain unchanged."

Count Zudlitz-Trutzscher has been appointed Prussian Minister of the Interior, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Herr von Putkamer.

Von Weiner to-day made a sketch of the Emperor's body. The features are somewhat sharper than usual, and the cheek bones and nose are much more prominent than they were in life. The skin is of a yellowish hue.

THE WILSON—JARVIS EPISODE.

Mr. Blake not wholly Recovered—A Lawyer in Trouble.

TORONTO, June 18.—Mrs. Edward Blake arrived home a few days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Blake spent the winter at various points in Italy. They reached that country in December, and returned to England in April. Mr. Blake has not wholly recovered, but it is believed that when he has reached home and settled down he will find that he has been very greatly benefited. Mr. Blake will sail for Quebec, probably about the middle of July, and will spend the summer at Murray Bay. He will not return to Toronto before September.

The Methodist Conference on Saturday was worked up to white heat over the treatment of Rev. Mr. Wilson, at the hands of Policeman Jarvis and of the Magistrate. The case was the subject of a long resolution in which the Conference pledged its united support to Mr. Wilson in "all legal and proper efforts to obtain redress for the brutality and injustice which he has suffered." The resolution was referred to a committee.

Broker E. S. Cox, of Central Bank notoriety, was examined in Buffalo on Saturday in reference to the liquidation. He stated on two occasions he had got deposit receipts from the bank for $18,000, when in reality he had not a cent to his credit.

PROBABLE CANDIDATES.

A COMPLEX SITUATION IN THE REPUBLICAN RANKS.

Numerously Uncertain who will be Chosen to Run for the Presidency—The Coming Convention in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 18.—A more complex situation was never seen on the eve of the meeting of a Presidential convention. Such developments as have occurred only tend to pile mystery upon mystery. The air is filled with rumours, and out of it all develops nothing tangible. As accurate a description of the situation as could be made at this hour is that about 300 delegates are tolerably certain how they will vote, if they don't change their minds before the balloting begins. The remainder are "all at sea."

Sherman, Allison, Harrison, Gresham, Alger and Depew all have their mills set to catch every favoring breeze, but in spite of Blaine's positive declinations, a good-sized boom has been started for him and is apparently growing. Sherman will probably lead on the first ballot, but after that the result cannot be foreseen. Should several ballots be taken without a choice, when the break comes it may be to the "Plumed Knight," and a nomination under such circumstances he could hardly refuse.

Met by Blaine Men.

CHICAGO, June 18.—The Pacific coast train bearing the California and Nevada delegations and the delegations from the territories west of Colorado arrived Saturday morning. The nine palace cars which composed the train, emblazoned with various devices and with bunting and flags, was received with wild demonstrations by a multitude which awaited its arrival at the depot. The delegations were met by a committee of Blaine men with a silk banner bearing this legend, "Blaine and Protection." It was turned over to the Coasters and borne to their quarters, followed by a throng of people.

Blaine Shouters from New York.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Two hundred Republicans, under the leadership of John J. O'Brien left for Chicago Saturday. They are all Blaine men.

Twenty prominent members of the Republican Club also left for the Lake City. They go for Depew.

Depew's Room.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Associated Press despatches from Chicago says Depew's candidacy is assuming formidable proportions. He will receive all the support the New York delegation can give him.

THE MANITOBA ELECTIONS.

It is Stated They Will Take Place in July — Strathcairn.

WINNIPEG, June 18.—It is now reported that the elections will come off early next month.

Attorney-General Martin will probably be opposed by Lawyer Georgen.

Mr. Van Horne yesterday said that the car shops will be removed to Thunder Bay. Winnipeg loses 200 men by the change.

Two new elevators will be erected at Thunder Bay, making the total capacity there 4,500,000 bushels.

A. McDonald of Strathcairn committed suicide by hanging. He had been despondent over the death of his wife a year ago and the recent departure of his adopted daughter.

Both the Red and Assiniboine Rivers have risen six feet from the June rains.

The autopsy on the late Emperor Frederick showed clearly that his ailment was cancer, his larynx having been almost entirely destroyed.

A GREAT GLADSTONIAN VICTORY.

The Ayr Elections Demolish the Old Unionist Majority.

LONDON, June 18.—The election in the Ayr boroughs to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons caused by the death of Richard Campbell, resulted in the return of Capt. Sinclair, Gladstonian. Capt. Sinclair received 2,331 votes, against 2,288 for his opponent, Evelyn Ashley, Liberal Unionist.

At the previous election Mr. Campbell, who was a Liberal Unionist, received 2,073 votes and Sinclair 1,498.

MONDAY, JUNE 18, 1888.

THE LATE GERMAN EMPEROR.

The death of the Emperor of Germany is not only a national (to Germany) but a continental calamity, for it presages the danger of terrible military and political complications, whose result can hardly help being the expenditure of unimaginable blood and treasure, and a consequent set back to civilization. The new Emperor, William II., is of a notedly warlike disposition. His ambition and love for battles and broils will, it is feared, lead to overt acts of aggression or at least equivalent provocation and disastrous wars. In a national sense, the death of Emperor Frederick is a calamity. In the midst of almost unexampled physical suffering, there was no word of complaint on his own part, but an earnest and pathetic anxiety to fulfil all the duties of his high office and thus conduce to the welfare of his people. His aims and objects, his policy and disposition, were a reflex of the virtues acquired by contact with his virtuous and womanly wife, the true daughter of that wise and womanly sovereign, our own beloved Queen. His highest ambition was not to use his subjects as the will-less instruments of a vaulting ambition, but to use his own high office for the promotion of their best interests and those of the empire. He aimed to be a father to his people, not a merciless task-master.

THE Sault Ste. Marie correspondent of the Mail states that the people there are exceedingly anxious to have the fine water-power of the place developed. An Ontario Government engineer has arrived, and no doubt the Government will act promptly on receipt of his report. It is said that an expenditure of $150,000 would yield over 100,000 h. p., which the Government could rent and thus recoup itself for its outlay. Sault Ste. Marie is well situated for the establishment of flour mills, pulp-factories, etc., "but it is evident adds the Mail, that its greatest natural advantages cannot be turned to much account so long as Canadian products are excluded from the American market.

Church Chimes.

Rev. Mr. McKnight preached in St. Andrew's church Sunday evening.

Rev. Messrs. F. F. Torrance and I. Tovell exchanged pulpits Sunday. The latter said a few words of farewell to the congregation of St. Paul's church in the morning.

The evening services in the George-street church Sunday were of a particularly affecting nature. Rev. S. J. Thompson, the popular young six-months pastor of the church, said his farewell words to the congregation. After an impressive sermon from the text, "Continue in Well-doing," he spoke briefly of his past labors in the church, and of his sorrow at parting with his people. He thanked all those who had lent him their kind help in making his term of ministry successful, as he believed it was, though not up to his hopes and promises. To the officials of the church he was grateful for their cordial sympathy, and if any good had been accomplished in the church, it was because they had all worked so harmoniously together. The ushers, choir and congregation also were thanked, and the reverend gentleman concluded by asking their prayers and urging them all to accept the grace of God. Rev. Mr. Thompson leaves for his new mission field in British Columbia on Tuesday. Next Sunday the pulpit of the church will be supplied, and the new paster, Rev. M. L. Pearson, will assume charge and preach his inaugural sermon the following Sunday.

Deep Breathing

Nobody teaches American boys how to breathe. City boys, and many from the country, too, have finer chests before they go to school than they ever do afterward. Sitting in a school-room, or shop, or factory, or any other room five or six hours a day, and then sitting most of the rest of the day besides, does much to weaken the chest, for when you sit still you do not breathe your lungs half full. Take one large full breath now, and see how your chests rises and expands, and how differently from a minute ago, when breathing only as you generally do. Many boys actually do not breathe their lungs full once in a whole week. Is it any wonder that they have weak chests, and that they easily catch cold? How are you to have strong lungs if you do not use them? Which has the strong arms—the invalid leaving a sick bed or the blacksmith? he who uses his arms or he who does not? When walking at the rate of four miles an hour, you breathe nearly five times as much air as when you are sitting still. Now the fuller breathe you take, and the more of them you take in a day, the stronger and fuller chest you are going to have. If every boy in the United States would take a thousand slow, very deep breaths, every day from now on throughout his life, it would almost double our vigor and effectiveness as a nation. For deep breathing not only enlarges the chest itself, and makes it shapely and strong, but it gives power and vigor to the lungs and heart, and makes them do their work far better. And it does the same to the stomach and bowels, the liver and kidneys; indeed, to all the vital organs. It makes the blood richer. It adds directly to the vigor of the brain as well, and so enables it to do more work. In short, it is about the best known way of getting and keeping health. And who would care to hire a sick man to work for him? Or who can do much hard work when he is sick? Not that we can always avoid sickness, but it is less likely to come, and has harder work to enter, when we are robust and in good training than when we are weak and run down.—Harper's Young People.

How Intelligent Women Decide.

When the question has to be met as to what is the best course to adopt to secure a cure, safe and agreeable remedy for those organic diseases and weaknesses which afflict the female sex, there is but one wise decision viz., a course of self-treatment with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is an unfailing specific for periodical pains, misplacement, internal inflammation, and all functional disorders that render the lives of so many women miserable and joyless. They who try it, praise it. Of druggists. a

Cause and Effect.

The question of the hour is why people will put themselves so much about; why pass all the attractions along George street. Bankrupt stocks at 50c. on the dollar, and dollar for dollar, and goods for the mere asking, in fact, to be sent home in a wheelbarrow, and charge nothing for the sending. We ask again why is it that an appreciating public will pass all this and pursue the even tenor of their way till the noted cheap store, the last on the east side of George street—in other words, Sheppard's Big Bonanza Bargain House is reached. Cause and effect—the cheapest and best goods between Toronto and Montreal. d

Bricklayers' & Masons' Union,
No. 12, Peterborough.

To the Architects and Builders of the Town of Peterborough,

GENTLEMEN,—The members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 12, Peterborough, have decided to take no sub-contracts after the 1st day of June, 1888. We take this step, believing it to be to the interest of Architects and Proprietors of buildings, to deal directly with us, and not as heretofore, letting our branch of work to Carpenters, and then have them sublet it to us, frequently at a loss to owners of buildings through inferior material being used to secure the carpenter a profit. We therefore consider it would be to the interest of all concerned, to have each trade control its own line of work.

Signed on behalf of the Union,
J. J. HARTLEY, President.
GEO. ROSE, Vice-President.
R. SHEEHY, Secretary.
ADAM DAWSON, Treasurer.

You May Try
Everybody's Teas in Town and compare them with our Strictly Uncoloured Japan, English Breakfast, Oolong and Young Hyson and you will be convinced that none will suit your taste as well as ours.

To Buy Teas Right
Is something which requires close study and observation. The cultivation of a trained sense of smell, taste and inspection is needed, which takes a long time to acquire and many never can acquire it.

To Keep Teas Right
After they are bought is another thing which no one can succeed in doing unless he is an enthusiast in looking after the "small details" of the Tea trade.

The Unflagging Attention
We give to the Tea branch of our business has demonstrated the truth of the above, and our lengthened experience gives us confidence in guaranteeing superior qualities which we invariably handle. We pride ourselves in our Tea Trade.

Our Finest Coffee
We positively guarantee to be of finer aroma and greater strength than the coffee usually sold. The properties of coffee require constant care and attention in order to retain its delicacy and purity. No one will be disappointed by using our Coffees regularly.

All Lovers
Of good Tea and Coffee know how easily both drinks may be spoiled on the stove. To secure the best results, therefore, a fair trial by the practical housekeeper is of course necessary to insure success.

TORONTO, June 18.—The walking match at Metcal-street Rink was brought to a close on Saturday night. The attendance at the finish was the largest since the opening, there being nearly 2,000 persons present. The Scotchman proved too much for Taylor towards the finish. Moremac kept up a lively jog all day, passing the old man, and at the close was one mile and nine laps ahead. The score at the close was as follows:

	Miles	Laps		Miles	Laps
Moremac	377	0	Bennett	270	13

NOVA SCOTIA'S NEW GOVERNOR.

Hon. Mr. McLelan to be Sworn in on July 9—Beef Contracts Let.

OTTAWA, June 18.—It is officially announced that Hon. Mr. McLelan will be sworn in as Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia on July 9.

The contracts for supplying beef for the Indian Department for next year have been let to Trounce & Co., I. G. Baker & Co., the Cochrane Ranch Co., Robert Scott and the Walrond Ranch Co. It is understood that one of the conditions of the contracts is that the beef is to be of animals raised or bred in Canadian territory. The contracts were all let at the lowest figures, which are said to be somewhat under last year's prices—an indication that as ranching increases in our own Northwest the price of beef will come down and the cost of supporting the Indians be materially lessened.

Forger Young's Punishment.

DETROIT, June 15.—Thos. Wilfrd Young, the restaurant waiter who forged an endorsement on a certificate of the International Trust Company for $2,782 and skipped out with the proceeds to Toronto, where he started a restaurant and made a strong fight against extradition when arrested, was tried in the Recorder's Court here yesterday on the charge of forgery. The jury found a verdict of guilty and the judge sentenced him to twelve years in the State prison. It cost over $2,000 to convict him.

MONDAY, JUNE 18, 1888.

The Weather.

Light to moderate variable winds, fine and very warm weather.

Keeping Cool.

Sunday was a roaster. Everybody fairly melted. The churches were thinly attended, and those who did go suffered intensely from the heat, with a few exceptions. These were the ladies who had been wise enough to get silk grenadine dresses at the golden lion. They were cool, well-dressed, comfortable and could be devotional.

"Fritz" To-Night.

The eminently popular J. K. Emmett, who has won fame by his new version of "Fritz, our Cousin-German," will be at Bradburn's Opera House to-night. Seats are going fast at Hartley's. To demonstrate that "Fritz" was appreciated in Cincinnati, the following, from the Commercial Gazette of that city, is sufficient :—"An audience which filled every seat and corner of the Grand last night witnessed Emmet's wonderful performance of "Fritz." The standing room sign was early displayed and many bought seats for the following nights unable to gain admission."

LOW PRICES does not affect the quality of groceries at The Pantry. This truth demonstrated in every purchase.

To Step Over Sunday.

Howe's circus will be here next Saturday and stop over Sunday till Monday night. The two days' exhibition will be given on Riverside Park, June 23rd and 25th. The show is known as Howe's New Colossal Railroad Shows and Mexican and Wild Exhibition. This is the best chance that the people of Peterborough will have of seeing an amalgamation of the world's best athletes, aerial performers, performing goats, pigs, dogs, and the Indians, and cowboys, and Mexicans of the west, for years. Therefore while you have a chance make it good. The admission is to be only 25 cents to all.

Fires.

A pile of burning slabs alongside the iron bridge on Hunter street, made a big blaze and a bigger smoke Saturday and Sunday. A great many people were startled at first sight into the belief that a "fire" was in progress.

Sunday morning, before one o'clock, the ruins of the frame building on the corner of Brock and Water streets, partially destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, were again observed in flames. The fire brigade soon quenched the blaze. The fire must have been incendiary, as the place was untenantable. It will have to be torn down now. Mr. J. Craig, the owner, had intended to begin rebuilding the structure Monday morning.

The Boon Granted.

When the new time-table of the Midland Railway came in force on May 21st, there was a popular clamor for a early morning train to Port Hope. It seems the cry of the people has been heard by the manager of the G.T.R., for according to the Port Hope Guide :—"The G.T.R. local train will start from Peterborough on Monday 25th inst., instead of Cobourg, as at present. This will be a boon to the Peterborough people, for they can come to town here and remain all day and get home the same night, or they can remain one hour and a half longer in Toronto than they can under the present arrangements. It will also be a great benefit to those who want to cross the Lake, for at present parties from Peterborough who wish to go to Rochester must come in the night before."

WE AIM to make the reputation of The Pantry permanent by selling at figures that clinch the argument every time.

Dr. Thompson, of Omemee, was in town today and gave us a call.

Messrs. E. D. Orde, Hugh O'Leary and J. D. Flavelle, of Lindsay, are in town to day.

Dr. H. C. Barrett, of Toronto, was in town over Sunday on a visit to his mother, who, we regret to say, is not very well at present.

Mr. "Ernie" Mason leaves to-night for New York, via Suspension Bridge. He goes to the great metropolis to engage in and extend his knowledge of the grocery business, as I to familiarize himself with the mercantile methods of New York. Mr. Mason is a young man of integrity and industry, who will be certain to push forward to success in the jostling maelstrom of the great city, and he will have the best wishes of scores of warm friends.

News Nuggets.

—A full muster of the 57th Batt is called for to-night.

—The sale of the Robert Rowe property is going forward this afternoon.

—James Brown, a vagrant, was this morning committed to gaol as a vagrant.

—The familiar salutation these days is : "Is this warm enough for you ?"

Mr. Albert Shaw, of Southern Manitoba, is revisiting old friends and renewing past associations in town.

—The June session of the county council opens at the court house to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

—The adjourned larceny case and the charge of forgery against young Batterworth will come before the court to-morrow morning.

—A young man named William Patterson had his hand hurt by a circular saw in Wand's planing mill this forenoon. The injury is not serious.

—The swimming season is in full blast now, and the old-time nuisance of boys and men exposing themselves in Little Lake in broad daylight, to the annoyance of boating parties, still exists.

—"Pete" Dunn and "Tom" Boddy, the jovial local representatives of "the fastest line on earth," spent Sunday in the wilds of Bobcaygeon, and they are tanned and tickled half to death over their delightful trip. They never tire of sounding the praises of Capt. Bottam, the prince of entertainers, who helped make things so pleasant for them. They say that Bobcaygeon beats the world as a place for fun and healthful sport.

The "Y."

The verdict on last Saturday evening's entertainment is : "It was the best of the three." The programme, as published in last Friday's issue of this paper, was well carried out, and, in addition, Mr. A. E. Scott gave one of his amusing selections, a recitation in prose describing "Katrina's Spouse in a Tight Place." The "Patch-work Tidy," which consisted of poetry and prose contributed by certain members of the audience, formed an amusing feature. The president, Miss L. Sanderson, proposed to "throw" them together after the usual manner, the feather-stitching to be represented by remarks suggested as the reading proceeded. The alternation of bright and sombre produced a startling effect. During the evening an explanation was made from the chair re Mr. A. L. Davis' failure to fill the number indicated on the programme for June 9th. Mr. Davis had sent an excuse for his unavoidable absence, but it had failed to reach the committee. At the close of the entertainment the President stated that the committee deemed it advisable to discontinue these very pleasant evenings until the weather became cooler. There will be no more "Y." concerts until September, when we would suggest that those wishing an enjoyable hour at a merely nominal fee, will remember the Saturday night entertainments. After an expression of thanks to those who had assisted on the programme, the entertainment closed with the National Anthem.

The New Management.

After three years of almost unprecedented success, the Peterborough Business College, managed and principalled by Prof. Bannell Sawyer, C.A., is now to add a new vice-principal. Mrs. Bannell Sawyer, who has taken an active part in the teaching staff, who has been during the past two years Secretary, and during the third year Vice-Principal, will now relinquish the position and assume her former position of Secretary. Mr. Geo. S. Bean, B.A., Mathematical Master of the Collegiate Institute here, is to be Vice-Principal. He is a man of excellent parts—kind, genial, and good looking, a first honor man and medallist of Victoria University and now one of its Examiners in Mathematics for the degree of B. A. He is well up in the requirements of a commercial education, he has had business experience, and he will graduate from the Peterborough Business College on the 29th inst. Prof. Sawyer will continue as Principal and Manager, and we have no hesitation in saying that Messrs. Sawyer & Bean make, by all odds, the strongest team now conducting any Canadian Business College, and we wish them continued success.

The Circus and the Public.

The circus is coming to town and every small boy and every rural swain are counting on compassing the means to "git thar." It is singular what fascination a circus possesses. Poor people, who have to stretch things awfully tight to make ends meet, will endure no end of sacrifice to go to the circus. They will beg, borrow or steal enough money for the purpose. But Howe's circus doesn't draw half the crowd that rushes to gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, for the wonderful bargains in clothing. Dirt cheap and as good as the wheat, is a weak way of describing both the price and quality of the goods. For the next month a tremendous drive in all kinds of clothing, both men's and boys'. High prices are forever banished from the store of the gough bros., and in their stead are low-down, bed rock prices, within the reach of all. Many a man can clothe himself well for what he will foolishly spend at the circus. The clothing will last till Christmas, but the circus comes on Saturday and leaves on Monday. Don't spend money foolishly, invest it in solid bargains in solid clothing at the store of gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, george street, peterborough.

ONLY a few more sets of dishes left at The Pantry and those must go at once ; no matter about price.

The defeat of the Peterboroughs on Saturday by the Lindsay High School Club was rather a surprise. "Deuced hard luck" is the excuse offered. Several of the junior distinguished themselves, and had those from whom good play was expected come up to the mark the result would have been different. The "tail-enders" in fact carried off the honors at the bat. For Lindsay Martin secured double figures, that topped the score. The bowling on both sides was very fair. Score :—

SLIPS.

Belleville club is expected up to-morrow. This will be the first match of the senior eleven this year.

The cricketers are making an appeal to the ladies to patronize their matches. All ladies like to see a match game in which skill and strength are combined to win, and in cricket is this found to a greater extent than in any other sport. Then the gentlemen on the cricket field would appreciate the appearance of ladies, whose presence and plaudits would stimulate them to deeds of valor. The covered grand stand is reserved for ladies, and, there being no admission fee, there is no reason why the ladies should not lend encouragement to the game by their presence, and at the same time themselves enjoy the play.

A Popular Ground.

Sports are flourishing in Peterborough this summer. There are lacrosse and baseball clubs innumerable throughout the town, and the wonder is where so many of them can find practice grounds. The "Priests' Field," in the west end, is a popular resort, no less than three clubs practicing nightly in its ample enclosures. The "West End" and "Emerald" baseball clubs thrive apace and apart, while the Lansdowne lacrosse club also finds room to spread itself on the field. Matches are frequent. Last Friday night the Lock Works' team and the West Enders fought to a finish, metaphorically speaking, on the diamond, and next Thursday night it is probable the North Enders, another club of ambitious ball players, will tackle the Emeralds on the latter's grounds.

Baseball.

The Port Hope Times is sarcastic in its report of the match on Friday. It makes capital of the fact that the Peterboroughs, who shut out Lindsay, made such a poor showing against the "combined" team of Port Hope and Cobourg. To the Times we would say, don't crow too early. Our fellows were rather "off" on Friday, and didn't play their game at all. Wait till the return match, which will likely be played here next week, probably on Tuesday. Then we'll see how the prize aggregation will fare.

Riversides vs. Y. M. C. A.

A practice lacrosse match will be held this evening at 7 o'clock on the Riverside Park.

Spots of Sports.

A meeting of the Otonabee Canoe Club is called for Tuesday evening.

At the meeting of the Lansdowne Rowing Club Friday night it was decided to amalgamate with the Otonabee Canoe Club for the purpose of holding a joint regatta on the 26th. Committees from each club will meet in a day or two and draft a list of races, which will be published.

A protest has been entered against James, of Shelburne, as it is alleged he played at Peterborough last week. The C. L. A. will decide whether he did or not. If he did, the match will be played over again.

Mr. W. R. Greatrix has received a photograph of the prizes offered for competition at the C.W.A. meet in Belleville, July 2nd and 3rd. Their values aggregate over $500, comprising pitchers, cups, and other articles in silver, besides a number of medals. They make a magnificent array of prizes, and are, without doubt the best ever offered. The photograph can be seen at Schofield's.

The Riverside Lacrosse Club plays in Orillia on Wednesday, the 20th inst. The Orillia papers, after the defeat of the Barries here, began to think there was some "stuff" in the Riversides after all, and are urging their club to play hard and win. It isn't necessary to request the Riversides to do the same. They already fully appreciate the difficulty of the task before them. Go in, boys, and win.

Following are the four-oar crews selected by the Lansdowne Rowing Club to compete in the regatta on Decoration day.

Toronto Testimonials.

J. K. Emmet as "Fritz."

(Toronto Mail.)

The celebrated German character comedian J. K. Emmet appeared last night at the Grand Opera House in the new "Fritz." As reconstructed, the play is improved in plot and many bright conversational passages are introduced. Some of the scenes are excessively comic, notably the introduction of three little children, whose make-up is very ludicrous. Emmet, of course, is the life of the play, his witty speeches and well-rendered songs making it a success. His chief support is Miss Georgia Gardiner, as Katrina. Mr. Emmet's singing is especially pleasing ; the Mistletoe and Green Lane songs were well received, as was also a lullaby with guitar accompaniment. The bill will be repeated to-night

J. K. EMMET AT THE GRAND.

(Daily Globe.)

Although Toronto has had the advantage of seeing over and over again many of the greatest dramatic stars of Britain and America, "Fritz" Emmet, the greatest exponent of the German character except the eminent Jefferson, has only once appeared before a Toronto audience until last night, when he opened a short engagement at the Grand Opera-house. The play was "Fritz, our Cousin German," perhaps the best of the several dramas in which Mr. Emmet has played with such success for several years past. Owing doubtless to the warm weather there was not a large audience present. At first the play dragged somewhat, there being a good deal of wholly unnecessary padding in it, but as it progressed it brightened up and became most interesting. Of course the main thing after all was to see Fritz and to hear him sing and play on the guitar. Mr. Emmet evidently owes his success far more to that strange and subtle influence called "personal magnetism" for want of a better name than to the qualifications which are usually supposed to be the make-up of a great actor. The fame of his singing has been by no means exaggerated. He has a wonderfully sweet and sympathetic voice and a manner which charms the audience and wins them completely. The part he plays is of the "rough diamond" order, which always appeals to the sympathies of people, and in playing it, therefore, he appears to the very best advantage. One feels that the man is the character he represents, not because of his ability to "hold the mirror up to nature," but because he is quite the man he assumes to be. Whether he is an actor or not, he is certainly a great "Fritz." There is a large cast in the play, but none of them call for particular mention except Miss Georgia Gardner, who played Katarina with considerable ability. The same bill will be repeated to-morrow evening and also at the Saturday matinee.

J. K. Emmett will be at Bradburn's Opera House to-night. Seats at Hartley's.

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGES.

Report from the Church Educational Institutions Presented to the General Assembly.

HALIFAX, June 18.—The six theological colleges of the church in Winnipeg, Toronto, Kingston, Montreal, Quebec, and Halifax had favorable presentations to make to the Assembly. Those who took charge of the college business in presenting reports and offering resolutions were Drs. Burns and Forest and D. M. Gordon of Halifax; Dr. MacRae of St. John, and Rev. A. H. Scott of Perth; Rev. Mr. Scringer and Rev. Mr. Dewey of Montreal; Prof. Ross and Mr. Cumberland of Kingston; Rev. Mr. Love of Quebec; Dr. Caven of Toronto and Dr. Bryce of Winnipeg.

The common college fund, having outlived its usefulness, was abolished.

Studying with a view to the ministry, Queen's has 77 students, Montreal 70, Knox 82, Manitoba 20, Morrin 15 and Halifax 40.

The report of Queen's shows the ordinary revenue for last year to be $32,251, with $5,000 additional for scholarships. The assets of the institution are placed at $413,715

The receipts of Knox College from all sources for last year are $16,652. On the Knox endowment fund $176,554 has been paid in, $24,000 of this during the past year.

BLOWN INTO THE AIR.

Terrible Explosion in a Drug Warehouse at Zanesville, O.

ZANESVILLE, O., June 18.—A terrific explosion succeeded by several secondary ones, at 11.20 Saturday morning startled the whole city. Closely following was a fire alarm from the heart of the business portion of the city. Those in the neighborhood saw the large two-story brick warehouse of Bailey Bros. & Co. in the rear of their building on Main-street, with several surrounding buildings rise in the air and fall with a crash in a heap. A team of horses which stood at the door of the warehouse was almost covered with the debris and Chas. Murphy, a farmer, was blown out of his wagon in passing.

The extent of the disaster was not realized until Abner Grayson, a colored employee, climbed out of the flaming mass, burned and bruised from head to foot. Then the mangled body of Wm. Miner, a drayman who was fatally hurt, was recovered. Several others of the employees escaped with slight injuries. Mort Bailey, son of F. P. Bailey, was in the building and his body is buried under the ruins. John Lehmans, teamster, received severe but not fatal injuries. Jesse Garden, colored, employed in Bailey Bros., was taken from the wreck badly burned. It is reported two more employees are buried in the wreck. Grayson inhaled the flames and his injuries will prove fatal.

"Why, Mrs. Jawsome, how can you insinuate such a thing! I drank or mad! I'm strong Scots Act. I know it's hard to believe, but Mrs. Bayshem, a regular prayer meeting woman she is, too, told me so with her own mouth—which is hardly ever shut, goodness knows—that she went traipsing up to Toronto with the Masonic excursion. She went through all the shops and pric.d 'em all She wanted to get a wedding present for Ann Jane Marier who is going to marry that half baked sewer, Ben Slowit, and she was disgusted. She could do better at home. And she spent $1.84—$1.75 for her ticket and nine cents for cakes and a paper of pins, she got at a seven-cent store—she tore that old cashmere dress she's worn a life time, on the car steps—O my! where was I?—O yes! she went straight to China Hall when she got home and got a lovely china tea set for re much less than she could in Toronto, that is made up for her expenses to the city. And she says they have terrible fine and cheap dishes at China Hall, and as she says, says she, 'Dead loads of 'em, too.'"

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

HON C. H. TUPPER ELECTED BY ACCLAMATION IN PICTOU.

Daily Reports Indicating Satisfaction from the Commanders of the Cruisers—Seizure of Horses by the Mounted Police.

OTTAWA, June 19.—News was received here last night that Hon. C. H. Tupper had been elected by acclamation in Pictou; Dozens of congratulations were wired to the new Minister of Marine and Fisheries. He is expected to come to Ottawa at once.

There are now eight cruisers in commission in the fisheries protective service in the maritime provinces; the Acadia, La Canadienne, Dream, C. H. Tupper, Advance, Critic, Vigilant and C. J. Brydges. The cruiser recently purchased from Col. Allan Gilmour is now in the canal basin undergoing repairs and will shortly proceed to Georgian Bay.

The Department of Fisheries is now in receipt of daily reports from the commanders of the cruisers, which are so far highly satisfactory. American fishermen are freely taking out the licenses permitted to them under the modus vivendi and everything appears to be working smoothly.

It is understood that the Department of Fisheries will repeat this summer the exploratory surveys made last year of the deep sea fisheries of the Pacific. Mr. Mowat, Inspector of Fisheries for British Columbia, will be in charge of the expedition, and the special subject of enquiry will be the black cod fishery banks.

The mounted police seized a number of horses near Lethbridge, N.W.T., which had been smuggled into Canada. On examination by a veterinary surgeon the horses were found to be suffering from glanders, and the customs officers at Lethbridge ordered all the animals shot.

Fires at Guelph.

GUELPH, June 19.—Fire at Kennedy' lime kiln did $150 damage on Saturday night. Joseph Hefferman's stable, on the Elora road, was burned down yesterday morning.

Hamilton Notes.

HAMILTON, June 19.—Four members of the family of Wm. Scott were taken very sick on Sunday after partaking of some corned beef which Mr. Scott purchased in the market on Saturday.

A fire occurred in the stables of Duffy's Hotel just before midnight on Monday. Wm. Smith was nearly suffocated before he was aroused from a drunken sleep in the burning building.

Hackman Cline, charged with careless driving in running over a boy named John Kavanagh on Saturday, was remanded until next Monday at the Police Court.

The Mate of the Tradewind Drowned.

OSHAWA, June 19.—John Rolland, mate of the schooner Tradewind, was found drowned yesterday. He left the schooner to come up town, and not returning Capt. John Shaw sent his men in search; and after grappling for some time his body was discovered in the lake. It is supposed that, returning to the schooner in the dark, he missed his footing after getting aboard, as his body was found below the taffrail of the schooner. His body was sent to his friends in Port Hope for burial.

THE MANITOBA ELECTIONS.

Nominations Will Take Place on July 4 and Polling on July 11.

WINNIPEG, June 19.—The writs for the general elections were issued yesterday. Nominations will take place on July 4 and polling on July 11. Nearly all enumerators have been appointed returning officers.

The weather is oppressively hot, 90 in the shade to-day.

The rivers are still rising.

The early closing movement has fallen through temporarily owing to a defect in the law.

The Chicoutimi and Saguenay Contest.

QUEBEC, June 19.—In the Chicoutimi and Saguenay election for member of the Local House Dumais (Lib.) was returned by about 400 majority over Marcotte (Nat.)

Elected by Acclamation.

HALIFAX, June 19.—Yesterday was nomination day in Pictou for the House of Commons. Hon. C. H. Tupper, the new Minister of Marine and Fisheries, was elected by acclamation.

The General Assembly.

HALIFAX, June 19.—In the General Assembly Prof. Scringer presented the report of the Board of French Evangelization and made a strong appeal for support and sympathy from the whole Presbyterian Church. Rev. Prof. Armstrong, Rev. C. A. Doudiet and Rev. Mr Cliniquy also spoke on the subject.

The scheme to purchase the Ottawa Ladies' College, to be under the control of the board, was endorsed by the assembly.

ROME, June 19.—The Pope will soon issue an important encyclical dealing with the true and false in liberty.

A SELF-WILLED EMPEROR.

WILLIAM II. SEIZES THE REINS SWIFTLY AND WITH VIGOR.

An Exciting Sunday in Potsdam—Words and Acts that Thrill Europe—A Cold Shiver runs Through France.

BERLIN, June 19.—If straws show which way the wind blows two things which Kaiser Wilhelm II. did on the very instant of his father's death and which caused general comment, ought to arouse the gravest apprehensions for the future. Frederick died at twelve minutes past eleven o'clock on Friday morning. The then Crown Prince William, together with other members of the Imperial family, was beside the Emperor's deathbed. At the very moment of death the Crown Prince walked out of the Chamber and gave orders to his aide-de camp, Major Baron von Natzmer to have the palace surrounded by fresh cordons of troops, and sent another officer to order the regiment of Hussars of Guard to patrol the grounds and to let no one in and to let no one go out. The Hussars arrived at a smart trot, and did their duty admirably. Even Sir Morell Mackenzie was for half an hour held a prisoner. Even the passes given by Prince Radolin, the Hof Marshall, and by Count Seckendorff, the late Emperor's chamberlain, were annulled within two minutes after Kaiser Frederick's death.

A friend of mine, provided with one of the Hof Marshal's passes, who was in the palace at the time of the Emperor's death, was unable to get out and was kept a prisoner in the guardhouse from half-past eleven until five o'clock in the afternoon. All Potsdam was patrolled by troops exactly as if in war time in the presence of an enemy. The rigid and uncalled-for military measure was the very first act of the new Emperor.

The second act was to order the Imperial purple standard to be hoisted on his own palace, the Marmor Palace at Potsdaam. The young Emperor's Imperial standard was hoisted within five minutes after his father's death, so that not much time was lost in asserting his Imperial authority.

These were the first two acts of the young Emperor. No one dares say much about them in Berlin, but they cause general uneasiness, and are regarded as emblematic of what is to come by and by. In fact an influential member of the Reichsrath, not a Socialist but a good standard Nationalist, said to me: "I see from these two acts that there is danger ahead for Germany. Our Great Kaiser Wilhelm and our good Kaiser Frederick both died peacefully in bed; but our young and energetic Kaiser Wilhelm II. will, as the Americans say, 'die with his boots on.' I don't think there is so much danger of war as of his provoking with his military arbitrary measures a state of feeling throughout Germany that will arouse Socialistic attempts and lead to internal strife and discord. I think the immediate effect of Kaiser Wilhelm's reign will be to increase German emigration to America by about 30 per cent."

The above language expresses to-day the feeling of the great masses of the German population. The new Emperor may not prove to be such a Hotspur after all, but such is the opinion already formed of him.

I learn from Sir Morell Mackenzie that after the first agonizing spasms were over the Empress rose, and going where Sir Morell stood, took his hand and said: "The first words I speak shall be to express my thanks to you for having lengthened my beloved husband's dear life."

The Austrian View.

VIENNA, June 19.—Vienna opinions of Emperor William's proclamation are not very favorable. The Neue Frie Presse in a cautious article says:—"Frederick as a victorious general had no need of boasting. William, on the other hand, was only a boy when the great battles which established the German empire were fought."

The Tagblatt thinks Germany's loss is irreparable and says Frederick aspired to freedom and progress—the new Emperor's manifesto is a eulogy of militarism such as has rarely been seen. The Fremdenblatt hopes that Emperor William's only intention is to strengthen the warlike character of the army, establish order and maintain peace.

English Criticisms.

The Daily News says:—We think the alarm which the proclamations of Emperor William to the army and navy excites is uncalled for. More humility might have been expected from an older sovereign, but the spirit in which the Emperor addresses the army and navy is of less importance than that with which he receives Bismarck.

The Times says:—The proclamations are worthy of the Emperor and traditions of his house. Their spirit is not necessarily to be regarded as warlike, still less as aggressive. Germany is an armed nation, and only as such, under existing conditions, can she maintain her unity and power. The Emperor has great power, but not enough to be able to hurry into a great war with a light heart, against the wishes of his people.

A despatch to the Standard from Paris says:—Emperor William's proclamations have sent a cold shiver throughout France. The National says:—They will edify the world. They are the utterances not of a pastor, but of a slayer of peoples.

A Busy Day in Potsdam.

BERLIN, June 19.—The result of the post-mortem examination of the Emperor Frederick has been accepted by the German press as a triumphant vindication of the position taken by the German doctors. Prof. Virchow's dissection showed complete destruction of the larynx by cancer. The Emperor has ordered Dr. Mackenzie to write a complete history of the late monarch's illness. Dr. Mackenzie said to-day that the disease was cancer, but asserts that it was very difficult to make a diagnosis on account of abnormal conditions in the throat. A bird's-eye view of Potsdam would impress the average observer with the idea that the people had suddenly lost their senses. The solemn and placid little village is in a ferment of excitement. The short notice given of the Emperor's funeral has turned things topsy-turvy. People expected that the dead Emperor would lie in state for at least a week in Berlin, instead of which the time has been reduced to one day and the crush is enormous. The effort to bring the mourning decorations up to the standard set in the funeral of the Emperor William has resulted in more confusion. Thousands and thousands of workmen were rushing about to day in the streets of Potsdam selling crape upon every projecting surface that would admit of decoration. Officers were shouting their orders, carpenters building grand stands, citizens turning out the frames of windows to admit of more sightseers and agents rushing about hunting for apartments. It was as busy a Sunday as Potsdam ever knew.

The Emperor's Manifesto.

BERLIN, June 19.—The Emperor has issued a proclamation to the Prussian people. In it his Majesty says: The grave has scarcely closed over Emperor William I. before my father, Frederick III., is called away. Frederick bore a hard fate and showed a very Christian resignation. He remained faithful to his kingly duties in the few months allotted to him, and exhibited all the noble qualities of his mind and heart. His victues and his victories on the battle field will be remembered as long as German hearts continue. I have taken the government, looking up to the king of all kings, and pray God like my father to be a just and clement prince, foster piety and the fear of God, to guard the peace, to promote the welfare of the land, to be a firm guardian of the right and to progress in my kingly duties in unison with the people who in good and in evil days have stood true to their kings. I count upon the people's fealty and conscious of my purpose reciprocate it heartily as a true prince to a true people, both equally ready to make sacrifices for the fatherland. My confidence is derived from this and good will and strength and wisdom to discharge the kingly office for the welfare of fatherland.

The Funeral Ceremonies.

POTSDAM, June 19.—Prince Bismarck and Count Von Moltke arrived here yesterday. The railway stations at Berlin and Potsdam were closed against the public. Crowds gathered outside these buildings and soldiers and police were posted around the stations to keep back the crowds. The Friedrichshon palace was guarded like a fortress. At 9 o'clock the bells were tolled and the ministers who were to officiate at the Emperor's funeral took their places around the coffin in the palace. The choir sang the hymn "Soon Thou Callest Me to Higher Joys" and "Jesus is My Trust." Chaplain Koegel blessed the corpse and the mourners, after which the choir sang "If I Am to Die." The commanders of twelve regiments of which the late Emperor was the chief officer, carried the coffin to the hearse. Eight majors then took the horses by the bridle, and the procession started towards the church.

The second mortuary service over the remains of the Emperor was held at Friedrichskron Castle last evening. Dr. Koegel, court chaplain, officiated. Emperor William and the Empress, the Dowager Empresses Augusta and Victoria, all the members of the German imperial and royal families and the entire household were present. At the conclusion of the service the coffin was closed in the presence of the Emperor, Count Von Stolberg-Wernigerode, court chamberlain; Dr. Friedburg, Prussian Minister of Justice; and the others who had been bidden to the ceremony, and was then placed on the same state bier used at the funeral of Emperor William.

At 2.15 yesterday this morning Potsdam was in mourning and emblems of grief were to be seen everywhere. All the way from the castle to the Friedenskirche, where the funeral was to take place, torches and cressets were seen illuminating with their pallid flames the morning light. Every here and there rose huge flagstaffs and poles bearing banners with mourning devices. The troops which were to take part in the funeral ceremony were already mustering. They comprised the entire garrison at Potsdam and a portion of the Berlin and Spandau garrisons. They consisted of one combined infantry battalion, two combined cavalry squadrons, two combined batteries of artillery, a regiment of the guard corps from Berlin and similar combined battalions and batteries from Spandau. At 10.30 o'clock the troops assumed their positions and the various dignitaries, deputations and various associations proceeded to their places.

The ceremonies at the Friedrichskron Castle began with the performance of Bach's Balo Ruist Du Mich Zu Hobern Frieden. Then the chorale Jesus Meine Zuversicht was sung. As the last strains died away Chaplain Koegel arose and offered a prayer, in which he alluded in feeling terms to the double grievous visitation upon the Imperial house and upon the nation. He thanked God for all He had done for the departed monarch, and implored heavenly consolation for the sorely tried members of the Imperial family and for the nation. The chorale Wenn Ich Einmal Soll Scheiden was then sung, after which the coffin was removed from the castle and placed on a funeral car, the choir meanwhile singing, "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth."

The procession was then formed and moved to the church. Upon arriving at the church the mourners took the seats assigned them. After the service Chaplain Koegel pronounced the benediction. There was no sermon. After the firing of volleys and minute guns by the troops the mourners took their departure. Before leaving the widowed Empress bent over the coffin and took a solemn farewell look at her dead husband's face. Court Preacher Persius repeated the closing prayer and the choir intoned a dirge.

In the procession from the castle to the church the Prince of Wales walked with the Emperor and the King of Saxony. Among those who took part in the procession were prince Henry, second son of the deceased Emperor, the hereditary Prince of Saxe-Meiningen, and the generals of the army, headed by Count Von Moltke, who carried a marshal's staff. Bodies of the Prussian corps of the guard and the dragoon guard brought up the rear of the procession. The funeral ceremonies ended shortly before one o'clock.

TORONTO, June 19.—Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education, and Prof. Galbraith leave to-day for a visit to educational centres in the United States. It is the purpose of Mr. Ross to establish departments of architecture and of mechanical engineering in connection with the school of practical science and he goes across the line for points bearing upon each of these subjects.

What Caused the Delay?

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—Some time has passed since the fire in Mr. LaGrandeurs house on Reid street, but it seems that the unsatisfactory working of our fire system on that day has not been forgotten. The question is frequently asked how it happened that the fire bell took so long to ring, and as I am the one who gave the first alarm I am supposed to know something about it. To set matters right, and in order that the blame will not be cast upon the wrong parties, I beg to repeat the question, what caused the delay? and state all I know about it. Upon my first learning of the fire I ran to the box in No. 2 Ward and sounded the alarm. Almost immediately an answer was returned, showing that the alarm had been received all right at the central station. About the same time Mr. Louis Spry rang the No. 1 ward still alarm, and he too received an answer from the central station. Yet it must have been fully twelve minutes after that before the town bell rang. Now I would like to know, what caused the delay? Some persons thoughtlessly blame the firemen for being so slow, but I say it is not their fault. They responded as soon as the town bell rang. Some one is to blame, however, and I think the fault lies right in the central fire station.

And I might mention also another thing. If I am not mistaken the town council is bound by agreement with the Underwriters Association to constantly keep two horses at the central fire hall. This is a necessary protection, and why isn't it done? A town of our size and importance, with a fire brigade otherwise fully equipped, ought certainly to be able to give the ratepayers good fire protection. Our fathers ought to realize the importance of keeping two horses always at the stable. Hoping that this explanation will do away with misconceptions, and that it will serve to set wrong right,

I am
Yours truly,
W. J. DEVLIN.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

WATERWORKS.

The hint which I so delicately gave last week had its effect upon our worthy councillor, as he and a friend started next day, and in a short time collected the $40 required to submit the by-law for waterworks, which will be submitted to the ratepayers for their approval or rejection on the 24th of July. Should it be defeated, the council will no doubt take steps at once to secure a steam fire engine. Between now and then there will be plenty of time to discuss the merits of both, so that our citizens will be able to judge which will be best for our council to invest in, the committee appointed at the last meeting of the council being now engaged in obtaining all the information they can, which will be made public in due time.

UNIQUE APOLOGY.

The secretary of Court Lakefield No. 43, C.O.F., received the following from the Court Treasurer the other evening, which I give for the benefit of the members who were not present, even though it is against "rules and regulations" relating to publishing proceedings:

LAKEFIELD, 14th June, 1888.

Secretary Court Lakefield No. 43:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—

I fancy at the Court to-night
There'll be a lot of mourners;
For be it known to one and all
I'm gone to Fowler's Corners.

Not that I think they'll miss me much—
That would be quite too funny;
For they that miss me most will be
Those that are wanting money.

But should they grieve, if they will leave
With you their little cheques—
I'll call and pay them.

The fickle Muse seems to have deserted our brother at this juncture, or else the start to Fowler's Corners had to be made in haste, so there is no knowing what we have lost in the poetic line.

SCHOOL ACCOMMODATION.

At the last meeting of the Lakefield School Board the question of increased accommodation came to the surface and caused some discussion, but no action was taken at present. It came out that during the month of May no less than 107 children had been in attendance in the junior department, the daily average being 85. How one teacher is expected to manage so many, is more than your correspondent can understand and the other rooms are also full, but not to such an extent. A change will have to be made, and that ere long and the sooner the Board take action the better it will be. Should they decide to build, and employ another teacher or rent a place for a ward school for a time, they should be making their arrangements now, so as to have the amount put in the estimates when the rate is struck. If left for another year a great injustice will be done to teachers parents and pupils, which will cause far more objections than the increased taxes would do, as our ratepayers never grumble when they know their taxes are well spent on the education of their little ones.

MASONIC.

The members of Clementi Lodge No 312 A.F. and a.m., will attend St. Johns church next Sunday evening, St. John's day, when Bro. the Revd. Mr. Farncomb will preach a sermon for their especial benefit, and the following Tuesday the 26th they propose to have a picnic up to Gilchrist Bay, Stony Lake, for which purpose they have engaged the steamer Crusier, for the use of themselves and invited friends.

FISHING.

Fishing up the lake has not been so good for years, many of our sportsmen returning with large bags and none empty handed.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Friday Mr. Steele got 7 muskinongie, Mr. John Dinwoodie 6, Wesley Shapin 5, R. Hill 6, A. Hill 5, Levi Payne 3 and 2 bass, while many others got 2 and 3 each besides large numbers of bass.

THE BITER BIT.

Some time this spring Mr. W. McDonald had the misfortune to lose $7, and the same day two children returning from school found a five and two dollar bill on the sidewalk where he had passed. The child who had found the $2 handed it to her companion, on the advice of a party who saw them pick it up, so that if a claimant was found it could be handed back together. The child's father advertised it, and Mr. McDonald called to claim his property, but was informed that until he proved the bank and number of the bills he could not have it, nor has he received it to this day, or has the $2 been returned to the other child. Last week a little son of one of our county officials found $5 on the sidewalk which he took home to his father, who in turn handed it to Mr. McDonald to advertise, as he is from home so much. A claimant at once appeared in the person of the party who holds the first mentioned $7, who was informed as soon as he proved the bill and number he could have it. Everyone in the village is tickled over the turn things have taken, Mr. McDonald, especially who has arrived at the conclusion that there is some truth in the old saying: "The Cadger will meet the King some day."

OUR BAND.

The Foresters' Band plays out on the village square three times a week to the delight and gratification of our citizens. They have made great improvement during the past winter under the able leadership of Mr. Scringer, and are a credit to the village.

Bricklayers' & Masons' Union,
No. 12, Peterborough.

To the Architects and Builders of the Town of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN,—The members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 12, Peterborough, have decided to take no sub-contracts after the 1st day of June, 1888. We take this step, believing it to be to the interest of Architects and Proprietors of buildings, to deal directly with us, and not as heretofore, letting our branch of work to Carpenters, and then have them sublet it to us, frequently at a loss to owners of buildings through inferior material being used to secure the carpenter a profit. We therefore, consider it would be to the interest of all concerned, to have each trade control its own line of work.

Signed on behalf of the Union,

During the last two years the Chicago club has made more money from the sale of players than the capital stock amounts to. The transfer of Kelly, Clarkson, Gore, McCormick, Dalrymple and Sunday netted the club $30,000. The capital stock is only $20,000.

The Devastating Grasshopper.

JASPER, Ind., June 19.—Myriads of grasshoppers have appeared in many parts of Southern Indiana, and are devouring all vegetation as they go. They destroy meadows first, then the foliage of trees, and next corn, oats and garden vegetables. Thousands of acres of meadows have been devastated.

The Battery Boys.

This morning a special train left Peterborough with the local members of Durham Field Battery aboard. There were about fifteen men, under command of Quartermaster-Sergeant Snyder. Capt. Sanderson and Sergt-Major Metheral will not attend camp this year. The Peterborough contingent will join the main body of the battery at Port Hope and proceed to the Gananoque military camp, which begins to-day.

New Railway Station.

Messrs. Jas. Stephenson, Superintendent of the G.T.R.; Mr. J. M. Riddell, Assistant Superintendent; and Mr. J. G. Macklin, chief engineer of the Midland Division, left for Campbellford this afternoon to decide regarding the erection of a new railway station at that place, and the laying of a siding to the paper mill premises. It is considered probable that both improvements will be carried out.

A Chicago Delegation.

It is proposed by the Grand Trunk Company to enlarge the grain elevator at Midland, the northern terminus, by about 250,000 bushels, or to about double its present capacity. It will be a heavy undertaking, and in order to get the best plans extant for such a mammoth building, Messrs. R. Tivey and T. A. Hay, Peterborough, of the engineers department, left for Chicago Monday to inspect the elevators of that city and secure data and information for the re-construction of the one at Midland. They expect to be absent about a week.

Good Fishing.

The "story" season has begun with the fishing season, and every visitor to the lakes comes back overburdened with "whoppers," both in the line of fish and stories. It is said fish are abundant this year, and the early campers are revelling in piscatorial delights. A couple of gentlemen in town, of undoubted veracity, claim to have caught 85 bass near Young's Point one day last week in a little over an hour. And so it goes.

Our Own Sunny South.

Talk of the climatic superiority of the Southern States and California in the same breath with No. 1 Ward! Mr. H. W. Watson shows that the banner ward is also capable of great things in this respect. He raises two crops of potatoes in the season, and last year he had a famous crop of peanuts (arachis hypogea) grown in the open air. This season he has a promising crop of ginger in good growth.

Big Real Estate Sale.

Nearly $20,000 worth of real estate was sold at the court house Monday afternoon by Mr. Chas. Stapleton, auctioneer. The bidding was spirited and in every case went over the reserve bid. The property comprised some of the best blocks and building sites in town. Messrs. Dumble & Leonard were the solicitors. Following is a list of the sales:—

Parcel 1	Jno. Burnham	$1,700
" 2	Wm. Aldridge	3,600
" 3	Jas. Stevenson	4,000

Corner Stones and Corner Lots.

It is announced that the corner stone of the new post office in Trenton will be laid with party honors at an early date. Hon Hector Langevin, Mr. Jas. Stevenson, M.P., and other politicians are expected to be present. The corner stone of the new post office in Napanee will also be laid with party honors. They were very careful to have no spread about the laying of the corner stone of the Peterborough post office. If Sir Hector had come here for the purpose, it would have been a toss-up whether Sir Hector or the corner stone would have been laid. On the other hand, the post office, under the name of a Customs building, was run up as quietly as possible. A corner stone laying would have been too strongly suggestive of the corner lots deal to have made the occasion pleasant or auspicious, especially for the perfidious Minister of Public Works.

A charge of five cents each way for conveyance will be made. 3d143

Only a few more sets of dishes left at The Pantry and those must go at once; no matter about price.

Cause and Effect.

The question of the hour is why people will put themselves so much about; why pass all the attractions along George street. Bankrupt stocks at 50c. on the dollar, and dollar for dollar, and goods for the mere asking, in fact, to be sent home in a wheelbarrow, and charge nothing for the sending. We ask again why is it that an appreciating public will pass all this and pursue the even tenor of their way till the noted cheap store, the last on the east side of George street—in other words, Sheppard's Big Bonanza Bargain House is reached. Cause and effect—the cheapest and best goods between Toronto and Montreal. d

Legal Intelligence.

The following case of local interest was disposed of at the High Court of Justice, Toronto, on Monday:—

Gervais vs. Goodwin.—Motion on behalf of the plaintiff to set aside the the non suit of Falconbridge, J., at the Peterborough assize, in an action for negligence, and for a new trial. Reeve, Q.C., in support of the motion. McVeity (Ottawa) for defendant, contra. Judgment dismissing the appeal with costs. The action was brought under the Employers' Liability Act, 1886, to recover damages sustained by the plaintiff, a teamster, employed by the defendant in drawing stone for the Trent Valley canal. The stone was raised from the waggon by a derrick, which, falling, caused the injuries complained of. The plaintiff alleges that the accident was owing to the defective condition of the derrick, breaking down in consequence of the removal of a guy. The plaintiff contended that the defendant had further contributed to the accident by employing a boy to take charge of the derrick, whereas he should have employed a man.

Our Cousin German.

High prices and hot weather were the cause of the many rows of empty benches at the opera house Monday night that stared J. K. Emmett and his company in the face on the occasion of the first presentation of "Frita" in Peterborough. The performance was one of the best ever seen in town. Emmett was of course the life of the play. Though rather heavy and by no means too young, Fritz displayed all the gracefulness and light-heartedness of the youthful character he represented. There were many novel features introduced, the three little children, the trained dog, the mill scene and others, while his songs, particularly the cradle ditty, captured the audience. He was rapturously applauded. "Frita" is a queer play and no mistake. There is a plot, and yet no plot. One moment your heart is wrung with sorrow and sympathy for the wronged one; the next your sides are aching over some ludicious situation. The court room scene, for instance, was the acme of absurdity, while the triumphal march at the close was laughable in the extreme, yet touching in its simplicity. The support was good also, "Katrina" especially deserving special mention. The humourous characters were all well taken. Interest did not flag for one instant though the play was a long one and the weather suffocating. Had the prices been lower a much larger house would have been in attendance.

County Council.

June Session.

FIRST DAY—TUESDAY.

[The regular business of the session was prefaced by a special meeting to pass a debenture by-law authorizing the borrowing of the sum of $20,000 to provide for the building of bridges.]

The June session of the council of the County of Peterborough began at the Court House at 2 o'clock this afternoon. There were present the Warden in the chair and Messrs Moore, Burnham, Brown, Wildey, Elmhurst, Kidd, Crowe, Moloney, Crough, Hicks, Forster, Finlay, Casemont, Stewart, Anderson, Sanderson and Fitzgerald.

WARDEN'S ADDRESS.

After routine the Warden delivered his address as follows:—

Gentlemen,—It gives me great pleasure to congratulate you on our meeting in this, the second session of the year, all in good health and ready, I am sure, to enter heartily upon the work which will for the next few days demand our attention. There is reason to say that the county is in a prosperous condition, the crops are looking fairly promising, and, with a favorable season, the labors of the farmer will meet with a good reward.

COUNTY BRIDGES.

Since the last session, nothing of unusual importance has transpired worthy of my particularly drawing your attention to it.

The last spring was very favorable to our county bridges. I have made especial inquiries from our engineer and other persons likely to know, and I am glad to be able to inform you that not one dollar's worth of damage from spring freshets took place. This is in very agreeable contrast to the experience of most former years in this respect.

You are aware of course, that two new bridges have been constructed by the county—at Warsaw and Allendale. They are both now completed and accepted, and I am most happy to report that in all respects they are well built. In company with Mr. Moloney reeve of Douro, Mr. Sanderson, reeve of Smith, representing this council, and the county engineer and Mr. Law the contractor for the iron work, I visited these bridges June 9th. A most thorough examination of the bridges in every part was made and everything was found satisfactory. I think the county, the contractor and all concerned in these structures are to be congratulated upon the excellence of the work in every respect. They are likely to last for years without demanding anything for repairs; and they furnish additional evidences of the fact that what is worth doing is worth doing well. They will be permanent and satisfactory and in the end the cheapest bridges that can be built.

On the same date the same party visited what is known as Sullivan's bridge, in Douro. This bridge was found to be in a dangerously dilapidated condition, unfit for safe travel. I would urge the importance of rebuilding this bridge at the earliest convenient moment.

EQUALIZATION OF ASSESSMENT.

The equalization of the assessment will, of course, engage your attention. Your past experience in this matter will, doubtless, enable you to deal with the matter with due regard to the best interests of the county, as a whole, and in the way of justice to the several municipalities.

CLAIM FOR COMPENSATION.

A short time ago I received a communication from the solicitor of the heirs to the estate of the late James Hague, making claim to the amount of $200 for compensation for land taken by the county, adjoining the west end of the iron bridge at Lakefield. I placed the matter in the hands of the county solicitor with instructions to take measures to protect the interests of the county in the matter.

COUNTY SOLICITOR'S CLAIM.

You will, doubtless, be asked to deal with the claim of our county solicitor for increased remuneration in the matter of conducting the Grand Junction suit. You are aware that the amount of the costs given to the county by the decision of the Privy Council, has been paid over to the solicitor and although, as warden of the county, I have made no less than three demands upon the county solicitor for the payment of the amount over to the county, he refuses to hand over the funds. I understand from him, that he has placed a lien upon the amount to secure the payment by the county of the additional remuneration for his services he demands. I regret that the withholding, of this sum, has caused the county, to pay interest on borrowed money, when there are funds belonging the county, which, if in our hands, would save no little expense. I might add that it seems to me that our county solicitor has been amply remunerated by the award made by the special committee last January. The Grand Junction matter has lasted too long already, and I think it would be wise to take such action as would result in placing everything in connection with it upon a basis admitting of no further dispute nor demands.

COUNTY ENGINEER'S EMOLUMENTS.

This suggests to me the importance of considering the subject of the mode of payment for the services of our county engineer. I have instructed the clerk to go over the records and ascertain what amounts have been paid the county engineer for the past five years. His report will be laid before and will furnish information to enable you to intelligently discuss the question as to whether it is better to place the county engineer upon a fixed salary, or to follow the course which has been pursued in the past.

COURT HOUSE PARK.

Before closing I wish to refer to one other matter worthy of attention. You will all have noticed in coming here the beauty of the Court House Park, through which we passed. I think this council can congratulate itself on having done a wise thing in giving, as it did do in 1885, a lease, to the Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society, of these grounds. The Society has made good use of their opportunities and the public, both of town and county, receive great enjoyment from what is now one of the finest little parks in the county.

I have had too pleasant an experience of your devotion to your duties to make it necessary to commend the matters I have mentioned, as well as other matters, that may arise during the course of the session, to your diligent consideration.

John Walsh,
Warden.

June 19th, 1888

On motion of Mr. Moloney, seconded by Mr. Sanderson, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee on the Warden's address, Messrs. Burnham, Kidd, Stewart, Forster, Brown and the mover and seconder.

Mr. Edwards, county solicitor, presented his bill for services in the Grand Junction suit, and pressing his claim in excess of the $2,500 voted to him last January. He would suggest in lieu of any litigation on the subject, that the settlement of the matter be left to the arbitration of some disinterested person.

A communication was received from Mr. J. H. Roper, President of the Horticultural Society, inviting the members of the council to attend the open air concert by the band in the court house park this evening.

The council then adjourned.

Otonabee.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The residents of the vicinity of the 6th line of Otonabee will hold a social re-union of the pic-nic variety at the school house and grounds adjoining the residence of Mr. John Miller, on Friday, June 29th. An 80-foot platform for dancing and sports has been erected, and first-class music will be provided. Temperance beverages will also be provided. No doubt the people will have a most enjoyable social gathering on the 29th.

Like a ship before the breeze, so go the fine Teas at 5 lbs. for a $ at The Pantry.

Child Murder at Lakefield.

A Young Woman Arrested for Causing the Death of Her New Born Baby.

The quiet of the village of Lakefield is again disturbed, this time by a case of child desertion and practical murder by a young woman, Windsor, a domestic in a respectable family. The particulars as far as can be learned are these. During Sunday night the girl was delivered of an illegitimate child, and as soon as she was able to rise from her bed she wrapped the baby up in some clothes, tossed it from her bedroom window to the ground below, and then passing down through the house, picked up her luckless burden and carried it off. She placed it under the floor of the cheese factory and leaving it there returned to the house. Monday morning the cheese maker on going to work heard the plaintive wail of an infant's voice and on investigating found the little waif where it had been left. It still had sufficient strength to make a weak outcry; but it soon died.

The deed was traced to the girl, who was arrested. A post mortem examination was held and death found to have been caused by the fall and neglect. An inquest was begun Monday night, but further adjourned till this evening.

Local Sports and Pastimes.

Willow and Wicket.

It looks as though the Belleville-Peterborough cricket match to-day is to be an easy victory for the home team. At three o'clock the score stood: Peterborough, first innings 261 runs; Belleville, 17 runs for 5 wickets down. Sam Ray for Peterborough contributed 122 by excellent play in the first innings.

Spots of Sport.

The Lock Works and West End clubs played a seven inning game of baseball on the latter's grounds Monday night, which resulted in favor of the West End team by a score of 8 to 7. Batteries—Corcaran and Graham; Lisle and Evans. These clubs, with the Emeralds, play a match nearly every evening.

The practice game of lacrosse on Riverside Park Monday night between the Y.M.C.A. and Riverside clubs did not take place, neither side showing up a full team. Sides were chosen and a short practice game held.

Mr. W. J. King, of the Port Hope Y.M.C.A. club, who was in town over night, played in the practice game Monday night He is an adept with the stick, a remarkably fast runner, and altogether a good all-round lacrosse player. If Port Hope club has many such as he, the Peterborough Y.M.C.A. team have their work cut out for them on Dominion Day.

A citizen complained to the Examiner the other day about the reckless throwing of lacrosse and base balls on the street. The other day a lady was injured by a carelessly thrown lacrosse ball, and narrow escapes are frequent. Boys ought certainly to exercise more care.

Following is the team of the Riverside Lacrosse Club that will visit Orillia to-morrow and play the club of that place:—Joyl, goal; Rose, point; Butler, cover point; Meagher, Halpin and Kincaid, defence field; Larone, centre; Phelan, Begley and Squiere, home field; Duncan, inside home; Packenham, outside home.

News Nuggets.

—The band will be in the park to-night, as usual.

—Prof. Doucet's orchestra played at the Opera House Monday night.

—"Dick" Gardiner, who is pretty well known in Peterborough, and his family, are with J. K. Emmet's troupe.

—The corner brick of the new block, Hunter street, next the post office, was laid to-day with all the honors by the President of the Bricklayers Union. The Union is to be Hartley congratulated upon its president being selected for this honor.

—Five demonstrations only are to be held in Ontario east of Toronto, on the coming 12th of July. These are to be held at Port Hope, Kingston, Carleton Place, Ottawa and Arnprior. By having few and having them immense ones, it is designed to specially emphasize this year, it being the two hundredth anniversary of the landing of William the Third in England.

—There is no Peterborough boom in real estate, but there is good solid activity. Yesterday the Toronto Real Estate Investment Company sold the last lot of 50 acres of the Parnell Farm, north of the Barnardo Home, subdivided into lots only six weeks since. Good figures were got.

—Mr. T. C. Hanitain, of Peterborough, is announced to deal with the subject of the preparation of candidates for teachers' certificates at the annual convention of the Teachers' Association in Toronto next August.

—The Toronto policemen are getting into further trouble. Monday morning Mr. James Cheeseman, who, it will be remembered, attended the Dairymen's Convention here last January, was arrested for obstructing the highway. His case is likely to create as much interest as that of Rev. Mr. Davis.

SUN
LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.
HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.
Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.
The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.60, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,000 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.60.
The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,231.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,432 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,386 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	363,264 31	2,962,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,977 24	4,029,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,004 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

HOHENZOLLERN BLOOD.

EMPEROR WILLIAM SAID TO BE IN PERFECT HEALTH.

Sensational Statements About An Hereditary Taint Denied—Russian Friendliness to the New Ruler.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Dr. Charles Hammer of Schenectady is an exceedingly well read and finely educated physician, who in his youth was a great traveller. He was born in Europe and prosecuted his medical studies there. He also spent a year at the University of Heidelberg. Dr. Hammer has frequently been brought into contact with the Imperial family of Germany and he says:

"I have never seen a more magnificent race than the Hohenzollerns, and the statement that a loathsome disease tainted their blood I have every reason to know is absolutely false. It is said that the present Emperor's shrivelled arm is the result of this taint, and that the monarch also suffers from abcesses in the interior of the ears. There is no truth in either assertion. I was in Berlin at the time the Emperor was born, and what happened then was discussed in every physician's office in the city and also embodied in the medical reports of the day. The unborn infant's left shoulder was dislocated. The fact was not discovered until several days later, when the right shoulder had grown properly, while the muscles of the left of course had not done so well. The dislocation was reduced, but the arm has never been quite as strongas its fellow. It is far from useless, however, and the slight shortening would scarcely be noticed. When on horseback the Emperor held the reins in his right hand on account of the weakness of his left, and it is only then that strangers are led to inquire if he has a physical defect. Some sickness did form some years ago, following scarlet fever, as is frequently the case, but in place the young man outgrew them, and is now as well and strong as almost any one could wish to be. The facts that I have stated are true of my own knowledge.

BERLIN, June 20.—The morning papers approved the Emperor's proclamation to the people, especially the sincere aims which he has set himself and the stress he lays upon his trust of the people and the attachment between the sovereign and the nation.

The Friendly Moscovite.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 20.—In political circles here the friendliest feeling is shown toward the new German Emperor, and the belief is expressed that he will continue the peaceful policy of his father, from which it is thought he can have no motive for deviating.

THE AYR ELECTION.

The Tories and Unionists Dismayed at the Result—A New Land Scheme.

LONDON, June 20.—The result of the Ayr election has again brought dismay to the allied forces of the Tories and Unionists. Never was a Parliamentary contest fought on clearer grounds nor could there be more unmistakable evidence that this part of Scotland at least favored the Irish Home Rule scheme of Mr. Gladstone. The election was contested on this basis almost solely as on other questions the candidates were nearly equal. The true significance of the victory for the Gladstonians lies in the undoubted fact that Scotland wants Home Rule herself, and evidently considers the best way to evince such a desire is to assist Ireland in her struggle for it. The usual outcry is made by the Tory press, and it is growing louder as each defeat brings home the unwelcome truth that Tory doctrines are losing their potency in the country. The Times leads the press in denouncing the lack of tactics exhibited by the Government managers of the election, and has become exceedingly anxious over the coming election in the Isle of Thanet division, the late Col. King-Harman's seat, where Mr. James Lowther, the Tory candidate, is making stupid speeches about disestablishment of the Irish Church and other equally dead issues. The election in this division will take place on the 29th. Mr. Knatchbull Hugheson is the Liberal candidate.

The Birmingham Post is out with a land scheme for Ireland on the basis of making the tenant the practical owner of his holding, subject to a moderate tax, and giving the present owner security on the marketable value of his land.

Major Tilton, Deputy Minister of Fisheries, stated yesterday that no extension of time for lobster fishing had been made, but of course he could not say what the new Minister of Marine and Fisheries would do. He was in favor of the present close season and a strict enforcement of the regulations as the only way to preserve the lobster fisheries, which would be hopelessly ruined if the packers were allowed to go on decimating the fisheries.

A PRESBYTERIAN PUZZLE.

The Deceased Wife's Sister Question Taken up the Assembly's Time Yesterday.

HALIFAX, June 20.—The Presbyterian General Assembly was occupied the entire morning and afternoon with the question of marriage with a deceased wife's sister. Finally Rev. Dr. Cochrane's resolution offering the position taken by the Assembly last year and transmitting the question back to the Presbyteries was passed by a vote of 30 to 24.

This leaves the matter practically where it was a year ago.

At the evening sederant the report on the state of religion, on the whole satisfactory, was received and partly adopted, but the committee had not wholly completed their work and the unfinished portion remains over till to-morrow.

The report of the Temperance Committee was received and discussed at length. The first clause was adopted, but the second, advocating prohibition, provoked opposition from Rev. D. J. Macdonnell of Toronto, who did not believe in prohibition and thought there was much to be said in favor of high license. He moved this counter resolution:

The assembly urged upon all members of the church in the capacity of citizens to use their utmost endeavors to secure the passage of such laws as shall tend most effectually to reduce the evils of intemperance.

Rev. Mr. Macdonnell was speaking in support of his resolution when the hour for adjournment arrived.

SUICIDE AT AYLMER.

A Father Charged With a Horrible Crime Shoots Himself to Avoid Arrest.

AYLMER, June 20.—G. W. Goodfellow, proprietor of the Aylmer roller flour mills, drew a revolver and sent a bullet through his brain yesterday when an officer attempted to arrest him on a charge of unnatural intimacy, extending over a period of four or five years, with his 15-year-old daughter Lilian.

The girl went to her aunt's in Buffalo a few days ago, leaving a letter to be given to her father declaring that she could endure the crime no longer, and this falling into other hands, Goodfellow having gone after her and brought her back here last week, disclosed the father's guilt.

REPUBLICAN DELEGATES.

TEN THOUSAND OF THEM AT THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

An Impressive and Picturesque Scene—Protection a Plank in the Platform—Fred Douglass Addresses the Convention.

CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, June 20.—When Chairman Jones, of the National Republican Committee, ascended the platform of the great Auditorium Hall at noon yesterday to call the National Convention to order, he looked upon a scene unparalleled in the history of public gatherings in this country. Larger assemblies have been held in more spacious halls, but at none have the scenic properties been so effective or the brilliancy of illumination and picturesque colorings been so splendid. Every face can be seen without effort and an audience of not less than 10,000 appears to be an almost countless multitude. The magnificent sweep of the great gallery alone, which seats nearly 3,000 persons, is a picture which impresses upon those familiar with great audiences and the whole scene bathed in a flood of electric light shed by 2,000 incandescent lamps, thrills even the most sluggish heart. The auditorium is 260 feet long and 180 wide, with two side balconies and a great gallery, the seats in which rise tier on tier at an angle of 40 degrees. The stage, which is but slightly raised above the floor of the hall, commands a view not only of the great audience above but of a large balcony in the rear and a tier of boxes at either side. The stage stretches from side to side of the hall and accommodates, in addition to the president's platform, which is in the centre, several hundred newspaper representatives.

There are just 5,100 seats in the hall, and as the convention is called to order probably 9,000 people are within the glance of Chairman Jones' eye. The decorations appear a trifle bewildering at first. The walls, ceiling and every post, pillar, and panel are covered with flags, bunting and streamers in varied artistic designs and colors, and portraits and paintings of historic scenes meet the eye everywhere.

Chairman Thurston's statement that Blaine denied us the privilege of supporting him in this Convention was greeted with cries of "No" and applause from the galleries. He said, "We dare not commit the political crime of disobedience in Blaine's express will." (Great and continued applause). He said that the great issue of the coming campaign is the tariff. A great many will rise to trample out for ever the pernicious doctrine of Free Trade. (Applause and cheers.) He prayed for another Moses to make the wanderings of the Republican party four years instead of forty.

A resolution of sympathy with Gen. Sheridan was adopted.

The roll was then called for the appointment of the members of the various committees. Nebraska presented the name of Gen. Fremont, which caused much enthusiasm. Gen. Fremont predicted victory under the banner of protection to American industries.

Fred. Douglas was called on and addressed the Convention briefly, merely expressing thanks for the welcome, and expressing the hope that the Convention will make such a record as to put it out of the power of the Democrats and mugwumps to say that they see no difference between Democratic and Republican parties in respect to his race.

CANADIAN AFFAIRS IN ENGLAND.

The Emigration of Paupers Discussed in the House of Commons.

LONDON, Eng., June 20.—In the House of Commons last night Mr. Bradlaugh drew the attention of the Board of Trade to the Toronto Trades and Labor Council's complaint that immigration of destitute laborers from Great Britain is encouraged by persons here describing themselves as Government agents. Sir Michael Hicks-Beach replied that he had seen newspaper reports, but the only quasi official position, held by an agent named Barlow, who was specially referred to, was that he had been appointed agent to several licensed brokers.

Colonial Credit.

LONDON, June 20.—The House of Commons discussed last night a resolution by Mr. Baden Powell, urging the value of colonial inscribed stocks for trust investments. Mr. Goschen said the Government desired to maintain colonial credit, but could not support the proposal as it was, as it directed the courts to discriminate between the values of colonial stocks. The matter must wait until a practical scheme is laid before the House. The resolution was withdrawn. It is understood the Government is likely to adopt the automatic plan proposed by Sir Charles Tupper.

The Belgian Elections.

BRUSSELS, June 20.—In the second ballots for members of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies, the Clericals gained all the eight seats in the Senate allotted to this city and retained the fourteen seats previously held by them in the Chamber of Deputies, besides gaining from the Liberals. The Clericals have a majority of 60 in the Chamber of Deputies and a majority of 37 in the Senate.

Henry Stanley Said to be Dead.

LONDON, June 20.—A rumor that Henry M. Stanley is dead is in circulation in this city. The County Crops.

A Promising Outlook All Round.

During the session of the county council, a representative of the EXAMINER made inquiries of the farmers representing the several townships in the council and secured information regarding the prospects for harvest. In almost every case the answers were encouraging, and the general prospect is that an average bountiful crop will reward the labors of the farmer this year. The townships may be more particularly dealt with as follows:—

ASPHODEL.

The general appearance of the crops is good. Hay will however be a light crop—no new meadows. Winter wheat looks fairly well. Spring wheat, oats, barley and peas are promising. The fruit crop is fairly promising, rain is not yet very badly needed but it would be an improvement.

BELMONT AND METHUEN.

The general appearance is good. Hay meets the general condition, it will be a light yield. Fall wheat is about half headed out and with favorable weather will give a good yield. Spring wheat, oats, peas and barley are looking well, though the barley got a touch of frost which did not do it any good. The fruit crop is excellent, there never having been better prospects of an abundant yield. Rain however is sadly wanted.

OTONABEE.

Very fair general appearance of the coming crop describes the condition in Otonabee, with one exception in the matter of hay which will be a light crop. Fall wheat is pretty fair, and pretty well headed out. Barley, oats, peas and spring wheat look well though the barley has been touched with frost, and may ripen unevenly. There has been very little rain; it is now badly needed and upon its abundance will depend largely the result of the later crops. The fruit crop is fair.

SMITH.

The general outlook in this township is ahead of that of last year. Old meadows promise a fair yield, new meadows, nil. Fall wheat is middling. Spring wheat, of which a large breadth is sown, is looking fairly well, as well as oats, barley and peas. Fruit promises well, especially small fruits which show signs of being an abundant crop. Rain is badly needed.

Ontario Mineral Exhibit.

Satisfactory Preparations Made by Mr. Blue—Prospects of an Excellent Exhibition.

Mr. Archibald Blue, who has charge of the exhibition of Ontario minerals at the Cincinnati Exposition, returned from that city last Saturday, where he definitely arranged for about 600 linear feet of space. The exposition authorities have allotted an exceptionally valuable space on the ground floor, adjoining the exhibit of their Federal Government, while several of the States' displays have been relegated to the galleries.

Specimens are coming in to Mr. Blue from all parts of the Province. The Beaver, Badger, East and West Silver Mountain and other Lake Superior companies have sent choice specimens of silver, zinc and other ores. Gen. Wild, secretary of the Rabbit Mining Company, also sends several valuable specimens. The Lake of the Woods district will contribute gold quartz, while the Sault Ste. Marie neighborhood will be represented by silver, lead, copper and iron ores. Madoc does the same, and the Canada Copper Co., of Sudbury, are sending a ton of copper ore. Kingston and Frontenac contributed phosphate, mica and other productions. Some private collections have been placed at the disposal of the Government, the largest being that of Mr. John Notman, Queen's Printer, which is considered to be one of the most extensive and valuable in the Province.

One of the prime movers in the Cincinnati Exposition is Mr. J. F. Nicholson, a former Canadian who collected the guarantee fund of a million and a quarter. Mr. Nicholson was born in Galt and served his time in the legal office of Mr. Thomas Hodgins, Q.C., in Toronto. He will be remembered by the lovers of sport as a prominent athlete and enthusiastic lacrosse player. He is now one of the leading wealthy men of the Southern city.

Mr. Blue will have his exhibit completed by the fourth of July, when the grand opening of the exposition will take place. The buildings cover ten acres, and it is expected that the exhibition as a whole will attract an immense number of visitors, most of whom will acquire new ideas of the extent of Ontario's mineral wealth.

Belmont.

During a recent thunderstorm in the township of Belmont, Mr. M. Switzer had a valuable grey stallion struck by lightning and killed, at the same time narrowly escaping death himself. He was using a span of horses in the fields, and took refuge in the stable from the approaching storm. The lightning struck the building, passed down the rafter and instantly killed the grey horse, which Mr. Switzer had just finished tying a moment before. The other horse was stunned, but after some time recovered, as well as Mr. Switzer, who was also severely stunned.

FROM THE QUEEN CITY.

A $500 Robbery—The Wilson Arrest—Two Election Petitions.

TORONTO, June 20.—Yesterday a package of bills amounting to $500 disappeared from Paying Teller Scott's box at the Dominion Bank. The detectives were informed of the occurrence but have made no arrests.

The Wilson arrest is still a fruitful theme, but the published rumors of action for criminal libel against the editors who disagreed with Magistrate Denison's dictum are not substantiated. The Methodist community would not mind a thorough sifting of the matter.

Dr. Daniel Wilson, President of Toronto University, has gone to Princetown, N.J., to be present at the inauguration of Rev. Dr. Patton, a graduate of Toronto University, as President of Princeton University.

Negotiations are in progress between the striking cigarmakers and manufacturers for the settlement of the dispute. It is understood that a joint meeting will be held shortly to discuss the situation.

Yesterday afternoon a young man walked into the detective office and announced that he wanted to give himself up. He stated that he was the man who shot Martin Farrell, the Island shooting-gallery keeper, who died from the effects of a gunshot wound received while plying his business at Hanlan's Point. The man gave his name as William Young, and lives in Parkdale. Last night he, with some companions, went over to the Island, and while taking in the sight began shooting at the gallery near Hanlan's. Young says the old man got in the way of the rifle just as it was discharged. When he saw the old man fall he became terrified and made away for the wharf, taking the boat to the city. This morning his good sense overcame his fear and he resolved to surrender himself.

Two petitions against M. P's. have been filed at Osgoode Hall. The return of Mr. Archibald Campbell, as member for Kent, is impeached on the ground of bribery personally and by agents. Charles Levere is the petitioner. The second petition is as to the recent election in Russell, against the return of Mr. Edwards. There is a cross-petition by Mr. Edwards against Mr. Mackintosh, the defeated candidate. Both parties charge personal bribery.

The Methodist Conference, after one of the most exciting sessions on record, wound up its business at the Metropolitan Church last night.

Bricklayers' & Masons' Union,

No. 12, Peterborough.

To the Architects and Builders of the Town of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN,—The members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 12, Peterborough, have decided to take no sub-contracts after the 1st day of June, 1888. We take this step, believing it to be to the interest of Architects and Proprietors of buildings, to deal directly with us, and not as heretofore, letting our branch of work to Carpenters, and then have them sublet it to us, frequently at a loss to owners of buildings through inferior material being used to secure the carpenter a profit. We therefore, consider it would be to the interest of all concerned, to have each trade control its own line of work.

Signed on behalf of the Union,
J. J. HARTLEY, President.
GEO. ROSE, Vice-President.
R. SHERRY, Secretary.
ADAM DAWSON, Treasurer.

Practice Economy

By taking advantage of the opportunity offered you to buy Superior Teas at Honest Prices from the undersigned.

You May Try

Everybody's Teas in Town and compare them with our Strictly Uncoloured Japan, English Breakfast, Oolong and Young Hyson and you will be convinced that none will suit your taste as well as ours.

To Buy Teas Right

Is something which requires close study and observation. The cultivation of a trained sense of smell, taste and inspection is needed, which takes a long time to acquire and many never can acquire it.

To Keep Teas Right

After they are bought is another thing which no one can succeed in doing unless he is an enthusiast in looking after the "small details" of the Tea trade.

The Unflagging Attention

We give to the Tea branch of our business has demonstrated the truth of the above, and our lengthened experience gives us confidence in guaranteeing superior qualities which we invariably handle. We pride ourselves in our Tea Trade.

Our Finest Coffee

We positively guarantee to be of finer aroma and greater strength than the coffee usually sold. The properties of coffee require great care and attention in order to retain its delicacy and purity. No one will be disappointed by using our Coffees regularly.

All Lovers

Of good Tea and Coffee know how easily both drinks may be spoiled on the stove. To secure the best results, therefore, a fair trial by the practical housekeeper is of course necessary to insure success.

Committed for Trial.

At the coroner's inquest at Lakefield Tuesday evening over the body of the dead infant, the girl Windsor was found guilty and a coroner's warrant for her commitment for trial made out. She is still at her employer's house and has been placed under arrest, but cannot yet be removed. The case will be handed over to the county crown attorney. As soon as the girl recovers sufficiently she will be brought down to gaol.

Cause and Effect.

The question of the hour is why people will put themselves so much about; why pass all the attractions along George street. Bankrupt stocks at 50c. on the dollar, and dollar for dollar, and goods for the mere asking, in fact, to be sent home in a wheelbarrow, and charge nothing for the sending. We ask again why is it that an appreciating public will pass all this and pursue the even tenor of their way till the noted cheap store, the last on the east side of George street—in other words, Sheppard's Big Bonanza Bargain House is reached. Cause and effect—the cheapest and best goods between Toronto and Montreal. d

Incendiary Attempt.

On Tuesday night about 11.30 another determined attempt was made to fire White's butcher shop, corner Simcoe and Aylmer streets. Old papers, etc., were placed under the seat of a wicker chair in the refrigerator room, soaked with coal oil and fired. Access was again gained by the back window. Mr. Geo. Hall, who lives opposite, was fortunately awake and smelt smoke. He broke open the shop door and he and Mr. W. McGregor put out the fire. It is difficult to understand what motive the incendiary can have. The building which is not of much value is uninsured.

To-morrow morning the train to Lakefield will stop at the Smith street bridge for the convenience of parties living in that neighborhood.

The Bathing Nuisance.

Loud are the complaints made every night regarding the bathing nuisance in Little Lake. Sensitive and respectable people are afraid to venture down to the lake. Crowds of naked boys and men nightly swarm the banks and piers, and their shameless disregard of the proprieties is wonderful to behold in this nineteenth century of advanced civilization. Owners of boats who delight in spending an evening on the water are deprived of the pleasure on this account. If Chief Roussel wishes to earn the unstinted gratitude of a long-suffering people, and have his name handed down to posterity as a public benefactor, he will endeavor to have the nuisance abated at once.

The Next Eclipse.

The next eclipse of the moon will occur on the night of July 22nd, and will be more interesting than the one on Jan. 28. The diameter of the earth's shadow will be much larger at the time in proportion to the diameter of the moon darkening its surface more during totality. It will take place about midnight when the moon will be higher in the heavens and will be visible in this neighborhood. But by far the most taking eclipse of all will be that in the clothing trade. The great Gough brothers intend, as they have done in the past, to eclipse all competition in their line of business. A look at their advertisement will show that they mean business. This will be an eclipse that will be of material benefit to the public; all are invited to call at their store and see for themselves.

Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education, and Prof. Galbraith have gone for a visit to educational centres in the United States. It is the purpose of Mr. Ross to establish departments of architecture and of mechanical engineering in connection with the School of Practical Science, and he goes across the line for points bearing upon each of these subjects. Mr. Ross states definitely that there shall be no side to advantage to our system of education, but that all classes of the population shall receive equal benefits and shall have the same encouragement and the same opportunity to get the very best training under the very best conditions. Mr. Ross will also inquire into the question of manual training, with a view to opening such a department in connection with the Model School. But whether or not he will make this departure will depend on what degree of success has attended efforts at manual training in the United States. Mr. Ross and Prof. Galbraith will visit New York, Boston, Yale and Lehigh and Cornell Universities, and will probably be absent for four or five weeks.

County Council.

June Session.

TUESDAY—(Continued.)

GRAND JUNCTION SUIT.

Owing to hurry in going to press yesterday we were unable to give Mr. Edwards, the county solicitor, remarks in full when addressing the council in reference to the settlement of the amount re the Grand Junction Railway suit:—

Mr. EDWARDS stated that he appeared before the council at their very first session to state the exact position of the matter so far as his client was concerned. At the January session the special sub-committee to whom it was referred had after meeting him and discussing the matter agreed to allow the amount of his claim as presented, but this had been reduced by vote of the Finance Committee and he (Mr. Edwards) had never assented to such reduction. After the January session he had collected the amount coming from Bickford and awaiting the action of the council at the June session had at once deposited the amount in a special account bearing interest, so that if it should be decided that the money belonged to the county they should have it at a moments notice with interest, but if it was decided to belong to Mr. Edwards he would have it with interest. It was true that a week ago last Saturday the Wardens had asked him to hand over the money, the Treasurer having a day or two before made the same demand, but he had replied that he would make his full report to the council at the session which was then only ten days distant. So far as his claim was concerned he thought the amount voted by the Finance Committee too low, but was satisfied with what was voted by the Sub-committee. They might think his claim to high, and they might be right or he might be right. In such case he recognised the fact that there was a fair difference of opinion, as he gave the members of the council credit for doing what they thought to be right. Without suggesting to the council what they should do in such case he said that so far as he was concerned he would be satisfied with either the result of a taxation or of a friendly reference to some independent person to decide between them. If that gave him the full amount of his claim covering the money in his hands, he felt sure the council would not grudge it to him; if it gave him no more than the vote of the Finance Committee, he would cheerfully acquiesce in it. In such case the matter could be easily settled in a week or ten days, and the moment it was settled, if it appeared that there was anything payable to the county, they would get it with interest. He thanked the council for giving him an opportunity to make this statement at their first session, as he felt it was due to them as well as to himself.

WEDNESDAY.

Council met at the usual hour this morning, the Warden in the chair, all the members present except Mr. Mansfield and Mr. Moher.

After routine, Mr. Burnham, chairman, presented the report of the special committee on

THE WARDEN'S ADDRESS.

The committee reported as follows:—

(1) Your committee join with the Warden in his anticipations of a favorable harvest. In no county are the crops more fairly promising than in Canada, and in no county are the prospects for the season more favorable than in the county of Peterborough.

(2) Your committee congratulate the county that the spring freshets caused so little damage to the county bridges and other property.

(3) Your committee recommend that the matter of the Sullivan bridge be referred to the Road and Bridge Committee and that the matter of the county solicitor be referred to the Finance Committee, where no doubt it will be satisfactorily explained and adjusted.

(4) Your committee further recommend that the question of paying the county engineer a fixed salary instead of by fees, as heretofore, be also referred to the Finance Committee.

(5) Your committee is pleased to observe the manner in which the Horticultural Society has beautified part of the Court House Park. The labors of the Society have been creditable and they are deserving of every reasonable support.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN BURNHAM,
Chairman.

June 20th, 1888.

MOTIONS.

Mr. Kidd moved, seconded by Mr. Finlay that permission be granted the council of Dummer to establish a public highway 40 feet wide on lot nine in 11th concession of Dummer and that the corporation seal of the county be attended to this resolution to give it the force of a by-law—Carried.

Mr. Burnham moved seconded by Mr. Casemen that the notice of registration of by-law 607 (debenture by-law) be published by the clerk in the Peterborough Review newspaper as required by law—Carried.

Mr Moloney moved, seconded by Mr. Sanderson, that the propriety of amending the by-law assuming all bridges of 100 feet and upwards in length, as county bridges, so as to assume only bridges on leading roads, be referred to the road and bridge committee—Carried.

Mr. Moloney explained that the object of the resolution was to define by by-law more clearly what roads were to be affected by it.

Council adjourned till Thursday morning.

Local Sports and Pastimes.

Cricket and Cricket.

The Peterborough-Belleville cricket match Tuesday afternoon was a complete Waterloo, the visitors being defeated by an innings and 116 runs. It was thought from the personnel of the Belleville team that a close match would result, as it comprised an old international player and two or three university graduates; besides there were several outsiders with them. Rev. Mr. Armstrong hails from Trenton, Tate from Campbellford, and others of the team from Brighton and Colborne, but the game was altogether one-sided. The bowling of the visitors was quite up to the average but they were weak at the bat; their sharp fielding was shown by their allowing only five extras in a score of 261.

The Peterborough's played a good all-round game. Ray's big score was made by rapid but steady play, with no chances. Day, Stratton, Hamilton and Macdonnell scored double figures by good play. Rutherford's bowling was particularly destructive, though Day and Stratton can also lay claim to a good share of the credit. Some fine batting was made, particularly those by Day, Ray and Stratton.

There was quite a number of spectators in attendance, including some ladies. The visitors were entertained at lunch on the grounds, and returned home on the 8.50 train. Following is the score:—

RECAPITULATION.

The Belleville cricket team was not a very Strong one. There were a few Bigger Fellows in it than in ours, some of whom appeared to be very Arm-strong; but though they cannot be said to have been Lader than their opponents, they did not do Yeoman's service at the bat. The ball was too often Tate-a-tete with their stumps. One of them, a sort of "doubting Thomas," acted like a frightened Dawe when he saw the ball coming. Another member, whose name is not Sinclair, was the Stringer of the club, inasmuch as his figures lent substantial support to the framework of their record.

GOOD, CLEAN CRICKET.

The clean off-the-bat tally of 122, made by Sam Ray on the cricket field on Tuesday, was the largest score ever made on the home grounds, and has only been equalled two or three times in Canada. The beauty of Sam's century, two score and two is that every run was earned, and not a single chance, in the two hours he held his wicket, was given. His example seemed to inspire the other members of the team, who, though not composing the first eleven, were in good batting form.

Aquatic.

A meeting of the Otonabee Canoe Club was held at the boat house Tuesday evening, when arrangements for the regatta on the 26th were completed. It was decided to have single, double, and four-paddle canoe races, confined to members of the club. Entries are to be made with the Secretary by Monday night. An aquatic tug-of-war and tournament were discussed, and it is likely one or both of these events will be placed on the programme by the committee appointed to carry it out. This committee will confer with the rowing club and draft a programme

Other business was done by the club. The secretary was instructed to notify Mr. Calcutt that his offer of a cup had been accepted and asking him to appoint dates for the races. The secretary was also instructed to have the boats in the club boat-house insured at once. Badges were ordered to be printed, with the emblem of the club, the cat rampant, impressed.

Spots of Sport.

The Silver Stars and Young Riversides, two junior lacrosse clubs, played on the central park grounds Tuesday evening, resulting in favor of the latter by 4 goals and 1. The Young Riversides were much smaller than their opponents but better players.

The Riverside lacrosse team went to Orillia to-day. May the best of luck attend them

Several of the shells of the Lansdowne Rowing club were taken out on the river Tuesday night by eager amateurs, the fire of whose ambition was speedily cooled by an upset and plunge in the cold water. They have learned that racing shells can't be fooled with.

At the Montreal races Tuesday Mr. H. C. Winch's "Sleepy Dan" did great work and took second money in the three minute race. He came in 1st, 3rd, 4th and 2nd respectively, in the 4 heats trotted. "Laprairie Girl" took first money. The telegraphic reports say "Sleepy Dan" ran in hard luck, as in the first and third heats his trace broke. In the first heat Mr. Winch, who drove, caught the trace in his teeth and held it down the home stretch for a quarter of a mile in that way. "Sleepy Dan" trots today in the butcher's race.

The Norwood lacrosse club was in town to-day. They went to Millbrook on the noon train, where they play this afternoon.

Otonabee.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Otonabee court of revision met on Monday 28th May, all the members present. The following appeals were disposed of:—George Nelson, assessment reduced $100; James Kelley, personal property $50; Benjamin Cooney, real estate, $200; Alex. Nesbitt, $500; John Grady, sr., $200; Hugh Maire, $500; Andrew Robertson, $200; Andrew Cameron, $300; J. M. Drummond, $200; John McDonnel, $680. Archibald Brooks, raised $100. Appeals from James Sennet, William Comrie and James Cooney were dismissed. The following names were added to the roll:—William McCrae, John McCamus, J. T. Grady, W. S. Grady, Hugh Cameron, James McLaren, John Lowry. Adam Thomson was assessed for west ½ lot 21, 12th concession.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Council met the same day, the Reeve in the chair. On motion of Mr. Anderson, seconded by Mr. Grady, the following persons were excused their statute labor, Mrs. Roach, James Armstrong, Miss Sinclair and James Doris.

R. McIntyre's account of $2 for cleaning hall, was passed.

A letter from the secretary of the P. P. Home, Peterborough, was received requesting aid for James Brickley. The clerk was instructed to write the secretary that the council do not consider themselves responsible for any aid as he is not a resident of Otonabee. Moved by Mr. Lancaster, seconded by Mr. Grady that the proposed new road at O'Brien's hill be made around said hill, through lots 27 in the 3 & 4 cons. and that Messrs. Anderson and Grady be appointed to get a survey made and John Brakenridge Esq. be appointed arbitrator on behalf of this council for the purchase of right of way through said lots. The following gentlemen were appointed pound keepers:—Alex. Weed, Alex Brookbank, George Reid, C. Brown, Thos. Thompson, Andrew Shearer, Jas. Duffer, Robert Jackson, Johnson Cooney, Dawson Kennedy, D. D. McIntyre, and for fence viewers, W. Learmouth, W. Armstrong, Jas. Hanlon, D. P. McFarlane, Z. Burnham, T. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER No. 106 Wall St., N. Y. (1y121 eod)

"Why, Mrs. Jawsome, how can you insinuate such a thing? I drunk or mad? I'm strong Scott Act. I know it's hard to believe, but Mrs. Buyalees, a regular prayer meeting woman she is, too, told me so with her own mouth—which is hardly strong enough for me—that she went traipsing up to Toronto with the Masonic excursion. She went through all the shops and price'd 'em all. She wanted to get a wedding present for Jane Jane Mosher who is going to marry that half baked gawk. Ben Stowit, and she was disgusted. She could do better at home. And she spent $1.15—$1.75 for hog tickets and nine cents for cabbage and a couple of rats, she got at a seven-cent store—she tore that old cashmere dress she's worn a life time, on the car steps—O my! where was I?—O yes! she went straight to China Hall when she got home and got a lovely china tea set for so much less than she could in Toronto, that it made up for her expenses to the city. And she says they have terrible fine and cheap dishes at China Hall, and as she says, says she, 'Dead loads of 'em, too.'"

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

MR. CHAPLEAU SAID TO HAVE BEEN APPOINTED POSTMASTER-GENERAL

Rumored Cooling Superannuations—Relief for the Hull Fire Sufferers—Mortuary Statistics.

OTTAWA, June 21.—The appointment of Hon. Mr. Chapleau as Postmaster-General, in place of Hon. Mr. McLelan, is said by friends of the Premier to have been as good as made, but it will not take effect until the begining of the new fiscal year.

The usual crop of rumors of superannuations have made their appearance and four deputy heads are mentioned as likely to be placed on the superannuation list after July 1: W. H. Griffin, Deputy Postmaster-General; James Johnston, Commissioner of Customs; Grant Powell, Under Secretary of State, and W. Smith, Deputy Minister of Marine. The rumor with regard to the first named gentleman is probably correct, but that with respect to the others is at least premature. Mr. Griffin is the senior deputy head, having been appointed Deputy Postmaster-General in 1857. He is one of the oldest if not the oldest employee in the service, having entered it fifty-seven years ago last April. It is understood that Lieut.-Col. White, Secretary of the Department, will succeed him.

It is understood that the Dominion Government will contribute $5,000 for the relief of the sufferers from the Hull fire. The same amount has been contributed by the Quebec Government, and private subscriptions in money and kind amount to about $30,000. There is a good deal of distress amongst those burnt out. Very few have commenced rebuilding, one reason being that it is expected that at the next meeting of the Council a by-law will be passed prohibiting the erection of wooden buildings. The church authorities have not yet got a settlement from the insurance companies, and consequently have not commenced rebuilding the church.

The Department of Public Works has relaid the cables connecting Grosse Isle quarantine station with the Island, of Orleans and so with Quebec. Instead of one cable, as used in previous years, two short cables have been laid and a land line built across the Isle aux Reaux. The two cables will be better protected from ice than the one previously used and it is believed it will not be necessary to take them up for the winter as has been done in former years.

Six dealers in the lower part of Ottawa County have lately been fined $5 each for non-payment of excise duty on Canadian tobacco, about 2,000 pounds of which was confiscated.

The Chaudiere lumbermen who are in arrears of rent for water power have made an offer to the Government to pay off the arrears and take new leases on new terms.

Statistics issued by the Department of Agriculture show the deaths for May in the principal cities: Montreal 502, Toronto 202, Quebec 176, Halifax 82, Hamilton 78, Ottawa 54.

Sir Hector Langevin and Hon. Mackenzie Bowell left last night for Napanee, where the former will lay the corner-stone of the new public building.

On Friday the corner-stone of the new public building at Trenton will be laid. The ministers will return on Saturday.

Hon. Mr. Thompson, Minister of Justice, will visit Kingston Penitentiary next week, where it is proposed to make extensive improvements which will take several years to complete.

UPRIGHT IN DEATH.

A Wealthy Farmer Shoots Himself Because of Unhappy Domestic Relations.

BEAMSVILLE, June 21.—John O. Henry, one of the most prosperous farmers in this vicinity, shot and killed himself yesterday. Henry's farm is about three miles east of the village, and is a magnificent property of 300 acres. On Tuesday Henry went to St. Catharines and settled up some business there. He also called on several persons in Beamsville and vicinity with whom he had business dealings, and requested them to call at once and settle with him. Yesterday morning a man named A. Everett, who had been working for Henry, had some dispute with him about a small sum of money which was due Everett. Henry was then in bed, and as Everett left, he said he guessed he'd get up and put on his pants.

Shortly after this Henry's son Stanley heard a loud explosion in the house, and when he went inside he found his father sitting bolt upright in a chair near the bed, unconscious and dying, with a bullet hole through his head and a revolver lying by his side. The ball entered the right temple and came out over the right eye, passing through the brain. Death occurred a very few minutes after the shot was fired. In the dead man's vest, which lay on the bed, was found $2000 in bank bills and his gold watch. An inquest will be held.

The reasons for the suicide are not far to seek. Mr. Henry was a man of violent temper and irritable disposition; he was a rather heavy drinker, and his domestic relations were unhappy. His wife and daughters have not been living at home recently.

SHAKING IN ITS BOOTS

EUROPE ALARMED AT GERMANY'S WARLIKE EMPEROR.

William II. making Things Hum—The Cognizant One Hugs Carrison—Sad Love Story of the Widow to the Mother.

BERLIN, June 21.—The uneasy feeling which has pervaded Europe is at its highest point in Berlin. A glance at newspapers shows the condition of things. In one column is a long despatch from St. Petersburg, which winds up with the statement that Russia will be on the alert and ill at ease until the young Emperor has shown his purposes concerning that country. There is a feeling of alarm in Vienna. The Tempa publishes an earnest, forcible article, admonishing the French politicians to sink their petty differences and recognize the portentious changes occasioned by the accession of the new German Emperor. One journal here has translated the leading articles of all the prominent London newspapers. They all predict war, the Standard asserting that the last barrier of peace in Europe was swept away by Frederick's death.

Telegrams from Rome say that the tone of the Emperor's proclamation to his army and navy leaves no doubt but the days of peace are over. From every European centre the story is the same. Here in Berlin the talk is war. Every officer in the army is eager for it, and overtaxed people, remembering the milliards that came in such a welcome shower from France, look forward to another period with relief. The vast schemes of ambition that are heard in Berlin on all sides are based mainly on the near prospect of a great military struggle. One thing is certain, there must be some sort of a climax to the present condition of things.

I have travelled a good deal over the face of Europe recently, but nowhere was I able for a moment to forget that four great nations were sapping their vital sources while they worked with feverish earnestness in preparation for the inevitable struggle. Europe to-day is a huge garrison. At Nancy, near the French frontier, 30,000 soldiers are at work night and day building works and drilling. At Strasburg a similar number of professional fighters are hard at it. In Vienna the entire male population is apparently in uniform. In Paris the people worship a demagogue because he is believed to awe the Germans. In Berlin the talk is war first, last and for ever. In Russia the war party is in the ascendant, and Great Britain is in a panic because she has just discovered that she is at the mercy of the great Continental powers.

All over Europe the railroads are run by soldiers, the telegraph system is a part of the military service and the mails are handled by men of arms. Every discussion in cafe, garden or club is reduced to one mighty question of war. It slumbered while the peace-loving Frederick quietly drifted away, but an hour after his soldier son had [illegible], control of the nation that whole of Europe was [illegible].

There is no question of the great power of the new ruler, for the army and people follow him with a species of blind devotion unparalleled in other parts of the world. One portion of his fiery address to the army is reprinted constantly. It is this: "We belong to each other, I and the army. Thus we are born for one another, and thus we will stand together in an indissoluble bond in peace or storm as God may will."

The prospects of the country have changed, for the greatest army in the world is now not under the command of an octogenarian or a peace-loving Emperor, but has for its leader an Emperor whom it adores, and who is, above everything else, a born soldier.

A large number of deathbed anecdotes and last sayings of the late Emperor should be taken with a large substantial grain of salt, for his Majesty could neither speak nor write during the closing days of his unhappy life. "His eyes talked, but that was all, and his one wish at all times was to have his royal consort near him. When she was by, he was content to await the inevitable end. The love and devotion of the Empress were beautiful to behold. She was the solace and comfort of the Emperor in death, as she had been his dearest and constant friend in life. To-day I had a long talk with Dr. Peschus, the spiritual adviser of the late Emperor. Dr. Persius conducted the services in the church last night, and was with various members of the royal family until late at night.

Concerning his late Majesty he added:—"I have, perhaps, had better opportunity than any one else to study his character. I must say that to me his most prominent characteristic was his gentleness and breeding. He was a famous soldier, a just ruler, but, above all, he was a true, honest gentleman. No higher type of man has ever lived, for his smallest thoughts were noble and pure. It was because of this that her Majesty the Empress requested me to read the service from the text, 'Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.'" The Emperor took the holy communion on Holy Thursday. His death was utterly painless. His last two days were passed in a serene contemplation of the future.

The Imperial widow will go to Switzerland for the purpose of recuperating her health, after which she will take up her residence at Wilemshone Palace, near Cassel. It was in this palace that Napoleon III. was held a prisoner after Sedan. It was left to the Empress by the will of William I. The opinion that the Empress will spend most of her time in England, though nominally living in Germany, is generally entertained. In the coffin of the dead Emperor her Majesty placed a small gold chain, to which three lockets were attached, containing miniatures which she had always worn until his last illness.

The royal widow's despatch to the Emperor's mother who was at Baden when her son died, was as follows:

"She, who was so happy and proud to be his wife, weeps with you poor mother, for the loss of thy only son. No mother ever possessed such a son. Be calm and strong in thy grief. Even in his last moments he sent greetings to thee."

At 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning after the previous day a unexampled hardship and exertion, the Emperor mounted his favorite horse, galloped into the woods back of Potsdam, accompanied by a single aide and for two hours he rode at a hard fast pace that would have worn another man out; but when the young monarch returned he bounded to the ground, and remarked that he felt rested and refreshed. It was his way of dispelling fatigue.

BLAKELY HALL.

John Dillon Jailed.

DUBLIN, June 20.—The appeal of John Dillon from the sentence of six months' imprisonment for violation of the Crimes Act has been heard and the sentence confirmed. Mr. Dillon was taken to Dundalk jail and imprisoned. On the route to the prison he was heartily cheered. An address was presented to Mr. Dillon signed by 180 members of the House of Commons, resenting the policy of sending him to unmerited imprisonment and expressing the hope that his sojourn in prison would be made less bitter by the knowledge that sympathy for him was not confined to Ireland.

A GIRL'S SAD FATE.

Grace Allen dies from an Abortion—A Negro gets the Lash.

TORONTO, June 21.—At the Central Prison yesterday Benjamin Graham, the negro who committed a brutal outrage on two little colored girls, received the first instalment of ten lashes on the back. During the administration of the flagellation he betrayed considerable cowardice, and at time bellowed like a bull. The cat was wielded by a prison guard. He will receive a second instalment in three months.

Mr. Robert Quinn, the new freight agent of the G.T.R. at Hamilton, was presented writ an address and service of plate by the local lumber dealers, and later on with a gold chain and an address by the grain section of the Board of Trade.

Bond-street Congregational church has flourished so well under Dr. Wild that they are going to get an assistant minister for the prophet. A call has been extended to Rev. C. O. Johnson of Hamilton, the salary to be $2,500.

Notice of appeal has been served against the police magistrate's decision in the Wilson-Jarvis case.

The weather here is very sultry. Yesterday Mrs. Frank Samo was prostrated by a sunstroke. Mrs. Samo is in a bad condition.

A girl who gave her name as Grace Allen died at the General Hospital yesterday morning from the effects of an abortion. The hospital authorities say that she was brought there by order of Dr. Charles Cook. She had been boarding at 112½ King-street west, and Dr. Cook was called in on Tuesday morning, when he saw at once that the condition of the unfortunate girl was critical. A consultation was held after the abortion was had, but nothing could be done for her. Before dying and in the presence of several witnesses she asserted that she had committed the abortion herself and that no one else was implicated. She said farther that she had come from Buffalo a fortnight before.

The Methodist Conference Committee on the State of Work presented a report the other day in which the game of baseball was included as being among such causes of sin as the theater, the saloon, the dance and card playing. But Conference objecting to the baseball business, referred the report back, and the Committee again reporting referred only to the betting and gambling attendant upon the game. As a proof that some ministers are fond of the game, it may be mentioned that five of the cloth were counted at the Indianapolis-Toronto match on Tuesday.

Two boys, aged respectively 8 and 7 years, were drowned in the Don last night. They were the sons of N. Perreault and Lewis Forrest.

GERMANY'S FOREIGN POLICY.

No Cause for Alarm—Peace Desired by the New Emperor.

BERLIN, June 21.—The Post declares that there is no foundation for the idea that a change will be made in the German policy adverse to Russia. French fears, it says, are also baseless. The moon is more likely to visit the earth than the German Emperor to dream of attacking France only to earn laurels. Germany wished nothing from France but to be let alone. As soon as the French see this conditions will exist for perpetual peace and friendship. At the same time the tone of the Emperor's proclamation may well serve to remind elements unfriendly to Germany, whether in the east or the west, in a manner perhaps not agreeable to them, of the Hohenzollern way of waging war, and make clear to them that any unjust attack upon Germany will meet the fate of the French attack of 1870. The Emperor will wield his sword like his glorious ancestors, but only in defence of the Fatherland against unjust attacks.

A Pesth despatch says The Pesther Lloyd thinks William's proclamation much resembles the programme of Pastor Stocker.

Emperor William has telegraphed to President Carnot of France thanking him for his message of condolence on the death of Emperor Frederick, and expressing the hope that the good relations now existing between France and Germany may continue.

The Emperor Will Command.

BERLIN, June 21.—It is stated that the Emperor will declare his intention of taking personal command of the autumn manœuvres. The Emperor will personally reopen the Reichstag and Landtag. He has ordered that memorial services be held in all universities, colleges and schools throughout the Empire on June 30.

The Czar looks for Peace.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 21.—The Czar has declined to sanction the proposal of Gen. Vannovski, Minister of War, that the number of battalions be doubled on the ground that the proposed increase would be too severe a burden on the financial resources of the Empire, and because the present political situation in no wise justifies such a measure.

Why the Russian Press is Optimistic.

BERLIN, June 21.—The Tagblatt says the fact of there being a censorship over the press in Russia positively forbade the newspapers expressing pessimistic views on the accession of Emperor William II.

The Presbyterian General Assembly is to meet next year in St. Andrew's church (west) Toronto.

The County Crops.

A Promising Outlook All Round.

BURLEIGH, ETC.

The general appearance of the crops is very promising. Hay will be a good crop. Fall wheat also. All spring crops are promising. Fruits promise well. This township has had abundant rains and has the best crop report of any township in the county.

DUMMER.

This township also has a good present showing. Hay is a good crop. Fall wheat is not looking so well as it did earlier in the spring; it does not show an even growth. Spring wheat, oats, barley, peas are full of promise. Fruits are abundant, and there has been a good supply of rain.

DOURO.

General appearance good, but spring crops need rain badly, and hay will be light, rain or no rain. Winter wheat is variable, on heavy soils it is not "stooling" out. All spring crops will be good if the rain comes. Fruit is good—apples never better.

NORTH MONAGHAN.

So far, the general appearance is promising. Hay is light. Both fall and spring wheat good. Barley is promising; oats will depend on rain which is badly needed all round. Fruit is only an average crop.

ENNISMORE.

General outlook fair, the color of grains is healthy. Hay is light. Fall wheat not extra, some good fields and some ploughed under. Spring wheat not as good as last year, other spring grains promising—Fruit, good prospects. Rain needed very much.

HARVEY.

Present general appearance, good. Hay will be a light cut. Fall wheat is a better crop than last year—a larger breadth sown. Spring wheat fair, a large acreage of oats promises well, other spring crops good, fruit good. Rain needed.

The present indications are generally favorable, but very much depends on the rain which is generally badly needed.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The concert here on Friday evening last in aid of the school was a marked success. The entertainment consisted of solos, duetts, quartette, choruses, recitations, tableaux and club swinging.

The Hastings Glee Club were in attendance, and great credit is due them for the manner in which their selections were given. Two of them, the "A.B.C. Quartette" and "Fortune Telling," were particularly pleasing. Fancy club swinging by Miss Lilly Tait and Mr. E. Beavis, and illuminated club swinging by Mr. Beavis alone, was very entertaining. No trouble was experienced by the chairman, Mr. Mark, to maintain good order throughout the evening, as all seemed anxious to hear everything.

Mr. Peake of Havelock gave "The Irish Philosopher" (Recitation) and by request "A school-boy's rendition at an exhibition of the first two stanzas of Bingen on the Rhine." He deservedly received an encore but owing to lateness of hour did not respond. The school gave several kindergarten songs which were well received. Tableaux "The Happy Home," "The Happy School," and "Tired Out" were highly appreciated, the lights being prepared by Dr. Shaw of Keene. God Save the Queen closed a very pleasant evening. Receipts $20.

Indian River.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

A grand picnic, under the auspices of a citizen committee, will take place in Mr. John O'Grady's Grove, one mile south of the Indian River station on the C.P.R., on Monday, July 2nd. A grand time is anticipated.

The various pathmasters in this vicinity are doing their work most satisfactorily.

A bad, dangerous hole on the main street, in front of the town clock grocery, was filled up last week.

Mrs. Canham, wife of our former agent, is visiting old friends and scenes here. She says there are great changes here—our village is growing so fast. Mr. Canham is agent at Moss-road now.

The crops in this section look splendid at present; another good rain, and an abundant harvest is certain. The farmers, as yet, have no reason to grumble.

Mr. John Lynch, of Dummer, lost a valuable steer on a railway crossing one mile east of here, one morning last week; the engine struck it, throwing it about 50 yards.

Young's Point.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

TO LINDSAY.—The steamer "Fairy took a scow load of iron to Lindsay on Thursday for Mr. A. Ross.

FIRE.—The residence of Mr. James Nugent, 12th concession of Smith, was consumed by fire on Wednesday of last week and all the contents burned. The family were absent at the time and the fire is supposed to have originated from a spark on the roof. Unfortunately there is no insurance.

BASEBALL MATCH.—The employes of Mr. C. Young's saw and shingle mills have challenged the remainder of the club to play them a game at an early date, which has been accepted. The game will be played on a Saturday evening or on Dominion Day, if no other game is on hand.

LAFLAMME V. THE MAIL.

The Court of Appeal Sustains the $10,000 Verdict against the Ex-Organ.

MONTREAL, June 21.—In the Court of Appeal the long pending case of Hon. R. Laflamme v. The Toronto Mail was decided, the verdict of the court below granting $10,000 to the plaintiff and dismissing a motion for an arrest of judgment and a new trial was confirmed. Judges Church and Baby dissented on the ground that the damage awarded was excessive, but the majority of the court were against them.

Chief Justice Sir A. A. Dorion stated that there had been animus and malice in the accusations prepared by the Mail. The court had no right to disturb the verdict. A new trial would therefore not be granted.

An appeal to England will likely be taken.

RECKLESS WITH HIS REVOLVER.

Willie Burchell of Clinton Found Dead From a Bullet Wound.

CLINTON, June 21.—About noon yesterday while three little boys were passing through Gibbing's Grove they saw a young man lying on the ground. Supposing him to be asleep they passed on but on their return they passed closer and saw blood and that he had been shot.

It proved to be Willie Burchell, a young man of about 23 years. He was quite dead, with his revolver in his hand. It is supposed that it had gone off accidentally and killed him. He was in the habit of going there to practice with the revolver and had been seen tossing it about rather daringly.

Deceased was a nephew of W. Doherty of the Doherty Organ Co.

The Prairie Province.

WINNIPEG, June 21.—A party of surveyors under charge of G. A. Payne, left this morning to locate the railway line from this city to Portage la Prairie via the route south of the Assiniboine River.

Drowned While Bathing.

DRESDEN, June 20.—Matthew Crister, the 8-year-old son of Irasl Calster, was drowned last evening while bathing in the river.

How Intelligent Women Decide.

When the question has to be met as to what is the best course to adopt to secure a sure, safe and agreeable remedy for those organic diseases and weaknesses which afflict the female sex, there is but one wise decision viz., a course of self-treatment with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is an unfailing specific for periodical pains, misplacement, internal inflammation, and all functional disorders that render the lives of so many women miserable and joyless. Bricklayers' & Masons' Union,

No. 12, Peterborough.

To the Architects and Builders of the Town of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN,—The members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 12, Peterborough, have decided to take no sub-contracts after the 1st day of June, 1888. We take this step, believing it to be to the interest of Architects and Proprietors of buildings, to deal directly with us, and not as heretofore, letting our branch of work to Carpenters, and then have them sublet it to us, frequently at a loss to owners of buildings through inferior material being used to secure the carpenter a profit. We therefore, consider it would be to the interest of all concerned, to have each trade control its own line of work.

Signed on behalf of the Union,

NO ADVANCE MADE.

The Republican Convention Enters up Another Day with Preliminaries.

CONVOCATION HALL, CHICAGO, June 21.—When the Convention opened yesterday morning Mayor Roche, on behalf of the citizens of Chicago, presented to Chairman Estes a gavel made of gold and silver and diamond mounting.

The Convention then voted to effect perfect organization. Gov. Foster of Ohio, G. R. Sloan of New York, and M. D. Foley of Nevada were made a committee to escort Chairman Estes to the platform. The Chairman spoke briefly, referring to the Oregon election of two weeks ago. Reeke of Illinois then took the platform and presented a solid silver and gold gavel to the Convention. Works of Illinois then presented to the chairman a gavel made of the wood from a desk in a tannery in Galena belonging to Grant. Received with applause.

Under the rules adopted the reports of the Committee on Credentials and platform and the naming of members of the National Committee must be acted upon before presentation and balloting for candidates begins.

At the evening session the convention adopted a resolution of sympathy with Germany by a standing vote. Resolutions of respect to Grant, Arthur Logan, and Conkling were also adopted unanimously.

The Excursion Over the T. V. C. Waters.

Over 100 excursionists and the members of the county council went to Lakefield this morning on the special excursion over the Trent Valley Canal waters. They return to-night via Lindsay. To-morrow morning the excursion starts in the opposite direction, going, via G.T.R., to Lindsay, where the party will take the steamer "Cruiser," and bring them back over the same delightful chain of waters to Lakefield, and from thence by rail to town. Parties who failed to procure tickets this morning should apply for them as early as possible this evening.

Cause and Effect.

The question of the hour is why people will put themselves so much about; why pass all the attractions along George street. Bankrupt stocks at 50c. on the dollar, and dollar for dollar, and goods for the mere asking, in fact, to be sent home in a wheelbarrow, and charge nothing for the sending. We ask again why is it that an appreciating public will pass all this and pursue the even tenor of their way till the noted cheap store, the last on the east side of George street—in other words, Sheppard's Big Bonanza Bargain House is reached. Cause and effect—the cheapest and best goods between Toronto and Montreal. d

Saturday's Circus.

Howe's circus will exhibit in Peterborough on Saturday and Monday. The St. Thomas Times says this new enterprise cost nearly $50,000 to bring it to the state of perfection it was in. There will be a street parade, and afterwards the exhibition will open. Mexican cowboys and indians will ride broncbos and Texas ponies; the slack wire and trapeze will be performed upon; trained pigs and dogs will play all kinds of funny tricks; in the concert tent the audience will be charmed with music, trained horses, funny clowns and all the features of a unique and complete show.

How They are Thought of.

The Kingston Whig in its notes on the Gananoque military camp says:—"The Durham field battery is the best in Canada. There are more military school men in it than any three detachments. The horses are strong animals, the best the battery ever had. This year there is a full force of men and horses—74 non-commissioned officers and men, and 29 horses, officered as follows:—Major McLean, commanding; Capt. Sanderson, Lieuts. Mulligan and Twigg, and Surgeon T. G. Brereton. Last year the battery won more prizes than any other in the Dominion."

A Gymnasium for Peterborough

A well-regulated and equipped gymnasium has long been a recognised public want in Peterborough, but no one has as yet had the enterprise to establish one. It is probable, however, that this winter will witness the realization of the hopes of many who have been longing for such a place of recreation. It is understood Sergt.-Major Rundle is negotiating for a suitable place and proper material, and if he receives sufficient encouragement the scheme will be carried out. There is no doubt such an institution would flourish in Peterborough, and, if properly conducted, as it would be under Sergt.-Major Rundle, would be libe ally patronized by the best people.

The Dominion Day Celebration.

For those who remain in Peterborough on Dominion Day a rare celebration is promised. The fire brigade have taken hold of the demonstration with a will, and they are bound to make it the biggest affair of the kind in the district. The large posters are out and have been distributed through the town and country, from which a good idea can be gained of what they propose doing. The Kalithumpian and cavaliers procession in the afternoon, followed by horse races between wild Indians, trotting races, etc; the display of fireworks by Prof. Palmer of Rochester in the evening; the fox and bear hunts, balloon ascension and other features go to make up a programme unexcelled for variety and magnitude in the district.

A Rare Chance

Miss Harper has instituted special summer classes for instruction in shorthand, of which public school pupils and teachers should take advantage during summer holidays. Miss Harper is a recognized first class teacher, a graduate of the Toronto Shorthand Bureau, and her rates are most reasonable. Apply to her at the Mechanics Institute building for information.

The Sun an Incendiary.

The Chemist and Druggist (London) records the fact of a chemist shop just opened at 16 High street, with show bottles in the windows, which acting as a burning glass, set fire to the store. It was discovered before much damage was done, but serves as another warning against placing show bottles where the sun can reach them in show windows.

Hot Water for Ivy Poisoning.

A correspondent in Scientific American writes as follows:

Let me add my testimony as to the efficacy of hot water in curing the poison by ivy. The best way of applying it is to keep a spirit lamp under the tin containing the water, and apply the water as hot as the skin will bear. The sensation of relief from the intolerable itching is so immediate and so complete that it is almost worth while to be poisoned by ivy to experience it.

He Made Them Scatter.

P. C. Adams was down on Little Lake last night after offenders against the swimming by-law. None were captured, but they scattered quickly. Boys, the older ones especially, ought to have decency enough to at least wear trunks. It would be better if they were to wait until dusk before bathing. The Ashburnham authorities are the only ones who can see that the law is enforced, as our police have no jurisdiction on the other side of the river.

A Grocers Agreement.

During the hot summer months a number of down town grocery stores will observe an early closing agreement made between themselves. Messrs Elliott & Tierney, Rush Bros., W. J. Morrow, M. Carton and Garvey Bros., will hereafter close at 8 p.m. except on Saturday nights. The early closing is not compulsory, but the parties to the agreement have decided to set the example and hope the others will fall into line. These, with the metropolitan, are the only grocery stores in town who close early.

The Boy Forger Dismissed.

Young Charlie Butterworth was brought before the magistrate this morning and discharged upon condition that he appear when called on to receive sentence. This is practically a complete dismissal, for if his conduct in the future is satisfactory he will never be punished for his attempted forgery. He was taken in charge at the police court this morning by a gentleman from one of Miss MacPherson's Homes. He will be taken in hand again, and, if possible, a better boy made of him.

Canadian Bicycle Meet.

The great Canadian bicyle meet at Belleville, July 2nd and 3rd, will be one of the events of the year. It is expected over 800 wheelmen will participate. On July 2nd the races will be held, and it will be a day of record breaking. An excursion, under the auspices of the P.A.A.A., will be run to Belleville via G.T.R. on that day. The train will leave Peterborough at 8:30 a.m. and intermediate points at schedule hours. The fare for the round trip from Peterborough is only $1.10.

Service of Praise.

The regular weekly prayer meeting in St. Paul's church Wednesday night was supplemented by a specially prepared service of praise in the church. A number of sacred anthems were beautifully rendered by the choir, Mr. Parker accompanying on the organ. A solo by Miss Vair, and quartettes in which Misses Vair and Cameron and Messrs. Jones, Crane and Dundas were also rendered. The attendance was fair, and those present greatly enjoyed the treat.

The Highlands of Haliburton

Newnham., the delightful summer resort at Haliburton, opens its fifth season with new attractions to those desirous of spending the heated term in cool seclusion in a delightful retreat, combining within its bounds forest and lake, meadows and cows' milk, and wild fruit, comfort and economy in happy combination. The rates for guests during July and August are $5 per week, children under 12 half rates. Full particulars of the specific beauties of the surroundings of Newnham, on application to Mrs. Stewart, Newnham, Haliburton. deod4t-w2

One Year Ago.

A year ago to-day the Queen's Jubilee was celebrated throughout the British kingdom. Every city, town and village in Canada added its quota to the general rejoicing over the completion of a half century's beneficent reign, and Peterborough was not behind in a practical display of loyalty with the rest. It was a gala day. Union Jacks, miniature and monster in size, formed a conspicuous feature of the decorations. Almost every place where it was practicable a flag was hoisted in honor of the event. George street was a fluttering mass of color and brightness. Among other places, the EXAMINER office windows were filled with Union Jacks, and two of them still remain in position, faded and frayed, about the only ones in town that have "stood the battle and the breeze" for a year. They are a memento of the loyalty of Peterborough's citizens to their sovereign.

The Danger Before Us.

We have already alluded to the importance of housekeepers paying more attention to the kind of baking powder used in leavening their bread. This is a matter to which we cannot draw attention to often, because it involves the most serious consequences to the general body of mankind. Temperance apostles tell us—and there is ample foundation for the statement—that there is disease, both moral and physical, in the intoxicating cup; but certain is the lime and alum leavening agents employed in many of the homes on this continent.

No punishment is too severe for those manufacturers who place these poisonous alum and lime baking powders before the public with the assurance that they are pure and wholesome articles. In the belief of the truth of such statements such baking powders are largely used in the preparation of food, and in this way poisonous ingredients are taken into the system, without a suspicion of their presence. By and by some spells of headache, distress in the stomach, loss of appetite, a fluttering of the heart; the child is seized with an apparently causeless cough. The coating of the stomach is destroyed, perhaps; one of the vital organs is rendered almost useless; the kidneys are attacked with Bright's disease. The health of the child is irreparably broken down; the adult becomes a chronic invalid. These are the doings of the modern cheap baking powders, that are composed of lime and alum, or that contains sulphuric or phosphatic acid.

In view of these facts surely all housewives should exercise the care that is, we know, now exercised by some in the selection of a proper brand of baking powder. She who does not do so whether the neglect is the result of ignorance or recklessness, cannot free herself from the responsibility for the health, perhaps life, thereby endangered. No housewife need be ignorant of the quality and composition of the article which she uses to leaven her bread, biscuit and cake. The official reports of the government chemists, who are certainly unprejudiced, have been published and show very clearly the quality and strength of all the baking powders in the market. The Royal Baking Powder, which is accessible at every hand, is reported absolutely free from lime, alum, posphatic acid, or any injurious ingredient. It is further stated by the most eminent authorities on food hygiene that food leavened with it is more wholesome than when raised by any other method. Its use is therefore to be commended. It is to be regretted that no other baking powder, when there are so many in the market, some of which will find their way into use, is free from all of these substances.

The official analysts assure us, however, that all except the Royal contain either lime or alum. The housekeeper who regards the health of her loved ones should not only order the Royal, but make personal examination to be sure that no other brand is sent her in its place.

Literary Notes.

LITTLE MEN AND WOMEN—for July is an exquisite number, and happy is the home where children be which is brightened by its visits. The reading is full of interest and appeals with the most charming directness to the hearts and expanding intellects of our little men and women. Children, in their degree, are as much entitled to entertaining and instructive literature, and no adult has a brighter, racier or more instructive magazine than the fraternal reader of "Little Men and Women." Ten cents a number—$1.00 per year. Boston—D. Lothrop & Co. Sample copies on application, 5 cents.

BRYCE'S LATEST PUBLICATIONS—Two popular novels, "Eve," by S. Baring Gould, and "Dr. Glennie's Daughter," by that fine Dickensesque writer, R. L. Fargeon, have been issued. Both are high class fiction, neatly printed in clear type on good paper, and make pleasant reading for the camper or excursionist. Toronto—Wm. Bryce. Price, 40 cents and 25 cents respectively.

The Dead Prelate.

At the Month's Mind in commemoration of the late Archbishop Lynch at Toronto Wednesday, His Lordship Bishop Dowling and Rev. Father Conway were present. St. Michaels cathedral, which was heavily draped, was crowded, and after mass had been said the panegyric was preached by his Lordship, Bishop Dowling of Peterborough, who reviewed the life of the deceased prelate, and spoke in feeling terms of the loss the Church had sustained in his death. After the sermon Bishop Dowling administered the absolution. The clergy of the diocese and from surrounding dioceses were present in full numbers. The music was Gregorian and grand, there being two choirs, one of priests in the sanctuary and the regular choir of the cathedral in the gallery. The chants were sung antiphonally. After the mass Rev. Father Laurent entertained the clergy present at dinner in the palace. This morning at nine o'clock another requiem mass was celebrated, at which the children of the various schools and societies were present.

Decoration Day Notes.

Ladies who can donate flowers for the ceremonies next Tuesday are requested to leave them at either of the lodge rooms, or for Otonabee Lodge at Mr. A. Mercer's store, and for Peterborough Lodge at Mr. Harry Long's. The lodge rooms will be open from 9 a.m. on Tuesday for the reception of flowers. Flowers last longer by being cut and placed in water over night.

The brethren will meet at their respective lodges at 2 p.m. sharp, to receive their badges. Order of procession will be formed in Central Park. Visiting brethren are invited to take part in the beautiful ceremony.

It is not the intention of the committee this year to apply for the proclamation of a half holiday, but they would accept it as a personal favor if all the merchants will give their employes the afternoon.

Canton Peterborough Patriarchs Militant, under Capt. McNeil, and headed by the Fire Brigade Band, will lead the procession.

Masonic.

Mr. B. Shortly, D.D. G. M. paid an official visit to Corinthian Masonic Lodge last night, and was received with full honors. A large number of the brethren greeted the officer on this his last visit prior to the meeting of the Grand Lodge. Mr. Shortly during his term of office has been an able and efficient district deputy, and he might very well exercise his energy towards securing the next meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge at Peterborough. There is no doubt they would be handsomely entertained by the citizens of Peterborough, and no better place for the next meeting could be chosen.

Hymeneal.

A pleasant hymeneal event transpired at the Fife block, George street, Wednesday evening, when Mr. S. J. Hillier was married to Miss S. A. White by Rev. P. C. Parker. Mr. John Dawson was groomsman and Miss Hillier bridesmaid. The bride was attired in a lovely blue and white plush dress. There were about forty guests present, whose gifts to the bride were numerous and valuable. A sumptuous dinner was partaken of and a pleasant evening spent together by the company. Mr. and Mrs. Hillier will reside in the house where they were married.

A Cat's Bite.

On Tuesday evening Mr. M. Mowry, an employee of the Agricultural Works of Mr. Peter Hamilton, was bitten by a cat. The wound has become very painful. The cat had been eating his small chickens, and that evening he found it on the roost in the henhouse. He went to lay his hand on the animal, when it clawed and bit him severely. Mr. Mowry poulticed the cuts, but the swelling increased, and now he is compelled to quit work for a few days. It is hoped he will soon be right again.

PRICES shorn of profits; critical taste satisfied, and everybody pleased with the groceries at The Pantry.

Local Sports and Pastimes

The Orillia Match.

The Riverside Lacrosse club did better than was expected of them at Orillia yesterday. They played the Orillias, who last year played against the Toronto champions and were narrowly defeated, a hard game, and were defeated by a single goal. They are confident that had the time been longer they would been victorious, as the Orillia's were getting fagged.

There was only about an hour and a half play. The Orillias had to wait for one of their men, and, though it had been agreed to play from 2 till 4, much of that time was wasted. The Riversides had to leave at that hour for home, so game had to be called

After just 40 minutes play, the Orillias scored a goal, and after a few minutes' rest the game was proceeded with, but no more goals were scored. The Riversides all played well, and are proud of the stand they made against the Orillias. Nine of the team on Wednesday played in the team against Toronto last year. The Riversides hope to reverse the result on the return match. The game Wednesday was almost free from slugging. The teams were:

Spots of Sport.

Whitby cricket club plays here July 13th.

The Lock Works and West End baseball clubs completed their series of games last night, the score being 10 to 8 in favor of the former. The score of the first match was, West End 4, Lock Works 3; 2nd match, West End 7, Lock Works 8; 3rd match, West End 8, Lock Works 10; total, West End 19, Lock Works 21.

A well contested game of lacrosse was played at Millbrook, between the Norwood and Millbrook teams, resulting in a victory for the home team by three goals to 0.

A practice match will be held to-night at seven o'clock, on the P.A.A.A. grounds between the Peterborough and West End baseball clubs.

News Nuggets.

—The Herald says surveyors and engineers have been in Campbellford the past week locating a new line for the Grand Junction through the village, which will shorten the distance by a quarter of a mile and do away with some sharp curves and heavy grades.

Burleigh.

The EXAMINER is requested to correct the statement made by a local contemporary, that the man Keating committed to jail as a lunatic by Mr. Reeve Elmhirst and Mr. Anderson was naked when he arrived at the jail. He was clothed by the township before being sent down and was not "naked" when he was admitted by Jailor Nesbitt.

Fire From a Milk Can.

A fire originated under very peculiar circumstances in the barn yard of Mr. Robert Lynn, of Ennismore, this morning. A new milk can was lying on its side in the yard, and the brilliant reflection of the sun rays off it ignited a pile of chips, which were blazing away merrily when observed in time to prevent a serious fire. This little item should serve as a caution to farmers; it may be worth a house and barn some day, if its moral is accepted.

A Long Day and a Hot Day.

To day, the 21st of June, is the anniversary of the proclamation of Queen Victoria to the throne. It is also the longest day in the year, and, may we be permitted to hope, the hottest day of this year.

FROM modest efforts, honest goods, high quality, square dealing, good treatment, small profits on to grand achievements in the way of satisfying bargains, is the motto at The Pantry

THE FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT.

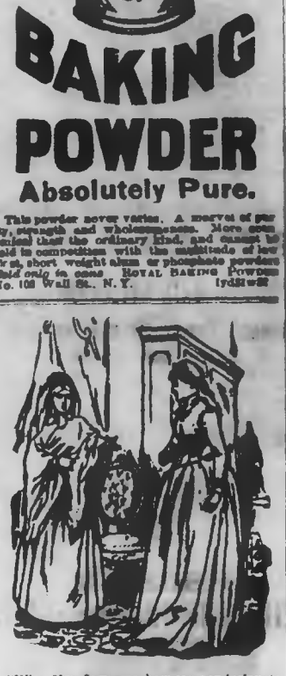
Brantford's Great Day—Dunnville Takes First Prize in Three of the Contests.

BRANTFORD, June 21.—The Firemen's Tournament here has proved a great success. A number of American fire companies arrived Tuesday evening and all trains yesterday morning brought in firemen and excursionists from all directions. By noon there were several thousand strangers in the city.

At 1 o'clock the firemen formed into line on Market-square and proceeded through the principal streets to the Agricultural Show Grounds where the programme of the day was carried out.

In the evening there was a torchlight procession and a fancy drill exhibition at the fair grounds.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.



This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER, No. 106 Wall St., N. Y. 1yd1w52

"Why, Mrs. Jawsome, how can you insinuate such a thing? I drunk or mad? I'm strong Scott Act. I know it's hard to believe, but Mrs. Bayclesse, a regular prayer meeting woman she is, too, told me so with her own mouth—which is hardly ever shut, goodness knows—that she went traipsing up to Toronto with the Masonic excursion. She went through all the shops and priced 'em all. She wanted to get a wedding present for Ann Jane Mariar who is going to marry that half baked prig, Ben Slowfit, and she was disgusted. She could do better at home. And she spent $1.35—$1.75 for her ticket and nine cents for cakes and a paper of pins, she got at a seven-cent store—she tore that old cashmere dress she's worn a life time, on the car steps—O my! where was I?—O yes! she went straight to China Hall when she got home and got a lovely china tea set for so much less than she could in Toronto, that is made up for her expenses to the city. And she says they have terrible fine and cheap dishes at China Hall, and as she says, says she, 'Dead leads of 'em, too.'"

SUN
LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.
HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have more-over $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,999 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,231.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,000 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,422 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	36,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,366 14
1880 to 1884, four years	126,976 84	363,264 31	2,962,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,977 24	4,029,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,004 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

Practice Economy

By taking advantage of the opportunity offered you to buy Superior Teas at Honest Prices from the undersigned.

You May Try

Everybody's Teas in Town and compare them with our Strictly Uncoloured Japan, English Breakfast, Oolong and Young Hyson and you will be convinced that none will suit your taste as well as ours.

To Buy Teas Right

Is something which requires close study and observation. The cultivation of a trained sense of smell, taste and inspection is needed, which takes a long time to acquire and many never can acquire it.

To Keep Teas Right

After they are bought is another thing which no one can succeed in doing unless he is an enthusiast in looking after the "small details" of the Tea trade.

The Unflagging Attention

We give to the Tea branch of our business has demonstrated the truth of the above, and our lengthened experience gives us confidence in guaranteeing superior qualities which we invariably handle. We pride ourselves in our Tea Trade.

Our Finest Coffee

We positively guarantee to be of finer aroma and greater strength than the coffee usually sold. The properties of coffee require constant care and attention in order to retain its delicacy and purity. No one will be disappointed by using our Coffees regularly.

All Lovers

Of good Tea and Coffee know how easily both drinks may be spoiled on the stove. To secure the best results, therefore, a fair trial by the practical housekeeper is of course necessary to insure success.

AT CAMP NIAGARA.

A Quiet Day Among the Volunteers—The Big Gun Practice.

CAMP NIAGARA, June 22.—Col. Otter's well-trained camp continues as quiet as if that urbane but strictly business officer were in full present as usual, instead of off to the Falls with his staff, in charge of the 700 representative officers and men who left camp by special train to add lustre to the opening ceremonies at the Queen Victoria Park yesterday. The brigade major, Lieut.-Col. Gray, discharges the duties of chief of staff, but the senior officer in the camp is Lieut.-Col. Davis of the 37th.

The 50th Battalion furnished the men for guards and pickets yesterday, these constituting the official guardians of law and order in the camp.

The Artillery have spent the day plugging away at target practice. The Toronto Battery went out to the range early in the morning and having completed the preliminary practice, scoring 115 points out of a possible 384, proceeded with the final, after a couple of hours had been spent in replacing the target, hoisted and sunk by an artillery bullseye scored by Gunner Watson with his first shot. The battery will need a great many such bullseyes to take any prize in the competition, as in the preliminary practice they were badly left by Welland with 173 and Hamilton with 167 points. These two fired on the previous day. The following eight, having made the leading scores in the preliminary, represent the Toronto Battery in the final competition Gr. Weir, Sergt. Hughes, Gr. Benson, Gr. Ryan, Gr. Watson, Corp. Thompson, Sergt. Purvis, and Corp. Defoe.

REPUBLICAN POW-WOW

A PLATFORM SUBMITTED AND UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED.

Cleveland's Administration Arraigned—Nominations for President—Reduction of Taxes on Spirits and Tobacco Favored.

CHICAGO, June 22.—The first business before the convention yesterday was the consideration of the Republican platform. The platform as adopted says:

Fraternal congratulations to our fellow Americans from Brazil upon their great act of emancipation which completed the abolition of slavery throughout the two American continents.

We earnestly hope that we may soon congratulate our fellow citizens of Irish birth upon the peaceful recovery of Home Rule for Ireland.

We re-affirm our unswerving devotion to the National Constitution and to the indissoluble Union of the States, to the autonomy reserved to the States and the constitution—to the personal rights and liberties of citizens in all the States and Territories in the Union, and especially to the supreme and sovereign right of every lawful citizen, rich and poor, native and foreign born, white or black—to cast one free ballot in public elections and to have that ballot duly counted.

We hold the free and honest popular ballot and the just and equal representation of all the people to be the foundation of our Republican government and demand effective legislation to elections which are the foundations of all public authority.

We charge that the present administration and the Democratic majority in Congress owe their existence to the suppression of the ballot by criminal nullification of the constitution and laws of the United States.

We are uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of Protection. We protest against its destruction as proposed by the President and his party; they serve the interests of Europe. We will support the interests of Americans. We accept the issue, and confidently appeal to the people for their judgment. The Protective system must be maintained. Its abandonment has always been followed by general disaster to all interests except those of the usurper and the sheriff. We denounce the Mills Bill as destructive to the general business, the labor and the farming interests of the country, and we heartily endorse the consistent and patriotic action of the Republican representatives in Congress in opposing its passage. We condemn the proposition of the Democratic party to place wool on the free list, and we insist that the duties thereon shall be adjusted and maintained so as to furnish full and adequate protection to that industry.

The Republican party would effect all needed reduction of the national revenue by repealing the taxes upon tobacco, which are an annoyance and a burden to agriculture, and the tax upon spirits used in the arts and for mechanical purposes, and by such a revision of the tariff laws as will tend to check imports of such articles as are produced by our people, the production of which gives employment to our labor and releases from import duties those article o foreign production (except luxuries), the like of which cannot be produced at home. If there shall still remain a larger revenue than is requisite for the wants of the Government we favor the entire repeal of internal taxes rather than the surrender of any part of our protective system as the joint behests of the whisky trusts and the agents of foreign manufacturers.

We declare our hostility to the introduction into this country of foreign contract labor and of Chinese labor alien to our civilization and our constitution.

We declare our opposition to all combinations of capital organized in trusts or otherwise to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens.

We re-affirm the policy of appropriating the public lands of the United States to be homesteads for American citizens and settlers not aliens; the restoration of unearned railway grants to the public domain for the use of actual settlers, which was begun under the administration of President Arthur, should be continued.

The platform also demands the reduction of letter postage to one cent, condemns the administration for its attempt to demonetise silver, for the surrender of the fishing privileges and for a spirit hostile to pension legislation.

The Administration.

The platform having been adopted as above, the existing Administration was arraigned in the following pronouncement:

The conduct of foreign affairs by the present Administration has been distinguished by its inefficiency. Having withdrawn from the Senate all pending treaties effected by Republican Administrations for the removal of foreign burdens and restrictions upon our commerce, and for its extension into better markets, it has neither effected nor proposed any others in their stead. Professing adherence to the Monroe doctrine, it has seen with idle complacency the extension of foreign influence in Central America and of foreign trade everywhere among our neighbors. It has refused to charter, sanction or encourage any American organization for constructing the Nicaragua canal, a work of vital importance to the maintenance of the Monroe doctrine and of our national influence in Central and Southern America, and necessary for the development of the trade with our Pacific Territory, with South America and with the islands on the further coasts of the Pacific Ocean.

We arraign the present Democratic Administration for its weak and unpatriotic treatment of the fisheries question and its pusillanimous surrender of the privileges to which our fishing vessels are entitled in Canadian ports under the treaty of 1818, the reciprocal maritime legislation of 1830, and the comity of nations, and which Canadian vessels receive in the ports of the United States.

We condemn the policy of the present Administration and the Democratic majority in Congress toward our fisheries as unfriendly and conspicuously unpatriotic and as tending to destroy a valuable national industry and an indispensable resource of defense against a foreign enemy.

The roll was then called for nominations.

Warner, of Connecticut, presented Hawley's name without a speech.

Leonard Swett, of Illinois, nominated Gresham. Several delegates seconded the nomination, including Lynch, of Mississippi, who remarked that if the choice of convention should happen to fall upon Gen. Harrison, of Indiana, there will be no complaints. This remark brought out strong and long-continued applause, the greatest of the day.

Ex-Governor Porter then nominated Harrison. He was interrupted by cries of Gresham, mingled with hisses. At the conclusion of Porter's speech the Indiana delegation rose and cheered.

At 12.40 p.m. the Convention adjourned till three o'clock.

When the Convention assembled Texas and New Hampshire seconded the nomination of Senator Harrison, and the roll call proceeded until Iowa checked it by the rising of Chairman Hepburn, who presented the name of Senator Allison. Rhode Island seconded the nomination.

When Michigan was reached, Mr. Fraser, of Detroit, amid enthusiastic cheers, took the platform to nominate Governor Alger. Mr. Noyes, of Massachusetts seconded the nomination and Patrick Egan was greeted with great applause as he followed with Nebraska's endorsation, and as Arizona delegate joined in booming the Michigan candidate.

Senator Frank Hiscock took the floor and in a brilliant speech presented as the choice of New York Chauncey M. Depew. There was great cheering in the hall and it was some seconds before Mr. Hiscock could proceed. Minnesota seconded Depew.

The roll-call proceeded to Ohio, which, when reached, gave the Sherman contingent an opportunity to make a great demonstration, and the cheering continued for some seconds. Then Mr. Hastings of Pennsylvania nominated John Sherman. During his speech the mention of Blaine's name evoked great cheering from all parts of the hall, renewed time and again. Governor Foraker of Ohio seconded the nomination.

At the conclusion of Gov. Foraker's speech an allusion to the American flag as the bandana of the Republican party set the Convention wild, and for fifteen minutes the cheering, whistling, singing and waving of banners was continued until everybody was exhausted. Then Virginia and South Carolina secured the nomination.

Chas. Emory Smith arose when Pennsylvania was reached and nominated Major Fidler, of Philadelphia.

Senator Spooner of Wisconsin presented the name of Governor Rusk.

It was 7.15 when the roll-call was finished, and at 7.23 Senator Warner Miller of New York moved an adjournment until 11 o'clock to-day, and the Convention adjourned.

A Forecast.

The Chicago Herald forecasts the result of the first ballot as follows:

Alger	73	Allison	30
Blaine	59	Depew	96
Gresham	85	Harrison	77
Sherman	292

Total number of votes, 836.
Necessary to a choice, 419.

The fight for second place, if the Presidency goes West, it is said, will be between Phelps and Levi P. Morton.

The delegates from Nebraska, Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, Kansas and Iowa are receiving telegrams from their granger constituents to oppose Depew.

Some of the banner subscriptions are even more remarkable. Nebraska displays a banner with these words: "Headquarters of the Nebraska delegation. Corn is king." A well-known liquor saloon has this startling announcement:

BLAINE'S HEADQUARTERS.
Six-Year-Old Sour Mash Whiskey.

A London despatch says: Mr. Blaine was interviewed to-day, but declined to state whether he would or not accept the Presidential nomination.

AT THE GERMAN CAPITAL.

A Notification to the Powers of Emperor William's Pacific Desire.

BERLIN, June 22.—M. Puyreedir, of the Paris Gaulois and M. Ransom, of the Paris Matin, have been expelled from Berlin. The former wrote from San Remo a statement reflecting upon the present Emperor and Empress which appeared in The Gaulois and The London World. Ransom after talking with a Russian staff officer in Berlin wrote letters reflecting upon the German army.

The Emperor in declaring amnesty will adhere to the terms of his father's proclamation, remitting sentences in force at the date of his accession.

It is reported that the Czar, while en route to Copenhagen this summer, will land at Stettin and pay a visit to Emperor William.

Prince Bismarck is suffering from rheumatism. It is rumored that Count Von Waldersee had a difference with the Chancellor and will be transferred to a provincial command.

Prince Bismarck has notified the powers, including Russia and France, that it is Emperor William's most sincere desire to maintain friendly relations with them.

Parisians Irritated.

PARIS, June 22.—The expulsion from Berlin of M. de Puyreedir and M. Ransom has greatly irritated the Parisians. The Evenement, The Intransigeant and other papers demand that the French Government make reprisals.

Lord Lansdowne at Oxford.

LONDON, June 22.—Further particulars from Oxford show that Lord Lansdowne received a marked ovation when the degrees were conferred. Professor Bryce, in introducing Lord Lansdowne, referred to his popularity in Canada, to the success of his regime, to the suppression of the rebellion and the opening of the Canadian Pacific. He prophesied success for his Excellency in India. The undergraduates sang "For he's a jolly good fellow."

Found Dead.

COLCHESTER, June 22.—The body of an unknown man, apparently about 35 years of age, was found three miles west of here yesterday. A purse containing $2.50 was found in his pocket. He had brown hair, was clean shaven, and about 5 feet 8 inches in height.

CRUISE OF THE COUNCIL.

The County Fathers hold Aquatic Session.

A Delightful Round Trip "Bridged" Over by Several Delightful Stops—Inspecting the Bridges—Developing Social Relations—Work and Play Combined—Safe Home.

At the unearthly hour of 6 30 a.m., the members of the Council of the County of Peterborough, accompanied by the County Engineer, the Solicitor, Clerk, the Sheriff, the jailer and a representative of the EXAMINER, to keep them in order, assembled at the Midland R.R. station. The hotel porters aroused the sleepy members at the hour of 4.30, so that they were at the station in very good time. They filled in the time of waiting by weighing themselves in the balances, and four of them were not found wanting by any means, especially in an avoirdupois sense. These were Messrs. Burnham, Brown, Moore and Warden Walsh, who tipped the beam at over two hundred pounds each. A rapid run under Conductor Steen's guidance, with Driver Mims as impelling power, brought the party to Lakefield. Here they embarked on Captain Eden's steamer, the "Dawn," and at 8 o'clock started on their voyage of inspection of the bridges in the northern part of the county. At Lakefield, Messrs. Moloney, Casement, Moore and the County Engineer inspected the Lakefield bridge site with reference to for compensation for land taken for the western approach, and they found that a piece of land had been taken, about the size of an old-fashioned billiard table, and they were of the opinion that the building of the bridge had, if it had any effect, improved the value of the property. The matter in dispute will probably be left to arbitration.

The run to Young's Point, through Lake Katchewannoka, was made in good time, and here the "Dawn" and party were locked through with the "Cruiser" (having on board the Masonic party), to the number of about eighty, by the veteran lockmaster, Mr. P. Young, who is on the sunset side of eighty, and who has been in his present position since the building of the locks, nearly twenty years ago. From this point the party proceeded through the broad waters of Clear Lake to Stony Lake. Here the various islands showed signs of preparation for their summer tenants and an occasional camper was found occupying his island home. On Catamaran Island Mr. J. D. Collins is erecting a new cottage, and there are numerous new cottages contracted for. The back lakes promise to be popular again this year, but foreign tourists are kept away by the alleged for large parties. On the trip up the lakes, numerous drives of logs, some of them splendid sample of forest product, were seen. At Burleigh the locks were the object of interest, the entrance to the locks presenting a fine view. The county council party arrived contemporaneously with the Masonic party and much interest was shown in the substantial nature of the locks, the masonry in its solidity being excelled by no other public works in any country. The locks work with great facility the lockage through the double locks having been accomplished in 16½ minutes, a lift of 28 feet. Here the county council party inspected the bridges and found that from Burleigh island to the Smith shore in need of repair, to an extent equivalent to complete reconstruction. The portly Boniface of the Burleigh Falls hotel was visited. The advanced guard of summer tourists have arrived, and more to follow. At this point the photographer of the party joined the aquatic procession and before embarking, his camera caught a capital picture of a heroic group—a party of four or five in statuesque struggle with a

RECREANT YOUNG HARDWARE MERCHANT,

who attempted to desert his party. Through Lovesick Lake we steam, the rapids overcome by the dam at Burleigh being as smooth as a mill pond. The locks were passed (a single lock) in 10 minutes, and a short steam brought the party to Buckhorn when the bridge was inspected, and the estimate, by a local correspondent of 1300 feet of replanking required for this bridge, reduced to about 200 feet. The next point of interest reached was Windermere Cottage the summer residence of Mr. J. K. Belcher, at Gammis Narrows. At this delightful spot lunch was taken by the party, and after the official photographer had taken a group photogram of the party with the chief pursuivant in the foreground voyage was resumed and an informal meeting of the council was held, the Warden in the chair, and the matter of the site of the proposed bridge at Gannons Narrows considered. Mr. Hicks, Reeve of Harvey made a heroic fight on behalf of his constituents in favor of the Chase site, while Mr. W. D. Kelly and T. Crowley made offers in favor of Crowley's island site. The matter was informally settled by resolution, and afterwards reopened to reconsideration, which was however forgotten in the further enjoyment of the trip. From Gannons Narrows we passed through Pigeon lake and arrived at the

NOTED WATERING PLACE, BOBCAYGEON,

An excellent dinner at the Rockland House received aldermanic attention. Afterwards the tutelary scribe conveyed the party to the office of the Bobcaygeon Independent and presented them in propria persona to the genial editor of that racy sheet. At Bobcaygeon an inspection of the bridges was also made and they were found to be in good condition. After passing through Bob Lake, Sturgeon Lake with its beautiful shores and Sturgeon river with its flanking of emargy picturesqueness the party arrived safely at Lindsay. The town was found in unwonted activity, owing to the presence of an excursion from Millbrook, the Peterborough party and the crowd attracted by a circus. The run home was made on the regular Toronto express, safely and in good time.

NOTES.

In Clear Lake, Mr. Young's new steamer, the "Mary Ellen," on her trial trip with a merry party on board, was met, and salutes exchanged.

Mr. Kelly, of Bridgenorth, acted in the capacity of pilot for the "Dawn" from Buckhorn to Bobcaygeon. These new waters are not yet buoyed any further than Lovesick Locks, though Mr. Superintendent Rogers intends going on with that work at once.

Mr. Obstruction Rubidge, late engineer of the Trent Valley Canal, gave the pessimistic estimate, on a parity with his other T. V. C. estimates, that lockages through Burleigh would take 20 minutes, though they can be done in 16 minutes. It is by estimates of this character that the Welland Canal route is made several hours shorter than the T. V. C. route.

The new area opened by the Burleigh, Lovesick and Burleigh locks presents a magnificent expanse of beautiful water.

The route taken yesterday was a little long for continuous pleasure seeking, not admitting of sufficiently long stops at such delightful spots as Oak Orchard, Sturgeon Point, etc., but it is, withal, a delightful cruise.

The walk from the wharf at Lindsay is too long. If the railway authorities would consent to run excursion trains down to the wharf it would make the route much more popular.

From Bobcaygeon to Lindsay the pilot was Mr. Albert Defoe, who, to a thorough knowledge of the route, combines an obliging disposition, imparting his large fund of information regarding local points, new to most tourists, with great liberality.

No nicer boat floats for a small excursion party than the "Dawn"; she is very speedy for her tonnage, and her captain is affable and obliging. The passengers have an Eden on board the whole trip.

The county councillors "talked shop" a good deal yesterday; the trip was a very decided combination of business and pleasure.

Mr. Casement, the reeve of Lakefield, was the chaperon of the party, and looked assiduously and successfully after the comfort of his guests. He even sacrificed the pleasure of taking part in the special sittings, in order to better attend to his duties.

It will not be the fault of Mr. Hicks, reeve of Harvey, if a bridge is not built at the Narrows. He was most industrious and active in his advocacy of it yesterday.

Though the councillors devoted a good deal of time to pleasure a good deal of solid observation was made, and a much useful topographical knowledge gained.

This was particularly the case with Councillor Sanderson, who was rightly described, when introduced to the editor of the Independent, as "The Nestor of the party, the oldest and wisest member of the council."

"Do Unto Others," &c.

Acting on this principal we have decided to close our store at 7 p.m. each day of the week, Saturdays excepted, during the summer months.

We believe that our clerks and salesmen will give us all the better and more willing service if they are allowed their evenings for fresh air and exercise, and we respectfully ask the co-operation of our customers and the public, in making the early closing movement a success. Uninvited Guests at a Hamilton Wedding —Incendiary Fires.

HAMILTON, June 22.—While the wedding of Mr. Morden Binkley and Miss Ella Drake was in progress at the residence of Mr. John Binkley, a crowd of toughs assembled outside using vile language and storming the house with stones. Several windows were broken and some of the guests struck with the missiles. Thomas Redden and John Moran were arrested for the offence. They were remanded at the Police Court until Saturday.

There were three fires at the residence of R. H. Stuart yesterday and one on Wednesday. The building had a close call the last time, but the firemen got the best of it. Each time the fire started in a bedroom. The firemen were told that a little three-year-old boy had set fire to the place each time, but the Chief was told that the boy was tied up when the last fire occurred. The police have no doubt but that the place was deliberately set on fire each time, but are at a loss to know by whom. An investigation is being made.

The Daily Examiner.

FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1888.

The Weather.

Moderate to fresh winds from southeast and southwest; fair and very warm weather, followed by local showers to-night or to-morrow.

Back Lakes Excursion.

This weather people emigrate almost daily to the back lakes in search of coolness, when, if the right method is taken, they can get it at home. Any lady can keep cool by going to the golden lion and investing in grenadines, chambrays and muslins. The cost of an excursion trip would buy dresses at fair's which would keep a lady cool under the trying ordeal of getting married.

The Laborers Organize.

The movement towards organization begun among the laborers in Peterborough some time ago has at last assumed definite shape, and at a meeting Wednesday night a large number signed the roll of membership and resolved to co-operate with the local branch of the Knights of Labor. Another meeting for further organization will be held next Wednesday evening.

Milk Adulteration.

The adulteration of milk sent to cheese factories is just now engaging the attention of Ontario dairymen. The recently adopted system of cheese factory inspectors seems to be just the thing. In the Belleville district several farmers have already been fined for milk adulteration, and it is understood a case of this kind will be up in the police court here next Tuesday. On Wednesday afternoon two Tyendinaga farmers were up at Belleville.

Legal Intelligence.

At the Belleville Assizes the following case was disposed of:—

Pitcathly & Kelso vs. Elijah K. Ostrom of Peterborough, was an action on account for $160 for goods sold defendant for his two nephews, G. & W. Ostrom of Rednerville. The defendant claimed the Rednerville firm was responsible for the debt. Jury dispensed with. L. H. Henderson and Geo. E. Henderson, Q.C., for pffs; Porter for defts.

The Result of the Thaw.

We've got to do it. It's such all-fired hot weather and the customers keep us so busy that our health is beginning to suffer. Well will sell out the remainder of our stock in the next twelve days, close up business and migrate to the Arctic region. See if we don't! We will give the public for the next few days the biggest bargains they ever got. Our stock is well assorted and of the best quality, but it must be sacrificed at once. F. S. Gould & Co., Dawson's old stand, Hunter street. 2d

Obituary.

Mr. Abraham Ball, father of Messrs. George and William Ball, of this town, passed peacefully away on Thursday, the 21st inst., after a lingering illness of two years, at the age of 74 years. Mr. Ball came to Peterborough in the year 1871 from Sunderland, England, being the first Catholic who settled in that place from Ireland. He leaves a wife, six sons and a daughter to mourn his loss. The funeral will leave the family residence, Cedar street, on Saturday, the 23rd inst., at 9 o'clock a.m., and proceed to the Roman Catholic cemetery for interment.

Cause and Effect.

The question of the hour is why people will put themselves so much about; why pass all the attractions along George street. Bankrupt stocks at 50c. on the dollar, and dollar for dollar, and goods for the mere asking, in fact, to be sent home in a wheelbarrow, and charge nothing for the sending. We ask again why is it that an appreciating public will pass all this and pursue the even tenor of their way till the noted cheap store, the last on the east side of George street—in other words, Shepperd's Big Bonanza Bargain House is reached. Cause and effect—the cheapest and best goods between Toronto and Montreal. d

A Barrie Editor in Trouble.

The last issue of the Barrie Gazette contained a windy account of the recent Riverside-Barrie lacrosse match. The Gazette writer was smarting over the defeat of his "brave Stanleys," and in his wrath became reckless. In plain language he accused Umpire LeBrun of "most partial and unmanly decisions," in favor of the Riversides of course. The article in several places contained libellous statements, and Mr. LeBrun has instructed his solicitor, Mr. J. O'Meara, to write at once demanding an apology or in default of that to institute legal proceedings. Everyone who knows Harry LeBrun knows that he wouldn't be guilty of any of these charges, and everyone will be pleased to see his character vindicated by a public apology.

"High Park" Social.

Remember the social this evening at "High Park," the residence of Mr. Wm. Ferguson, North Monaghan. Buses will leave St. Paul's Church at 7 and stop at the corner of Charlotte and Rubidge streets. Ice cream and lemonade will be served on the grounds. A very pleasant evening may be expected. The band will be present.

FRESH strawberries every morning from this time on, at The Pantry.

For the Boys.

Now that the camping season is approaching the boys should not forget that J. J. Sheehy keeps a beautiful selection of white shirts, colored bosom fronts, at very low prices.

County Council.

The county council, invigorated by their trip yesterday, began vigorously at committee work this morning. No session was held up to the hour of going to press.

Charlotte Street Church.

Rev. I. Tovell will deliver his farewell sermon next Sunday evening in Charlotte Street Methodist Church. The Rev. gentleman leaves for his new field of labor, St. Catherines, next week.

Strawberry Festival.

On St. John's Church grounds on Wednesday, 27th June, at half past seven o'clock, p. m. Those wishing to contribute to the festival will kindly send in their baskets on Tuesday afternoon to the schoolroom. 2d

Fine Beverage.

J. H. Gurd & Co. and the Imperial Mineral Water Co.'s Ginger Ale and Soda, a beautiful summer beverage. 18 lbs. good sugar, $1, tomatoes, 10c. per can; 6 lbs. good Japan tea, $1; baking powder, 15c. per lb. Call and see our fine stock. Everything cheap. tw W. J. MORROW, Opera House block.

OUR customers always speak when they pass by and say. Xamine these Xcellent unXcelled T's, at The Pantry.

To Chemong Lake.

A Peterborough pic-nic party visited Chemong Park Thursday afternoon, and after enjoying the refreshing breezes of the lake in the afternoon and evening, returned home at an early hour. There were about 35 young people in the company, who were marshalled by Misses Stevenson and Archer. Pic-nics are in order now.

Other County Councillors.

On Thursday, the county council of Simcoe, an imposing body of 54 members, which sits at Orillia this time, had also an excursion, purely for pleasure, however. Orillia so highly esteems the county council that it buys it away a session now and then from Barrie, the funds being raised by private subscriptions.

Spots of Sport.

The Port Hope baseball club has written for a match here the first week in July. Cobourg wants a match Dominion Day. The first date will probably be arranged.

At the Montreal races Thursday, in the free-for-all, "Sleepy Dan" took sixth place. "Fanny B," formerly the property of Mr. E. Brown, stood fifth in the list.

Members of the bicycle club are requested to meet on the market square at 8 o'clock this evening for a run to High Park.

The Silver Stars played a return match with the second twelve of the Ætnas on Thursday night, winning by 2 goals to 1.

County Bridges.

The county engineer has been instructed to prepare plans for a new bridge at Gannon's Narrows, to be sent to the minister of Railways and canals for approval, and afterwards returned to the county council for further consideration. A deputation of Harvey residents was present at the meeting of the committee on roads and bridges at the county council this morning to press their claims.

The county engineer has also been instructed to at once place a swing in the floating bridge at Chemong Lake to admit steamers to the park.

The Highlands of Haliburton.

Newnham., the delightful summer resort at Haliburton, opens its fifth season with new attractions to those desirous of spending the heated term in cool seclusion in a delightful retreat, combining within its bounds forest and lake, meadows and cows' milk, and wild fruit, comfort and economy in happy combination. The rates for guests during July and August are $5 per week, children under 12 half rates. Full particulars of the specific beauties of the surroundings of Newnham, on application to Mrs. Stewart, Newnham, Haliburton. deod4t-w2

A Suggestive Society Title.

The Endeavor Society in connection with Charlotte Street Methodist Church and Sunday School held its first regular meeting last evening since organization. The programme was very interesting and profitable. The attendance was large and a number of names were added to the membership roll. It was decided to hold the meetings once every two weeks during the warm weather, and the evening selected was Friday. The piano used at the entertainment last evening was the Lanadowne and gave excellent satisfaction. The first public entertainment to be given by the society will take place in the school room on Thursday evening next. A splendid programme is being prepared. Admission free.

How the Mistake was Made.

At the reception of our new governor general, at Montreal, partly through a similarity of names Mr. Stanley Howell, the noted insurance agent of Cobourg, had an unique experience. Through similarity of name the Cobourg man was introduced into the vice regal carriage, and for some time driven round the observed of all observers. Mr. Howell's similarity of baptismal name, was helped to make the mistake by his swell personal appearance. It was no wonder he was taken for a lord when he had on one of gough bros'. fine $10 suits, which he bought on a recent visit to Peterborough. There is an important lesson in this if you want to share in the thirty days boom in clothing at gough bros'. Magnificent stock—bottom prices—a bonanza in bargains—come now, don't delay.

The Masonic Excursion.

About 100 delighted excursionists returned from the voyage through the Trent Valley Canal waters Thursday evening. Leaving Peterborough early in the morning they, took the steamer "Cruiser" and sailed through Stony Lake past Young's Point, Burleigh, Lovesick and Buckhorn. At each of these places short stops were made, but on coming the new waters the halts were of longer duration. Oak Orchard, Bobonygeon and Sturgeon Point were visited, the aequatic portion of the excursion concluding at Lindsay, where, taking the evening train, the excursionists arrived home at an early hour. They were thoroughly pleased with the trip, and speak in complimentary terms of the manner in which the captain of the "Cruiser" looked after their comfort. Mr. George Walker, too, comes in for a meed of their praise. He took charge of the party and acted as purser. He cut and measured and trimmed the events of the day so skillfully that a perfect fit was insured every time. Altogether the trip was most enjoyable. A party of about 75 left this morning to take the same excursion in an opposite direction, beginning at Lindsay.

FROM modest efforts, honest goods, high quality, square dealing, good treatment, small profits on to grand achievements in the way of satisfying bargains, is the motto at The Pantry

The Pacific Coast.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—I thought I would send you a few lines to let you know how things are going on in this far west.

There is no spot on the continent that presents as many inducements to the home seekers as does Polk county, Oregon. Situated in the centre of the Willamette Valley, the paradise of the American Union, with lands that teem with abundant harvests, with limitless water power that run idly on and await their use by the manufacturer, with abundant timber belts that beckon to the woodman to utilize and profit by them; it says to the enterprising immigrant, come.

Years ago, when Oregon was almost isolated, when no railroads spanned the extent of the country and made access to this territory almost impossible, none but the adventurous few sought an abiding place here, but now when the trip to Oregon is only a holiday journey, when the whole extent of this State is easily accessible, the teeming thousands are turning their eyes westward and finding out the advantages of this grand country. Every man is the architect of his own fortune and fortunes are here within the grasp of the steady patient toiler. The number of immigrants arrived in its State in 1887 was upwards of 7,000. During May 1888, there were 5 days during which rain fell, and an aggregate of 1 inch of water. There were 19 clear, 7 fair, and 5 cloudy days. Highest temperature for the month, 85 on the 28th, lowest temperatures, 45 on the 4th; mean temperature, 59.09. The crop prospects are good. We are having showery weather which is making crops heavy. We expect to have 5000 bushels of wheat this year and 4000 bushels of oats. The wheat market is looking up on account of a shortage in California.

Our county election came off last Monday. The Republicans gaining the day. The State of Oregan also went republic by a majority of about 7,000.

The result every where has been a surprise to every body. The Democrats felt their chances equally as good as the Republicans who expected victory but not in such large doses. Numerous reasons may be given for the peculiar results of last Monday elections but the short of it all is that the people of Oregon believe that their interest will be subserved by more protective tarriff than our Democratic statesmen seem to favor

Yours truly,
GEO STEELE.

Silver Oregon, June 10, 1888.

The Editor's Cordwood.

Pinned to the small, weather-beaten limb of a decayed tree, resting at ease among the clocks in McClelland's jewelry store window, is a slip of paper inscribed as follows:—

This specimen stick was borrowed yesterday by a member of the excursion party from the wood-pile of the Bobcaygeon Independent. In such cordwood as this do the intelligent and discriminating public of Nogey's Creek, Toker's Corners, Crowley's Bridge and Parnell Point pay their subscriptions to this mighty representative of the press (terms, $1 a year in advance). With such wood as this the fires are kindled which set in motion the powerful engines used in running off with lightning-like rapidity the thousands of copies of the Independent. These, scattered broadcast over all quarters of the civilised and uncivilized globe, fling far and wide the seeds of Truth, which, springing up, produce a crop that is wonderful to behold of the Good, the True and the Beautiful. No wonder it was hot in Bobonygeon!

Quick Boatbuilding.

Wednesday evening a gentleman, wishing to go to the Masonic excursion, went into Mr. J. Carey's shoeshop at 4 o'clock to buy a pair of buckskin shoes. There were none in stock to fit him, and he was leaving when Mr. Carey said "I'll make a pair yes a pair"—"but I want them to-morrow morning?" "You shall have them to-night." The measure was taken, the boots cut out in the presence of the customer; at 4.15 put into the shoemaker's hands and at 8 o'clock the pair of well made, neatly fitting boots were sent to the gentlemen's house and worn to the excursion.

Sam Jones' Reverend Brother Elopes.

GRENVILLE, S.C., June 22.—Great excitement prevails in Laurens, S.C., caused by the recent elopement of the Rev. Joe Jones, brother of Sam Jones, and Miss Bessie Farrow, of Cross Anchor, S.C. Mr. Jones met the lady last summer while conducting a series of religious meetings at Laurens. The mother of the young lady was very much opposed to the match, but on the other hand it was favored by her father. On one occasion it is said that Mr. Jones went to see his affianced, and was met by her mother, who "shut the door in his face." Mr. Jones became tired of such obstacles, and with the aid of a friend secured the girl and ran away and married her. The happy couple were expected to leave on last night's train, but unfortunately the bride had left in such haste that she neglected to carry her baggage and they were detained. The mother declines to give it, and threatens to shoot the "first man who puts his foot inside of the door." Mr. Jones is about 30 years of age and has for some time been preaching at Laurens, S.C.

The Hamilton Conspiracy Case.

HAMILTON, June 22.—The trial of David R. Gibson, William Mitchell and William Littlejohn on the charge of conspiracy, which was begun at the General Sessions on Tuesday was concluded Wednesday night. The claim of the prosecution was that the defendants, being members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, voted for this resolution which it is said, was passed by the union:

That this Bricklayers' and Masons' Union boycott the new City Hall building, and that any member working on said building be fined $50 while the corporation retains Buscombe in the city's employ.

It was claimed that Mitchell was the mover and Littlejohn the seconder of the resolution and that Gibson made a speech at the union meeting in its favor. The evidence was contradictory as to whether the resolution was passed by the union or not, a number of witnesses swearing positively that it was and about twenty others testifying that no such resolution was ever before the union. The judge charged strongly against the accused and after a short absence the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The defendants appeared for sentence yesterday morning, but their counsel stated that they had not yet decided whether to appeal or have the case reserved on points of law for adjudication by the Court of Queen's Bench, and the court deferred the matter until to-morrow.

A Cause Celebre.

MONTREAL, June 22.—The legal proceedings connected with the dispute over the estate of the late Benj. Hall have entered upon a new phase. A seizure before judgment was filed in court by Mrs. Ahearn against Mrs. Vennor, the tiers-saisis being the Bank of Montreal, the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, the Intercolonial Coal Mining Company, the Canadian Bank of Commerce, the Montreal Telegraph Company and the Banque du Peuple. The plaintiff in the case wishes to have a sequestrator appointed so that an inventory can be made of the residue of the estate, valued at some $250,000, as it is alleged that a large portion cannot be accounted for, and the seizures are taken to protect whatever is in the possession of the above-mentioned tiers-saisis.

Mr. Laurier's Ontario Trip.

TORONTO, June 22.—Mr. James Trow, one of the Liberal whips in the House of Commons, announces that he has received a letter from Hon. Wilfred Laurier, in which the Liberal leader says he will be unable to make his promised tour through Ontario this summer, but hopes to find opportunity to deliver two or three addresses in August. One of these addresses will likely be given at the joint picnic to be held under the auspices of the Hamilton and Toronto Young Men's Liberal Clubs, probably at Oakville.

The Car Accountants' Convention.

MONTREAL, June 22.—At the session of the International Car Accountants' Association yesterday the subjects discussed were: (1) The distribution of cars; (2) Straight mileage; (3) Mileage per diem. The custom hitherto has been to change cars by mileage, but it is anticipated that to change per diem is the system which, if adopted, will obviate many difficulties that now arise. A resolution unanimously recommending its adoption was carried.

"Why, Mrs. Jawsome, how can you insinuate such a thing? I drink or mad? I'm strong Scott Act. I know it's hard to believe, but Mrs. Bayclese, a regular prayer meeting woman she is, too, told me so with her own mouth—which is hardly ever shut, goodness knows—that she went traposing up to Toronto with the Masonic excursion. She went through all the shops and pric'd 'em all. She wanted to get a wedding present for Ann Jane Mariar who is going to marry that half baked gawk, Ben Slowit, and she was disgusted. She could do better at home. And she spent $1.34—$1.75 for her ticket and nine cents for cakes and a paper of pins, she got at a seven-cent store—she tore that old cashmere dress she's worn a life time, on the car steps—O my! where was I?—O yes! she went straight to China Hall when she got home and got a lovely china tea set for so much less than she could in Toronto, that it made up for her expenses to the city. And she says they have terrible fine and cheap dishes at China Hall, and as she says, says she, 'Dead loads of 'em, too.'"

A $45,000 JUDGMENT.

Against the Southeastern Railway Trustees—J. M. Fortier's Damage Suit.

MONTREAL, June 23.—Soon after the trustees of the bondholders took possession of the Southeastern Railway a suit was brought against them by the Ontario Car Company of London, to recover the value of certain cars which had previously been delivered to the railway company. Judge Mathieu gave judgment against the bondholders, Wm. Farwell, Duncan McIntyre, and W. C. Van Horne, for the full amount of the claim, $45,000, with full costs and interests since 1886.

Judge Gill has granted Mr. J. M. Fortier, cigar manufacturer, $1,000 damages from the Canadian Workman for article appearing to buy from a child beater or woman plunker. In two weeks Fortier's sales had fallen off $6000 but that might have been due to the labor investigation. The damages claimed were $50,000.

A TOUCHING APPEAL.

The Letter That Lilian Goodfellow Wrote Her Unnatural Father.

ST. THOMAS, June 23.—The letter which brought on the arrest and subsequent suicide of George W. Goodfellow, written by his daughter, is as follows:

"PAPA: I have been . . . long enough. You have pretended to love me but instead of loving me you hate me . . . . You have deprived me of young company and of the freedom which is necessary to young girls like me. I have gone where I can have these things, and if you ever find me it will do you no good, because I shall put myself under the protection of the laws of this country, and if you come after me I would appeal to them for protection and they would send you to penitentiary for life. Papa, I did love you once, but . . . there is no more love in my heart for you, and if I stayed at home and let you do . . . as you liked I would be a corpse before I was 19 years of age. I have only $1.25, but I will use it to get among strangers. You have always got me the best of clothes, but I would rather wear an old print dress and shoes with the toes out and have a clear conscience than stay at home and do as I have done. No father that loved his child would whip her as you have whipped me. It is the greatest sin that man can commit to ruin his own dear children that God gave him to love and care for. Thou should not commit adultery." "LILIAN."

Goodfellow had previously had the paternity of one or two children laid to him by girls who had become mothers ere they were wives. After Lilian's second disappearance the excitement continued to grow until on Thursday night last a mob of 200 collected in front of Goodfellow's house and burned him in effigy. Goodfellow therefore opened fire upon the crowd with a revolver and the mob retaliated with a fusilade of stones, wrecking one or two windows. Goodfellow then sallied forth revolver in hand, and the mob scattered, a number of bullets being sent after them. Monday the prisoner, who had not previously walked further up town than the bank, confining himself as much as possible to his mill, proceeded east to the postoffice. The street was lined with people and he was hooted for several blocks. Monday night a report was circulated that Lillian had been kept secreted in the cellar, and another rumor was afloat that her father had killed her. Goodfellow had meantime made no attempt to clear away the charges made against him, and fearing that the threats of lynching might be carried into effect, Detective J. G. Clayton lodged an information.

When the two constables arrived at Goodfellow's house to arrest him he showed no surprise, saying, "All right, I'll go with you, boys." Seemingly as an afterthought he asked to see his wife, and was allowed to walk out into the hall, when he shot himself instantly.

Parties familiar with the home life of the Goodfellow family state that the father was extremely harsh and cruel both to his wife and children, whom he ruled with a rod of iron, and frequently resorted to personal violence. The coroner, when the widow was brought before the jury, respected her grief and forebore to torment her with questions other than what were absolutely necessary. The sympathy in Aylmer is all for the family. Before Goodfellow's suicide there were those who thought him innocent of the foul charges; not one is now heard to say that he was innocent.

Those who know Lilian Goodfellow, the victim of a father's crime, state that she is modest and unassuming. There is no doubt but that she is in Buffalo as her father said when arrested. She has been telegraphed for.

DEPEW OUT OF THE RACE.

HE WITHDRAWS HIS NAME IN THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Three Ballots Taken Without a Nomination—Sherman Leads, with Gresham Second and Alger Third.

CHICAGO, June 23.—On the first ballot yesterday Alger received 84, Allison 72, Depew 99, Fitler 21, Gresham 114, Harrison 79, Hawley 13, Ingalls 28, Phelps 25, Rusk, 25, Sherman 229, Blaine 33, McKinley 31.

On the second ballot Pennsylvania gave Sherman 53, Wisconsin changed 3 from Rusk to Gresham, Indiana changed one from Harrison to Gresham, Smith of Pennsylvania withdrew Fitler's name.

On the third ballot are Alger 122, Depew 90, Harrison 94, Phelps 5, Lincoln 2, Sherman 244, Miller 2, Allison 88, Gresham 122, Rusk 16, Blaine 35, McKinley 8.

After the third ballot had been announced there was a scene of great confusion in the Convention. The following for Gresham was [illegible] and Governor Miller moved the [illegible] was carried.

The convention was called to order at 7.15 p.m. by Chairman Estee, who had recovered his voice to a certain degree. The bands struck up inspiriting national airs, amongst them being "Dixie," which, however, did not create the enthusiasm which its every rendition excited at the recent St. Louis convention.

As the music ceased Mr. Depew ascended the platform and received an enthusiastic ovation from the delegates and audience. He said that he came to Chicago as a delegate, neither expecting nor desiring to appear in any other capacity. After his arrival New York presented his name for state reasons. After weighing considerations he was constrained to believe that his vocations and associations might raise questions which would prejudice the prospects of the party, and therefore he withdrew his name from the list of candidates.

The announcement took the convention by surprise, and hardly had Mr. Depew sat down when General Hastings of Pennsylvania, who placed Sherman in nomination, was on his feet and was recognized by the chair.

He said he believed those interests dearest to the Convention would be best served by an adjournment in order to give the convention time to have a more thorough understanding and to prevent hasty and unconsidered action. He therefore moved to adjourn until 10 o'clock this morning, and upon this motion he demanded a call of the roll of States.

There was at once a half-dozen seconders to the motion and the call was ordered. It resulted in a vote of 535 yeas to 282 nays. The chair then declared the convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-day.

IN A PERILOUS POSITION.

Stanley Abandoned by His Escort—Surrounded by Hostile Natives.

LONDON, June 23.—A despatch from St. Paul de Loanda, says:—Several deserters from the Stanley expedition have reached Camp Yambunja. They state that after traversing the Upper Aruwhimi Stanley struck into a rough, mountainous country, covered with dense forests. The natives, who were excited by reports spread by Arabs, disputed the passage of the expedition, and there was continuous fighting. Stanley was severely wounded. He was compelled several times to construct camps in order to repel attacks, and was obliged to use the reserve provisions that were intended for Emin Bey. The Soudanese attached to the force had all died or disappeared. The deserters estimate that the caravan lost one-third of its men, and they say that many of those remaining were ill, including the Europeans. Stanley was encamped when the deserters left. He was surrounded by hostiles and was unable to send news to Emin Bey or directly to Yambunja. Major Bartillot had returned to Yambunja, where he was awaiting the men. Mr. Ward was collecting men to form a powerful expedition to go to the relief of Stanley. The sickness at Yambunja was lessening, but only 80 of the 125 Zanzibar men survived. Tippoo Tib received 625 men to form two caravans and started for the interior about the end of January. Ward left Boma on May 30 for Leopoldville, where he was to embark men and provisions in the Congo State steamer for the Aruwhimi. The Yambunja advices reach the middle of April. The time the deserters left Stanley is uncertain. Gov. Janssen left the Congo on June 15 on his way to Europe to consult regarding the sending of assistance to Stanley.

SHOCKING HARDSHIPS.

A Cod Fishing Schooner Abandoned by the Crew—Fourteen Lives Lost.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—The steamer Bertha, which has arrived from Kurluk, Alaska, brought three of the sailors of the cod-fishing schooner Isabel, which encountered a gale May 1 and on the 3rd had to be abandoned. The crew took to the boats, but in a storm got separated. The eight skiffs which contained the nineteen men on board the Isabel first divided themselves into two parties in four skiffs. After being out two days, two of the men went mad from the hardships endured, and had to be put in separate boats and soon were drowned. When another boat capsized Captain Tuckerson in trying to save the lives of the men, was drowned, as were also the men whom he tried to rescue. It is believed that the men in the two boats which got separated from the others were also drowned, making fourteen who lost their lives.

Defaulter Pascoe Expelled.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23.—David M. Pascoe, ex-Secretary-Treasurer of the International Typographical Union, has been expelled from the International Union at its meeting held in Kansas City last week. He is charged with appropriating the funds of the Union to his own use and in failing to account for over $2000 which he should have on hand. The exact amount of the defalcation is not yet known, but so far a shortage of $2000 has been discovered. The resolution expelling Pascoe from the International body also provides for his expulsion from Philadelphia Typographical Union No. 2, of which he is a member.

THERE IS NO PLACE LIKE HOME.

SERMON BY LAYMAN.

(Written for the Examiner.)

There are good homes and bad ones, and the bad homes predominate. But, admitting this, the boy or girl who turn their backs upon their old home must be very bad or be greatly abused. Few children would willingly leave father and mother without some very great cause, and few do leave them without sorrow. And very few indeed can forget their old home. There are too many pleasant associations connected with it, too many happy hours passed there ever to suffer them to banish from their minds, the recollections of their infancy and the mother's loving care. The son or daughter who is far away from home, amidst strangers and in strange lands, looks back to the old place with feelings of loneliness and sorrow. They call to mind the days of their early life and the happy hours when they had nothing to do but to go to school, and then come home and spend the rest of the day in thoughtless play. They think of the old school house, and they often find themselves repeating some of the words of their familiar lessons, and they call to mind the names and appearances of their school-mates, and they wonder if they are like themselves, separated and scattered over the face of the earth. And they wonder how the old home looks now, and if father and mother are still there working on as they used to do. And they wonder if they are alone, and if alone if they feel as lonely and sorrowful as they do. And no doubt they do, for when the children are all gone and the parents are left alone, and the no longer hear the once familiar voices, they feel that all they can do now is to wander around the place during the day, looking at everything as it looked in other days, when they were young and active and had their children around them. But the night is hard to bear. Sitting alone by the fire, they look out into the shadows but no one is near, and they listen but hear not the once familiar voices, and at last the fire burns low and the darkness increases and the stillness becomes greater and more oppressive. And they retire to rest, but no sleep visits their eyes, and they talk over old times and think what a comfort it was to have to rise early and work, to be able to feed the little ones and to clothe them and to send them to school, and at night to put them to bed and to know that they were safe and happy. Far away, in a distant land, and in a room but poorly furnished, may be seen a woman lying on a sick-bed. She lies uneasily and she twists and turns and cannot rest. She moans and cries for one whom she never expects to see again. Her eyes are busy, as if looking in the far distance. She is only in middle life. In her uneasy sleep she talks of a once happy home. Of a kind husband and little children. A home which she has deserted and made miserable. In her turn, she too has been deserted. She now sees herself as she is, and as others see her. A broken down, miserable woman and an outcast from a once large circle of friends. She thinks constantly of her old home now. She dreams of it by night, and in the darkness she rises and looks round, almost wondering if she is not back again. Almost fancying that she can see her little children sleeping quietly in their beds, almost fancying that she can hear her husband's voice. Now she believes that there is no place like home. A home which she once possessed, but which she lost through her own wickedness and folly. Indeed there is no place like home, and be it ever so humble there is no place like home. It is the birthplace of the children and they have grown up there during the pleasantest portion of their lives and they cannot forget all the thousand little incidents associating in their minds with it. And father and mother are there, and the old play grounds are there, and the old school house ever reminds them of the happy days that are gone by, and in after life, when far away, the children love to look back, away back, to their youthful days, passed in the far off home, and their minds often grow sad, and their lives often grew weary for the old times now passed and gone, never more to return. So whether in sickness or in health whether in pleasure or in sorrow, and when far away; the thoughts of the absent ones ever go back to the old home left behind. A family in humble circumstances, once lived in the outskirts of a district country town. They supported themselves by their own industry, and were content to work hard for the blessings of peace and comfort. But the time came when it was thought better that the eldest son and daughter should go away and earn their own living. The mother was often and long talked over and many plans were suggested to help them on, at last the day arrived when they were to take their departure. For the last time the whole family gathered around the table and they talked and prayed and cried for the separation which was now so near. At length the carriage came to take them to the station and soon they were gone. They tried hard before their parents to keep up a brave heart, but when they looked back and saw them all standing just where they had left them; still looking after them the daughter broke down and cried and sobbed as none but the lonely can do. They had a long way to go before they reached their final destination, and when they arrived there they were heartsore and weary. The brother saw the sister safe in her new home and they then parted, and he went on his way to another and a more distant place. That night when the daughter retired to her room, she sat down and leaned her head upon the bed and all her thoughts were of dear old home. And she wondered what they were all doing, and how the work would go on without her. Home never seemed so precious to her as it did then. She asked God to give her courage and to sustain her in her new relation, and she laid herself down and tried to obtain rest and sleep. As she lay there she thought what a changeful world this is. She felt herself a stranger there, and she wondered what the future would bring to her. She resolved to do her duty, but her first and her last thoughts were of home, sweet, sweet home. In her dreams at night she could see them all, could see the old familiar places, could see her mother and every one and every thing as she had left them. But she never despaired, and she hoped some day to be able to go back again. Years passed away, and when word come that mother was sick she resolved to go back and give the rest of her days to those she had left behind.

A little child with flaxen hair,
And sun-lit eyes as sweet and fair,
Who kneels when twilight darkens all,
And frees those loving lips there fall
The accents of this simple prayer:
God bless. God bless my mother.

A youth upon life's threshold wide,
Who leaves a gentle mother's side,
Yet keeps enshrined within his breast
Her words of warning, still the best;
And whispers when temptation tried:
God bless, God bless my mother.

A white-haired man, who goes back
Along life's weary, furrowed track,
And sees one hope, an angel's now,
Hears words of light that led aright,
And prays with reverential brow:
God bless, God bless my mother.

Even the drunkard's family, sorrowing over their father's ruin, cling to their home, because it is their home and because of mother. Their way is hard and rough, their days are dark and gloomy, their prospects are poor and their fare is scanty, but it is their old home, their birthplace, and what little they know of happiness and pleasure they found it there. And mother is there, striving almost against hope to keep the family together and to secure a subsistence, and they cannot leave her alone. So they resolve to cling to their old home, poor though it be, for, be it ever so humble, there is no place like home. And they think that perhaps better days may come. That father may see himself as others see him. See the great wrong he is doing his weary, heart-broken wife and children, and resolve to abandon his bad ways and return and do better. Bad as it is, they still love their home, and they cannot think of leaving mother. Mother, who has nursed them and cared for them so long.

A CHALLENGE TO THE MINISTRY.

Mr. John Morley Throws Down the Gauntlet on the Crimes Act.

LONDON, June 23.—In the House of Commons Mr. John Morley gave notice that he intended to introduce a resolution to the effect that the operation of the Crimes Act tends to undermine the respect entertained for the law, to estrange the minds of the people of Ireland and to deeply injure the common interests of the United Kingdom. Mr. Gladstone gave notice that he would on Monday ask the Government to appoint a day for the discussion of the resolution. Mr. Smith, Government leader, said that he had listened with the greatest attention to Mr. Morley's notice, feeling that it was a challenge to the conduct of the Government in every respect. He would forthwith place next Monday at Mr. Morley's disposal for the resolution. This elicited loud cheers from the Opposition.

A Meeting of Dissidents.

LONDON, June 23.—A meeting of dissident Liberals was held here, Lord Hartington presiding. His Lordship strongly supported the Government's proposal to drop the Sunday closing clause of the Local Government Bill and warned the dissidents who had avowed their intention of supporting the clause that they would place the Government in a difficult position if they persisted. A resolution to support the Government was unanimously adopted.

A Quarter of a Million.

LONDON, June 23.—Billy Porter and Frank Buck, the alleged American burglars, who were arrested on a warrant charging them with burglary at Zurich, Switzerland, were arraigned yesterday morning. The police stated that Porter, alias Morton, was a robber, and stood at the top of his profession. They were both safe breakers, and had stolen property to the amount of £50,000. The prisoners were arrested at Cafe Monaco in a private room. They denied the charges against them, but were identified as visitors who had been at Augaberg, where they had stayed at various hotels and made purchases at the stores. The prisoners were remanded to await extradition papers.

The Manitoba Land Company.

LONDON, June 23.—The meeting of the Manitoba Land Company yesterday decided after a brief discussion to wind up the company and form a new concern in accordance with the scheme cabled on Wednesday.

Why She Was Cool.

The young man had a sweetheart fair,
And, though he was no fool, he Failed quite to see why, without tiff,
She treated him so coolly.

He asked her, and she frankly said,
"I'm only cool, not fickle—
For, since I got my printed Fair's,
I'm cool as a young icicle!"

Park Improvements

Mr. Gardener McLennan has made another tidy improvement to Court House Park. He has placed on the scarp of the fountain mound facing the main walk, the letters of the word "welcome" composed of stonework sunken in the grass. On the opposite face of the scarp is a crown flanked by the letters "V. R" constructed in the same manner. The small trees have also been staked and the large oaks are losing their dead limbs by pruning.

A Senseless Slaughter.

A resident of the north ward to-day complained to the EXAMINER of the havoc committed by the small boy and his deadly catapult among the little feathered songsters of Inverlea Park. The place is open to the public, and crowds of boys every day find amusement in slaying the birds that inhabit the park, making a boast of the number they have brought down. He thinks the police ought to try to put a stop to the senseless slaughter.

"HELLO, George, where did you buy your boots?" "At Brophys, on Hunter street, for half you got to pay on George street. Better go and see him. So long." d1

The Result of the Thaw.

We've got to do it. It's such all fired hot weather and the customers keep us so busy that our health is beginning to suffer. Well will sell out the remainder of our stock in the next twelve days, close up business and migrate to the Antipodes. See if we don't! We will give the public for the next few days the biggest bargains they ever got. Our stock is well assorted and of the best quality, but it must be sacrificed at once. F. S. Gould & Co., Dawson's old stand, Hunter street. 2d

Escaped from Punishment.

The young woman, Sarah Windsor, who had been convicted at Lakefield for the manslaughter of her infant child by the coroner's jury, and committed to gaol to stand her trial, made her escape from the village last Thursday night, being aided, it is stated, by a woman in the village and a man from Burleigh, and with the knowledge of the parties in the house where she was confined. Although it is the talk of the village, little or nothing is being done to effect her recapture or punish those who were guilty of assisting her. The County Attorney should take the matter up and investigate it. — [COM.

Circus Day in Town.

The market square presented a lively scene this morning. Besides the great throng of people, there were the usual number of farmer's wagons around the outside. In the middle were the tents of Howe's circus, while on the corners Auctioneer Stapleton, Eli Sager and a vendor of cheap articles plied their vocations with much vociferation. The circus was the attraction. About noon the street parade was held, and at two o'clock the main tent was opened. There was a large attendance, who were all satisfied with the performance. Howe's circus will doubtless do a thriving business in Peterborough, as its merits deserve.

Cause and Effect.

The question of the hour is why people will put themselves so much about; why pass all the attractions along George street. Bankrupt stocks at 50c. on the dollar, and dollar for dollar, and goods for the mere asking, in fact, to be sent home in a wheelbarrow, and charge nothing for the sending. We ask again why is it that an appreciating public will pass all this and pursue the even tenor of their way till the noted cheap store, the last on the east side of George street—in other words, Sheppard's Big Bonanza Bargain House is reached. Cause and effect—the cheapest and best goods between Toronto and Montreal. d

A Sharp Trick.

The other day a man entered a boot and shoe store in town and asked for a pair of boots, stating that a certain hotel-keeper had sent him there and would pay for them. The boots were given, but, suspecting the fellow, the clerk interviewed the hotel-keeper and learned that he had been duped. the latter denying that he had given any man such an order. The clerk then went to hunt up his sharp purchaser and finally found him. But he declined to either give up his boots or pay for them. Then a policeman was placed on his track. Meanwhile the fellow had sold them to another man for a quarter of a dollar, and the second purchaser came back to the store to have them changed. As soon as the merchant got possession of his boots he quietly told the applicant for a change that the boots were his and he intended to keep them. So the other left the store poorer by a quarter but richer in experience. The "party of the first part" was not found again.

A Lucky Escape.

Mr. James W. Fairweather is to be congratulated upon his narrow escape from drowning last night. Not that he was anywhere near the water or in a dangerous predicament at all, but when public rumor asserts so emphatically that a man is drowned as in his case last evening and this morning, the supposed victim ought certainly not to show himself without some compunction. The public will must be obeyed, it is said, and one can scarcely suppose that Mr. Fairweather would thus intentionally explode a popular fallacy, especially as a score or more of his young friends visited his home about one o'clock in the morning to verify the report. It doesn't make much difference that he was at home in bed at the time the drowning accident was said to have taken place. Such a trivial matter is of no account when the great public get it into their head that he was drowned. Mr. Fairweather is certainly to be congratulated on his lucky escape.

Log-Bound In The Lakes.

Those who attended the Masonic excursion over the Trent Valley Canal waters on Friday report having an enjoyable trip. They arrived at Lindsay and boarded the "Ogutter" there, passing by Bobcaygeon, Buckhorn, Burleigh and the intermediate points. The first part of the voyage was made in quick time, but after leaving Bobcaygeon several large drives of logs were encountered that completely blocked their passage, through which they were obliged to force their way slowly. Much time was lost in this way, and it was half past nine before Young's Point was reached, too late to catch the regular train at Lakefield. Otonabee was also reached, and Station-master Brundrette at once despatched a special train, which they found waiting for them on their arrival at Lakefield. The remainder of the trip was accomplished in a short time. Before the boat was left at Lakefield a vote of thanks was moved by Mr. H. C. Rogers and seconded by Hon. R. Hamilton, to the captain and crew for their kindness and attention during the day. This was carried with rousing cheers. The excursionists were also pleased with the efforts of the committee to make the journey pleasant, and the latter in turn are greatly obliged to Mr. Brundrette for relieving them from an uncomfortable dilemma. The two excursions under the auspices of the Masonic body were altogether successful.

A Delightful Social.

High Park, North Monaghan, the beautiful residence of Mr. Wm. Ferguson, was the scene of a pleasant gathering Friday evening. A social, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's church, had been gotten up, and, assisted by the perfect weather, it was a grand success. Buses, phaetons and carriages poured in from the town and surrounding country, even bicycles were impressed into service, bearing scores of happy people whose expectancy of enjoyment was fully realized. The soft glow of the colored lanterns, the laughter and chat of merry conversation, the sweet strains of music from the band and the picturesque groups of brightly attired guests, strolling about or reclining indolently in the cosy nooks with which the ground abounded, all bathed in a flood of brilliant moonlight, it was indeed a happy occasion. The house was thrown open, and in the drawing room vocal and intrumental music was rendered by a number of young people. On the lawn were a number of refreshment tables, presided over by the ladies, where both liquid and material nourishment were disbursed. It was altogether a highly successful social It is estimated that about 150 persons were present, all of whom left, reluctantly, full of pleasing recollections of the hospitality of the ladies of St. Paul's church and the manifold beauties of High Park under such auspicious circumstances. The proceeds netted a handsome sum. It is unnecessary to say that Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson were untiring in their efforts to make all feel at home.

County Council.

June Session.

FRIDAY.

Council resumed at 5.30 o'clock.

The following reports were read and each one adopted and the by-law confirming it passed:

The Committee on

EQUALIZATION AND ASSESSMENT

reported as follows:

Your Committee on Equalization and Assessment beg leave to report as follows:

Your committee have examined the assessment of the different municipalities and find slight variations in the acreage of the municipalities, but not so perceptible as to lead us to vary the basis of last year. Your committee would, therefore, recommend that the basis adopted by this council last year be the basis adopted for the year 1888, as shown by the schedule, and that the clerk be authorized to obtain a correct statement and, if necessary, a survey to establish to what lot and concession the islands in the several lakes belong.

JOHN BURNHAM,
Chairman.

June 22nd, 1888.

(11) That inasmuch as it appears that the amount that it is provided shall be levied under debenture by-law No. 355 and 373 will produce a sum largely in excess of the amounted required, that the clerk be instructed to levy such an amount only as will be sufficient to meet this year's sinking fund and interest, and that one half of the rate provided under by-law No. 458 be collected for the reason that only one half of the debentures authorized to be issued thereunder have been issued.

Mr. Sanderson, chairman, read the following report:—

The Committee on County Property beg leave to report as follows:—

(1) That the County Engineer be instructed to repaint and repoint the office of the clerk of the county court, and also to have the floor of the vault thereof cemented.

(2) That the report of the County Engineer be received and adopted.

(3) That the members of this council personally inspect the Big Burleigh, Buckhorn and Gannon's Narrows bridges, and that arrangements therefor be left in the hands of the Reeve of Lakefield.

(4) That with reference to the claim of the Hague estate your committee recommend that if it is found that the Lakefield bridge occupies a different site from the old, that the amount of compensation for any encroachment be fixed by the County Engineer and the Reeve of Lakefield, and if the estate does not accept the compensation so fixed that the estate be left to its remedy by arbitration.

(5) That a grant of $200 be given to the North Monaghan council for the purpose of repairing the roadway between the counties of Durham and Peterborough, as an equivalent for a like grant from the united counties of Northumberland and Durham; and that the Reeve of Monaghan be commissioner for the expenditure of the same.

(6) That the question of the propriety of paying the county engineer a fixed salary be referred to the Finance Committee.

(7) That with reference to the communication of Messrs Fortye and Elliott asking for a swing in the floating bridge over Chemong Lake, that the matter be left for consideration in the hands of Messrs. Sanderson, Moloney, Kidd, Stewart, Barnham and the county engineer with full power to act in the premises as they deem most wise.

(8) That the County Engineer be instructed to prepare plans for a bridge over the Narrows, between Harvey and Enniskmore on the floating principle and submit the same to the Dominion Government for their approval.

(9) That a grant of $50 be given to the village of Norwood towards rebuilding the bridge over the Ouse on Colborne street, Norwood, and that the Reeve of Norwood, be commissioner for the expenditure of the same.

(Concluded on Monday).

The Whistling Scourge.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—I noticed a letter about railway whistling in your paper a day or two ago, but it did no good for the whistling is worse than ever. On Thursday morning a driver stopped his train at the corner of Bethune and Dalhousie streets, and kept up a frightful howling for fully ten minutes, rousing the whole neighborhood and preventing sleep. I took the number of his engine which was 156 and I have since found out his name. We can't stand this thing any longer. This quarter of the town is peopled mainly by mechanics and laboring men. They work hard all day and need rest at night. This hot weather we toss about till perhaps one or two o'clock getting asleep when it gets a little cooler, and hardly are we asleep when the infernal screeching begins and there is no sleep till morning of any good to us. I don't cry down railroads but I know they can be run without so much screaming. If the hands, switchmen, brakemen, etc. are awake and at their posts there is no need of it. If these persons have to be awakened to tend to their duties, some other means than a whistle can be used. Everybody in this neighborhood is wild over the subject, and if a driver is hauled off his engine and hung to a telegraph pole he would not get much sympathy from the people of this quarter or from

Yours truly,
MECHANIC.

Police Court.

SATURDAY, June 23.

Four small boys shook in their boots and cast frightened looks at the police magistrate when summoned before him this morning. And well they might. They were guilty of the heinous crime of bathing in the pond on Park street, Friday afternoon, and running about naked on the bridge while the school children were at recess. Then when they saw the white helmet and brass buttons of the "cop" coming they seized their clothes and ran into the school yard without taking time to dress. Such bold conduct had to be suppressed, and the magistrate, though dismissing them, sounded a warning that should prevent them and all other boys from disobeying the law by swimming in such a public place during the day.

Picnic and Entertainment.

On Thursday evening an entertainment was held at Union Hall (corner of the farm of Mr. Hugh Davidson). It took the form of an open-air banquet of the pic-nic variety. Subsequently in the hall an entertainment of readings, dialogues, songs, was given. The programme was contributed as follows:—Song, Miss Davidson, accompanied by her sister; comical reading, Mr. Albert Garbutt; song, Miss Florence Davidson; dialogue, "Arabella's Poor Relations," Misses Garbutt, and Davidson and Messrs Davidson and Fitzgerald, which was well rendered, Mr. Davidson making a capital Southern Yankee—an unexpected visitor to his cousin, much to "Arabella's" disgust, but to the delight of Mary the maid and Arabella's lover. A song by Miss Minnie Garbutt and an address by the chairman, Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., brought the entertainment, and a very pleasant one too, to a close.

Railway Notes.

Messrs R. Tivey and T. A. Hay have returned from their "elevator" trip to Chicago.

The whistling nuisance is likely to be abated. The local railway authorities have instructed their conductors and engineers to reduce it to the minimum of necessity. The matter is receiving the attention of the officials at headquarters.

Monday next a new time table comes into effect on the Midland Division. The chief change is the introduction of a Toronto local, which is advertised elsewhere.

"Why, Mrs. Jawsome, how can you insinuate such a thing? I drink or mad? I'm strong Scott Act. I know it's hard to believe, but Mrs. Bugclese, a regular prayer meeting woman she is, too, told me so with her own mouth—which is hardly ever shut, goodness knows—that she went trapesing up to Toronto with the Masonic excursion. She went through all the shops and priced 'em all. She wanted to get a wedding present for Ann Jane Mariar who is going to marry that half baked hawk, Ben Slowit, and she was disgusted. She could do better at home. And she spent $1.84—$1.75 for her ticket and nine cents for oakes and a paper of pins, she got at a seven-cent store—she bore that old cashmere dress she's worn a life time, on the car steps. O my! where was I?—O yes! she went straight to China Hall when she got home and got a lovely china tea set for so much less than she could in Toronto, that it made up for her expenses to the city. And she says they have terrible fine and cheap dishes at China Hall, and as she says, says she, 'Dead loads of 'em, too.'"

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

FIVE BALLOTS TAKEN AND THE CONVENTION AT A STANDSTILL.

Depew gives his Reasons for Retiring—The Grangers would not Swallow the Railway Magnate—The Balloting.

CHICAGO, June 25.—Chauncey M. Depew was asked his reasons for retiring. Before replying to this question he said: "The members of the New York delegation were unanimously in favor of my nomination—that is, unanimous with one exception. One man thought to distinguish himself and carry the world on his shoulders.

"The delegates assured me of their votes as long as ballots were to be cast. New York is perhaps the greatest State in the Union. The greatest in its manufactures, in the value of its agricultural productions, in the extent of its commerce and the capitalization of its railroads. New York is a commercial state and its people have learned to estimate a man by his capacity and success in business.

"However it may be considered in the west, there is in New York an undertone but indignant feeling against Cleveland. This feeling can be utilized only by a citizen of New York, one who has the confidence of the business classes from long connection with them and residence among them. It is a feeling which, with direction and a candidate in whom they have confidence and felt sure would succeed and carry the State would strike and strike to kill. Twenty or thirty thousand Democrats would bolt.

Representatives of five of the Western States came to me this afternoon, just after the Convention. The told me that my nomination would be a very serious thing to the Republican party in Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Wisconsin. No, not Minnesota. Minnesota repudiated it. They told me it would permanently endanger the Republican party in those States, perhaps disrupt, because I was a railroad man. That it would identify the Republican party with railroad monopoly.

The Inter-Ocean says:—A number of lieutenants of the various candidates met about 12.30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. All the candidates were represented except Senator Harrison. J. S. Clarkson was Senator Allison's near friend in the meeting. Mayor McKinley, Green B. Raum, Senator Quay and Major Butterworth appeared for Sherman. Mr. Blaine was represented through members of the Conference delegation. Powell Clayton was also on hand and two or three of Alger's best men. Senator Farwell was there for Judge Gresham. The meeting did not adjourn till three o'clock. It is learned that one thing was very unanimously decided upon, and that was to prevent any hasty action being precipitated upon the Convention or to allow a stampede to take place in favor of any dark horse. It was concluded that the best way to do the business of making a candidate for the Republican party was to proceed very slowly and act with mature judgment.

The names of none of the candidates were brought before the meeting. It is now clear that New York does not hold the key to the situation, and that the Convention does not intend that that State shall dictate who shall be the nominee.

The decision reached by the meeting will prevent any stampede should Blaine's name be sprung on the Convention. Gresham, Allison, Alger and Sherman go into the convention again with their forces at command and without concentrating all on any individual. A report was current after midnight that New York had agreed to transfer forty votes to Harrison, on the condition that if it should appear that Harrison could not be nominated, the votes given him should be released. A member of the New York delegation, who stands high in the councils of the party, said they were in earnest for Harrison, and would do their utmost to nominate him. They believed that the other delegates would not dare to ignore the wishes of New York after she had withdrawn her own candidate.

A forth and fifth ballot were taken on Saturday. Below is a table giving the balloting in detail up to Saturday night when the convention adjourned.

	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th
Whole number of votes					833
Necessary to a choice					427
Alger	84	116	122	135	142
Allison	72	75	88	88	99
Blaine	35	32	35	42	48
Depew	99	99	91	..	..
Fitler	24	..	..	..	..
Gresham	111	108	123	98	87
Harrison	80	91	94	217	213
Hawley	13	..	..	..	..
Ingalls	28	16	..	..	..
Lincoln	3	2	2	1	..
McKinley	2	3	8	11	14
Miller	..	..	2	..	..
Phelps	25	18	5	..	..
Rusk	25	20	16	..	..
Sherman	229	249	244	235	224
Foraker	..	..	..	1	1
Douglas	..	..	..	1	..

There was a narrow escape from a Blaine stampede in the Convention at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Depew, who was responsible for the Harrison boom which gave such promise, admitted the failure of that movement and declared himself for Blaine. Instead of getting nominated in the morning Harrison was forced to the utmost of his strength and compelled to full back confessedly beaten. Harrison's friends are very indignant at the manner in which he has been treated and claim a mere pretence was made of giving him hearty support and that from the first it was not intended by Elkins and his colleagues to permit the Hoosier's nomination. They were in an ugly mood Saturday night, and while confessing their favorite's defeat had no plans for the future.

The Elkins programme of beating the regular candidates one after another, thus preparing the way for Blaine, is being successfully carried out. Sherman fell by the wayside on Friday and has telegraphed his delegates relief of all pledges to him. Harrison was beaten on Saturday. The friends of Judge Gresham are making one last rally and are forcibly presenting his claims as the strongest man on whom the opposition to Blaine can unite.

This afternoon's adjournment without a ballot was first put down as an anti-Blaine victory, but the facts do not support this theory. There are good reasons for believing that Depew's abandonment of Harrison was arranged to be the signal for a Blaine stampede, but it is the policy of the Blaine forces to aid all efforts to secure delay.

There is no concealment of the bitter feeling prevailing over the manner in which the Convention is being juggled with by the friends of Blaine, who pretend to be giving other candidates a fair chance and at the same time take good care to defeat them one after the other as they rise in prominence in balloting. So much feeling is being engendered by these tactics, which the friends of Harrison denounce as a confidence game, making dupes of earnest men, that a revolt against the Blaine programme is threatened. Many visitors, disgusted with the manipulation of the convention, which brings on an adjournment without an attempt to transact business, are leaving the city, and if the feeling of antagonism among delegates continues to grow another than Blaine may be nominated.

Elkins has openly boasted of his ability to beat any candidate the opposition may put up and also boasts of having defeated Sherman and Harrison. He says there is no doubt of Blaine's acceptance of nomination. The current prediction is that Blaine will be nominated, possibly after a conference with the representatives of the defeated candidates at which a letter or telegram from Mr. Blaine will be read.

The Tribune says that the anti-Harrison forces have combined to prevent his nomination, and after a ballot or two more will adjourn to unite on some other candidate.

The News says the ticket still looks like Blaine and Harrison or Blaine and Alger.

The Tribune says Alger and Allison gained strength.

The Herald says Alger and Allison men are very hopeful. It says part of Pennsylvania will go to Allison after Sherman.

The papers agree that at present Harrison is the most popular candidate.

Mr. Blaine's Movements.

LONDON, June 25.—Mr. Blaine left Melrose for Dalkeith this morning.

They Refuse to be Buried.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The Presidential situation is practically unchanged. Yesterday brought a clearer understanding of the conditions under which the remarkable contest is to be fought out. Gradually it has dawned upon the Convention that certain men pretending to represent Blaine have determined to prevent the nomination of any other candidate in order to make Blaine's nomination a possibility. Their aim has been to kill off one candidate after another till none of the original aspirants remained. There is a general belief that some despatches from Blaine will be read to the Convention to-day, probably one requesting his friends to refrain from voting for him.

The situation Saturday night may be described as follows: In the Convention to-day all the candidates will stand firm. There are no withdrawals. The conference of anti-Blaine men has agreed not to present any candidate for the support of the Opposition. Indeed it is unable to agree upon a candidate. There is a deep feeling on all sides that the "Blaine or bust" programme is not sanctioned by Mr. Blaine. The plan of the opposition therefore is simply to stand firm and wait for Blaine himself to speak or for his assured representatives to face the issue. The candidates whom Elkins professed to have killed refuse to be buried. Every one of them is still in the race and determined at all hazards to prevent Blaine's nomination. To-day's balloting is likely to show little change from Saturday.

English Comment on the Platforms.

LONDON, June 25.—The Chicago platform was cabled in full to The Times, but elicits no comment of importance, unless the comment of The Spectator may be called important. That journal thinks it unlikely that the sorely pressed and unprotected agriculturists will support such a programme "The enthusiasm of the Convention," remarks the same writer, "manifests itself in the worst style of oratory we remember to have read; oratory as of Americans educated by Irishmen."

A STEAM YACHT UPSETS.

Six Young People Drowned near Newark, N.J., on Saturday Night.

NEWARK, N.J., June 25.—A party of ladies and gentlemen hired the steam yacht Olivette Saturday night and went for a trip down the bay. The boat went aground on the jetty at the foot of the bay and several of the male passengers jumped over on the jetty, and in doing so the boat lurched and slid off into deep water. The girls then made a rush for the side of the boat and this caused her to keel over suddenly and in a second she turned bottom up and six of the party were drowned.

The names of those lost were: Louis Groff, 20; Gussie Leitz, 20; Lizzie Collins, 15; Minnie Burgher, 19; Gussie Weber, 19; and Annie Fricke.

THE CABINET OUTLOOK.

Probability that the Vacancies will be Filled Within a Few Days.

OTTAWA, June 25.—There was a meeting of the Council Saturday but it is understood that nothing beyond routine business was transacted.

Sir John Macdonald leaves for Toronto to night and will probably return on Wednesday. He will remain here about a week and then go east for two or three weeks, spending a few days at Dalhousie, where Lady Macdonald now is, and paying a short visit to Halifax.

It is most probable that the two vacancies in the Cabinet will be filled and some other appointments made on his return from Toronto. Meanwhile it is thought that Hon. Mr. Dewdney will be Minister of the Interior, Hon. Mr. Chapleau Postmaster-General, Hon. E. A. Kirkpatrick, M.P. for Frontenac, Secretary of State and Mr. Hayter Reed will succeed Hon. Mr. Dewdney as Indian Commissioner for the Northwest.

It is understood that the period of residence required from candidates for cadetships in the Royal Military College has been reduced from five to three years.

It is said that Lieut.-Gov. Aikens of Manitoba will re-enter the Senate, succeeding Hon. Mr. Shultz.

Hon. Mr. Costigan will probably visit the Northwest and British Columbia in August.

The collector of Customs at Brockville has seized the plans of the new high school for that place for non-payment of duty. They were prepared in Ogdensburgh.

A POSTMASTER HALF KILLED.

Three Bullets Planted in His Body by Burglars.

STREETSVILLE, June 25.—On Saturday a lively attempt at burglary and some serious revolver shooting disturbed the quiet of this town. Wm. Graydon is a storekeeper and postmaster and his son Wm. J. is in business with his father. About 2.30 in the morning two men were discovered by the Messrs. Graydon trying to effect an entrance into their store. The merchants just heard a loud rattling at the store door, and the two went out to investigate. Just outside the door they encountered the pair, and a fight followed. One of the burglars got away, but the Graydons seized the other one and threw him down. As he fell he drew a revolver from his pocket and fired twice rapidly, one of the bullets striking the elder Graydon in the thigh. The pal returned on seeing his pal captured and he, too, fired two shots at the Graydons. The father was once more shot, the bullet this time entering the left arm near the wrist, taking a course towards the elbow. The scoundrels then ran away and were traced as far as Cookeville, where they managed to throw their pursuers off the track. Mr. Graydon is dangerously wounded. The doctors have extracted two of the bullets, but have been unable to reach the other. No fatal results are anticipated.

A Farmer Robbed and His Pockets Picked —Liberal Conservative Picnic.

There was a Liberal-Conservative picnic at Victoria Park on Saturday afternoon at which the following speakers made speeches: John Small, M. P., Col. Fred Denison, M.P., Robt. Bell, ex-M.P.P., and Dr. Montague, M. P. for Haldimand. There was a good attendance.

He was a bright and promising young man of 21 years of age.

Edward Mawson, 20 years of age, was drowned while bathing on the lake side of the sand bar yesterday morning.

Farmer John Golding of Pickering arrived in the city on Saturday morning when the weather was at its hottest. Feeling inclined for a drink he took his new black overcoat off his back, threw it across a fence on Front-street west, and then hied himself to the nearest bar. After refreshment he sought out his coat, but it had disappeared. He then found that his pocket had been picked of $12 while he had been drinking. On complaining to the police he was surprised to learn that a man who could take so little care of his property deserved to lose it.

Saw Her Child Killed.

LIMA, O., June 25.—This afternoon Mrs. Mary Wolfe left a small baby carriage containing her 6-months' old child standing in front of Ramsey Brothers' shoe store while she went inside to do some shopping. The carriage, from some unaccountable cause, started to run away and ran into the gutter, upsetting and throwing the child out in front of a horse and buggy; the horse stepped on the child's head, crushing the skull. The mother, seeing the horse step on the child, became frantic and fainted away. It was some time before she was restored. The child lived only a short time.

SPECIAL SUNDAY SERMONS

Farewell, Fraternal and For Little Folks.

Rev. Messrs. Tovell and Wilson Say Their Farewell Words—Masonic Sermon by Rev. M. L. Pearson—Children's Day in the Baptist Church.

Sunday morning was "children's day" at the Murray street Baptist church. The pupils of the Sunday school and their teachers occupied the front seats, and all listened intently to the very suitable address by the pastor, Rev. P. Clifton Parker. The altar was lavishly decorated with flowers and plants. The hymns sung were selected from the Sunday school hymnal, and were chosen with a direct bearing upon the occasion. Rev. Mr. Parker chose for his text the 11th verse of the 119th Psalm:—"Thy word have I hid in my heart that I might not sin against Thee." The psalm from which the text was taken was a remarkable one in many ways he said. It was the longest chapter in the Bible, and was divided into 22 parts, each part having over it a word. These words were simply the names of the letters of the Hebrew alphabet, and meant A, B, C and so on. Then the first letter of the first word of each verse was one of the Hebrew letters. So the chapter seemed almost to be a huge acrostic. Another peculiar trait was that every verse had a direct reference to the word of God, and that was the principal reason why the pastor had chosen the chapter on this occasion. Subdividing the text into three parts—the word of God, mine heart, and that I might not sin—the preacher enlarged upon each in succession. The word of God was the best thing we could have, the heart was the best place we could put it, and the best purpose for which we could use it would be that we might learn not to sin; therefore, it was the best thing in the best place for the best purpose. The reverend gentlemen interspersed anecdotes and questions to the children throughout his address, and urged them to take the text to their hearts and always reverence the Bible. A hymn was sung and Miss Stratton's class of little girls stood up and recited the ten commandments in verse form. At the conclusion of the sermon the pastor gave the children a piece of good news in announcing that the annual picnic would be held in about a fortnight. The little folks are anxiously looking forward to it.

The Masonic Sermon.

About a hundred brethren of the Masonic order visited St. Andrew's in a body Sunday night, when the annual sermon was preached by Rev. M. L. Pearson. Special music was rendered by the choir. The reverened gentman chose for his text Romans XIV, 6.

"For none of us liveth to himself."

Rev. Mr. Pearson said he would first state that at the time he had agreed to preach the annual sermon to the Masonic brethern he was not aware that he would have to also appear to-day for the last time before his own congregation in Lindsay, and the inconveniences arising from the hurry in passing the two places, did not allow him to do justice to the sermon; at least it would have the virtue of honest conviction. In the begining ing, he stated that he believed in organization, it was right. Everywhere was found this law of association; it was God's will. A great deal was heard to-day about well-balanced and self-contained men, but they were but the watchwords of the science of selfish culture. Nothing that was heroic and self-sacrificing could be found in these men. Then there are others whose lives are spent in doing good for others, and association for them was a blessing. This law of association began when a helpmeet was made for Adam, and as children were born they were associated in the family circle, then tribes sprang up as the result of this divine ordination, and the church was established because it was better for christian men to associate together. The order whose members he was addressing was the result of this law of association. It was said by some that secret societies were not in a position to best advance the cause of charity and brotherly love, but he (the reverend speaker) held otherwise. Nature was full of mysteries and secrets which cannot be penetrated. The redemption of man and the providence of Almighty God are things which cannot be understood. The question which every Christian asks is, "Is there sufficient reveal-ment of God's love and power to entitle me to respect and have faith in him?" The answer is, yes. And in connection with the Masonic Order, the question is, are there enough of its purposes and objects revealed to entitle it to public confidence and trust? Most emphatically, yes. It was not a religious order, but it had been described as a beautiful system of morality, and, so far as he was able to judge of it, said Rev. Mr. Pearson, that was the case. No person knowing the objects and aims of the Society could justly say that it did not fulfil a good purpose. One of the conditions of membership of the Order was that the applicant must be a good man and true, and that meant a great deal. The great want of Masons to-day is Masonry; the great want of Christians to-day is Christianity. In the Order there was no need of better laws or doctrines, but rather of men more in harmony with the principles of the Order. One of the first principles was friendship and brotherly love—one of the greatest needs of the human race. Relief to the needy and the inculcation of truth were other principles. The public have had the opportunity of knowing that a great amount of good has been done by the order in distributing aid regardless of nationality. The only measure of Masonic bounty was the needfulness of the case in hand. The presence of the brethren on this occasion intimated their recognition of the influence of the church upon all organizations of human construction. The church was the oldest institution on the earth, and the cardinal principles of the Order already mentioned were there taught by Christianity. The great idea of brotherly love was got from the friend "who sticketh closer than a brother." If men join the Masonic Order simply for the purpose of obtaining relief or preparing against a time of trouble, they do not enter the Order with the truest motives. In the Masonic, as in all other Orders, the Lord God should be given the pre-eminent position. We owe all the institutions on earth for the succour and relief of suffering humanity to the general dissemination of the principles of Christianity. Therefore a name above every name should be given to Him. In the ritual of the Order for laying the foundation stones the Corinthian and Ionic lights were used, and the preacher urged that they also walk in the light of life, be not weary in well doing. The influences that induced them to enter the Order were working on them always and the preacher concluded with an earnest appeal to the brethren before him to be faithful unto the end, and then would come the call from labor to eternal rest.

Rev. I. Tovell's Farewell.

There was an unusually large congregation assembled in the Charlotte street Methodist church on Sunday evening to listen to the valedictory sermon of Rev. I. Tovell, who on that occasion closed a pastorate of one year. Rev. G. M. Davis assisted in the preliminary services, after which Rev. Mr. Tovell took for his text Joshua iii., v. 4. The subject of the sermon was a comparison of the journeyings of the Israelites from Egypt to Canaan with the journeyings of the Christian. The importance of entering upon the pathway of Christian duty was affectionately and warmly urged upon the congregation, and they were exhorted to be steadfast therein so that they might at the end reach the Promised Land — the new Jerusalem. During the course of the address, the speaker referred to his overpowering sense of the responsibilities which had rested upon during his four years ministration in Peterborough; he had tried to point his hearers to the right way and he closed by urging the flock he was about to leave to solemnly ask themselves the question "Shall I get to Heaven. Rev. Mr. Tovell closed his address by giving expression to a few farewell words. He gave his thanks to all who had during the one year of his pastorate of the Charlotte street Methodist church by their kindness and assistance contributed to his success and happiness. His thanks were due, and were heartily given to members of both the church and the congregation for their unvaried and continuous kindness. His year with them had been one of a constant peace of mind. His thanks were due to the officials of the church from whom he had received the most gentlemanly kind and christian treatment. He thanked the choir for the efficient and faithful contributions they had made to public worship. The faithful labors of the sexton were warmly recognized. He thanked the Ladies Aid Society whose services were worthy of the warmest remembrances as well as the noble band of Sunday school workers whose labours had made the Sunday school now to small for the large band of 300 pupils. Thanks were given to the young people for the hearty and intelligent interest they took in the promotions of the schemes of the church. His gratitude was expressed to those outside the congregation for their christian kindness. Reference was made to the happy relations with the other ministers of the town, especially Rev. Father Conway, a warm hearted genial and liberal priest. The town was characterised by a large share of Christian unity which would be strengthened by the coming of the evangelists Crossley and Hunter. He hoped in the last great day a vast throng would come up from Peterborough. The speaker connected his family with his expressions of thanks and farewell greetings. He closed by invoking the blessing of God upon his flock. He intimated that he and his family would leave town on Thursday morning. He did not do this for the sake of having them come to the station to see them off, for they had their duties to attend to. They would depart from the Midland—not C.P.R.—station at 8.20. In the meantime any person calling at the parsonage would be warmly welcomed.

Was America ever Discovered?

At the time when Columbus started in search of the New World, nearly every man, woman and child in Europe insisted that there was no New World to discover. When he came back, crowned with success, a large proportion of these good people adhered to their theory; and if they were alive to-day many of them would doubtless insist that America had never been discovered at all. A man will give up anything in the world more readily than a pet theory. For example, look at the individuals who still maintain that consumption is incurable. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured thousands upon thousands of cases, and will cure thousands more, but these people can't give up their point. Nevertheless the "Discovery" will cure any case of consumption, if taken in time. a Lacrosse Game on Saturday—Baseball Record—Games To-day.

OTTAWA, June 25. - The championship lacrosse match here on Saturday on the Metropolitan grounds, between the Ottawa and Cornwall clubs, was won by the latter, the score standing two to three for the winners. It drew 4,000 excited spectators who, despite the blazing sun, cheered the players from start to finish. WINNIPEG WIRE WHISPERS.

A Remarkable Decision Drowned in a Barrel—Tracklaying on the M.S.W.R.R.

WINNIPEG, June 25.—Judge Ardagh has decided that provisional employees of the Dominion Government are not entitled to vote.

He also rendered a decision which creates universal comment. Rev. Mr. Leslie, who has lived here for six years, was absent in Montreal conducting immigrants to Manitoba when the voters' list was made up. Because he was not here personally at the time, although his family was, his application to be placed on the list was refused.

The Free Press has an article, in which it alludes to The Sun as the Greenway Government organ. It opposes the proposal to give the Northern Pacific control over the roads built by provincial money, and demands Free Trade in railways.

Telegrams from St. Paul deny that the Northern Pacific is interested in railway schemes in Manitoba as reported.

A lunatic named E. G. Fraser was drowned at Selkirk Asylum yesterday by falling into a barrel from which he was taking a drink. He is supposed to have had a fit.

Two buffalo bulls have been killed near Medicine Hat.

The American Knights Templar were royally entertained here and left for home this morning.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

Broken Down.

"After suffering with Dyspepsia, Kidney Disease, loss of appetite and pain in the head until discouraged, I heard of Burdock Blood Bitters, took two bottles and am happy to say feel as well as ever." Mrs. Rufus E. Merry, New Albany, N. S. 2w26d

Well Tested.

"I was nearly dead with Cholera Morbus, one bottle of Extract of Wild Strawberry cured me, and at another time I was so bad with Summer Complaint that I thought I would never get over it, when two bottles cured me." Mrs. E. Askett, Peel, Ont. 2w26d

From Moreapne, Man.

Mr. Joseph Clark writes—"All last winter I was so bad with Inflammatory Rheumatism that I was not expected to live. I used no other medicine but Burdock Blood Bitters and can now get around again feeling better than I ever was before I was taken sick, and I owe it all to Burdock Blood Bitters." 2w26d

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

A Fact Worth Remembering.

Mr. Jas. Binnie, of Toronto, states that his little baby when three months old was so bad with summer complaint that under doctor's treatment her life was despaired of. Four doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cured her. She is now fat and hearty. 2w26d

A Distressing Disease.

"I wish to give my testimony in favor of Burdock Blood Bitters. I had been troubled with Erysipelas and was induced to try this valuable medicine. I have used three bottles and am now well as ever." Mrs. L. Fisch, Cedar Creek, Ont. 2w26d

Undeniably True.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and found it a sure cure for summer complaint. I was very sick and it cured me entirely." Mr. Alexander W. Grant, Moose Creek, Ont. 2w26d

Practice Economy

By taking advantage of the opportunity offered you to buy Superior Teas at Honest Prices from the undersigned.

You May Try

Everybody's Teas in Town and compare them with our Strictly Uncoloured Japan, English Breakfast, Oolong and Young Hyson and you will be convinced that none will suit your taste as well as ours.

To Buy Teas Right

Is something which requires close study and observation. The cultivation of a trained sense of smell, taste and inspection is needed, which takes a long time to acquire and many never can acquire it.

To Keep Teas Right

After they are bought is another thing which no one can succeed in doing unless he is an enthusiast in looking after the "small details" of the Tea trade.

The Unflagging Attention

We give to the Tea branch of our business has demonstrated the truth of the above, and our lengthened experience gives us confidence in guaranteeing superior qualities which we invariably handle. We pride ourselves in our Tea Trade.

Our Finest Coffee

We positively guarantee to be of finer aroma and greater strength than the coffee usually sold. The properties of coffee require constant care and attention in order to retain its delicacy and purity. No one will be disappointed by using our Coffees regularly.

All Lovers

Of good Tea and Coffee know how easily both drinks may be spoiled on the stove. To secure the best results, therefore, a fair trial by the practical housekeeper is of course necessary to insure success.

Bricklayers' & Masons' Union,

No. 12, Peterborough.

To the Architects and Builders of the Town of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN,—The members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 12, Peterborough, have decided to take no sub-contracts after the 1st day of June, 1888. We take this step, believing it to be to the best of Architects and Proprietors of building to deal directly with us, and not as heretofore, letting our branch of work to Carpenters, and then have them sublet it to us, frequently at a loss to owners of buildings through inferior material being used to secure the carpenter a profit. We therefore, consider it would be to the interest of all concerned, to have each trade control its own line of work.

A Favorite Summer Resort.

Knocked Down by a Horse.

Saturday evening about six o'clock a little son of Mr. Wm. Clancy, while standing amongst a crowd on the sidewalk opposite the gangway to the City Hotel sheds, was knocked down by a horse driven from the yard. The horse's knee struck the little fellow in the stomach and knocked him down, but he was not stepped on or run over. It was thought he was seriously hurt, but fortunately such is not the case.

A Bad Lot.

The city bill-poster of Belleville complained through the press of that city of the iniquitous conduct of the advance bill-posters of Howe's circus, who treated him most shabbily. Mr. E. C Hill, of Peterborough, was in exactly the same box, and legal proceedings were threatened. However, Mr. Howe himself has settled the matter by promptly discharging the whole staff, and in some cases imprisoning them. Mr. Howe wishes this made public in order to clear him from all blame.

Decoration Day.

To-morrow is Decoration Day, and the Oddfellows will meet at their respective lodge rooms at 1.30 p.m., instead of 2.30, as previously announced. Flowers for Otonabee lodge can be left either at Mr. A. Mercer's store or the lodge room, which will be open all day for the reception of floral offerings; for Peterborough lodge at Mr. H. Long's or at the lodge room. The ladies will no doubt, as in former years, contribute largely. The Oddfellows expect the merchants to close their places of business in the afternoon and give their employes a half-holiday.

Masonic Amenities.

On Sabbath evening at the close of the services in St. Andrew's church, the Rev. Mr. Pearson who had delivered the annual sermon to the members of the Masonic body, was escorted by the brethren to their hall on Water street, where a Masonic welcome was accorded him. A vote of thanks was also tendered the Rev. brother for the special exertions he had made to be present with them and for the able sermon he had delivered. Rev. Mr. Pearson made a suitable reply, referring to his approaching residence in Peterborough, and promising to identify himself with his Masonic brethren here.

Councillors at the Bridge Works.

Saturday after the session of the council was over and its legislators had drawn their indemnity, they found busses waiting there at the outer door to take them to the Central Iron Bridge works. Here they fortunately found the work for the Locks bridge to be in hand and the visitors noted the work with great interest—such as the cutting of the "channel bars," done with a cold saw with the greatest exactitude, the rivetting of the lattice work, the work of the hydraulic punching machine, and that of the enormous steam forging hammer and saw the eyebars formed, at one stroke of the ponderous hammer, and afterwards drilled to a hundredth of an inch. The council was much impressed with the unexpected extent and completeness of the Works.

Cause and Effect.

The question of the hour is why people will put themselves so much about; why pass all the attractions along George street. Bankrupt stocks at 50c. on the dollar, and dollar for dollar, and goods for the mere asking, in fact, to be sent home in a wheelbarrow, and charge nothing for the sending. We ask again why is it that an appreciating public will pass all this and pursue the even tenor of their way till the noted cheap store, the last on the east side of George street—in other words, Sheppard's Big Bonanza Bargain House is reached. Cause and effect—the cheapest and best goods between Toronto and Montreal. d

The New Time Table.

To-day a new time table comes into effect on the Midland Division. The chief change is the introduction of a Toronto local, which is advertised elsewhere. It leaves a 6 40 a.m. and arrives at Toronto at 9.55; returning leaves Toronto at 5.30 p.m. arriving here at 9 o'clock. This gives the whole day in Toronto. The public of Peterborough and vicinity ought to and no doubt will appreciate the new service, which was secured only by strenuous exertions on the part of the local railway authorities. The new train also gives close connection with the trains on the main line both east and west at Port Hope. There are a few minor changes also in the time on the other divisions. The Lakefield train now leaves Peterborough at 8.35 a.m. and at 6.15 p.m. arriving at 11.07 a.m. and 8.15 p.m. On the Grand Junction the morning train leaves at 8.20 and returns at 7.50 p.m. With reference to the new time table the Oshawa Reformer says:—This is a change long wished for by the residents of Oshawa.

The Circus.

Both the afternoon and evening performances of Howe's circus on the market square Saturday were well attended, as they deserved to be. The circus is of the standard variety, including exhibitions of all the well-known feats that usually constitute ring performances. First came the somersault leaps in the air over the backs of four or five horses; then the magic barrel performance by Jas. Bensley, who later on gave the crystal pyramid act. His performances were loudly applauded. The Albion family did some startling tricks on the Russian ladders and in tumbling. The two little Kling children in their daring ring and flying trapeze performances caused a sensation. Mdlle. Marieste on the invisible wire and Mr. E.W. Bensley on the slack wire were both artists in their line and were liberally applauded. Mdlle. Mariette afterwards gave an exhibition of juggling that was well done indeed. The king of contortionists, Mr. Diamond, gave a splendid exhibition of his snake-like abilities. Prof. Kling toyed with big cannon balls as though they were marbles, and seemed to be a wonderfully strong man. The club-swinging of Prof. Fitzgerald was also good. The wild west scene and pantomime were rather original and striking features of the circus, and took immensely. Afterwards a concert of the usual song-and-dance and pantomime variety was held. In the sideshow attached to the circus are a great number of curiosities who are well worth seeing. The price of admission is low, in fact very low for such a good performance, and doubtless the attendance to-day will be if anything increased.

Baptist Church Association.

Tuesday forenoon at 9 o'clock the Peterborough and Belleville Association of Baptist churches meets in the Murray street church here. After the opening prayer meeting the business of the session will be begun. An afternoon and evening meeting will be held, and on Wednesday the session will close in the afternoon. The sittings of the association are open to the public. The sixty or more delegates who will be present are about all billited, but in order to save time and long unnecessary walks to meals, lunches and tea will be provided in the church by the ladies. This will be the first meeting of the Association in Peterborough since 1862. The Association was organised 30 years ago, and was first known as the Haldimand Association, then as the Colborne Association, afterwards the East Ontario, and finally it was divided into two parts, one now being called the Whitby and Lindsay Association and the other the Peterborough and Belleville Association. The EXAMINER has already published the full programme of the proceedings.

WITH MURDEROUS INTENT

A Probably Fatal Shooting Affray on Sunday.

An Indian Belonging to Howe's Circus Shot Down by the Property Man—An Apparently Causeless Crime—How it Happened.

The town was startled Sunday afternoon by the report that an Indian connected with Howe's circus had been deliberately shot down by another employe of the show. In a short time large crowds gathered about the market square and the Grand Central Hotel, and these, on dispersing, carried the news all over town until the papers have very little left to tell. The reports were exaggerated and in many cases inaccurate, and the EXAMINER will endeavor to give the exact facts of the case. This is difficult, however, as the man that did the shooting won't say anything, his victim can't, and the few eye-witnesses to the affair each have a different version.

THE PARTIES TO THE AFFRAY.

Simon Elijah, the victim of the affray, is an Indian connected with the wild-west portion of Howe's circus. His would-be murderer is named James Fahey, or "Property Reddy" as he was known by his associates. He was property man of the company, but was looked upon as being a thoroughly bad fellow. He was not at all the choice of the management, who don't wish the impression to go abroad that their company has such desperadoes in it. In fact his action on Sunday but hastened his discharge from employment. The Indian, on the other hand, was a valued member of the troupe, and was generally liked by the circus people.

Beginning at the beginning, the trouble between them is said to have originated in a drunken debauch Sunday forenoon. The two men got into a scuffle and "Reddy" was worsted. But he was not subdued, and in the afternoon his angry passion got the better of his sense and he deliberately shot his adversary. They met on the market square about half past three, just at the corner of the old music hall. "Reddy" come through the Arcade and the Indian from the dining tent, the latter heading for the pump. Fahey was evidently intoxicated. "Hello, Reddy," the Indian shouted. "Where are you going?" demanded the other, surlily. "For a drink; come and have something with me," was the reply. "No, you —— —— ——, I'm going to lick you right away," returned Fahey. "Oh, I guess you won't lick anything." the Indian retorted. "I'll shoot you, you —— —— ——," roared the infuriated Fahey, and no sooner were the words out of his mouth than he and fired. The Indian gave a cry of pain, stooping down and placing his hands on his stomach, and a cowboy, rushing out of the tent, snatched the pistol from Fahey's hand. A number of people ran up, among them Chief Roszel and P.C. Stewart, who had heard the shot at the police station and at once hastened to the spot. Fahey walked towards the Chief and said, "Arrest me," and he was handed over to Officer Stewart, who placed him in a cell. Meanwhile the wounded man was taken into a tent, and from there afterwards conveyed to the commercial room of the Grand Central Hotel, where the physicians and Police Magistrate Dumble, who had been summoned, made an examination, the the latter taking an ante-mortem statement, as it was feared he would soon die. He was and Doctors Collins, King, Brennan and Rolson made a hasty examination and probed for the bullet, which had entered the upper part of the abdomen on the left side, and passing downward lodged near the kidney. It was not extracted. During the examination the prisoner was brought in, and at every groan of the wounded man he would smile, seeming to enjoy the other's misery. The ante-mortem statement was taken in the presence of the prisoner. In it the Indian stated through an interpreter that he lived at Oneida, Middlesex Co., Ont., and knew of no reason why Fahey should shoot him. It is thought that Fahey was maddened by drink at the time. He did not seem to realize the gravity of his position, and would not say a word about the affair. While in the cells, however, he attempted to climb out through the grating. After the examination Rev. J. W. R. Beck administered, at his own request, the consolation of the church, and early in the evening he was transferred to the Nicholls Hospital, where he is still living. It was at first thought he could not possibly live, but there seems to be a slight hope now. Doctor's King and Halliday are in attendance.

IN GREAT AGONY,

There were a large crowd at the police court to-day, but the

was adjourned till 4.30 this afternoon. The cowboy who took the revolver from Fahey was arrested and held as an important witness, as it was thought he might attempt to escape.

The circus people feel hurt over the affair, and are anxious that the guilty man should be punished. They fear that they will in some way be implicated by public report, but it is only fair to state that they are in no way responsible.

The medical attendants of the wounded man are still unable to pronounce a prognosis as to the termination of his case. They have been unable to locate the bullet, which entered the left side about six inches below the nipple, between the 11th and 12th ribs. This morning when Dr. King, present hospital surgeon, and consulting physicians made an examination, the constitutional symptoms were not alarming—temperature, 100°; pulse, 120. Another conference of surgeons upon the case began at five o'clock this evening.

Personal.

Miss Kate Bertram, second daughter of Mr. John Bertram, is to be congratulated upon receiving her diploma at the Brantford Ladies' College.

Mr. W. J. Wallace has returned from California, where he has been for the past four seasons. He is well pleased with the climate and country. His friends are glad to see him looking so well.

Rev. J. C. Wilson, said farewell to his congregation in the Mark street Methodist church, Sunday evening, prior to his departure for Cobourg. Next Sunday the new pastor, Rev. A. C. Wilson, will preach.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bradburn returned home on Saturday evening from California. Mr. Bradburn is looking well and Mrs. Bradburn's many friends will be pleased to know that she was able to sit up yesterday.

The Lindsay Post says:—"Miss Carrie Brady returned to town this week from Peterborough, where for some time past she has been taking a course in shorthand, etc., at Sawyer's business college. We are pleased to learn she passed a very successful examination."

Mrs. Gilmour, who has been spending some time at Clifton Springs, N.Y., for the benefit of her health, returned home on Saturday. The EXAMINER regrets that it is impossible to report any improvement in her health, a fact which will be much deplored by the many friends of that estimable lady.

The Regatta To-Morrow.

To-morrow evening beginning at 6.30 o'clock the opening regatta of the Otonabee Canoe Club and the Lansdowne Rowing club will be held off Burnham's Point in Little Lake. The events set down are two four-oared scull races, single, double and four-paddle canoe races, and an aquatic tournament to wind up with. The starter is Mr. John McClelland, who intends to call the races sharp on time. For some of the events there are a large number of entries, and the regatta promises to be most interesting. The public will have a splendid view of the course from the bank. All lovers of aquatic sport are invited down to witness the regatta.

Sports of Sport.

Port Hope and Lindsay Y.M.C.A. lacrosse clubs play next Tuesday.

A practice cricket match, Married vs Single, will be played to morrow (Tuesday) afternoon. Wickets pitched at 3.30 o'clock. All members are particularly requested to be present.

The regular tennis meet will be held on the P.A.A.A. grounds on Thursday afternoon at 4.30. All members of the club and their lady friends are invited to be present.

Foundry base ball teams had a match on on Saturday evening in the Priest's field, the score stood at the end of the fifth innings 12 to 5 in favor of the Paralyzers. Batteries—Galley and Calaghan for foundry, Pratt and Graham for the Paralyzers. Pratt's twirl of the ball paralyzed the foundry men—[C m.

The Orillia News-Letter in its report of the Riverside-Orillia lacrosse match says:—"Joyal was half the Peterborough team, his timely assistance at point saving his team from disaster on many occasions. The old slugging spirit of the visitors does not seem to have died out, several unnecessary exhibitions of it cropping out. The Orillias did not not play up to their old form and it is quite evident they will have a pic-nic capturing the district flags, if they want them, and practice accordingly. There were some neat plays made by both teams, but team play did not seem to be thought of. The match showed that Orillia has rattling good lacrosse sticks yet."

—The Lindsay papers complain of the railway whistling nuisance

—A drunk was dismissed at the court this morning on promising to leave town at once.

—William Coorse, suffering from cancer, has been committed to gaol. The poor fellow is drying by inches, and it is probable will not live through his term of commitment.

—A local contemporary on Saturday had this brevity:—"The long expected rain came in a small scale this afternoon." This important bit of information lacks completeness. The omniscient reporter ought to have stated whether the rain came in a fish scale or a gamut.

—The Minden Echo says:—"Mr. John Dickson was at Peterborough this week erecting a handsome monument to the memory of his father, the late Mr. Geo. Dickson. It is a large granite block handsomely designed by Mr. Ayres, of Fenelon Falls, who has good workmen and turns out very artistic work."

—Lakefield Chronicle:—"We notice that our Peterborough contemporaries are crediting Lakefield with the late case of infanticide. The girl was from the back country where the reputed father resides, while the affair occurred in the township of Smith. Lakefield has enough sins to answer for without fathering those of other municipalities."

—The following case was disposed of at the Toronto High Court of Justice on Friday:—Scott v. Benedict.—Motion an behalf of defendant B. by way of appeal from an order of the Master in Chambers appointing Judge Weller, of Peterborough, to take the examination of defendant B. at Albany. Walter Barwick for the motion. R. J. Maclennan, contra. Appeal allowed. Costs to be costs in the cause.

—The "drives" of logs from the woods in the north are arriving at Bobcaygeon, says the Independent, and making their way to the mills at Peterborough. Two are now going through, one for Mr. McDonald and one for Mr. Hazlitt, containing about twenty to twenty-five thousand each. As they both struck the river at the same time, one is taking Big Bob channel, and the other Little Bob. There is likely to be a lively race in Pigeon Lake, and some tall warping.

"Why, Mrs. Jawsome, how can you insinuate such a thing! I drink or mad! I'm strong Scott Act. I know it's hard to believe, but Mrs. Bug does, a regular prayer meeting woman she is, too, told me so with her own mouth—which is hardly ever shut, so evidence knows—that she went traipsing up to Toronto with the Masonic excursion. She went through all the shops and price'd 'em all. She wanted to get a wedding present for Ann Jane Mariar who is going to marry that half baked gawk, Ben Slowit, and she was disgusted. She could do better at home. And she spent $1.84—$1.75 for her ticket and nine cents for cakes and a paper of pins she got at a seven-cent store—she tore that old cashmere dress she's worn a life time, on the car steps. O my! where was I?—O yes! she went straight to China Hall when she got home and got a lovely china tea set for so much less than she could in Toronto, that it made up for her expenses to the city. And she says they have terrible fine and cheap dishes at China Hall, and as she says, says she, 'Dead loads of 'em, too.'"

SUN
LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.
HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.
Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.
The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.
The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,482 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,386 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	363,264 31	2,962,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,607 24	4,029,373 65
Total in 1887	$495 831 54	$1,750,004 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

THE DARK HORSE WINS.

SKETCH OF THE REPUBLICANS' CHOICE FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

The Hoosier Comes to the Front in the Eighth Ballot—Blaine Cables His Withdrawal—Harrison a Church Deacon.

CHICAGO, June 26.—The Convention was called to order yesterday at 10.08. Boutelle of Maine read despatches from Blaine, dated Edinburgh, earnestly requesting his friends to withdraw his name from the Convention. This announcement killed the Blaine boom and the Convention went on with the balloting. It was not long before they selected their candidate in the person of ex-Senator Benjamin Harrison of Indiana. The details of the balloting are as below:—

SIXTH BALLOT

Alger	137	Allison	73
Blaine	40	Gresham	91
Harrison	361	McKinley	12
Sherman	244

SEVENTH BALLOT.

Alger	120	Allison	76
Blaine	15	Gresham	91
Harrison	278	Sherman	231

EIGHTH BALLOT.

Harrison	544	Alger	100
Sherman	118	Blaine	5
Gresham	59

The announcement of the vote was followed by great confusion in the hall, the delegates rising to their feet and cheering and the bands playing.

Foraker of Ohio moved to make the nomination unanimous. Hoar seconded the motion. The motion carried amid loud cheering.

Gen. Harrison's Career.

Of Gen. Harrison, the Republican nominee for the Presidency, a newspaper representative at the Convention the other day wrote:

Ex-Senator Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana, was born in Ohio. Here we see a public man who is not only a deacon in the Presbyterian Church, but a Sunday school teacher besides. He is by all odds the most popular Republican in Indiana, and has been the leader of the party there ever since the death of Oliver P. Morton. Strange as it may appear, he is not an eloquent man, nor is he what is termed magnetic. He forgets names and faces, and is completely destitute of that quality known as policy. Not being a temporiser he says yes and no, and then turns his attention to the next man who desires to see him. When he is announced to speak a throng is present to hear him, and great is the enthusiasm when once he begins. He is sure of the loyal support of every Republican in the State when he is a candidate for office and of the independent voters also.

The secret of his popularity is that he is a master of details, not only in politics, but in law and everything else. For many years he has been one of the most conspicuous men before the bar of Indiana, and, while his clients, by the way, have been numerous, he is still in moderate circumstances. His mental grasp is one of the wonders of those who know him, and his capacity for organization is his strongest quality. When he is conducting a case in court he displays supreme skill in managing his cause and is remarkably effective in cross-examinations.

In his political campaigns he displays the same genius that distinguishes his legal battles, and he is usually successful in all that he undertakes. Blunt as a wedge, cold as John Sherman is alleged to be, a Christian gentleman and a scholar, he leads in Indiana, while bright orators and hail fellows well met are glad to follow where'er he goes.

Short and stocky, with light hair and a colorless face, he is not a handsome man by any means. However, in his case as in all others, handsome is as handsome does. General Harrison is fifty-five years old. He was born on the old homestead of his grandfather, William Henry Harrison, ninth President of the United States, which was near North Bend on the Ohio River. His education and his wife were secured at Miami University, Oxford, O., from which he graduated when he was 18, where he was married before he was 21. With about $500 in his pocket and a family on his hands he journeyed to the city of Indianapolis, and a few days after his arrival there his law office was opened and he was prepared to do business with neatness and despatch. His hair was very white, his legs very short, and his head rather large for his body, but he went to work, and even if he did live for years in three plain rooms he was successful and not ashamed of his poverty or of the self-evident fact that clients would be gratefully received by him night or day.

Naturally he was a Republican and quite naturally a politician. When he became better known he was elected reporter of the Supreme Court of the State and was enjoying the benefits of the office when Lincoln called for 75,000 volunteers. Commissioned a second lieutenant by Gov. Morton, young Harrison marched away, leaving behind his wife and two small children. At the close of the war he returned to Indianapolis a brigadier-general, and almost immediately was re-elected to his old position in the Supreme Court, which had been occupied by a Democrat while he was fighting other Democrats in the South.

In 1876, when Tilden and Hendricks were making Indiana very lively with red fire and long processions, Oodlove Orth, the Republican nominee for Governor, withdrew from the ticket, and the State Central Committee put Harrison on in his stead. The General was in the pine forests of Michigan at the time and did not hear of the change until he returned home. He told his friends he would be defeated, but he made a vigorous struggle nevertheless, only to meet the fate he had predicted. In 1880 he succeeded Joseph E. McDonald in the Senate and served with honor until 1885, when he in turn was succeeded by David Turpie, a Democrat.

At the evening session Mr. Moore of Tennessee, who had been placed in nomination for the Vice-Presidency, withdrew his name, saying that he wanted no office but desired to see that political incubus removed from the White House, to have that great Jumbo, that clumsy behemoth, of Bourbon Democracy, who occupied the place of power at Washington, abolished from that high station. The Convention then proceeded to ballot, which resulted in the nomination of Levi P. Morton of New York by this vote: Morton 591, Phelps 119, Bradley 103, B. K. Bruce 11, W. F. Thomas 1.

The Convention adjourned at 8.32 without date.

At Harrison's Home.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 26.—A few minutes after one o'clock, when it became apparent that Harrison's nomination was probable, the excitement in the streets became intense. When Tennessee made his nomination certain tremendous cheers broke forth and the crowds from all the bulletin boards made a frantic rush for Gen. Harrison's law office in Market-street, shouting, waving hats, umbrellas and canes as they went. In an incredibly short space of time the broad street was packed with thousands of cheering men, many of whom rushed into his office crowding around him and cheering themselves hoarse.

WILLIAM'S INTENTIONS.

HIS ALLEGED WARLIKE HOTHEADEDNESS DENIED.

The Emperor on Germany's Pacific Disposition—How the Kaiser Intends to Honor his Mother—Opening of the Reichstag.

BERLIN, June 26.—German financiers and the great mass of well-informed Germans seem to believe that Kaiser Wilhelm is neither rash nor war-loving, otherwise the steadiness of the stock markets would be incomprehensible. All the stocks, Russians, Austrians, etc., which fluctuated so violently during the last year of the old Kaiser's life, are still controlled in a large measure by the German quotations. These stocks are widely enough scattered throughout Germany to insure a panic in them if any appreciable part of his subjects suspected the Emperor of desiring war; yet there is no suspicion of a panic nor of any marked change from the period of steadiness which seems to have set in. Regarding rumors circulated concerning the Kaiser's disposition and intentions an eminent political authority said to me:

"Most of these war rumors were started or greatly exaggerated by the Radical press, which more than anything else has always feared the reign of another such firmly but gently conservative king as was the late Kaiser Wilhelm. Of late, too, the Radicals used every effort to prevent the late Emperor's abdication. Among these means have been all kinds of stories about the present Emperor. Unfortunately the foreign press quotes almost entirely from the sensational opposition papers, and, as a rule the wilder the story the more certain it is to be widely quoted. Hence the world at large, outside of Germany, lacking other information, has agreed to call the Emperor a hot-headed warrior.

"In German politics this misrepresentation must prove a great advantage to the young Kaiser. He has been called bad names until the people are ready to pardon any small errors merely because they feared greater. Now his proclamations prove him a loyal son, and, so far as words go, a wise ruler. It will be quickly seen that any party willing in the past to endanger the Empire by exciting the suspicions of other nations against its future ruler is unworthy of confidence. Out of party animosity will come, therefore, a national party with the Emperor for its leader. Aside from an unprovoked attack on us or our allies, there is only one risk of a German war. If the minor German sovereigns should show themselves distrustful or jealous of their young Kaiser, or if through suspicion or jealousy any attempt is made to infringe the Imperial prerogatives, then the Kaiser might choose to rally all Germany around him for a victorious foreign war. The young Kaiser has probably no overwhelming desire for the old imperial title of 'Increaser of the Empire,' but it is quite certain that without a struggle he will never yield any power granted to his ancestors. The risk though needs scarcely to be considered, for the German people are for the Empire, even if thereby against one or all the petty kingdoms. The address from Prussia's old enemy, the Saxon people, proves this.

"Finally, the key note of the administration, as shown by The Berlin Post's official article, is opposition to all wars made by or against Germany or its allies. When an Emperor, scarcely on his throne, goes so far as to advise France where she may safely strike, it if only fair to accuse him of a desire to make war himself."

"How was this done?"

"Oh! You did not notice, then, the ending of the Post's article, as follows:—'Truly, then, the world offers wide fields outside of a war with Germany for French ambition and French energies—fields on which France will meet no German jealousy.' No, I did not say that that meant England; that idea occurs to you naturally because England is the nearest and most defenceless of the fields on which France could regain the self-respect she lost in 1870.

Among the odds and ends of news afloat is a rumor that Kaiser Wilhelm has decided to show his respect for his mother's abilities by conferring upon her some such vice-regal place as that now held in Brunswick by Prince Albert of Prussia. Where and what is not stated, but the reasons for this are said to be, among others, the desire to prove that he is not and has not been her opponent during his father's or grandfather's reign, and to accustom the Empress' mother to practise government, so that in event of a regency she may be able to fill that important place, which in any regency she must inevitably take. If in any degree true this would be totally at variance with all Prussian customs, but it might politically be the most wise as it would attach to the Kaiser most of those Radicals who are now more loyal to the Empress mother than to her son.

WILLIAM AS EMPEROR.

He Opens the Reichstag in a Blaze of Brilliancy.

BERLIN, June 26.—The Reichstag was opened yesterday with pomp and brilliancy. After divine service in the court chapel the Emperor was escorted with great ceremony to the White Hall of the old castle where he declared the session opened. Throughout his speech the Emperor dwelt upon Germany's pacific disposition. He said her policy aimed solely to ward off attack, not to acquire military glory. The Empire, he declared, desired peace with all nations. The Emperor said further: "Germany will adhere to her alliance with Austria which public opinion supports as a basis of European equilibrium and an inheritance of German history. The same relations and national needs united Germany and Italy. These relations will permit the careful cultivation of the Emperor's personal friendship with the Czar and the maintenance of the pacific relations with Russia which have existed for a century in consonance with the Emperor's feelings and Germany's interests.

Sherin—Middleton Nuptials.

The St. Paul, Minn., Despatch of June 14th, says:—

Atlantic Congregational church yesterday afternoon was the scene of one of the happiest events that has occurred in the city for a long time. It was the wedding of Mr. Clarence E. Sherin and Miss Clara E. Middleton. Mr. Sherin is connected with the Despatch of this city, and Miss Middleton is the daughter of James Middleton, who for a number of years has been a very prominent real estate dealer in St. Paul. The altar of the church was beautifully decorated with tropical plants and flowers. The time of the ceremony was 3 o'clock, and promptly at this hour the bridal party entered the church and approached the altar, where the bridegroom with his best man, J. B. McTaggart, awaited them. As the bridal party entered, Prof. Titcomb played the Lohengrin march. G. A. Sherin and C. W. Eberlein, the ushers, entered first, followed by Miss Maggie Middleton, strewing flowers in front of the bride, who entered on her father's arm. After the bride came the maid of honor, Miss Grace Fisk of Helena, Mont., and the bridesmaids, Miss Ella Smith of Philadelphia and Miss Georgia Middleton, sister of the bride. The bride wore a cream colored brocade metre, en traine, trimmed with white pearl lace and a long tulle veil. Miss Fisk wore a gaslight green surah, trimmed with tulle; Miss Smith light pink surah, and Miss Georgia Middleton, lemon surah, both with tulle trimmings. The bridesmaids wore no gloves. After the ceremony the party proceeded to the home of Mr. Middleton, where a reception was held from 4 until 6 o'clock. Both the church and the house were crowded with friends of the bride and groom. Selberts orchestra were stationed on the lawn and discoursed some of their sweetest music at the reception. The happy couple expect to spend a month at the Eastern seaside resorts, after which they will return to St. Paul. The bride received many handsome and valuable presents.

A Story of the Duke de Morny.

A characteristic anecdote dating from the reign of Louis Phillippe, is related of him. He had then been recently elected a member of the Chamber of Deputies, and received one day an invitation to dinner from a rich financier of the period who was fond of ostentatiously displaying his newly acquired wealth and sumptuously appointed table. He had, however, one peculiar weakness, of which those who had partaken of his hospitality were well aware, and which, somehow or other, had come to the ears of M. de Morny. A certain wine in his cellar, a Leoville of exquisite bouquet and flavor, was exclusively reserved for the Amphitryon himself, his wife and a single guest, whom he particularly wished to favor, the others being debarred from a taste of this delicious nectar. In the course of dinner, the privileged trio having been previously supplied with the incomparable Leoville, wines of various sorts were handed round; and when it came to the Count's turn he was asked by the butler if he preferred Chateau Lafitte or Hermitage. "Neither," he replied in a distinctly audible tone. "Give me some Leoville." The dismayed attendant glanced at his master, who, putting a good face on the matter, directed him to hand "M. le Comte" the wine he preferred; whereupon M. de Morny, negligently emptying the precious liquid from the claret glass into a tumbler, filled the latter with water and drank it; then, turning toward his neighbor, continued his conversation with him as unconcernedly as if nothing had occurred to interrupt it. Whether the parvenu profited by the lesson so pointedly administered to him and dispensed his Leoville more equitably in future is not recorded.

GLADSTONE'S CHALLENGE.

ITS READY ACCEPTANCE SURPRISES THE LIBERALS.

The Ministry Likely to be Supported by an Unbroken Majority—The Conservative Meeting at the Foreign Office.

NEW YORK, June 25.—G. W. Smalley cables The Tribune from London. Mr. Smith's ready acceptance of Mr. Gladstone's challenge has surprised the Gladstonians. They did not expect Mr. Smith to be ready. They had, however, given him plenty of time. They had announced before hand with much music of trumpets that the Ministry was to be brought to book about coercion. There are good tacticians on the Tory side as well as on the Liberal, and they recognized at once the advantage which this step gave them. There have been of late divisions in the Unionist ranks on minor matters, and the Tories themselves have had their differences. All these disappear at once. Mr. Morley's motion is to call to arms, and the Ministerial ranks close up instinctively. It is not about coercion that the Tory-Unionist coalition has been concerned. There are no searchings to the heart among them on that question, or none which have become public. Lord Randolph Churchill is the only important personage who doubts the efficacy of the plank bed. The whole party, from Lord Hartington to Mr. Colling, and from Mr. Smith to Mr. Ashmead Bartlett, will support Mr. Balfour and all his works. There will be two days debate, perhaps more, and whatever may be the merits of the question, the Ministry will in the end be supported by an unknown majority. Mr. Morley and Mr. Gladstone probably hope to convince the country, if not the House of Commons. The Dillon case will be the chief item in their programme, and the criticisms on the conviction of Mr. Dillon are chiefly technical; necessarily so. Broader censures reach the Crimes Act itself, not merely the administration of it. The Tories, rightly or wrongly, rejoice in the prospect before them. Fuller reports are now published of the Conservative meeting at the Foreign Office. They do not read as though it were the gathering of a happy family. Efforts were made to keep the proceedings secret, and Lord Salisbury threatened all tell-tales with heavy pains and penalties, but tales are told and printed. Secrecy respecting the proceedings of a meeting 200 strong is not possible. Lord Salisbury may well have wished to hide the truth. Clearly there are dissensions in the party. He himself talked of left and right wings. His censures were not confined to Mr. Jennings of Stockport, but he complained bitterly of men who allowed themselves to be influenced by individual predilections, and the usual menace was hung up over their heads, that if they suffer the Ministry to be defeated the Ministry will dissolve Parliament and appeal to the country. That means first, a heavy fine on the members in the shape of election expenses; secondly, the possible loss of their seats; and thirdly, the possible return of Mr. Gladstone to power. This last is the bogy which keeps mutineers in order. Mr. Curson, one of the rising hopes of Tory Radicalism, spoke defiantly enough. "I suppose I am one of the left wing," said he "if the party leaders expect our support, let them take us into their confidence." There were many speakers and some hard sayings were heard. Mr. Smith thought it necessary to offer in an informal way, to resign the leadership of the House. This, of course, was not accepted. "We don't want you to resign," say the malcontents; "we want you to lead." But now come Mr. Curson, Mr. Bartley and other speakers, flatly denying that they said what they are reported to have said. Mr. Curson who has a talent for epigram, says that the report is not a caricature, it is a concoction.

The Unionists, too, have had a meeting. Lord Hartington was no less emphatic about secrecy than was Lord Salisbury, nor more successful. All the papers have reports. They show, subject to further details, that the Liberal-Unionists are in entire accord with the Tories. A compromise on temperance issues has been arranged, and there is no other matter on which danger of disagreement was serious.

The two items appear together, significantly enough. Mr. Gladstone is going to speak and vote for the channel tunnel, and Sir Edward Watkin, chairman of the South-eastern Railway is going to speak and vote for the Liberal candidate in the Isle of Thanet. Sir Edward has been a Mugwump for years. Mr. Gladstone's advocacy of the tunnel has convinced him that Home Rule is good for Ireland. But Sir Edward does not carry with him his vice-chairman, Lord Brabourne, sometimes known as his "Man Friday." Mr. Knatchbull Hughessen, the Liberal candidate, is Lord Brabourne's son, and Lord Brabourne advises the electors to vote against him.

Mr. Joseph Clark writes—"All last winter I was so bad with Inflammatory Rheumatism that I was not expected to live. Mr. Jas. Binnie, of Toronto, states that his little baby when three months old was so bad with summer complaint that under doctor's treatment her life was despaired of. Four doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cured her. She is now fat and hearty. 2w26d

A Distressing Disease.

"I wish to give my testimony in favor of Burdock Blood Bitters. I had been troubled with Erysipelas and was induced to try this valuable medicine. I have used three bottles and am now well as ever." Mrs. L. Finch, Cedar Creek, Ont. 2w26d

Undeniably True.

The Daily Examiner.

TUESDAY, JUNE 26, 1888.

The Weather.

Fresh northwest to north winds, fair and much cooler preceded by a few local showers.

Decoration Dots.

The Oddfellows turned out this afternoon in holiday attire decked with flowers, and their stalwart bravery of appearance was the object of admiration on the part of the ladies. On the other hand the Oddfellows admired the ladies, especially those who looked so tidy and cool dressed in golden lion grenadines, and nobby prints. There's where you get them.

An Accident in the Dark.

Last night about one o'clock Mr. Monorief, of Springville, met with an accident on Charlotte street. An excavation was being made in the road for pipe-laying and a few planks laid along the outside of the roadway. In the darkness, which was not broken by the glim of a lantern, as is usually the case when road excavations are made, the buggy ran off the track into the ditch, upsetting the buggy, breaking the shaft and dashboard and the harness. Fortunately the horse did not run away. Mr. Monorief was cut about the knee.

Cause and Effect.

The question of the hour is why people will put themselves so much about; why pass all the attractions along George street. Bankrupt stocks at 50c. on the dollar, and dollar for dollar, and goods for the mere asking, in fact, to be sent home in a wheelbarrow, and charge nothing for the sending. We ask again why is it that an appreciating public will pass all this and pursue the even tenor of their way till the noted cheap store, the last on the east side of George street—in other words, Sheppard's Big Bonanza Bargain House is reached. Cause and effect—the cheapest and best goods between Toronto and Montreal. d

The Circus Seized.

Howe's Circus one way and another caused a deal of excitement in town, and it came near being stranded here altogether. Monday afternoon Mr. Cole, the man who ran the side show, in his own and his wife's behalf, issued an attachment against the circus property, claiming several weeks back wages. Mr. J. Griffin, bailiff, seized a portion of the goods sufficient to cover the claim, about $60, but the money was paid over by the proprietor and the matter settled. It is understood a number of the employes are in arrears of wages, and if the "boss" had been unable to settle this claim the others would have placed attachments on the whole property.

Fine Beverage.

J. H. Gurd & Co. and the Imperial Mineral Water Co.'s Ginger Ale and Soda, a beautiful summer beverage. 18 lbs. good sugar, $1; tomatoes, 10c. per can; 6 lbs. good Japan tea, $1; baking powder, 15c. per lb. Call and see our fine stock. Everything cheap. lw W. J. MORROW, Opera House block.

Military Mems.

No. 3 Company, 57th Batt., will parade for drill at the drill shed at a quarter to eight this evening. Capt. Hill requests a full turn-out of the members.

A practice match was held at the butts Saturday evening at which there was a large attendance of volunteers. The shooting on the whole was good, Lieut. A. E. Dixon leading the score with a total of 31 out of a possible 40. These practice matches are to be held every alternate Saturday during the season.

The Battalion will not have any more parades for drill until next September, but occasional company drills will be held by officers who wish to keep their men up to the standard during the vacation.

Burglars at Lindsay.

LINDSAY, June 23.—At an early hour this morning a series of minor burglaries were committed here. The miscreants were evidently amateurs in the profession, as in no case was there a safe tampered with. It is believed the sneak thieves are followers of Howe's circus, which closed a two days' exhibition here at a late hour last night. The midnight marauders first gained an entrance into Maskins' foundry, where they procured the tools by which they made entrance into McLean & Smith's dry good store, carrying off silk ties, handkerchiefs and other small wares to the value of about $100. They then proceeded to G. A. Metherall's stationery store, securing from there a number of books and other stationery, besides a small quantity of fancy goods. From Metherall's they marched into Graham & Lee's grocery store, where they must have been alarmed, only carrying off a few boxes of cigars. No clue as yet to the burglars.

All Quiet Again.

Howe's circus did not draw very large crowds Monday. It went from here this morning to Stirling, from there it goes to Madoc, and is in Belleville two days, Thursday and Friday.

The machinery is being placed in the new building for Messrs. Wilson & Son's woollen mills. It is of the foremost character, and the mills, which will be running in a short time, will be most complete in every respect.

Steamer Golden Eye

Under Construction.

There are actually one hundred and twenty buildings going up at the Canadian Sault, and the excitement is becoming the regulation boom-fever, according to our correspondent.

Musical and Literary Treat.

The Endeavor Society will give their first public musical and literary entertainment in the school room of Charlotte street Methodist church on Thursday evening next. Look out for programme in the EXAMINER to-morrow evening. Admission free. Everybody invited.

Strawberry Festival.

A strawberry festival will be held on St. John's church grounds Wednesday evening, 27th inst, at 7 o'clock p.m. There will also be a sale of children's work. The Fire Brigade band will be in attendance. The contributions to the festival may be sent to the grounds early Wednesday afternoon. 2d

Look out for the Baptist Sunday School Excursion on Thursday, July 5th, per Steamer "Golden Eye" to Jubilee Point. Fare, round trip—Adults, 35c.; Children, 15c.

Fine Property for Sale.

Messrs. Geo. A. Cox and James Stevenson having resolved to wind up their co-partnership in all property held by them as joint owners, have concluded to put the same up for sale by public auction, in order to obtain a basis for settlement. It comprises a lot of the finest property in Peterborough. It will be sold on Monday, the 29th July next. 2d

The Election.

At the regular meeting of Otonabee Lodge No. 13, I.O.O.F., held last night the 25th inst. the following officers were elected:—

Bro. John Mathieson, Junior P. G.
" G. J. Early, ... N. G.
" W. F. Green ..... V. G.
" C. J. Taber ..... Rec. Sec.
" Thos. Armstrong ..... P. S.
" John Brades ..... Treas
E. E. Henderson and John Mathieson—Representatives to Grand Lodge of Ontario.

The remaining officers will be appointed on the 9th of July, when the installation takes place.

The Cause of Fires.

Some people entertain an erroneous idea that the electric light is a fruitful cause of fires, and in consequence the extension of the system of electric lighting is hindered. The following official record of the causes of fire in New York city for one year will best serve to do away with the idea:—

Kerosene	259 fires;	loss	$ 94,657 00
Gas	110 "	"	128,174 00
Matches, used for gas	35 "	"	22,570 00
Candles	88 "	"	30,697 00
Arc Electric Light	7 "	"	550 00
Incandescent	1 "	"	Insignificant

A Warm Week.

At Enniscmore correspondent sends us the following account for the past week:—During the late hot spell, I believe it exceeds anything we have had for a long time. On Saturday, the 16th, it commenced the hot wave with the thermometer at sunrise at 70°, between 1 and 3 p.m. 92° in the shade, and at sundown at 80°. On the 17th it stood respectively—morning 65, at 3 p.m. 92, sundown 80. On the 18th at 66, at 3 p.m. 93, sundown 78. On the 19th at 55, at 3 p.m. 90, sundown 77. On the morning of the 20th at 65, at 3 p.m. 95, sundown 80. On the 21st the climax was reached—at sunrise 80, at 7 a.m. 88, between 1 and 4 p.m. 100 in the shade, at sundown 88. On the 22nd at sunrise 70, at 3 p.m. 96, at sundown 88. On the 23rd at sunrise 74, at 2 p.m. 90, at sundown 80. On the 24th, lower temperature with thunder-storm and a fine rain.

A Bundle of Queries.

Many estimable citizens inquire with more or less indignation why a circus tent was allowed to be dumped on the market square to stay over Sunday and become the theatre of a murder? This is something to which an answer cannot be found in the ordinary dictionaries. Why was the shooter on Sunday able to get whiskey to inflame his stomach and his passions? Why didn't the Salvation Army secure the circus tent for special services? These questions we can't answer. But when you ask why the people rush to gough bros., we say because they keep the best clothing on the continent, and a great thirty days' sale of seasonable clothing is being sold at slaughtering prices. You won't believe by simple telling what tremendous bargains are going in men's, boys' and youths' clothing—

Call and see and be astounded,
With big bargains all surrounded.
High-priced clothiers all confounded;
With detraction's tongue dumb-founded,
And the buyer's joy unbounded.
High-price harpies hotly hounded
Into insolvent depths unsounded.
Old Giant High Price sorely pounded
By gough's sledge hammer — fatally wounded.

Personal.

Mr. A. E. Scott, of the Sun Life office, leaves this morning for Hamilton for a week's holidays.

Mr. John O'Meara appeared on behalf of the prisoner; Mr. R. E. Wood, C.C.A., for the prosecution.

Mr. Platt Hinman, Grafton, director for No. 5 district of the Eastern Dairymen's Association, is in town, a representative of Haldimand to the Baptist Association.

The Last Day is Coming.

Having received orders from headquarters to close up our business here at once, we will not be open after next Wednesday the 27th inst. and will sell anything in our stock at a great sacrifice until then. We intended keeping open two weeks longer, but have changed our plans and Wednesday will positively be our last business day in this town. A great chance to buy goods cheap.

DENOMINATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES.—Rev. Dr. Welton, of McMaster University, (Education), Rev. E. W. Dadson, B. A., editor of the Canadian Baptist (Publication) Rev. Alexander Grant, General Superintendent Home Missions, (Missions); Rev. James Grant, Secretary Foreign Missions. (Foreign Missions); Mrs. J. F. Barker, Whitby, (Women's Mission Work).

NOTE.—Though the names of some of the ministers are placed opposite the names of two different stations, they are, nevertheless, duly accredited representatives of each.

The session opened with devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. P. Clifton Parker.

During the course of the devotional exercises, Rev. Mr. Parker, on his own behalf and on account of the officials of the church and the congregation, heartily welcomed the ministers and delegates to Peterborough. It was twenty-four years since the Association met in Peterborough, and since that time the increase had been so great that it was found necessary to divide the Association into the Whitby and Peterborough Divisions.

Rev. T. J. Dowling, the retiring moderator, made a few remarks, acknowledged Rev. Mr. Parker's welcome and referring to the work of the church, gave the assurance that the progress was steadily onward, and though there were personal changes yet God found instruments for his work. At 11 o'clock Rev. J. Reddick preached the annual sermon, and the election of officers is taking place as the EXAMINER goes to press.

The Indian Dead.

The Victim of a Vicious Passion Dies in Great Agony.

Simon Elijah, the Indian shot by the man Farley on Sunday, died at the Hospital this morning at nine o'clock. It is said inflammation set in and the poor fellow died in great agony. Dr. Fife, coroner, happened to be at the hospital shortly after his death, and at once took steps to hold an inquest. A jury was impannelled and the inquest announced for one o'clock at the hospital, the hour at which the EXAMINER goes to press to-day. It is probable, however, that the jury will merely view the remains, and adjourn till evening in the police court room or council chamber. It is likely also that an autopsy will be held on the body.

RECEIVING THE NEWS.

Farley, the murderer, is beginning to realise his position. He was very anxious to know how the wounded man was progressing and when told this forenoon that his victim was dead, he dropped to the floor in a paroxysm of fright.

Police Court.

MONDAY, June 25.

Chas. Maguire was brought down from Harvey and on the evidence of his brother he was committed to gaol as a lunatic until he is removed to the asylum.

At 4.30 o'clock the preliminary trial of the man Farley (not Fahey) who shot the Indian on Sunday, was begun. The court room was crowded and numbers were turned away. The prisoner was brought in and the witnesses called up, but pending the result of the injuries to the wounded man, the case was enlarged for a week. Farley is a depraved looking being.

Farley is said to be in a state of deep dejection and fears the awful consequences of his crime. All his bravado at the time of the shooting has disappeared and he may be described as being utterly collapsed.

TUESDAY, June 26.

John Sharp, Edward Allen, John O'Neil and J. Hanson each pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness and were fined $2 or 10 days in gaol. Edward Lynch and Harry Lynch were charged with disorderly conduct. The former was fined $5 and the latter discharged.

BEFORE P. M. EDMISON.

W. A. Robinson, of Lakefield, pleaded guilty to a first violation of the Scott Act and was fined $50 and costs.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

CROP PROSPECTS.—Owing to the extreme heat and continual drouth, the crops have been somewhat retarded in their growth. Fall and Spring wheat looks well, promising a full crop. Other kinds of grain look fair, except barley which will not be more than sixty per cent. of a full crop. Hay is very light, being literally scorched out on dry lands.

PIC-NIC.—The Elmdale Sunday school held their annual picnic in Mr. Robt. Bonal's Maple grove on Wednesday last. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent, there being a large number of ladies and children present. swings and other amusements were in abundance for the entertainment of the children. The ladies earned high praise in providing the luscious edibles, which were partaken heartily of by all present. At about eight o'clock visitors began to leave for their respective homes all being highly pleased with the afternoon's pleasure.

PERSONAL.—In the absence of the Rev. Mr. Bennett, Mr. Orr Bennett has been occupying the pulpit of the Springville and Bethany Presbyterian churches. Mr. Bennett promises to be a good doctrinal and an eloquent preacher at no distant date

Bricklayers' & Masons' Union,
No. 12, Peterborough.
To the Architects and Builders of the Town of Peterborough.
GENTLEMEN.—The members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 12, Peterborough, have decided to take no sub-contracts after the last day of June, 1888. We take this step, believing it to be to the interest of Architects and Proprietors of buildings, to deal directly with us, and not as heretofore, letting our branch of work to Carpenters, and then have them sublet it to us, frequently at a loss to owners of buildings through inferior material being used to secure the carpenter a profit. We therefore, consider it would be to the interest of all concerned, to have each trade control its own line of work.
Signed on behalf of the Union,
J. J. HARTLEY, President.

A Warning.

AS I am frequently taken to task about the non-fulfillment of promises made by Pedlars who represent themselves as being in my employ, I wish to announce that I employ no Pedlars, and have no connection with them other than furnishing them with supplies and buying their stock from them.

Parties having anything in my line to dispose of, can have the same attended to promptly, by dropping me a postal card.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. No. 106 Wall St., N. Y. 1yd1w

"Why, Mrs. Jawsome, how can you insinuate such a thing? I drink or mad? I'm strong Scott Act. I know it's hard to believe, but Mrs. Buycless, a regular prayer meeting woman she is, too, told me so with her own mouth—which is hardly ever shut, goodness knows—that she went trapesing up to Toronto with the Masonic excursion. She went through all the shops and priced 'em all. She wanted to get a wedding present for Ann Jane Meriar who is going to marry that half baked snook, Ben Slowit, and she was disgusted. She could do better at home. And she spent $1.84—$1.75 for her ticket and nine cents for cakes and a paper of pins, she got at a seven-cent store—she tore that old cashmere dress she's worn a life time, on the car steps—O my! where was I?—O yes! she went straight to China Hall when she got home and got a lovely china tea set for so much less than she could in Toronto, that it made up for her expenses to the city. And she says they have terrible fine and cheap dishes at China Hall, and as she says, says she, 'Dead loads of 'em, too.'"

CONVENTION ECHOES.

LEVI P. MORTON THE CANDIDATE FOR THE VICE-PRESIDENCY.

A Despatch from Blaine—Senator Mitchell of Oregon Favorable to Harrison—Newspaper Comments—Among the Democrats.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The Republican candidate for the Vice-Presidency is descended from George Morton, one of the Puritan Fathers, who landed at Plymouth, New England, in 1623, and is a son of the late Rev. Daniel Morton. His birthplace was Shoreham, Vermont, where he first saw the light on May 16th, 1824. Having a strong preference for a business career, when 16 years of age he was placed in a country store. By the time he attained his majority he was made a partner by his employer. In 1849 he removed to Boston, where he was admitted as a partner in a wealthy mercantile firm, good fortune due to his ability alone, as he had neither adequate capital nor influential friends to gain him the promotion. Five years after he made New York his residence, and opened a place of business in that city, Prosperity attended him, and in 1863 he founded the banking houses of Morton, Bliss & Co., New York, and Morton, Rose & Co., London.

Mr. Morton was elected to Congress from the Eleventh District of New York in 1878 as a Republican. His majority was over 7,000 votes. He was re-elected two years after. President Garfield nominated him as Minister to France, which was unanimously confirmed by the Senate in March, 1881.

The vacant seat thus created in the House of Representatives was filled by Roswell P. Flower after a memorable contest, which gave this gentleman his first distinction in American politics. In May, 1881, Mr. Morton was appointed Honorary Commissioner-General to the Paris International Exhibition of Electricity. Dartmouth College gave him the honorary degree of LL.D. in July of the same year.

A Despatch from Blaine.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 27.—General Harrison received the following from Mr. Blaine:—

LENLITHGOW, Scotland, June 25.—To Gen. Harrison, Indianapolis: I congratulate you most heartily upon the work of the National Convention. Your candidacy will recall the triumphant enthusiasm and assure the victorious conclusion which followed your grandfather's nomination in 1840. Your election will seal our industrial independence as the declaration of '76—which bears the honored name of your great grandfather—sealed our political independence. (Signed) JAMES G. BLAINE.

THE HEATHEN CHINEE

Likely to Cut Some Figure in the Presidential Contest—Convention Echoes.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Senator Mitchell of Oregon, one of the most pronounced promoters of anti-Chinese legislation in Congress, says it is a mistake to suppose that Gen. Harrison's record is objectionable to the people of the Pacific slope and that to those who are familiar with it it needs no apology.

Harrison in a Hurry.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 27.—Benjamin Harrison of Indiana arrived in the city yesterday. He is on his way to New York, to confer with Mr. Newton and other leaders of the party as to the plan of campaign.

Newspaper Comments.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The Sun says: The Republican ticket is a respectable ticket all through. We warn the Democrats that they will have to put forth their best efforts and bring out their utmost strength. It is no sham battle that is opening before them.

The Tribune says: With a man so strong and worthy the Republican party has a right to look for a popular uprising not unlike that which swept Martin Vanburen from power in 1840.

The Times says: Altogether it is an entirely respectable nomination. It will not inspire the party, it will not strik terror into the hearts of the supporters of Mr. Cleveland, quite the contrary; it will not, through any quality of the candidate, quicken to any unwonted degree the Republican pulse. But plainly there is no magnetism in Mr. Harrison.

The Times announces that it will support Cleveland and Thurman in the coming contest.

The Herald says: The two Republican candidates, Messrs. Harrison and Morton, are like the Democrats candidates, upright and honorable men. The fact is a great gain to the country.

The World says: The long struggle at Chicago resulted yesterday in the nomination of a candidate whose capacity cannot be denied, and whose public record is free from reproach. Ex-Senator Benjamin Harrison has neither the positive political strength nor the positive political weakness of either Blaine or Sherman, but this may prove to be in his favor rather than to his disadvantage in the present contest.

LONDON, June 27.—The Times attributes the failure of the Republican Convention to nominate Mr. Blaine to the absence of that gentleman from the United States.

FROM THE QUEEN CITY.

The Premier's Visit—Mysterious Disappearance—Arrested on a Terrible Charge.

TORONTO, June 27.—Sir John Macdonald reached the city yesterday morning. He attended a meeting of the Manufacturers' Assurance Association, and in the afternoon went out with a miscellaneous party on board Mr. Gooderham's yacht Oriole, for a sail on the lake. The premier had a large number of callers at the Queen's, but nothing of importance is reported as the result of his visit.

It has been decided to hold a meeting tomorrow night to which all will be invited who sympathize with the corset makers who are out on strike.

The Board of Trade Gratuity Fund will close its second year on Saturday, and on entering the third year the policy will be increased to $1,200. There are 813 members of the Gratuity, and the Rest now amounts to about $30,000. Sixteen death claims have been paid.

Mr. Michael O'Leary, a man of 75, and father of Mrs. J. Sullivan, No. 2 Crocker-avenue, left Ireland for Toronto on May 15 by the Steamship Sarmatian. He arrived in Quebec on the 25th, and was known to have taken the C.P.R. train from that city for Toronto on the same day. Since then nothing has been heard from him. So far as the railroad people know he did not reach Toronto, as no trace of his baggage of which he had considerable, could be found in any of the baggage rooms. He had a large sum of money on him, and his friends fear that he may have met with foul play. Efforts are being made to trace his movements after leaving Quebec, but so far they have not resulted successfully.

John Elliott, cabdriver, residing on the corner of Agnes and Centre-streets, is a prisoner in Headquarters charged with having committed an indecent assault on his 10 years-old daughter Minnie. Patrol Sergeant Vaughan made the arrest.

CANADIAN AFFAIRS in ENGLAND.

The Pacific Mail Subsidy—Emigration Matters—Hudson's Bay Company.

LONDON, June 27.—Lord Lansdowne was present in the Peers' Gallery of the House of Commons last night and listened attentively to the remarkable speeches of Messrs. Gladstone and O'Brien and then left the House.

Sir Charles Tupper has been busy since his return negotiating with the Imperial Government respecting the Pacific mail subsidy. It is believed such progress has been made during the past few days that the completion of the contract with the Canadian Pacific may shortly be expected.

A despatch from the Central Emigration Society, including several members of Parliament, waited upon Sir Charles Tupper yesterday and urged that the Dominion Government give societies such as theirs a right to pre-empt in the Northwest the same as free grant settlers, in order to give additional security for advances to Colonists and induce the Imperial Government to do more in the direction of State guarantee.

Sir Charles replied that he thought the utmost the Government would do would be to transfer the right to pre-empt from the settlers to the society. He would lay the proposal before the Government.

At the Hudson's Bay meeting yesterday, Mr. Edin Colville, chairman, expressed regret at the fall of 20 pes cent. in the prices of furs, which so decreased the profits as to prevent the payment of a dividend. He believed the fashion would veer round and good prices return. The prospects of the Northwest were bright and there was every promise for a gradual satisfactory realisation on the company's landed property. After discussion the report was adopted.

QUARRELSOME QUARRYMEN.

How They Tried to Obstruct the Polls At Cote St. Louis.

MONTREAL, June 27.—Cote St. Louis, where voting was held Monday and yesterday in connection with the advisability of negotiating a loan of $60,000 for the purpose of laying a system of water pipes in the municipality, was the scene of an exciting incident to-day. The quarrymen are all opposed to the loan, and about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, when they heard that they had a majority of 13 votes, they swarmed around the poll and prevented any further voting taking place until 5 o'clock, when the poll closed.

Yesterday morning they were early in the environs of the poll, and when it was opened by the returning officers at 9 o'clock they gathered around it in a solid mass and defied any of the would-be voters to enter. A son of Ald. Villeneuve tried to enter the poll and was set upon by Edward Perrault and thrown out of the poll. A warrant was afterwards issued for Perrault's arrest and two deputy high constables and two detectives entrusted with its execution.

While arresting Perrault the officers were mobbed and were severely injured. Assistance was telephoned for and Chief Hughes sent 40 men under Sub Chief Lapointe, who succeeded in arresting seven of the rioters.

THE PROVIDENCE ROBBER.

Arrested in Montreal—$700,000 in Cash and Securities Found on Him.

MONTREAL, June 27.—Charles A. Pitcher of Providence, teller of the Union Bank there, arrived here yesterday and registered at the Hall as "J. A. Roberts, Fall River, Mass." He was arrested in the evening by Detective Keller, who had been watching him all day. Prisoner had purchased a ticket by the Allan line and intended leaving for England in the morning. He was taken to his room and searched and Detective Keller states securities and cash amounting to $700,000 were found on him.

DEADLY MEXICAN FLOOD.

THE CITIES OF SILAO AND LEON DESTROYED.

The Valleys Swept by a Torrent—Adobe Houses Crumble Upon Their Inhabitants—Seven Hundred Lives Lost.

ST. LOUIS, June 27.—A City of Mexico special says that during the past ten days the table lands between here and Zacatecas have been visited by unprecedented rains. Every mountain rivulet along the Central Railway for more than two hundred miles has been converted into a destructive torrent and the valleys present the appearance of lakes. Many cities and towns have been inundated.

On the 18th inst. it commenced raining heavily and continued all night, raising the Silao River out of its banks, breaking at the north end of the town of Silao, and passing through the streets with irresistible force and volume. Most of the houses being adobe, they soon became saturated with water and began to fall. About 295 houses were destroyed. The station buildings were occupied by homeless people who were unable to obtain anything to eat except watermelons and fruit found floating in the water. On the 20th it was learned that the flood had been more destructive in Leon.

The river broke over its dikes and notwithstanding all efforts to check its course it made rapid headway and finally flooded the city. As the rain fell the river rose rapidly, its volume of water flowing into the town gradually wearing away the foundation of buildings which commenced to fall as night came on. On Monday night the people believing themselves secure from the flood went to bed in those parts of the town where the water had not found its way. The steady downfall of rain, with the extensive waterbed of the outlying country, increased the flow of the river and rapidly extended its channel until one-half of Leon was under water and the loss of life commenced, unparalleled in the history of any of the great inundations of modern times. As the buildings fell the unfortunate sleepers were either crushed to death or drowned. One whole night of terror followed. Men, women and children fled to the streets in their night clothes, some to find shelter in the high ground and others to be swept away by the flood.

On Tuesday morning rain was still falling. All night it poured until Wednesday morning saw the lake surrounding the city undiminished in size. In the afternoon, however, it ceased raining and the waters commenced to recede. It is estimated that 700 persons perished. There is a strong stench arising from the heaps of rubbish that once formed houses. One hundred and eleven bodies have been recovered without moving any of the ruins of houses, and hundreds of bodies must be buried under them. The destroyed houses are estimated at 2,000, and the loss at $2,000,000. Many other towns have been badly damaged, but loss of life is only reported from Silas and Leon.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 27.—The very last statement received places the number of houses destroyed at Leon at 2,224, and the homeless families at more than 1,000. More than 230 bodies have been recovered from the ruins, and there is no probability that the entire number will fall short of 700.

AMONG THE DEMOCRATS.

Cleveland Accepts the Nomination of the St. Louis Convention.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The committee to notify the President of his nomination by the St. Louis Convention called at the White House yesterday. General Patrick Collins of Boston was spokesman of the committee. When the letter of notification had been read the President addressed the committee, speaking mainly of the responsibilities of the Executive. In concluding his remarks Mr. Cleveland said:

"I shall not dwell upon the acts and policy of the Administration now drawing to its close. Its record is open to every citizen in the land, and yet I will not be denied the privilege of asserting at this time that in the exercise of the functions of the high trust confided to me, I have yielded obedience only to the constitution and the solemn obligations of my oath of office. It but remains for me to say to you and through you to the Democracy of the nation that I accept the nomination with which they have honored me."

The Duke and the Duchess.

NEWPORT, R.I., June 27.—Newport society has been put in a flutter by news just received that the Duke of Marlborough and Mrs. Hamersley will be married in New York this week Saturday. Mrs. Hamersley is the handsome young widow of Hooker Hamersley of New York and only a few years ago was the beautiful Lilie Price of Troy. From her late husband she inherited the life use of a large fortune, from which the Supreme Court last fall granted her an annuity of $100,000, but the Duke's friends claim that her beauty is the charm rather than her income.

Collision at Sea.

NEW YORK, June 27.—A despatch from London says the British steamship Tynemouth Castle and the Red Star steamship Nordland have been in collision. The Nordland was bound from Antwerp to New York, and is believed to have Mrs. Folson, the mother of Mrs. President Cleveland, on board. The Tynemouth Castle is badly damaged, and has put into Southampton in a sinking condition. The extent of the Nordland's injuries is not known.

Ran Into a Freight Train.

TIFFIN, O., June 27. The fast train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, loaded with Chicago delegates, ran into a freight train near Chicago Junction at two o'clock yesterday morning while going at the rate of 40 miles an hour. The engine, baggage car and freight cars were demolished and the track torn up for a long distance. The engineer was fatally hurt and the passengers scratched and bruised.

FARLEY FIRED THE SHOT,

And the Shot Killed Simon Elijah.

So Says the Coroner's Jury—Inquest on the Body of the Late Simon Elijah—The Evidence Given—A Straight, Clear Case—No Doubt in Medical Minds—The Verdict of the Jury.

An inquest into the cause of the death of Simon Elijah, the Indian shot on Sunday by a circus employe, on the market square, was conducted by Dr. Fife, coroner, at the Nicholls Hospital, Tuesday afternoon. The following gentlemen were empannelled as a CORONER'S JURY.

Chas. Cameron, Foreman, D. Cameron, W. A. Sanderson, B. Shortly, J. P. Bryson, A. J. Gough, J. J. Sheehy, Thomas Morrow, F. Foot, M. J. Ostrom, R. Whitla, Johnson Carey, W. G. Bain, Isaac Dormer and C.W. Hawley.

After the jury had viewed the body

Dr. Collins was sworn.—He said the body of the dead man lying in the hospital was the man he attended on Sunday, Simon Elijah. He was wounded on the left side, about (6) inches below left nipple, thought wound was caused by a pistol bullet, he examined abdoman and found tenderness in right iliac region, did not find the bullet, and saw no opening for its exit. He was weak and prostrate; regard the wound sufficiently serious to cause death.

Geo. Stevenson, was on the market square Sunday afternoon, was standing with his back to a verandah pillar. Saw Farley talking to a "cow-boy," Farley turned away and walked northward. He turned in half a minute I saw him, he was drawing a pistol and shooting at a man, the Indian I suppose, after the shooting the shooter walked cooly away. I thought at the time the shooting was only sport, it was so deliberately and cooly done. The man who was shot stood fully a minute before he moved. He began moaning, and took a few steps when the crowd closing around hid him from me. A cowboy took the pistol from Farley. Heard had no angry words. A half a minute after he was talking to the cowboy the shot was fired.

Fred Dolan—I was sitting on a table outside the market house about half past two in the afternoon; I was there about two hours; I saw Indian and another circus man, going towards the Arcade. Heard the Indian say he could knock out any white black or red man of his weight in Peterborough; I think he was "pretty full." He (the Indian) told the other man how "Ready" "got left" (Farley was not there at the time) that day. I saw prisoner (Farley) come toward me within 12 or 13 feet. By that time the Indian got behind a post; heard him say "Good-day" or "Hello, Ready;" heard the prisoner tell him to —— ——— ——— ———. The Indian made some reply and he turned round. Then saw Farley advance rapidly towards the post with a hand to each side of the lappel of his coat, as though he were going to pull it off. Next saw the smoke of a pistol and heard the report. Farley was about three or four feet from the Indian, who stood still twenty-five or thirty seconds, when he put his two hands to his stomach and then walk about two yards towards Arcade. He moaned; swear it was the man whom I saw being taken to the station about three minutes afterward who did the shooting; suppose Farley was the man meant by "Ready" — heard other circus men call him so. Farley was standing alone a minute or two before the shooting.

Theo. Mulcahey, sworn, confirmed the evidence of previous witness Dolan.

Adjourned till eight o'clock.

The adjourned inquest was resumed in the court room at 7.30 o'clock. County Attorney Wood was in attendance and examined the witnesses.

The first witness called was chief Rozsell. He arrested the man who did the shooting on the market square. He gave his name as James F. Farley. He is now in jail. He identified the body of Elijah as the person shot on the market square on Sunday last. He had a revolver taken from Farley's person after the shooting. After the arrest a "cow-boy" gave him the revolver.

Thomas Griffin sworn: was on the market square about 2 o'clock. He saw the prisoner Farley going towards the north side of the market square. He went towards the dining tent, as the Indian and another person were leaving the dining tent. The Indian accosted Farley. The Indian said he could "lick" any body of his weight black red or white in town. The prisoner walked a few steps and said "I'll lick you" and he drew a revolver and shot him. I was within a few feet of the Indian, who was two or three yards from Farley at the time of the shooting. The pistol produced was like the one which did the shooting—it was very bright. The Indian was laughing when he said he could "lick" anybody; saw Farley fire the shot and turn away. The Indian made no attempt to molest Farley; neither man appeared to be drunk.

R. W. Bell, M.D., sworn, read his report of a post-mortem upon the body of Simon Elijah, as follows:—

Record of a post mortem examination, held on the body of the late Simon Elijah at the Nichols Hospital by Drs. Bell and King on the afternoon of Tuesday the 26th day of June, 1888.

On viewing the body we found a well developed muscular man. The only wound on the body we found on the left side, 6½ inches below the left nipple, and 6½ inches from the median line and 7½ inches from the umbilicus. This wound was a perforated one between the 10th and 11th ribs. The direction of the wound was downwards, inwards and towards the right side, through the muscular walls in front of the 11th rib. On dissecting away the skin we found a slight effusion of blood occupying a space about three inches in diameter. The internal aperture was about two inches below the external aperture. On further examination we found a transverse perforation of the bowel directly opposite the inner opening, immediately underlying that another perforation of the bowel. [The following statement of perforations refers to the intestine when extended or unwound.] On removing the intestines we found the first perforation to be three feet below the pylorie orifice of the stomach; then we found the mesentery (the membrane holding the bowels in situ) perforated twenty inches below the first perforation. The mesentery and bowel were again perforated sixty-four inches below the first perforation of the bowel. This perforation was diagonal and completely through the bowel. Four inches below the last perforation the mesentery was again perforated and again thirty-seven inches below that. The bowel was perforated transversely thirty-five inches below the last perforation of the mesentery. The bowel was perforated again (only one aperture) twenty inches below the last. A bullet was found two and a half inches from the symphysis pubis, four inches from the anterior superior spinous process of the ilium and one inch below Poupart's ligament. A large amount of effusion of bloody serum, the result of inflammatory action set up by the injury, was also found. We also examined the other abdominal organs and found them to be healthy. We also examined the thorax (cavity of the chest) and found the contained organs healthy, excepting the back part of the lungs, which were hypostatically congested, due to position. Having removed the calvarium and examined the brain we found it healthy. The perforated wounds of the bowels and mesentery which we found, were, we believe, the direct cause of death.

R. W. BELL, M.D.
RICHARD KING, M.D.

Dr. King, who was one of the physicians who made the post mortem examination, concurred in the statement. He attended the Indian soon after the shooting; he was under his care.

Dr. Bell (recalled). Do not think that any superior skill employed could have saved the man's life.

Peter Clancy sworn; Saw the Indian shot, was standing a short distance away. The Indian and Farley exchanged words. Farley came towards the Indian and shot him. Saw the cowboy take the revolver from him. They were close together.

The jury retired after being charged by the Coroner, and in twenty-five minutes returned with the following

VERDICT:

That, from the evidence given before us, the said Elijah came to his death by a pistol shot fired by one James F. Farley, on the afternoon of Sunday, the 24th June, 1888, on the market square, in the town of Peterborough.

Neatly describes the position of a hard or soft corn when Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is applied. It does its work so quickly and without pain that it seems magical in action. Try it. Recollect the name—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere. 6dw26

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

Broken Down.

"After suffering with Dyspepsia, Kidney Disease, loss of appetite and pain in the head until discouraged, I heard of Burdock Blood Bitters, took two bottles and am happy to say feel as well as ever." Mrs. Rufus E. Merry, New Albany, N. S. 2w26d

Well Tested.

"I was nearly dead with Cholera Morbus, one bottle of Extract of Wild Strawberry cured me, and at another time I was so bad with Summer Complaint that I thought I would never get over it, when two bottles cured me." Mrs. E. Askett, Peel, Ont. 2w26d

From Moreparo, Man.

Mr. Joseph Clark writes—"All last winter I was so bad with Inflammatory Rheumatism that I was not expected to live. I used no other medicine but Burdock Blood Bitters and can now get around again feeling better than I ever was before I was taken sick, and I owe it all to Burdock Blood Bitters." 2w26d

TO THE DEAF.—A Person cured of Deafness and noises in the head of 23 years' standing by a simple remedy, will send a description of it FREE to any Person who applies to NICHOLSON, 30 St. John Street, Montreal. dwly

Worth Remembering.

Mr. Jas. Binnie, of Toronto, states that his little baby when three months old was so bad with summer complaint that under doctor's treatment her life was despaired of. Four doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cured her. She is now fat and hearty. 2w26d

A Distressing Disease.

"I wish to give my testimony in favor of Burdock Blood Bitters. I had been troubled with Erysipelas and was induced to try this valuable medicine. I have used three bottles and am now well as ever." Mrs. L. Finch, Cedar Creek, Ont. 2w26d

Undeniably True.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and found it a sure cure for summer complaint. I was very sick and it cured me entirely." Mr. Alexander W. Grant, Moose Creek, Ont. 2w26.1

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Oddfellows' Annual Decoration Day.

Imposing Ceremonies and Beautiful Floral Offerings—The General Public Participate in the Sadly Solemn Rites.

For a long time past the Oddfellows of Peterborough have once a year set apart a day for the decoration of the graves of their deceased brethren, and the occasion has always been attended with the beautiful ceremonial of the Order. Tuesday, 26th inst., about 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon the members of the Order to the number of over 100, headed by the Battalion band and Canton Peterborough of Patriarchs Militant marched from the Central Park, where order of procession had been formed, and proceeded to Little Lake Cemetery. As usual the public were drawn out in large numbers, all participating in the sad observances. Arrived at the cemetery the prescribed ceremony was gone through by Bro. Mattheson, N.G. of Otonabee Lodge, and Bro. Lindsay, Chaplain, the brethren surrounding them in a circle. Afterwards they separated into two bodies, each grave being visited and a floral token deposited upon it with appropriate ritual. About half past four o'clock the brethren reassembled, the closing ceremonies were performed by Bro. Wm. Cowie, N.G. Peterborough Lodge, and the Chaplain, and all returned to town.

THE FLORAL DONATIONS.

For some reason the contributions of flowers were not as large this year as formerly. However the committee desire to thank the following ladies for donations, for Peterborough lodge.

Mrs. Innis, 2 hand bouquets.
Miss H. S. Crosby, 2 bouquets.
Miss C. Ludgate, flowers.
Mrs. B. Cooney, 6 bouquets and wreath.
Mrs. J. Sawers, 2 bouquets and basket of flowers.
Mrs. S. White, 2 bouquets.
Mrs. Rubidge, bouquet.
Mrs. F. Foote, 3 bouquets.

The following for Otonabee Lodge:—
Mrs. Geo. Hatton, basket of flowers
Mrs. John Moury, Ashburnham, basket of bouquets.

NOTES.

The procession was as usual watched by a large crowd of people. Each of brethren wore a badge and boutonnier, while the brilliant uniforms of the Canton and band added much to the splendor of the procession.

In connection with this it has been proposed that all the societies in town—Masons, Foresters, Workmen and others—unite with the Oddfellows and make Decoration Day a joint one. It is understood both the Foresters and United Workmen are willing. Let the idea be pushed forward and next year carried out.

The Golden Eye and Pearl did a big business Tuesday, carrying people to the cemetery.

The Aquatic Sports.

Canoe and Rowing Races on the Lake—The First Regatta of the Year.

The attendance at the joint regatta under the auspices of the Otonabee Canoe Club and the Lansdowne Rowing club on Little Lake must have been fully five hundred. The races were most interesting, and a great deal of amusement was created by a couple of impromptu upsets that effectually cooled down the excitement of the canoeists that had caused their submersion. The tournament was a most laughable affair, and the shouts and hearty applause of the spectators showed that they appreciated it. The course was along Burnham's Point and every one had a good view of the races. Mr. John McClelland acted as starter and Mr. R. M. Roy, as referee. Following are the events as they were run off:—

DOUBLE CANOE.

Entries.—A. H. Stratton and A. Mason; J. H. Smith and Jas. Connal; G. J. Smith and A. E. Dixon.

Won easily by the first named crew, with the third mentioned crew second. Smith and Connal were giving the winners a hard tussle on the home stretch when they unfortunately upset and were left behind.

FOUR-OAR SCULL.

T. Armstrong	H. Adams
F. Might	J. Dolan
A. Stevenson	R. Tate
W. Matthews, stroke	J. Sheehy, stroke.

This was closely contested throughout and won by Matthew's crew by half a length.

SINGLE CANOE.

There were three entries—Jas. Connal, A. H. Stratton and A. Mason. The contestants came in in the order named, though the winner was hard pressed, and the second in turn had No. 3 right at his heels, so to speak.

FOUR OAR SCULL.

K G Loch	R Heary
W Loch	M Hackett
P McAuliffe	A Mercer
V Halliday, stroke.	H W Kent, stroke.

This resulted in an easy victory for Halliday's crew.

THE TOURNAMENT.

The last number on the programme was probably the most exciting of any. Standing up in their canoes, with long bamboo poles, having the points padded, in their hands, the contestants were paddled forward and the object was to knock each other overboard. J. H. Smith and A. Mason first entered the lists, and the latter being vanquished twice in succession, H. W. Kent essayed a trial, and also succumbed to Smith's prowess.

The races were concluded just at dusk. The clubs are satisfied with the result of the first regatta of the season.

The Baptist Churches.

Peterborough and Belleville Associations—Opening Session. Devotional Exercises—Prosperity of the Churches.

In continuation of our report of yesterday.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The following officers were appointed:—

MODERATOR—Rev. J. B. Huff, Smith.

CLERK—Rev. P. Clifton Parker, Peterborough.

ASSISTANT CLERK—Rev. D. Reddick, B.A., Port Hope.

COMMITTEES.

The following committees were appointed:—

ON ARRANGEMENTS—Mr. W. Graham and Rev. Messrs. J. Reddick and P. C. Parker.

RESOLUTIONS—Rev. Dr. Welton, Rev. T. J. Dowling and Mr. D. M. Mihell.

APPLICATIONS.—Messrs. J. Mather, P. Hinman and Rev. T. C. Sowter.

The conference adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Association resumed, the moderator in the chair.

Devotional services were conducted by Mr. A. C. Steeves, student minister, Lakefield.

The letters of report were read from the several churches in the Association, and in general the reports were of a very encouraging character. There had been a substantial increase in the membership of the churches—aggregating 146, with one church yet to report, which would considerably increase this total. The devotion of the members to the interests of the church had resulted in a liberal contribution to its schemes in a financial way, for instance the Baptist church was cited as the only church in the city out of debt.

RIGHT HAND OF FELLOWSHIP.

The report of the Committee on Applications for admission to the Association was read, recommending the admission to full membership in the Association, of the churches of Norwood, Lakefield and Dummer.

The report was, on motion, adopted and the Rev. Moderator, on behalf of these churches, extended the right hand of Fellowship to the representatives of them, at the same time adding a few words of welcome, admonition and hopefulness.

A resolution was adopted inviting visitors from other Associations to join in the deliberation of the Association.

CHURCH PUBLICATION.

Rev. E. W. Dadson, B.A., editor of the Canadian Baptist, addressed the Association on the subject of the publication interests of the Standard Publishing Company, showing that it was in a thrifty condition, especially the denominational organ, which was better patronized in the way of subscription than any other church organ in the Dominion. The people were urged to take an interest in the affairs of the publication company, as it was their property and existed for the promotion of their interests.

The following were appointed a committee to nominate the members of the Home Mission Board:—Rev. D.N. Mihell, Rev. D. Reddick, Port Hope, and Mr. P. Hinman, Grafton.

The Association then adjourned.

Abundant and excellent refreshments for delegates and visitors were provided by the ladies of the congregation on Gospel terms—free.

EVENING SESSION.

There was a large attendance of the public in addition to the delegates in the evening. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. T. C. Sowter.

HOME MISSIONS.

Rev. W. K. Anderson gave a report of the general state of the churches of the former Eastern Ontario Association. There were encouraging signs on every hand. Kinmount had erected a beautiful church, almost free from debt. Norwood had also built a new church. The membership of the Association last year was 987, this year the total was 1,136; and last year $1,075 was contributed to Home Missions, that is, Whitby and Lindsay, $538, and Peterborough and Belleville, $537.

EDUCATION.

Dr. Welton, Professor of Oriental languages in McMaster University, addressed the Association on Education, emphasizing its importance. Reference was made to the new ladies' college to be established in Toronto, and to the increased facilities of the Woodstock College. The Baptists had more money for education than all the other denominations put together. The demands of students on small fields made it necessary to supplement Senator McMaster's munificent gift.

HOME MISSIONS.

Rev. Mr. Grant characterized the Baptists as God's destined instruments to do a great work. Baptists are making progress at a rapid rate, 100,000 being added yearly in the United States. There were about 33,000 Baptists in Ontario and Quebec, and their annual contributions to missions were $15,000. In Associations which had shown a lack of interest in home missions, there had been a corresponding decrease in congregational prosperity and spiritual life. A collection, $24.05, was taken up in aid of Home Missions, and the Association adjourned.

WEDNESDAY.

The Association assembled at 10 a.m. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. W. Pear, of Norwood.

Rev. D. Reddick, B.A., presented the report of the nominating committee, and it was adopted, recommending that the following constitute the Home Mission Board:—Rev. P. Clifton Parker, chairman; Rev. Messrs. D. N. Mihell, J. Reddick, J. B. Huff and Mr. P. Hinman. A discussion with reference to giving a name to the Association, in lieu of the present provisional one, resulted in having the matter laid on the table.

RESOLUTIONS.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Reddick, B. A., seconded by Rev. T. C. Sowter, a resolution was adopted, expressing satisfaction at the prospect of establishing an art department in connection with McMaster University and of efficient affiliated preparatory schools, and expressing gratitude for the good work done at McMaster Hall and urging the schools upon the support of the churches.

Rev. W. Peer, moved, and Mr. Hugh Drain seconded, a motion expressing the warm thanks of the Association, for the hospitality of the people of Peterborough and praying for the divine blessing upon them, which was adopted.

A resolution moved by Rev. D. N. Mihell, seconded by Rev. T. C. Sowter, was adopted pledging the Association to an enlarged patronage of the church paper and book room.

A motion moved by Rev. J. Reddick seconded by Mr. P. Hinman pledging the Association to relax no effort and to never rest content till entire prohibition be secured, was concurred in.

Mr. P. Hinman, seconded by Mr. W. Lang, moved a resolution, which was adopted, deploring Sabbath desecration by railways and steamers, urging the Association to urge the authorities to enforce the law.

A resolution, moved by Rev. C. A. Young, seconded by Rev. Mr. Munt, urging greater consecration and an enlarged liberality, especially in relation to Home and Foreign Mission Work, was unanimously adopted.

A resolution, moved by Mr. H. Graham, seconded by Mr. J. Cross, was adopted, endorsing the importance of Sunday School work and urging to greater effort.

The matter of the next meeting place of the Association was referred to the Committee of Arrangements.

Rev. T. J. Dowling moved a resolution, seconded by Rev. T. C. Sowter, commending the church organization known as Ladies Circles to the sympathy of the churches.

On motion of Rev. T. J. Dowling, seconded by Rev. P. C. Parker, Rev. D. Reddick, B.A., was requested to send the excellent sermon delivered by him at the opening session of the Association to the Canadian Baptist for publication.

The Association adjourned.

Peterborough Cheese Board.

A Day of Selections—Over Three Thousand Cheese Sold.

At the regular fortnightly sale meeting of the Peterborough and Victoria Cheese Board on Tuesday the following cheese was boarded:—

PETERBOROUGH.

Keene	265	Warminster	297
Lakefield	100	Shearer	103
N. Smith	167	Central Smith	100
Cherry Grove	120	Warsaw	84
Westwood	140	Norwood	240
Melrose Abbey	90	South Dummer	120
Myrtle	55	Pine Grove	80
Otonabee Union	65	Glenthorne	75
Clear Lake	76	Beaufort	61
Lilly Lake	55

Total, 2,233.

VICTORIA.

Downeyville	107	Beverageon	140
Peneiee Falls	92	Mariposa	90
Cambray	75	Bobcaygeon	90
Starr	125	W. Ops	50

Total, 737.

Liverpool was quoted at 44s.

Among the buyers present were Messrs. Wrighton, Hodgson, Stewart, Bird, Cook, Fitzgerald, Clexton, Flavelle, Leary and Warrington.

The bidding was spirited throughout and the cheese sold as follows:—Mr. Flavelle took Warminster and Central Smith at 9¾c.; Mr. Hodgson took North Smith, Cherry Grove, Myrtle, Lilly Lake, Shearer, Warsaw and Pine Grove at 9½c.; Mr. Warrington took Keene, Westwood, Melrose Abbey, Norwood, South Dummer, Mariposa and Bobcaygeon also at 9½c.; the remainder, except Clear Lake, which refused to sell, went to Mr. Warrington for 9 1/16 c.

OTHER MATTERS.

Previous to the bidding there was some discussion on the question of testing. It seems that one of the buyers had rejected some of the cheese bought by him, but it had been brought in with the rest to ship. Mr. Wrighton, the board inspector, tested the cheese and found it all or nearly all of passable quality. There seemed to be an impression that some of the buyers tried to "skin" the factories when they could, and Mr. Wrighton asked that the factories appoint each an arbitrator to confer the buyer and in case they could not agree they could then call him (Mr. Wrighton) in.

Mr. Platt Hinman, of Grafton, director for district No. 5 of the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association, asked why it was that selections had been made from the board? Was it because of the poor quality of the cheese left out?

Mr. Warrington replied it was because of the tastes of their consumers, and because they (they buyers) had got specific instructions to take these factories.

Mr. Flavelle said it was mainly because of the reputation of the factories concerned, whose make was know to be generally good.

Mr. Hinman was glad to learn that it was not altogether due to the fact that the instruction imparted by their inspectors had been neglected. They were appointed to impart information to these very factories whose make was not the best, and he would be sorry to learn that their efforts had resulted in no improvement.

"Why, Mrs. Jawsome, how can you insinuate such a thing? I drunk or mad? I'm strong Scott Act. I know it's hard to believe, but Mrs. Buyclese, a regular prayer meeting woman she is, too, told me so with her own mouth—which is hardly ever shut, goodness knows—that she went trapesing up to Toronto with the Masonic excursion. She went through all the shops and priced 'em all. She wanted to get a wedding present for Ann Jane Mariar who is going to marry that half baked gawk, Ben Slowit, and she was disgusted. She could do better at home. And she spent $1.84—$1.75 for her ticket and nine cents for cakes and a paper of pins, she got at a seven-cent store—she tore that old cashmere dress she's worn a life time, on the car steps—O my! where was I?—O yes! she went straight to China Hall when she got home and got a lovely china tea set for so much less than she could in Toronto, that it made up for her expenses to the city. And she says they have terrible fine and cheap dishes at China Hall, and as she says, says she, 'Dead loads of 'em, too.'"

SUN
LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.
HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876; four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,482 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,590 67	195,188 29	1,167,386 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	363,284 31	2,992,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,607 24	4,029,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,004 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

You May Try
Everybody's Teas in Town and compare them with our Strictly Uncoloured Japan, English Breakfast, Oolong and Young Hyson and you will be convinced that none will suit your taste as well as ours.

To Buy Teas Right
Is something which requires close study and observation. The cultivation of a trained sense of smell, taste and inspection is needed, which takes a long time to acquire and many never can acquire it.

To Keep Teas Right
After they are bought is another thing which no one can succeed in doing unless he is an enthusiast in looking after the "small details" of the Tea trade.

The Unflagging Attention
We give to the Tea branch of our business has demonstrated the truth of the above, and our lengthened experience gives us confidence in guaranteeing superior qualities which we invariably handle. We pride ourselves in our Tea Trade.

Our Finest Coffee
We positively guarantee to be of finer aroma and greater strength than the coffee usually sold. The properties of coffee require constant care and attention in order to retain its delicacy and purity. No one will be disappointed by using our Coffees regularly.

All Lovers
Of good Tea and Coffee know how easily both drinks may be spoiled on the stove. To secure the best results, therefore, a fair trial by the practical housekeeper is of course necessary to insure success.

THE GOVERNMENT LOSES.
DECISION GIVEN IN THE CELEBRATED AYER SEIZURE.

The Action Dismissed—The Confiscated Goods Ordered to be Returned—Threatened Action for Damages.

OTTAWA, June 28.—In the Exchequer Court yesterday Justice Ritchie gave judgment in the celebrated customs case of the Queen v. J. C. Ayer & Co., which was tried here and in Montreal just a year ago. The decision was against the Government with costs, the release of the seized goods being ordered.

Ayer & Co. are manufacturers of sarsaparilla, hair vigor, pills and other compounds at Lowell, Mass., and in 1862 started a branch establishment at St. John, N.B. The material was imported in a crude state and afterwards prepared in the Dominion, bottles and other articles being purchased here. By this method the Company only had to pay duty on the fair marketable value of the compound for some twenty years. The Ayers continued their importations till 1882, when Underhill, an employe of theirs who had been dismissed, laid information at Montreal against them for importing at under value. Acting on this information Officers O'Hara and Brosseau of Montreal made seizures at various points in the Dominion. The Ayers disputed the rights of the Customs to make these seizures, and last year the case came on before Chief Justice Sir Wm. Ritchie.

The goods seized were 4,349 dosed bottles of sarsaparilla.

The Chief Justice, after reviewing portions of the evidence, said that he could not understand how honest business men like the Ayers, making honest importations in order to carry on business in the Dominion, could do more than they had done in this case, viz: To apply to the customs authorities to learn upon what terms the goods should be imported into Canada. The invoices clearly showed that the ingredients imported in bulk by the firm, to add to other materials bought in Canada, possessed no market value beyond those ingredients. The charge of smuggling seemed to him to be monstrous. The evidence went to show that the Ayers' goods were rather over-valued than otherwise.

The judge expressed the opinion that a scheme was concocted by O'Hara, Brosseau and Underhill against a firm whose honesty was beyond question for twenty-one years.

The books of Ayer & Co., surreptitiously obtained and deposited with the collector of customs at Montreal, remained, despite the orders of a judge of the Supreme Court for their production.

O'Hara came in for censure for his conduct in the matter. The conduct of Officer Brosseau in trafficking in money to be received in forfeitures was disgraceful.

The Chief Justice concluded by adjudging that the Ayers had not made any attempt to, nor did they pass the customs at St. John with bottles of medicine, that there was no proof of a certain patent medicine mentioned being entered under value, that there was no proof that goods illegally entered in Canada were kept for sale and that there was no intent to defraud the customs. The information of undervaluation and of defrauding the revenue was therefore dismissed with costs and the goods seized were ordered to be restored.

Mr. R. D. McGibbon, one of the counsel for Ayer & Co., says the firm will make a claim against the Government for damages, probably reaching in the millions. On the other hand it is not at all probable that the Government will let so important a case be decided by the judgment of a single judge, and an appeal will probably be taken to the Supreme Court.

Ex-Sheriff Richard is announced as an independent candidate for Provencher for the Commons, and will be opposed by either Lariviere or Bernier.

Owing to being unable to make a five year's arrangement for rates with the Canadian Pacific Railway the Anthracite Coal Company will cease operations, being unable to make contracts with large firms.

Excitement over the gold discoveries at the Lake of the Woods is increasing and a couple of American millionaires are visiting the mines with a view to investments.

Governor Aikins and family leave on Friday for Toronto, where they will reside.

PRIMITIVE CATHOLICITY.
BISHOP COXE'S LETTER TO THE ARCHBISHOP OF PARIS.

Pope Leo Discusses Liberty—Modern Protestants out of Infallibility and Supremacy—The Views of an American Bishop.

PARIS, June 28.—I have obtained a copy of the following letter, addressed by Bishop Coxe, of Western New York, to Mgr. Richard, Archbishop of Paris:—

MONSEIGNEUR,—My apology for this letter must be found in ancient examples of the Church of Christ. I find myself peculiarly circumstanced in visiting your diocese, conspicuous and eminent as it is, and in a degree so remarkable as a Christian Bishop, it is my duty to make known to your Grace the errand on which I have come, and I do so not more truly in conformity with primitive canons than out of respect for your person and your official dignity.

Certain of the faithful priests and laity of your archdiocese have complained of their destitution as deprived of your paternal care and have appealed to the entire episcopate of the Anglo-American Church to give temporary succor to their grave necessities. To this appeal a fraternal answer has been made by the appointment of a commission of bishops, of which I am officially president, to examine into the nature of these distresses and of our duty in the emergency.

According to Catholic precedent, if we are truly informed, these presbyters, deacons and laities are truly Catholic as that precious name was always understood before the divisions East and West. They are Latin Christians of the illustrious Church of Gaul, founded by Saints Pothinus and Irenœus, and professing all the dogmas and obeying all the constitutions of the undivided Church. They complain that your fatherly care is withdrawn from them, not because they are heretics, but precisely because they adhere to the Gallican doctrine, maintain the Gallican liberties and profess the Catholic faith according to the rule of antiquity as expounded by St. Vincent of Lerins.

In the Catholic Church we would always take pains to hold fast that which has always been believed in all places, in all ages, and by all the faithful. Undoubtedly these Christians of your venerable diocese are victims of that terrible shock with which the Court of Rome has so recently affected and amazed the entire world of Christendom by setting forth strange and alarming dogmas in defiance of this canon of primitive Catholicity. They share the convictions of the saintly and erudite Dollinger and of millions besides who do not make audible their profound anxieties, or of others who openly maintain that these novelties have no force in foro conscientia for any Catholic. They were not accepted by the Latin Episcopate, but were imposed by the voice of a single bishop, unum ex ipsis, St. Bernard, whose consideration was professedly apart from the consensus of his brothers.

Now one of your venerated predecessors justly complained that the entire fraternity of bishops were thus reduced to a synod of sacristans having no decisive voice as to the universality, antiquity and unanimity of the S.S. before touching the dogmas in question. Thus thought our Bishop of blessed memory, Darboy, while adhering to the unanimous declaration of the Gallican Episcopacy of A.D. 1682. What could they do except adhere to the dictum of it? Vincet alors, il aura soin de s'attacher a l'antiquite qui ne saurait plus etre seduite par les articles trompeurs de la nouveaute. In such case let us be sure that we adhere to antiquity which can suffer no change from the deceptive articles of innovation.

If then it be true that the appeal of your diocesans aforesaid is disowned by fidelity to the constitutions and definitions of primitive councils; if they accept the canonical primacy of the great Apostolic See of the West, rejecting only those modern pretensions to infallibility and supremacy which were rejected by the entire Gallican Church in the famous declaration of 1682, and which alike the laws of France and the traditions of her Church, from the day of St. Louis to those of Bossuet, have repelled with hardy defiance of the Roman Court; if for their exemplary fidelity to Catholic maxims and Gallican traditions, your Grace has ceased to consider them as part of the flock committed to your care by the Sheppard and Bishop of Souls, they are entitled, according to ancient precedent, as your learning must have informed you, to such provisional care as can be afforded by any church professing and maintaining Catholicity to which they may appeal. The flock to which I should minister in such case belongs to you, and only invokes temporary and provisional succor at my hands. It is not, therefore, to stimulate schism, but the reverse, that I have resolved to administer confirmation and to celebrate the offices of the church among these Gallicans, unless your Grace shall charitably inform me that you have by no means disowned them and and have not failed to approve their fidelity to the traditions of the Church of France.

As one who has long studied and admired the doctrine of a church so ancient and so glorious in the past, an American profoundly sensible of the debt my own countrymen owe to the French people for timely aid in the historical crisis of their wrath as a nation and as a bishop deeply sympathising with the cares and anxieties of true Catholics in France. I have felt these explanations to be due to your Grace and to the flock over which you preside with godly sincerity and simplicity. I love all my fellow-christians, but among those of this brilliant capital my Catholic sympathies are with these, however humble, who will not suffer ecclesiastical France with their consent to be reduced to a mere satrapy, which Bossuet has called a foreign domination. I venerate those holy witnesses to Christ and to His Apostolic Church, who when others forsook Him and fled, were resolved that the illustrious Gallican Church should not become extinct and that her free maxims and splendid traditions should never be forgotten.

Accept, I pray you, Monsignor, the assurance of my profound respect in Christo et in ecclesia. (Signed) A. CLEVELAND COXE, Bishop of Western New York.

The Pope on Liberalism.

ROME, June 28.—The Osservatore Romano publishes the Pope's encyclical on Liberalism. It is a lengthy document. The Pope classifies the subject under two heads, ancient and modern, and condemns the latter as being in opposition to that practised by Christ.

The First Servant of the State.

BERLIN, June 28.—The Landtag opened yesterday. In his speech, opening the session, King William said his Government, like that of the late Emperor Frederick, would be exercised as a legacy from his grandfather. He would equally guard the rights of the people and the Crown and protect all religions. He was gratified with the good relations existing between the State and the Catholic Church. He was satisfied with the Prussian finances, and hoped that the further relief of communes and persons of small means from taxation would be possible. The King concluded his speech with a quotation from Frederick the Great, "The King is the first servant of the State."

Mooney Made It Hot for Them.

DUBLIN, June 28.—A farmer named Mooney, living near Rathdrum, has been evicted by 100 constables and seven emergency men directed by a magistrate. Mooney had barricaded the house and with the assistance of friends offered a fierce resistance, throwing boiling porridge and missiles of all kinds at the evictors. Ten arrests were made.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

TEMPERANCE MEN IN SESSION.

Platform of the Prohibitionists Adopted at Syracuse.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 28.—The Prohibition Convention has adopted the following platform:

First. The traffic in alcohol as beverages has produced misery, pauperism, want, wretchedness, taxation, ruin, crime and death. It neither begets wealth or conserves human affairs. It is a foe to the home, a menace to the church, and a growing peril to the state, and its total prohibition is demanded by every interest of political economy, of moral relationship, of social life.

Second. The total prohibition of this traffic can be secured only through a policy which outlives the traffic, and refuses it all legal recognition; never by a policy of license in any form for any price.

Third. The policy of prohibition can be applied to this traffic only through some political agency or source, and can be applied with success only through such force or agency as favor this policy, therefore a Prohibition party is imperative, that the principle may have embodiment and the policy may be sustained through the administration of law.

Fourth. While there is, and must be, a national policy of any kind concerning the liquor traffic, a national party is, and must be, necessary to establish and maintain a national policy of prohibition and we reaffirm our allegiance to the National Prohibition party. We ratify with hearty enthusiasm the nominees of that party for President and Vice-President of the United States, and we call upon all parties to endorse this nomination at the polls.

Fifth. The organization of liquor men for the avowed purpose of defying law, and their repeated assertions that Prohibition laws cannot be enforced, demonstrated that the liquor traffic is disloyal of character, revolutionary in its methods, and of treasonable intent, and any political party that allies itself with or does not condemn said traffic becomes either an active participant in, or a silent endorser of, the disloyalty and the treason by it shown.

Thus declaring ourselves upon the supreme issue which this party was organized to meet, and which it exist, to decide, and believing this to be the dominant question on which good citizens should now agree upon. All other questions we adopted, and endorse the utterances of our National Prohibition platform put forth at Indianapolis, also our State platform of 1887, and invite the faithful co-operation of the voters of this State.

GRAND LODGE I.O.G.T.

Proceedings at Yesterday's Session—Installation of Officers.

HAMILTON, June 28.—At the session of the Grand Lodge I.O.G.T. yesterday morning Dr. Oronhyatekha and J. H. Flagg were appointed representatives to the Prohibition Convention at Montreal.

This resolution was adopted: That the Executive be empowered to confer with committees from other temperance societies and churches for the purpose of forming some definite plan to obtain legal prohibition of the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage in the Dominion of Canada.

J. H. Flagg received the unanimous recommendation of the Grand Lodge for Deputy Right Worthy Grand Templar.

A deputation of the Royal Templars of Temperance was introduced and addresses were made in favor of organic union. A resolution was passed recommending the union of all the temperance organizations in the country.

At the afternoon session the chief business was the installation of officers.

A CLEVER HALDIMAND MAN.

Arrested for Seduction. He Manages to Dupe His Captor and Escapes.

ST. THOMAS, June 28.—Constable Kindree of Cayuga came here with a warrant for the arrest of Arch. Cline, who is wanted in Haldimand for seducing a young woman of that county. The constable found his man at the confectionery store of Mrs. Mills, on Talbot-street, east of the Queen's hotel. Mrs. Mills, by the way, is wife No 1 of the notorious Aylmer bigamist, John Mills, who forfeited his bail and fled to Port Huron while waiting trial. Wife No. 1 sued her absent lord for alimony at the last Chancery Court and obtained $1,100. Part of this money she invested in the candy store of which she is now the proprietress. Cline was her clerk.

Kindree read the warrant to Cline and placed him under arrest. The latter treated the affair coolly, cracked a joke and a peanut simultaneously, and asked permission to step into an adjoining room and secure his hat. The constable, who is apparently older in years than in criminal experience, cheerfully acceded to the prisoner's request. Cline, however, failed to return, and after waiting awhile the Cayuga constable became suspicious and visited the rear only to find that he had been completely duped and that Cline had escaped. He thereupon called upon the local police for assistance, which he should have done in the first place. Cline is still at large.

THE HAND OF BISMARCK.
IMPRESSION MADE IN EUROPE BY THE EMPEROR'S SPEECH.

The White Pasha Believed to be Stanley—Lord Coleridge's Letter in the Arnold Memorial—The English Turf.

LONDON, June 28.—The Emperor's speech to the Reichstag has made a marked and very favorable impression. It would not be a very rash guess that the hand which held the pen when this document was composed was the hand of Bismarck. Certain it is that every idea in the message is an idea which Prince Bismarck has for twenty years done his best to enforce in Europe. Peace is the refrain of the whole speech, but peace maintained by arms. Peace while Germany wishes peace, till Germany is in greater danger from peace than war. Peace till she has become too strong to be attacked. England, like the rest of Europe, is looking on Prince Bismarck as the chief constable of the Continent. The English press so hails him and hails the Emperor as a ruler ready to leave Prince Bismarck a free hand.

Mr. Stanley's fate was discussed by the Royal Geological Society. Sir Francis de Winton, whom the president described as in a position to speak more authoritatively than any other man, once more declared his belief that Mr. Stanley is all right. Probably, said Sir Francis, Mr. Stanley has met with some resistance in November last. No doubt the White Pasha who had been seen by the natives fighting his way through the country was Mr. Stanley. Mr. Frederick Villiers, the well-known war correspondent, writes to say that he is convinced that Mr. Stanley intended to advance on Khartoum from Bahr Gasel. He, too, believes he is the White Pasha, a name likely to stick.

Lord Coleridge's long promised letter on behalf of the Arnold memorial has at last appeared. He tells us that Mr. Smith's refusal to continue the pension to Mrs. Arnold is based chiefly, though not exclusively, on the want of precedent. It would be interesting to know what else it is based on. England is certainly the only country in the world where such an excuse would have been held good; where, indeed, was there a precedent for Mr. Arnold. What the committee have determined on is to solicit funds, first for a medallion on the bust in Westminster Abbey, second to make adequate provision for Mrs. Arnold and her married daughter, third to found at Oxford an Arnold scholarship.

The Wood libel case continues to be the chief entertainment of the town. The theatres are half empty, but Lord Coleridge's court is crowded. More reputations than Mr. Wood's are now seen to be at stake. Hardly a witness leaves the stand without having damaged either himself or some other important personage. Perhaps never before has so much daylight been let in upon racing as now practised. "One more such trial," said a man well known on the turf and elsewhere, "and the turf must be left to those who disgrace it." The defence have succeeded, perhaps, in damaging Mr. Wood, but hardly anyone escapes without a touch from the brush with which he is tarred.

A WIFE MURDERER HANGED.

Execution of George Wilson in a New York State Jail Yesterday Morning—His Crime.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 28.—Geo. Wilson was hanged in the Albion, Orleans county, jail, yesterday for the murder of his wife on the night of January 17, last year. On the morning of the 18th Wilson went to a neighbor's house and said his wife was dying, and asked that the neighbor go to his house and remain there while he went for a doctor. The neighbor did so, and found the woman dead and having the appearance of having been dead for some hours. Wilson returned and then an undertaker was summoned who called a coroner. There was no marks of violence on the body, but the lips had the appearance of having been bitten. A jury was empanelled, but no evidence was taken that day. A post mortem was held, and the husband arrested and lodged in jail. The testimony before the jury showed the woman had been strangled, and the jury found that her husband had committed the crime.

Thurman Confident of Success.

COLUMBUS, O., June 28.—In answer to the question: What do you think of the Republican nomination? Judge Thurman said: "I consider it a very strong ticket. I have no personal acquaintance with General Harrison, and thought Sherman's nomination would be the strongest one, but under the circumstances the ticket as named is as strong as could have been nominated by the convention. However, I do not believe it is stronger than its party, and therefore do not see how it can be elected, New York, Indiana and New Jersey are naturally Democratic. Any ticket named at Chicago could not carry any of these States. I have no fear of the result in November. We shall have a Democratic victory.

The Nicolet Election.

QUEBEC, June 28.—The special parliamentary committee unanimously threw out the bill to incorporate the veterinary surgeons, refusing to give the surgeons the exclusive right to practise all over the province.

The writs have been issued for the Nicolet election, which has been fixed for July 10.

It is reported that Hector Cameron has successfully floated on the London market the bonds of the Temiscouata Railway. It is also stated that Mr. Beemer has been successful in the London market.

G.T.R Freight Trains in Collision.

INGERSOLL, June 28.—Early yesterday morning an accident occurred on the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway near here, but luckily no one was injured. Freight No. 26 from the west ran into the tail end of a special freight and a couple of cars were derailed. The track was blocked until about 9 o'clock and trains had to go around by Stratford until it was cleared.

A Painful Accident.

OSHAWA, June 28.—While Mr. A. McMillan, manager of the S. Whiting Manufacturing Company, was lifting a box of axes the bottom of the box dropped out and one of the axe points entered his left leg above the knee, making an ugly and painful wound.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

Rev. J. Reddick, of Colborne, delivered an admirable address on Sunday School Work. He pointed out that the prime object of this department of church work was the conversion of the children, and he drew a sharp distinction between conversion and salvation. Conversion was the turning of the child to Christ and placing him in the way of salvation. Children were capable of conversion at a very early age. Practical advice was given to teachers and the teacher who failed after years of effort to convert a child; he or she should not feel pained if the child sought other training. The individual character of the teacher affected the result of his work. The teacher should be able to say, "come" into the narrow path, not "go." He did not denounce the employment of unconverted teachers, but he held that none but converted and consecrated teachers could lead the child to conversion. The importance of deeply impressing divine truths and of direct and earnest prayer were elaborately insisted on, as well as of individual admonition to each of a class.

Mr. H. Graham endorsed the most of the excellent address of the speaker, but he objected to his definition of the term "conversion."

Rev. D. K. Anderson was not clear that according to Mr. Reddick, a man can be converted and not saved. No man could be converted without enjoying salvation.

Rev. Dr. Welton drew attention to the vast importance of training a child in the way he should go—when he is old he would not depart from it—any apparent exception to the truth of this indicated that the training was not of the right kind. The Sunday school, in addition to being the nursery of the church, should be the workshop of the church, and there should be a hearty co-operation between the Sunday school and the church.

Rev. Mr. Parker pointed out in regard to the result of Christian training, the public noted the exceptions and not the rule. As a rule well trained children would grow up in the fear of God. Teachers should strive more for success by the personal influence of a good life than by expertness of teaching. The influence of bad companionship should be guarded against. The teachers should not confine all their interest to the Sunday school room.

THE SUPERINTENDENT.

Mr. T. Dixon Craig, M.P.P., addressed himself to the office of the superintendent. He must first be a Christian, a man of good reputation and character, he must also be patient, firm, punctual, prompt, watchful, willing to learn and have sympathy with children. The superintendent had duties out of the school—prepare his work, should be cordial in his relation to children and teachers, watchful over teachers and pupils, he should have teachers' meetings, etc. The speaker, after dealing minutely and earnestly with the various subjects, closed with an appeal to the sympathy of Christian workers on behalf of the school.

During the discussion on the address Dr. Welton said the address was one of the best he had ever heard on the subject, and he moved, seconded by Mr. Matthews, that Mr. Craig be requested to publish his address in the Canadian Baptist. The motion was adopted.

Miss J. F. Barker, Whitby, appealed for support for the denominational Sunday school paper, the Sunshine.

LADIES MISSION CIRCLE.

The ladies of the Association remained in the body of the church, the men retiring to the basement to permit the former to perfect the work of organization in connection with the Association formed last year. After devotional exercises, Mrs. J. F. Barker, who presided, expressed her thankfulness that women were permitted to assist in promoting the interests of the church.

Mrs. Barker read the reports of the various circles showing in some cases gratifying progress, while in other cases there was room for development in the interest in ladies circle work.

The reports were, on motion of Mrs. Gould seconded by Mrs. Peer, adopted.

Miss Emma Bradley, Grafton, was elected director of the Association. Her duties are to have a general oversight of the circles and to assist in organizing new circles and to preside at the annual meetings.

Miss Bradley expressed her sense of the honour conferred upon her in her elevation to the position.

Mrs. Peer suggested that official visits to the circles would have a very beneficial and encouraging effect.

Miss Ada Aldridge read a very interesting and carefully prepared paper on Mission Bands.

Miss Nicholls, on behalf of the local circle, regretted the illness of the highly respected president, Mrs. Gilmour, which prevented her being present and welcomed the visiting ladies to their town, their homes and their circle, and Mrs. Peer on behalf of the visitors, acknowledged the welcome.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. S. B. Gould, Cramahe.

In continuation of Association work, the report of the Committee on the Constitution was taken up and the question of Association name discussed. Mr. T. D. Craig suggested the name "Peterborough," and after several other titles were proposed and rejected, "Peterborough" was selected as the name of the Association, the vote having been taken as between that and "Belleville." The report was adopted.

Rev. T. J. Dowling was appointed to prepare a circular letter to be read at next meeting of the Association, giving the history of the Association.

On motion of Rev. D. Reddick, a vote of thanks was passed to the railways for reduced fares.

On motion of Rev. D. N. Mibell, seconded by Mr. Craig, a similar vote of thanks was tendered to the Peterborough papers.

On motion of Rev. J. T. Dowling, seconded by Rev. W. Peer, the thanks of the Association were passed to the Moderator for his wise and able conduct in the chair.

The Association adjourned till evening.

EVENING SESSION.

After devotional exercises conducted by Rev. T. J. Dowling, Mr. T. D. Craig announced that Rev. Mr. Grant would be unable to fulfil his engagement to address the meeting, and read a letter of regret from him. Mr. Craig said he would endeavor as well as he could to fill the vacancy. The church, he said, was behind in foreign mission work and in their assessments. The speaker then enlarged upon the hardships of missionary work and the Christian faith and fortitude exhibited by the missionaries. In India there were Baptist buildings at three different points, with ten missionaries and two boats. There were besides 64 native preachers connected with the Baptist missions, four of whom were ordained, fourteen Bible women and two colporteurs. Their labors had resulted in 1,900 members being added to the church, and 200 Sunday school pupils. Three hundred pupils were in attendance at the day schools, and more than 100 different villages had native Christians in them. He was glad that the missionaries were having such good success, and related several anecdotes showing how the smallest turn of affairs might be turned to account in the conversion of some one.

Rev. Mr. Mibell, of Belleville, next began his address. He regretted that the foreign missionary work at home was not progressing as well as it might. The spirit of giving seemed to be subsiding, and the speaker held that a main cause of this was the fact that many people gave simply while their emotional natures were worked upon. Their tears of sympathy soon dried up, and their pockets dried up with them. That kind of giving was not Christian giving. However, he believed that "God will yet reign where'er the sun doth his successive journeys run." In treating the question of missionary contribution, the speaker pointed out the measure of the Christian's obligation to Jesus Christ in this matter, and just in so far as he neglected or refused to acknowledge these obligations, so far did they refute the divine command to spread the Gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth. Then the speaker held that the contributions should be for missions, irrespective of foreign or home missions, and when the donations were collected let them be divided in just proportion. The question came down to the practical test, he said: have we like men paid our obligations to Christ? This should be the motive of all missionary contributions, not mere sentiment, and until the Christian carried it out he was not doing his whole duty.

Mrs. J. F. Barker, of Whitby, in beginning her address, relinquished all claim to being a "Woman's Rights" woman as the term was generally understood. She recognized man as the master over woman, and rejoiced that it was woman's privilege to be the helpmeet of man, not only in the family but in the church. Mrs. Barker then launched out into her address, in which she said she would endeavor to show how peculiarly woman was interested in the missionary work. This she did by showing conclusively that the degraded condition of women in olden times had been ameliorated by Christianity, not by civilization as was claimed by some. The liberties and exalted position of the women in our country to-day were due directly to this course. Therefore the obligation rested upon them to send the gospel to the countries where their sisters were yet in the chains of bondage. To effect this she advocated organization, in which there was not only head but strength; and to organise they would have to sacrifice—sacrifice personal pleasures, pride and ambition and give more time to the good work.

The moderator expressed his thanks to the people of Peterborough for their kind hospitality and for the vote of thanks to himself.

Rev. P. C. Parker made a concluding remark, after which the usual devotional exercises brought a very harmonious and successful session to a close.

The representatives of the local press owe a debt of gratitude to the courtesy and practical assistance of Rev. P. Clifton Parker, clerk, and Rev. D. Reddick, B.A., assistant clerk, during the session of the Association.

TWO HAMILTON WEDDINGS.

Serious Runaway—A Big Sunday School Picnic—The Milk Tests.

HAMILTON, June 28.—The wedding of Miss Maggie Boyd, eldest daughter of J. D. Boyd of this city, and William Cassey, an old Hamilton boy, now of Detroit, took place at St. Mary's Cathedral yesterday, Vicar-General Heenan performing the ceremony.

Erskine Church was the scene of a very pleasant event when Mr. John McKeown of Detroit and Miss Mary Hornby of this city were joined in wedlock by Rev. W. J. Dey, M.A.

On Monday evening two young couples started for Stony Creek in a double carriage. Near the King-street toll gate the horses took fright and bolted into the ditch, upsetting the carriage and spilling the occupants. Miss Grace McLeod had her foot caught in the wheel, and was dragged along the ground for some distance and was severely cut about the head and face. Robert Kirkpatrick, one of the young men had his arm broken. The other two escaped unhurt.

All the Protestant Sunday Schools in Glanford, Seneca, Saltfleet, Caistor and Binbrook held a mammoth union picnic at Guyette's grove, near Hall's Corners, yesterday. About 1,000 big and little people, representing fifteen schools, were present.

Dr. Ryall's new instruments make the milk supply look worse than the old test did. Out of thirteen samples examined so far only one has come up to the Canadian standard.

The police magistrate gave John O'Reilly the option of a $20 fine or thirty days in jail for distuebing the wedding ceremony at Mr. Binkley's house last week. Thomas Reddon and John Morin, who were each fined $20 for the same offence, were unable to raise the amount and went to jail.

Hamilton's "Long Felt Want."

HAMILTON, June 28.—The project to establish an inebriate asylum in this city is gaining supporters among Christians, temperance and medical men, and already subscriptions have been promised. The whole of the subject will shortly be introduced to the Rescue Home Association whose directors are influential men, and it is believed that they will successfully establish this institution for the cure of habitual drunkards.

Mr. Jas. Binnie, of Toronto, states that his little baby when three months old was so bad with summer complaint that under doctor's treatment her life was despaired of. Four doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cured her. She is now fat and hearty. 2w26d

Bricklayers' & Masons' Union,

No. 12, Peterborough.

To the Architects and Builders of the Town of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN,—The members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 12, Peterborough, have decided to take no sub-contracts after the 1st day of June, 1888. We take this step, believing it to be to the interest of Architects and Proprietors of buildings, to deal directly with us, and not as heretofore, letting our branch of work to Carpenters, and then have them sublet it to us, frequently at a loss to owners of buildings through inferior material being used to secure the carpenter a profit. We therefore, consider it would be to the interest of all concerned, to have each trade control its own line of work.

Signed on behalf of the Union,
J. J. HARTLEY, President.
GEO. ROSE, Vice-President.
R. SHEEHY, Secretary.

The Daily Examiner.

THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1888.

The Weather.

Fresh to strong winds, generally cloudy weather with rain; not much change in temperature.

Libel on the Face of It.

A Lindsay photographer is threatened with a libel suit for taking a picture which (in her estimation) did not do justice to the charms of a lady customer. This is a warning to photographers not to try to compete with the golden lion in making the ladies beautiful, as all are who buy their grenadines, chambrays, embroideries and prints of r. fair. Imported goods at importers' prices. The best value ever shown and the best hot weather fabrics.

All for the Cause.

The appeals of the speakers at the Baptist church meeting Wednesday night on behalf of the missionary cause, had their good effect. At the close of the service a young girl came forward and gave the pastor, Rev. P. C. Parker, a pair of ear-rings, saying that they were all she had to give, but she was very anxious to help the cause along. The ear-rings were not very valuable, but the self-sacrificing spirit of the act won the hearts of everyone.

The Belleville Excursion.

The excursion to Belleville on Monday July 2nd, will be a delightful outing. The P.A.A.A. have the affair in hand and as they never do things by halves, excursionists may count on the best of arrangements and attention. Over 800 bicyclists will be present in the city at the great Canadian meet, and $1000, divided into 25 prizes, will be competed for. Fare from Peterborough to Belleville and return only $1.10, and in proportion from all stations on the G.J.R. Eight hours in the Bay city. Train leaves town at 8.30 a.m., and starts from Belleville to return at 6 p.m. Be sure and join the crowd on Monday.

Beautiful Property.

The Roman Catholic Park Lot which for so long a time has been looked at with hungry eyes is at last being put in the market. It lies between two of the best streets in Peterborough, Gilmour street especially is the fashionable street of the town. The lots will be sold off at low prices as money is needed for church purposes.

As soon as building operations are begun on this property there will be a rapid advance in value. The sale will afford a good investment for all who desire a safe thing and a chance for a little speculation. dw

Death of D. Hilliard, M.P.P.

PACKENHAM, June 27.—Daniel Hilliard, M.P.P. for North Lanark, died at his home here on Saturday evening. The family of Mr. Daniel Hilliard came originally from the North of England, and settled in New York State. His father emigrated to Canada from Plattsburg, N.Y. Mr. Hilliard was born in Prescott, and educated there and in Toronto. He married, in 1849, a daughter of the late Sheriff Dickson, of Pakenham. He was extensively engaged in the lumber business, and had the reputation of being a clear-headed and successful business man. He was returned to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario at the last general election as a supporter of Mr. Mowat, and favored manhood suffrage and Prohibition.

The Renewed Morgan House.

Mr. A. P. Morgan is fully alive to his duties to the public. He has had his hotel completely renovated from cellar to garret. Every room has been put in proper repair, and tastily calcimined, the halls both above and below have been laid on with eloquent gold paper, and altogether the work is a vast improvement. It was done by Mr. J. P. Shevlin, and Mr. Morgan is not only pleased with the quality of the work but speaks in high terms of Mr. Shevlin's promptness and obliging disposition. The Morgan house is now one of the neatest, spruest and cleanest, as it has long been one of the best conducted hotels in town.

A Look-Out on George Street.

The fire brigade, or at least the hook-and-ladder section of it, were called out Tuesday night to perform a peculiar duty. A prominent Oddfellow and member of the Canton, who seems to possess a rare faculty for getting into trouble, in his hurry Tuesday afternoon to join the procession, hastily donned his uniform and left his keys in a pocket of the changed suit. His room is in the third story of a block on George street. There is a spring lock on the door, and of coarse when he went out and left his keys inside he was locked out effectually. The firemen come to his relief, ladders were run up to his window about eleven o'clock at night and the door opened. The grateful exile set up the refreshments and promised to be more careful in the future.

Monday's Pic-nic.

Rev. Father McEvay and a large force of assistants have been busily engaged the past few days in making the necessary preparations at St. Leonards, Ashburnham, for the pic-nic on Monday.

Take it Down.

Come, gentlemen, look after your handsome banner. As anyone can see, it is being destroyed with the sun and rain, it ought to e taken down—in fact it should have been taken down on Tuesday evening.

Dominion Day Preparations.

The committee is actively at work preparing for the Dominion Day celebration. The comical features of the programme will be particularly strong, and we may expect the public mouth to be stretched from ear to ear and the public sides to be held from the start of the procession to the finish.

FRESH strawberries every morning from this time on, at The Pantry.

The Outlook up North.

The Belleville Ontario says:—"Mr. F. E. O'Flynn returned to-day from Apsley, Peterborough county, where he had been investigating an assignment made by James Lindsay, general merchant. His liabilities are placed at $5,000. The inspection was made at the instance of Montreal creditors. Mr. O'Flynn says that the crop outlook in this section is excellent."

A Few Day's More.

We had intended closing up our store yesterday but have decided to remain in town a few days longer to clear off the balance of our stock. Take advantage of these few days grace and purchase from us at prices lower than ever. We only ask you to call and see our goods and get our prices; they are so tempting that you can't help buying.
F. S. GOULD.
Dawson Bros., old stand, Hunter street.

A Handsome Monument.

Yesterday a handsome monument was erected in Little Lake Cemetery by Mr. James Yule, of Roseneath, in memory of his departed wife. It is of Victoria granite, in the form of a round tapering pillar on a square base, and stands about thirteen feet high. It was made by Mr. Bounsell, of Bowmanville, and is not only an ornament to the cemetery but a fitting tribute of marital respect to a devoted wife.

Sporting Notes.

A team of the Peterborough Colts go to Port Hope on Saturday to play the return match with the second eleven of Trinity College school.

Next Monday, July 2nd, the Rosedale cricket club plays the Peterborough eleven on the P.A.A.A. grounds here.

It is probable the Port Hope baseball club will play here next week.

The Independent Lacrosse Club went down to Millbrook this morning to play a team of that village.

It is said that a match race will be arranged between the four-oar crews captained by Sheehy and Matthews, the former not being satisfied with the result of the race Monday evening.

The return baseball match between the Emeralds and North Enders will be played on the morning of July 2nd.

THERE ARE MANY INDICATIONS of worms, but Dr. Low's Worm Syrup meets them in every case successfully. dw

An Exciting Week.

The week of which to-day is about the middle, has been one of excitement and one which promises to continue. On Saturday we had a circus on the market square and a cold blooded murder as one of the chief features. On Tuesday we had a corroner's inquest, decoration day and a regatta. From Tuesday till last night we had the good Baptists getting along swimingly in their conference and the time will be in a hub-bub till next Monday when the excitement will culminate in the festivities of Dominion Day. But all this is unprofitable excitement, and it is nothing to the seething excitement going on every day at the store of Gough Bros., where a great thirty days sale of ready made clothing at the lowest prices on earth is going on. Boys, youths and men's clothing going at gift prices. Summer goods a special run at special prices. If you want to get the best of value out of a dollar take it to Gough Bros., and see what a stock of clothing it will buy. All prizes no blanks at Gough Bros, George street.

A Successful Festival.

The ladies of St. John's church are to be congratulated upon the delightful success of the strawberry festival held in the beautiful grounds of St. John's church on Wednesday evening. Owing doubtless to the chilliness of the evening there was not a very large attendance, but that did not prevent the festival from being successful. The abundant refreshments provided by the ladies were disposed of. A large marquee gratitously placed at the disposal of the ladies by the kindness of Mr. J. J. Turner, served as the refreshment tent. It was beautifully decorated with chinese lanterns and was the centre of attraction and of a thriving "provision" trade. The sale of children's fancy and useful articles was pretty thorough and at the close the "fragments" were sold by auction by Mr. Stapleton. The Frie Brigade Band lent the charm of their excellent music to the attractions of what was a most enjoyable festive occasion. The ladies, headed by Mrs. Beck, deserve great credit for their energy and interest in the work, which led to the financial feature of the occasion, being one of the most gratifying.

Unparralleled in Canada.

Sir John Macdonald, accompanied by his secretary, Mr. Joseph Pope, registered at the Queen's yesterday morning, and was assigned quarters in the Red Parlor. His special mission was to attend the half-yearly meeting of the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company, of which he is the president. A number of his supporters called on him at the hotel and found him as jolly as ever. He wore the customary white plug hat, but had discarded the cardinal red tie for one of neutral tint. The directors held their meeting at 12 o'clock, Sir John presiding, Mr. Geo. Goodeham in the vice-chair. Managing Director Carlile submitted a report for the half year, showing that there had been received 1600 proposals for insurance amounting to $3,140,000; 1313 of these amounting to $2,560,000 had been accepted and the policies issued, the premiums thereon being $56,530.97. Applications to the number of 95, amounting to $195,000, were incomplete or otherwise deferred, and 192 applications amounting to $384,000 were declined by the Insurance Committee. The company commenced operations in August last, and up to December 31 it had issued policies amounting to over two and a half millions, making the total issue to date (a period of ten months) over five millions. This record has not been exceeded by any life company in Canada. The report was received with evident satisfaction by the directors and adopted.—World.

Obituary.

The Late Isaac Armstrong.

Isaac Armstrong, of Ashburnham, whose death was noted in Wednesday's issue, died suddenly from a paralytic seizure. On Saturday he was in town in his usual health but in the evening the stroke came, and he lingered till death closed the scene on Wednesday. The deceased gentleman was born in Fermanagh County, Ireland, 73 years ago. In 1830 he came to Manvers, where he lived till 1857, when he settled in Otonabee. Here he remained till about nine years ago when he took up his residence in Ashburnham. He was married to a Miss Baxter, and of this marriage the issue was six daughters and five sons. All the daughters are married, and four of the sons are known to be living. His wife died about twenty years ago, and his brother James about three years since, and his brother William some years previous. Last fall at the Norwood fair Mr. Armstrong had a stroke of paralysis and had not recovered fully from it when the second visitation closed his earthly career. Mr. Armstrong was a member of the Methodist church, and in politics a staunch Liberal, and he was always prominent in promoting the spread and success of these principles. The funeral, which took place Thursday afternoon, was largely attended.

Police Court.

THURSDAY, June 28th.

Before P. M. Dumble this morning two men were charged with being drunk. George Wright pleaded guilty and said he was sorry for it, but he was fined $2 or 10 ten days in gaol. Not having the money he took the other alternative. 'Gusty Dundas, a one-armed man, was fined the same amount and paid it. The magistrate remarked that he was bound to stop the present epidemic of drunkenness if he had to fine the culprits $10 each. So, ye boosy bacchanalians, beware.

Personal.

Rev. M. L. Pearson and family will arrive in town from Lindsay to-night.

Miss Lillie Dixon has returned home from Chicago for a two weeks' visit.

Mr. A. V. R. Young, C.A., has been appointed auditor of the Lakefield Lumbering Co. He is to be congratulated.

Rev. I. Tovell left for St. Catherines, his new home, this morning. His successor, Rev. S. J. Shorey, is expected to-morrow.

Mr. R. L. Patterson, well known in town as the representative of Messrs. Miller & Richard, has returned to Toronto after a two months' tour in Great Britain.

On the eve of the departure of Mr. T. B. Collins, of Millbrook, for Carrick-Fergus, Ireland, where he goes as the representative of the Grand Lodge of Ontario East, he was presented at his residence by Orangemen with an address and cane.

Bishop Cleary, of Kingston, who has been absent in Europe for several months, returned to his diocese on Wednesday. He was tendered a great reception at Gananoque and Brockville, and on arriving at Kingston a large procession, headed by the bands, was formed. The equipage in which he rode was the gift of the people of the diocese and valued at $3,000.

Mr. Thomas Mahoney has secured the position of representative for Peterborough of the Manufacturers' Accident Insurance Co. He will be found at Messrs. Wilson & Morrison's office, when not otherwise engaged. Mr. Mahoney is considered a good insurance agent and will no doubt add largely to the business of this prosperous company.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

CROP PROSPECTS.—Owing to the extreme heat and continual drouth, the crops have been somewhat retarded in their growth. Fall and Spring wheat looks well, promising a full crop. Other kinds of grain look fair, except barley which will not be more than sixty per cent. of a full crop. Hay is very light, being literally scorched out on dry lands.

PIC-NIC.—The Elmdale Sunday school held their annual picnic in Mr. Robt. Bonal's Maple grove on Wednesday last. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent, there being a large number of ladies and children present. swings and other amusements were in abundance for the entertainment of the children. The ladies earned high praise in providing the luscious edibles, which were partaken heartily of by all present. At about eight o'clock visitors began to leave for their respective homes all being highly pleased with the afternoon's pleasure.

PERSONAL.—In the absence of the Rev. Mr. Bennett, Mr. Orr Bennett has been occupying the pulpit of the Springville and Bethany Presbyterian churches. Mr. Bennett promises to be a good doctrinal and an eloquent preacher at no distant date.

Warsaw.

AGRICULTURAL.—A full meeting of the directors of the Dummer and Douro Agricultural Society was held in the Agricultural Hall, Warsaw, on Tuesday, 19th inst. It was unanimously agreed to hold two days show fair in Warsaw this fall, on the 2nd and 3rd days of October, so that there will be ample time for a display of animals and agricultural products. They have also added this season another pedigreed Durham bull, from the celebrated herd of James Graham, Esq., of Port Perry. The bull is stationed at Mr. M. D. Sullivan's "Poplar Grove" farm, Douro, on the Dummer road, where members of the Society can obtain his services. The directors are to be congratulated for their energy and push in keeping up the standard of the old and reliable Society.

Dominion Day Picnic.

Let everybody remember the delightful picnic at the beautiful St. Leonard's on Dominion Day. All the usual attractions in a completer form than ever before presented. The best of refreshments, a fine platform for dancing and first class music, appeal to the young people, with swings, etc., for the children. A fine programme of sports and a baseball match between the Lock Works nine and Hamilton's Foundry nine. A great day of enjoyment—come and share it. Admission to grounds, 25 cents.

Unwept, Unhonored, and Unsung.

The murdered Indian, Simon Elijah, was this forenoon buried in Little Lake Cemetery by Undertaker Bellegham. The body was taken to the vault Tuesday afternoon and efforts were made to find relatives of the dead man, but without success, and this forenoon the remains were finally consigned to their last resting-place.

To-night.

Everybody should "endeavor" to attend the free musical and literary entertainment to be given by the Endeavor Society in the school room of Charlotte street Methodist church. A splendid programme will be rendered.

Was America ever Discovered?

At the time when Columbus started in search of the New World, nearly every man, woman and child in Europe insisted that there was no New World to discover. When he came back, crowned with success, a large proportion of these good people adhered to their theory; and if they were alive to-day many of them would doubtless insist that America had never been discovered at all. A man will give up anything in the world more readily than a pet theory. For example, look at the individuals who still maintain that consumption is incurable. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured thousands upon thousands of cases, and will cure thousands more, but these people can't give up their point. Nevertheless the "Discovery" will cure any case of consumption, if taken in time. a

"Why, Mrs. Jawsome, how can you insinuate such a thing? I drunk or mad? I'm strong Scott Act. I know it's hard to believe, but Mrs. Boyclesse, a regular prayer meeting woman she is, too, told me so with her own mouth—which is hardly ever shut, goodness knows—that she went trapesing up to Toronto with the Masonic excursion. She went through all the shops and priced 'em all. She wanted to get a wedding present for Ann Jane Mariar who is going to marry that half baked gawk, Ben Slowit, and she was disgusted. She could do better at home. And she spent $1.25—$1.75 for her ticket and nine cents for cakes and a paper of pins, she got at a seven-cent store—she tore that old cashmere dress she's worn a life time, on the car steps—O my! where was I?—O yes! she went straight to China Hall when she got home and got a lovely china tea set for so much less than she could in Toronto, that it made up for her expenses to the city. And she says they have terrible fine and cheap dishes at China Hall, and as she says, says she, 'Dead loads of 'em, too.'"

That the Fan Season is over for the present.
That our Stock of Fans melted away rapidly during the hot spell.

That it takes "sand" to get up head.
That it is often a little lonely at the top.
That we would like some of our competitors to "try, try again."
That we haven't pulled the ladder up after us.
That they can climb as well as we, if they learn how.
That our Pic-Nic Baskets are great sellers.
That it pays to advertise.
That a plain statement of facts is not boasting
That travel must be brisk judging from our large sales of Trunks and Valises.
That progression, not retrogression, is a good motto.
That there is no "long felt want" in our line which we have not got.
That "ROUTLEY," has become a familiar household word.
Even though he don't want all the earth.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

CLERK M'GEE'S SWEARING-IN PILGRIMAGE.

The First Train on the Chaudiere Extension of the Canada Atlantic—A Meeting of Council—The Joggins Raft.

OTTAWA, June 29.—Mr. J. J. McGee, clerk of the Privy Council, left last night for Toronto, where he will swear in Chief-Justice Sir Thos. Galt as Administrator of the Province of Ontario during the absence of Lieutenant-Governor Sir Alexander Campbell in England. Mr. McGee will go from Toronto to Winnipeg to swear in Lieutenant-Governor Schultz, and afterwards proceed to Regina to swear in Lieutenant-Governor Royal.

The Public Works Department has let the contract for the Prescott public building to Crain & Mix of Brockville, who were the lowest tenderers.

It is understood that Hon. Mr. McLelan has sold his residence in Metcalfe-street to I. Z. Malette of Charlebois, one of the contractors for the new departmental building. The price is said to be $14,000, about the same as was paid by Mr. McLelan four years ago.

The first train on the Chaudiere extension of the Canada Atlantic Railway passed over the waterworks aqueduct yesterday. The road will soon be completed into the lumber district and a great increase of traffic is expected.

Henry A. Grey, who for several years has been one of the engineers in the Public Works Department left for St. John, N.B., yesterday to assume the position of engineer in charge in the Maritime Provinces, one of the most important positions in the Public Works Department. Mr. Gray for some time represented the department in Western Ontario with headquariers at Stratford.

It is expected that the Governor-General will return to Ottawa in time to distribute the prizes at the Dominion Rifle Association matches.

The color of the hull of the lightship at Lower Traverse is to be changed from white to red on July 2 and on the same date the red light at Upper Traverse is to be transferred to Lower Traverse.

There was a meeting of Council yesterday afternoon, Sir Hector Langevin presiding. It is understood that only routine business was transacted.

One of the objects of the visit of the Minister of Justice to Kingston Penitentiary was to consider a proposition to light the institution with gas and another to see about enlarging the cells which were built forty years ago and are now considered too small.

Mr. Robertson, the Joggins raft man, had an interview with the Minister of Justice yesterday and raised a new point which will involve a considerable amount of export duty. It seems that the raft is made up of whole trees, not cut up into logs, and Mr. Robertson contends that while logs are subject to an export duty whole trees are exempt. So far he has not convinced the minister that the whole tree is not a big log.

The Department of Justice is considering the advisability of appealing to the Supreme Court of Canada from the judgment of Chief Justice Ritchie in the case of Ayer & Co.

The Government has not yet accepted the proposed basis of settlement submitted by the Chaudiere mill owners, but probably will with some slight modifications.

The Department of Justice has been requested by private parties to take steps for the extradition of two men named O'Hallaghan and Colman arrested on the charge of forgery.

Decoration Day at Port Perry.

PORT PERRY, June 29.—The Oddfellows of the local lodge, preceded by the Port Perry Brass Band, marched up to Pine Grove Cemetery yesterday and decorated with flowers the graves of their departed brethren.

The Perils of Smoking.

NEWCASTLE, N. Y., June 29.—While Mary Wynkork, a negro woman 80 years old, was smoking a spark from the pipe set fire to her clothing and she was burnt to death.

A Murderer Lynched.

SYRACUSE, Kan., June 29.—Wallace Mitchell, who murdered a boy named Johnson and wounded his father, has been lynched.

Troy Moulders on Strike.

TROY, June 29.—Four hundred moulders at the Clinton foundry have struck. The dispute is about materials furnished.

INTERESTING ITEMS BY WIRE.

The people of Seoul, the capital of Corea, are in open insurrection.

Prince Bismarck and Count Tisza have again expressed hopefulness as to the continuance of peace.

The Pope has expressed himself as opposed to Catholics participating in Italian political contests.

The campaign in New Brunswick on behalf of Unrestricted Reciprocity was opened at Moncton last night.

The session of the Royal Military College was closed yesterday, the prizes being presented by Sir John Macdonald.

AT THE GERMAN CAPITAL.

DR. MACKENZIE HAULED OVER THE COALS BY THE PRESS.

Messages From the Reichstag to the Dowager Empress Victoria—Russian Relations—Going to St. Petersburg.

BERLIN, June 29.—The North German Gazette, alluding to the published interview had with Dr. Mackenzie at The Hague, in which the doctor admitted having concealed his knowledge of the cancerous nature of the late Emperor's malady in order to prevent a regency, says:—"The statement that Emperor Frederick or his consort in their own interests desired to rule even for a short time is untrue. Emperor Frederick, who had the highest conceivable sense of the duties imposed upon him by his Imperial dignity, would not have assumed the government of the country if he were proved to be incurably affected with cancer. Amongst those who might eventually have been called upon to approach Emperor Frederick on the subject there was none wanting in determination to broach the subject. According to his own statement, Dr. Mackenzie considered it his principal task to play a political role. An unimportant English physician, holding Radical views in politics, has the presumption to act the part of Privy Councillor and exercise a decisive influence upon the German nation. Dr. Mackenzie's statement calls for an explanation.

The dowager Empress Victoria yesterday received the President and Vice-President of the Reichstag, who presented her with an address of condolence on account of the death of Emperor Frederick. The Empress, in her reply to the address, thanked them for their sympathy. The President and Vice-President afterwards waited upon the Emperor and presented him with the reply of the Reichstag to the Speech from the Throne. The Emperor thanked them for the unanimity with which the reply had been voted and asked them to convey his thanks to the Reichstag. His Majesty recalled the passage of the Army Bill by the Reichstag on February 6 and said that decision had a most cheering effect upon his grandfather and himself. He attended the sitting of the Reichstag in person and was the first to announce the vote to his grandfather, who, after receiving the news, embraced and kissed him. His Majesty said he would never forget that day. The audience was here brought to a close.

Russian Relations.

BERLIN, June 29.—It is reported that the Czar has sent a lengthly letter to Emperor William expressing thorough friendship for Germany and sorrow for the loss sustained in the death of Emperor Fredrick. Gen. Pape will carry the Czar Emperor William's reply, written in Russian, in which the Emperor promises to follow his father's advice respecting friendship for Russia.

It is reported that the Berlin municipal authorities, some of whom hold very liberal views on religious matters, were received yesterday in a very frigid manner by the Emperor, and that his Majesty concluded his remarks to them by saying, "make it your business to see that more churches are built in Berlin."

Going to St. Petersburg.

LONDON, June 29.—The Standard's Berlin special says: Emperor William, with an imposing suite, will embark on the Imperial yacht Hohenzollern on July 13 or 14, and proceed direct to St. Petersburg, where he will remain for several days. During his stay magnificent fetes will be given in his honor. The arrangements for King Humbert's visit to Berlin will be agreed upon at a meeting between Minister Crispi and Prince Bismarck.

HAWKE'S HAUL.

Presented with a $1,000 Purse on His Return from Fredericton Jail.

MONCTON, N.B., June 29.—Mr. Hawke, editor of The Transcript, reached here yesterday after spending two months in Fredericton Jail for contempt of court. He was met at the station by a large crowd, which formed in procession and, accompanied by a band of music, escorted him to Robinson's Hall, where an address was presented, to which Mr. Hawke made a lengthy reply.

A purse containing about $1,000 accompanied the address.

Buckley's Case Adjourned.

TORONTO, June 29.—At the Assize Court yesterday Judge McMahon granted a postponement of the Buckley trial for murder until the Fall Assizes. He stated that he did so after reading the affidavits put in on behalf of the defendant, and also after consulting with a brother judge at Osgoode Hall. It might be possible, he thought, that the absent witness Cunningham was present at the affair. In the meantime Buckley will be retained in custody, but the witnesses who have been detained so far will likely be allowed to go. After the enlargement of the case a detective remarked that it would be a difficult matter to find the witnesses when the case comes up in September.

Marriage Bells at Cannington.

CANNINGTON, June 29.—The people of our town for the last few weeks have been on the tiptoe of expectation. The reason for this was the coming marriage of Mr. William A. Robinson of the firm of Robinson Bros., editors and proprietors of The Ontario Gleaner, to Miss Jennie Clift of this town. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Vicars, B. A., yesterday. Mr. John T. Robinson, brother of the groom, acted as groomsman and Miss Ida Whetter ably assisted the bride. Guests were present from Toronto, Lindsay and other places. The happy couple left on the 6 o'clock train for Ottawa on their honeymoon trip. Many and costly were the presents received.

A G.T.R. Engineer and Fireman in Trouble.

COBOURG, June 29.—The coroner's jury empanelled to enquire into the circumstances of the death of Patrice Doyle of Hamilton Township, who was killed by a west bound freight train at the railway crossing west of Hon. Sidney Smith's residence, found that Doyle came to his death through the culpable negligence and carelessness of William D. Coombe, Grand Trunk Railway engineer and Fireman A. Gates, who did not give the necessary and precautionary signals by whistle or by ringing the bell of the engine as required by law. Coombes and Gates will both be arrested.

A Sensation at Brampton.

BRAMPTON, June 29.—Wednesday night by the 6.30 train from the west there arrived a young lady, rather prepossessing in appearance, well dressed and refined. She took a cab and was driven to the Queen's Hotel and shown to a room. She at once asked the proprietor to send for a doctor and within ten minutes after she arrived gave birth to a male child. She is without money, refuses to give her name, place of residence or destination, or the name of her seducer. Mayor Campbell is looking after her.

The Prince at Quebec.

QUEBEC, June 29.—Prince Roland Bonaparte is in town and registered at the St. Louis. His Royal Highness was driven round the environs of the city yesterday by Lieut.-Col. Duchesnay Daly and Lieut.-Col. Turnbull, Royal School of Cavalry, and visited the House of Assembly and occupied a seat for some time upon the floor of the House. He was shown around the building and several members were introduced to him by Hon Premier Mercier.

A DELIBERATE SUICIDE.

When Morphine Fails the Razor is Brought into Requisition.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Prof. Francis T. Lantry, of Manlius, N.Y., was found dead with his throat cut in a room at the Astor House yesterday. The suicide was discovered by a chambermaid who was going her rounds cleaning the rooms. On a slip of paper found in the room was a record kept by the suicide of the effect of morphine upon him. According to this he swallowed enough of the drug in the form of pills to kill three horses. He had undoubtedly taken too much of the drug to effect this purpose, and then resorted to the razor. A letter was found addressed "To whom it may concern," which reads: "This is a sorry ending of a life that God designed for something, but the fault is chiefly my own. Perhaps if others had exercised a little more charity and forbearance the result might have been different. Of that I shall know very soon and the others will know in due time. To be forced to give up life just now seems like the irony of fate, for I have fair prospects of successful entrance into political life almost immediately, but any help to have been effective must have come now, as an exposure of present difficulties would be to destroy the possibility of doing that work which I firmly believe would have led to political preferment. I beg my creditors to treat my wife leniently. I beg all former friends to remember that I have tried to do some good with such powers as God gave me. I do believe there are some prosperous and successful people in the world who attribute to me at least a part of their prosperity and success."

The suicide held at one time the position of chief examiner for the State Board of Education. Mr. Moyer says Prof. Lantry probably killed himself on account of his poverty and for fear that he would soon become blind. Rev. Dr. Ward, who committed suicide some time ago at Englewood, N. J., was a brother-in-law of the deceased. When the chambermaid went to Mr. Lantry's room at 8.30 o'clock yesterday morning she found Mr. Lantry still in bed. He asked her not to disturb him for a while longer. She closed the door and left. About nine o'clock she entered the room again after rapping at the door and received no reply. She saw Mr. Lantry sitting at his window which over looked Hesey-street and St. Paul's Churchyard dressed only in his underclothes. From a terrible gash in his throat the life blood was pouring out over the carpets. He had held a towel to his neck so that the gushing blood would not spart about the room.

EDISON'S PHONOGRAPH.

The Perfected Instrument Sent Across the Ocean to Tell Its Story.

LONDON, June 29.—Col. G. E. Gouraud, writing from Little Menlo, Upper Norwood, S.E., says: "At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the above address, I had the honor to receive from Edison his first perfected phonograph, which, on the authority of Edison's own statement, in his own familiar voice communicated to me by the phonograph itself, is the first instrument of his latest model that has been seen outside his laboratory or that has left his hands, and is consequently the first to reach this country.

"At 2.05 o'clock precisely my family and I were enjoying at once the unprecedented and astounding experience of listening to Edison's own familiar and unmistakable tones here in England, more than 3,000 miles from the place where he had spoken, and exactly ten days after, the voice having meanwhile voyaged across the Atlantic ocean. His first phonogram, as Edison puts it, tells me, among other things of interest, that this instrument contains many modifications of that which was shown at the Electrical club in New York a few weeks ago and so widely reported by the press in several long phonogramic communications to me, no single word of which had to be repeated in order to be clearly and easily understood by every person present, including my child, 7 years old. Edison mentions that he will send me phonograms by every mail leaving New York, and requests me to correspond exclusively through the medium of the phonograph, humorously remarking in this connection upon the advantages he will himself derive from the substitution of phonograms for the style of writing not always too legible.

"Edison has sent, for our amusement, numerous musical records of great interest and beauty, pianoforte, cornet and other instruments, solos, duets, etc., many of which, he tells me, have been frequently repeated several hundred times. Altogether our experiences of to day have been so delightful and unusual, not to say supernatural, that it would be difficult to realize that we have not been dreaming, and so interesting withal as to make it seem our duty, as it has a pleasure, to communicate the above to the public. All honor to Edison."

The Pope's Encyclical.

ROME, June 29.—The Pope's encyclical on liberty says:—Human liberty in individuals, as in societies and governments, implies the necessity of conforming to a supreme rational law which emanates from God. The Church is not an enemy of honest, legitimate liberty, but it is an enemy of license. It condemns false liberalism or nationalism, which declares that there is no superior law and that everyone must form his own faith and religion. Such doctrine tends to destroy the consciousness, the difference between good and evil, between justice and injustice, and makes force the sole basis of society. The Church is not an enemy of democracy, and rejects no form of Government.

Another Fool Gone.

FREEPORT, Ill., June 29.—Charles Deckler, a farmer of Buena Vista, sent his children from the house and then crept up behind his wife and shot her through the brain. Deckler then went into the sitting room and sent a bullet almost through his heart. Throwing the revolver away he drew a razor and cut his throat. He leaves a family of nine children. The cause of the tragedy is unknown.

LONDON, June 29. The patents of an American invention, known as the Cyclone Pulverizer, have been purchased here for France, Italy and Belgium for £40,000. The vendors were Erastus Winan, of New York, and associates

THE MILLS TARIFF BILL.

A BITTER DISCUSSION IN THE HOUSE YESTERDAY.

Michigan's Protest Canadian Competition Feared—Free Whiskey and the Republican Platform.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The House went into committee on the tariff bill yesterday. Mr. Baker (N.Y.) moved to strike from the free list vegetables in their natural state or in salt or brine, not specially enumerated or provided for.

Mr. Brewer (Mich.), in supporting the motion, referred to the strong competition which existed between the farmers of Northern Michigan and those of the Province of Ontario, and protested against the removal of the small tariff which was now laid upon the vegetables imported from Canada.

Mr. Farquhar (N. Y.) ironically expressed his admiration for the generosity of the Committee on Ways and Means in opening the northern markets to the Canadian farmers. If that was good American policy let the committee follow it, but along the Canadian border there were intelligent farmers who would give their opinion of this cut-throat legislation when November came around

Mr. Mills said that one of the objections made to the clause was that it removed the duty on potatoes. This was a mistake, as potatoes were specially provided for in another portion of the bill. The clause, he contended, was in the interest of the consuming classes, and he queried where the Republicans would be willing to reduce taxation.

Mr. Breaum suggested that they were ready to reduce internal rates.

Mr. Miller: You want free whisky. You do not say in your platform that you want to reduce the duties on sugar and rice. The convention has overruled what you have contended for. Your party demands you to go for free whisky. We go with you to the country on that question. We demand a reduction on those things which enter into consumption as necessaries and demand that the tax shall remain on whisky as it is to-day.

Mr. J. D. Taylor challenged the statement that the Republican party was in favor of free whisky. All persons of the Republican party were in favor of abolishing internal taxes because they believed it to be unwise as a system. That the Republican party was in favor of free whisky was absurd and he repudiated the charge.

Mr. Mills: "The platform of the Republican party says it is in favor of the repeal of internal taxes. [Shouts of "no! no!" from the Republicans.] It says it is in favor of taking the tax off alcohol used in the arts, and if that is not enough it is in favor of taking off all internal taxes. That is what is understood by the country as being in favor of free whiskey." Mr. Mills said he was not astonished at the tenderness of the gentleman on this question. It was well known that the majority of the Republican party was opposed to the extreme position which the Republicans had taken in Chicago. It was well known that the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Kelley) represented a minority and when the convention at Chicago was lashed and scourged to take a position for free whisky, no one sooner than the gentleman from Pennsylvania sent congratulations to the convention for coming to the heroic stand which he had occupied.

Boodler Keenan Sues for His Share.

NEW YORK, June 29.—John Keenan, the boodler who acted as an intermediary for the boodle aldermen, and who now is in Canada, has sued Herman T. Clarke, the aqueduct contractor, for an accounting. Keenan claims he and Clarke entered into an arrangement by which both were to share the profits on any aqueduct contract that might be awarded to the latter. Keenan wants to share in a contract of $400,000. Clarke says the agreement Keenan sues under was destroyed at the request of the former.

The Esquimalt Defences.

LONDON, June 29.—In the House of Lords last night Lord Sudeley questioned the Government as regards the defences at Esquimalt. The Colonial Secretary replied that the Government was awaiting a reply from the Dominion Government to the despatch of June 13, whether they assent to the proposed arrangement. If Canada's answer is in the affirmative the Imperial Government will at once proceed with the defences. The guns are in a very forward state.

The Canada Company.

LONDON, June 29.—At the Canada Company's meeting yesterday. Mr. Currie presiding, a dividend of 1 pound per share was unanimously adopted. The chairman said the reduced dividend was due to the bad Ontario harvest. The present season's crops promised to reach the average except as regards fall wheat.

The Panama Canal Loan.

PARIS, June 29. The Journal des Debats says the exact result of the subscription to the Panama lottery loan is not yet known, but is is believed that the amount of applications will equal only about one-half of the sum asked for.

De Lesseps Blamed.

PARIS, June 29.—M. De Lesseps is blamed for trying to float the whole of the Panama Canal loan at one time, instead of issuing half now and half in December. The syndicate which engaged to take one-quarter of the loan if the remainder were subscribed for has been released from its contract, subscriptions having been received for only one-half of the loan.

CANADA'S DANGER.

This is the title of an able and opportune article by the Montreal Herald, in view of the fact that the Dominion government has borrowed more than three times, the money the requirements of the public demand, and in view of the fact that between twelve and fourteen millions are now lying idle and unproductive. The country is paying interest at 3½ per cent on this vast sum (while the banks have only taken one third of the amount at 1½ per cent.) Can reckless imprudence and extravagance go further? Could you collect a cabinet from our lunatic asylums, who would perpetrate a madder or more imbecile act than such a financial crime as the borrowing of twenty-five millions under such conditions? The Herald says.—

"Now that the first hurrahs about the loan and the magnificence of Canadian credit in the London money market are over, the government find themselves with an elephant on their hands, and the people are beginning to realise that borrowing fourteen million dollars more than was required was an exceedingly mad project. The loss to the country in interest paid on money which cannot be used is not the only disquieting feature of the situation. Another point is being noted by men whose ability and experience entitle their opinions on financial questions to great weight, and that is, the possibility of Canada's good credit, used in the reckless manner which characterised the negotiation of the recent loan, becoming a source of danger rather than an advantage to the country. The country may now be said to be face to face with that danger. Improvident and unnecessary borrowing has left the Government with more money on their hands than they can legitimately use, a circumstance which will be a strong incentive to reckless expenditure on their part and unwise lending on the part of bankers. It requires no spirit of prophecy to indicate that the adoption of such a course would prepare the material for wide spread financial disaster in the near future. The refusal of the banks, so far, to take the whole fourteen millions on deposit, even at 1½ per cent. interest, indicates pretty plainly that they appreciate the gravity of the situation. But supposing the banks can be induced to take the remaining nine millions on deposit at the low rate mentioned, what then? In order to recoup themselves for the low rate of interest they are paying and for handling the money, they must lend it, and in order to do so will be compelled to accept phenomenally low rates, and may have to risk a good deal sometimes as to the character of the security taken. The result of throwing such a large sum of money on the market at low rates of interest can have no other effect than to induce dangerous speculation and reckless business ventures; imitating the example of the Government, business men will borrow beyond their immediate requirements, while others will be induced to expand their business or make improvident investments in ventures outside their legitimate business. All this will promote wide-spread inflation, over-importations, over-trading, over-production of manufactured goods and general extravagance, with the inevitable result that a crash must take place and a period of depression come, unknown for severity in the history of Canada, which would be hastened and aggravated if in the meantime any sudden emergency should arise necessitating the Government calling in the deposits, or even part of them. The result would be a stringency in the money market unparalleled in Canadian history, which would precipitate wide-spread commercial disaster and financial ruin. That is the danger with which the country is now face to face. The only hope of its being averted lies in the prudence and conservative management of the bank managers of Canada. They understand what the throwing of so much money on the market involves, and can be depended upon, it is hoped, to act more wisely and cautiously than the Government has done.

Fraserville.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Rev. B. Greatrix, who has been our much esteemed and beloved pastor for the past three years, preached his farewell sermon last Sabbath. His fidelity to God, the church and to those entrusted to him as a pastor, has been such as to meet with the approval of all true Christian men and women. Many present evinced their appreciation of his numerous deeds of labor and love, and exhibited in a manner louder than words, that in losing the advice, the comforting words and the excellent discourses of such an able and consecrated gentleman as Rev. Mr. Greatrix, they were losing one who has been faithful in the discharge of every duty. "Act well your part, there all the honor lies." Mr. Greatrix has performed the work allotted him nobly and well, and God has abundantly blessed his efforts. He leaves in this South Monaghan circuit many true friends, who will always be rejoiced to hear of his success. And whenever he and his esteemed and highly respected lady (Mrs. Greatrix) can make it convenient to be in the vicinity, they will meet with a kind reception. Mr. Greatrix will labor on Cavan circuit for the next three years. Our wish is that his future may be even brighter and more successful than the past.

On Thursday evening, June 21st, many of those interested in football assembled and transacted the following business. It was decided that a fee of 25c. be charged each member, and some 16 or 20 gave in their names. The following officers were elected for the ensuing season:

PRESIDENT—Mr. Thos. Donaldson.
CAPTAIN—Mr. A. Graham.
SECRETARY—Mr. H. A. Strike.
TREASURER—Mr. R. Campbell.
MANAGING COMMITTEE—Messrs. R. Stewart, S. Campbell, and J. Latimer.

The annual school picnic was held Friday, June 22nd. It was well attended and everything passed off pleasantly. Judging from the many pleasant countenances and the extreme sociability of both young and old, we concluded it was a well spent afternoon, and a fitting token of a successful picnic. We beg to acknowledge Mr. James Thompson's kindness in allowing us to assemble in his beautiful grove, also the ever-readiness of the young ladies and gentlemen who so cheerfully assisted and did their utmost to make it a pleasant afternoon. To wind up the day's fun a match game of foot ball was played between the "Coldsprings," of Otonabee, and the "Checkers" of Fraserville, resulting in an easy victory for the latter. The "Checkers" passed the ball through the goal six times. We believe the referee disallowed two of them; thus the game stood Fraserville four goals and Coldsprings' none. Miss Bessie Goodfellow presented the secretary of Fraserville team with a handsome bouquet as a token of victory at the conclusion of the game.

Mr. G. W. McCall, B.A., occupied the various pulpits of South Monaghan circuit a few Sabbaths ago, and delivered a very interesting and thoughtful discourse here. Mr. McCall leaves for Plainville circuit this week, where his field of labor is for the ensuing year. We trust that the "Giver of all good" will crown his ministerial labors with great success.

Rev. D. N. McCamus will be our pastor for the next three years. His past career has been blessed, and we feel his labors in our midst will be very beneficial.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

Some English Capitalists Become Interested in the Scheme.

LONDON, June 29.—English aid is coming to the assistance of the Nicaragua canal. For some time past agents of rival schemes have been over here urging the co-operation of British shipowners, who have given careful consideration to all that has been urged by the various canal agents, and, as a result of these deliberations, which have extended over a year, upwards of sixty of the leading shipowners and merchants of the United Kingdom held a meeting at Liverpool and pronounced their decision.

J. Lockat of Liverpool was chairman, and those present were unanimous, passing the following resolution, which was moved and seconded by Chilian Consul Thomas Bain and Henry Shield, the head of the Liverpool iron works:

"This meeting of merchants, as shipowners of the port of Liverpool, having heard with satisfaction the explanation given by A. L. Blackman, president of the American, Atlantic and Pacific Ship Canal Company, relating to the plans of the company for the construction of the Nicaragua ship canal, and having regard for the opinion expressed by James Abernethy, C.E., and Sir George Bruce, C.E., of London, past and present presidents of the institution of Civil Engineers, to the effect that after careful examination and comparison of the various plans for the construction of an inter-oceanic ship canal across the territory of Nicaragua they are satisfied that the plans submitted by Blackman are preferable to any others both as regards the working and the maintenance of the canal, its cost of construction and time required for its completion, and that owing to the great width of waterway and capacity of the locks proposed the canal will afford ample facilities for all traffic, however great, that may pass through it, as it will possess the great advantage that vessels can navigate at or near full speed and pass each other without danger or delay, which is not practicable in the usual type of canal of restricted width.

"Resolved, that the ship canal across the territory of Nicaragua, constructed according to the plans which have been submitted to the meeting by Mr. Blackman, would be an undertaking of the first importance to commerce, and especially to the commerce of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and to that of the United States of America."

The meeting regrets to learn that owing mainly to the existing disputes between the Government of Nicaragua and the American company concerning a concession granted by the Government to the company, the carrying out of the project has hitherto been delayed and trusts that the Government and the company may speedily settle their differences and that the undertaking may be placed on such basis that ample security will be afforded for capital seeking to be invested in connection with it. All the money necessary to build the canal in connection with previously secured American capital has now been provided, and England will prove a good second to the United States in completing the work.

A Commission Mobbed.

LONDON, June 29.—A despatch from Kronstadt says a mob comprising 1,000 persons made an attack upon a legal commission which was engaged in amalgamating small agricultural holdings in Fuldvar, 12 miles north of Kronstadt. A judge and a notary public were wounded. The members of the commission escaped without difficulty.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Well Tested.

"I was nearly dead with Cholera Morbus, one bottle of Extract of Wild Strawberry cured me, and at another time I was so bad with Summer Complaint that I thought I would never get over it, when two bottles cured me." Mrs. E. Askett, Peel, Ont. 2w26d

From Moreprane, Man.

Mr. Joseph Clark writes—"All last winter I was so bad with Inflammatory Rheumatism that I was not expected to live. I used no other medicine but Burdock Blood Bitters and can now get around again feeling better than I ever was before I was taken sick, and I owe it all to Burdock Blood Bitters." 2w26d

Worth Remembering.

Mr. Jas. Blanie, of Toronto, states that his little baby when three months old was so bad with summer complaint that under doctor's treatment her life was despaired of. Four doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cured her. She is now fat and hearty. 2w26d

A Distressing Disease.

"I wish to give my testimony in favor of Burdock Blood Bitters. I had been troubled with Erysipelas and was induced to try this valuable medicine. I have used three bottles and am now well as ever." Mrs. L. Finch, Cedar Creek, Ont. 2w26d

Undeniably True.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and found it a sure cure for summer complaint. I was very sick and it cured me entirely." Mr. Alexander W. Grant, Moose Creek, Ont. 2w26d

Bricklayers' & Masons' Union,

No. 12, Peterborough.

To the Architects and Builders of the Town of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN,—The members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 12, Peterborough, have decided to take no sub-contracts after the 1st day of June, 1888. We take this step, believing it to be to the interest of Architects and Proprietors of buildings, to deal directly with us, and not as heretofore, letting our branch of work to Carpenters, and then have them sublet it to us, frequently at a loss to owners of buildings through inferior material being used to secure the carpenter a profit. We therefore, consider it would be to the interest of all concerned, to have each trade control its own line of work.

Signed on behalf of the Union,
J. J. MARTLEY, President.
GEO. ROME, Vice-President.
R. SHEELY, Secretary.

Indescribable in beauty and price is the only adjective that will fit.

High Priced Trees.

The Warder says Mr. Thompson, a lumber merchant of Peterborough, has been engaged for some time purchasing pine trees in the townships of Manvers and Cartwright. He offered a resident of Blackstock $200 for ten, but the offer was not accepted. Mr. Joseph Magill, of Yelverton, disposed of four at the very good figure of $60.

An Aquatic Challenge.

The members of Mr. J. J Sheehy's four-oar crew are anxious to have another pull against Mr. Matthew's crew, and propose a week from to-night (Friday) as the date of the match. The buoys in the regatta races the other night were not properly laid, giving one crew the advantage, and Mr. Sheehy's crew want the race rowed over again on its merits. What say the others?

A Baby's Tumble.

A three year old son of Mr. D. J. Lundy fell from a second story window of the house yesterday and apparently sustained no injury whatever. The little fellow was standing in the window leaning against the closed shutters, when they gave way and he was dashed to the ground. A physician was summoned in hasty alarm, but fortunately the little fellow appears not to be hurt in the least.

A Day at "St. Leonards."

And Dominion Day too. The R. C. annual picnic will be held there. Unusual attractions, swings for the children, dancing to first class music for the young ladies, shady nooks and solid enjoyment for the elders, a big baseball game for those inclined to sport, and fun and entertainment for every body. Food for the hungry and cooling drinks for the thirsty. Don't forget the Dominion day pic-nic at St. Leonards. Admission to the grounds 25 cents. God bless the Dominion.

Beautiful Property.

The Roman Catholic Park Lot which for so long a time has been looked at with hungry eyes is at last being put in the market. It lies between two of the best streets in Peterborough, Gilmour street especially is the fashionable street of the town. The lots will be sold off at low prices as money is needed for church purposes.

As soon as building operations are begun on this property there will be a rapid advance in value. The sale will afford a good investment for all who desire a safe thing and a chance for a little speculation. dw

Half Single Fare—Good For Two Day's.

And children half price, on the great Dominion day excursion to belleville. Remember single fare on ordinary days is $2.10, and the fare on Monday—the P.A.A.A. excursion is only $1.10 both ways good for two day's. Over 800 bicyclists will be present in the city at the great Canadian Wheelman's meet, and, $1000, divided into 25 prizes, will be competed for. Fare from Peterborough to Belleville and return only $1.10, (children 55c) and in proportion from all stations on the G. J. R. Eight hours in the Bay city Train leaves town at 8.30 a.m., and starts from Belleville to return at 6 p.m. Be sure and join the crowd on Monday.

The A. C. A. Meet at Orillia.

Three of the members of the Executive Committee from Lindsay, including Commodore MacGachen, last Thursday visited Horse Island, Lake Couchiching, where the camp of the Northern Division is to be held. They found that the owners of the island were making active preparations to get everything ready for the meet. The people of Orillia are enthusiastic about it. From the very favorable and beautiful situation—so near Orillia, and on such beautiful waters—and from the spirit shown by the people of that town, there is no doubt those who go to the camp this year will have a most delightful time. Already parties are being made up here and elsewhere, and by the 23rd July there will doubtless be a rush to Orillia. The privilege of travelling on any part of the Grand Trunk for one fare for the double journey, canoes and kit being carried free, is something worth taking into consideration.

Bonting Shawls.

All the children taking part in the "Mother Goose Combination" are requested to meet for practice to-morrow (Saturday) at 2 p.m., at the usual place.

Our customers always speak when they pass by and say. Xamine these Xcellent unXelled T's, at The Pantry.

Slightly "Previous."

Mr. J. A. Davidson, Smith township, roadmaster, thinks the correspondent of the Examiner is slightly premature in criticising the work on his beat as the road work has not yet been begun.

School Notes.

All the schools in town, Collegiate, public, Separate and Convent, close to-day for the summer holidays, and in consequence joy supreme reigns in the juvenile heart.

Next Tuesday the teachers' examinations begin at the Collegiate Institute, and Wednesday afternoon the entrance examinations.

Magnificent Strawberries.

Mr. Geo. D. Mitchell, grocer, left with the Examiner this afternoon a splendid sample of the strawberries grown in the garden of his residence, corner of McDonnell and Aylmer streets. The flavour is equal to the size and rich appearance of this luscious fruit. Mr. Mitchell's generosity was practically and tastefully appreciated.

The Laborers' Union.

Wednesday night a large number of the laborers of Peterborough joined the Knights of Labor. They consider their condition might be improved, both in the matter of wages and hours of labor, and in keeping out foreign laborers. They purpose, however, to bring about the reformation by peacable means.

Fresh strawberries every morning from this time on, at The Pantry.

A Few Day's More.

We had intended closing up our store yesterday but have decided to remain in town a few days longer to clear off the balance of our stock. Take advantage of these few days grace and purchase from us at prices lower than ever. We only ask you to call and see our goods and get our prices; they are so tempting that you can't help buying.

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Dominion Day Sports.

25 The attractions of Dominion Day, at the Driving Park in the afternoon and the P.A.A.A. grounds, Ashburnham, in the evening are attracting so much public attention that great inquiry is being made as to the price of admission. Here it is: tickets 25 cents, admits to the sports and races 25 in the Park and these tickets have a coupon which is returned to the bearer admitting to the evening entertainment. Any person buying a ticket to the Driving Park in the afternoon will be admitted on the coupon at the evening performance. A small price for 25 so magnificent a double programme. Don't neglect it. 25

Their New Pastor.

Rev. S. J. Shorey arrived in town on the 11.30 C.P.R. express to-day. He was met at the station by some of the members of the official board of the Charlotte Street Church. It is understood a formal reception will be tendered the new pastor at the strawberry festival next week. In referring to his departure from Toronto the Christian Guardian says:—The Rev. S. J. Shorey closed his pastoral term of three years in the Sherbourne Street Church last Sunday. He did not preach any farewell sermon, though he made a few kindly and tender remarks at the close of the evening service, referring to the change, and commending his successor Dr. Stafford, to the congregation. Mr. Shorey is not at all a sensational preacher; but he is earnest, forcible and thoughtful. His sermons have the freshness and originality which are the result of being carefully thought out from his own standpoint. He is manly and independent, and impresses his hearers with his deep sincerity. He has won in a high degree the confidence and affection of the congregation. No church in the city has made greater progress than Sherbourne Street during the last three years. Other city ministers who are moving may have an equally good record; but we have not the same personal knowledge of their work, as we have in the case of Sherbourne Street."

A Successful Endeavor.

The Endeavor Society of the Charlotte St. Methodist Church, held their first public entertainment, in the school room, Thursday evening. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, all the available space was occupied. The room was decorated with bunting and festoons of flowers, while over the platform on the wall were the mottoes, "Deeds, not words" and "Welcome to all." After devotional exercises the President, Mr. O.C. Rowse, delivered the opening address, in which he referred to the aims and objects of the society, after which the following programme was rendered:

PART I.

Address	President
Song—The Holy Friar	Mr. A. L. Davis
Reading—The Jubilee Comic	Sergt-Major Rundle
Instrumental	Miss Fairweather
Song—True till Death	Mr. J. W. Morris

PART II.

Vocal Duet—Larboard Watch	Messrs. Stevens and Henderson
(Encore.)
Reading—The Yorkshire Farmer	Mr. A. Clegg
Song—Kathleen Aroon	Mrs. Logan
Instrumental	Prof. Parker
Song—Heart Bowed Down	Sergt-Major Rundle
Recitation—The Eagle's Rock	Mr. O. C. Rowse
God save the Queen.

The entertainment was a gratifying success, the unanimous wish being that the Society should, in the near future, hold a similar one. The instrumental selection of Miss Fairweather deserves special mention, as do also Mrs. Logan's solo, the duet of Messrs. Stevens and Henderson, and the reading by Mr. Clegg. It is understood the Society will shortly hold another entertainment.

Millbrook.

(From a Correspondent.)

Sir Adolph's Bell Rathregtie.

We don't have much excitement as a rule in this beautiful little village, but at present it is the focal point of interest in a very interesting ecclesiastical military-member-of-parliament-veteran-Midlanders affair. While in the Northwest, fighting the battles of the country in 1885, the Millbrook contingent of the Midland Battalion, got possession of the bell of the Roman Catholic church, at Frog Lake, after the burning of the sacred edifice, and they clung to it as a trophy of prowess or a relic of the campaign. It was highly valued, and they had no little difficulty in defending it against the looting instincts of other members of the Midlands. However, the much-prized treasure was brought safely to Millbrook, and securely cached. At length, it was decided not to permit so splendid a relic to waste its tintinabulations on silence and the bell was hoisted to a place of honor on the fire hall. Though giving the bell this prominent and responsible position, the pro tempore owners of it did not wish to give undue publicity to the fact of its possession. But bells of brass, as well as that class spelt thus, b-e-l-l-e-s, cannot keep a secret, and the whereabouts of the bell came to the ears of Bishop Grandin, of the diocese in the Northwest in which the Frog Lake church had been situated. His Lordship at once made a formal demand upon Sir Adolph Caron, Minister of Militia, for the restoration of the bell to its proper owners. The Minister of Militia, it is stated, employed Mr. Henry Alfred Ward, Port Hope, M.P., for East Durham, to conduct the delicate negotiations, for securing possession of the rebellion relic. In pursuit of his mission, Mr. Ward went to Millbrook, and made earnest efforts, to carry out Sir Adolph's desperate wish that he might save the bell from being used on an Orange Lodge hall, and restore it to its original functions. But the Millbrook Midlanders were obdurate—they would listen to "no surrender" of their spoil. Even the promise on behalf of the anxious, Sir Adolph, that he would, instead, supply even a better bell—as of no avail. They could not trust the promises of the gallant minister of war—they considered a bell in the hand was worth any number of bells promised by the minister—they couldn't "chime in" with his proposition. Even the promise of Sir Adolph that he would come in person to Millbrook and take over the bell, failed to move the retentive Midlanders. The prospective vision of the minister swaggering through the village in his official uniform, bedizened, blaring and befrogged with gold lace, was no temptation—they must have another bell in their hands before they gave up the Frog Lake bell. And thus the negotiations, as well as the bell, hang in suspense. Sir Adolph may be speedily expected in the village carrying a big bell like an auctioneer's boy, and the longer he waits—the nearer the 12th of July approaches—the bigger the bell will have to be. Uneasy lies the head pillowed on a portfolio of the minister of war. Mr. Ward has retired from the negotiations hopeless of making any impression on the obstinacy of the boys' who say they are going to hang on to that bell, and vow vengeance on any one daring to lay hands on that bell to take it down.

"Why, Mrs. Jawsome, how can you insinuate such a thing! I drank or mad? I'm strong Scott Act. I know it's hard to believe, but Mrs. Buyclese, a regular prayer meeting woman she is, too, told me so with her own mouth—which is hardly ever shut, goodness knows—that she went traipsing up to Toronto with the Masonic excursion. She went through all the shops and priced 'em all. She wanted to get a wedding present for Ann Jane Mariar who is going to marry that half baked gawk, Ben Slowit, and she was disgusted. She could do better at home. And she spent $1.54—$1.75 for her ticket and nine cents for cakes and a paper of pins, she got at a seven-cent store—she tore that old cashmere dress she's worn a life time, on the car steps. O my! where was I?—O yes! she went straight to China Hall when she got home and got a lovely china tea set for so much less than she could in Toronto, that it made up for her expenses to the city. And she says they have terrible fine and cheap dishes at China Hall, and as she says, says she, 'Dead loads of 'em, too.'"

FRENCH CANADIANS AT NASHUA.

Close of a Successful Celebration—A Large Attendance.

NASHUA, N.H., June 30.—Yesterday's celebration of the French Canadian societies brought in crowds of people. Fully 10,000 thronged the streets. Elaborate decorations adorned the numerous buildings, among which were French flags intermingling with the American banner. Floral arches were erected across several streets and all business was suspended. Distinguished visitors from Canada and the United States were present.

A Narrow Escape.

PORT STANLEY, June 30.—Wednesday about 6 o'clock, Mr. Geo. Ordish of this village, accompanied by Mrs. Ordish and Miss Branton, and four gentlemen, concluded to try a pleasure trip on Lake Erie in his little yacht, the Jersey. The sea, at the time of their departure, was very rough, with a north-eastern gale, which continued to increase. When about two miles out of port the mainsail gave way, leaving the boat at the mercy of the waves, and it soon began to drift westward. The fishing boat Whaler, seeing the party, went to their rescue and made a desperate attempt to save them, succeeding, after repeated efforts, in rescuing all but two, who remained in the boat. Meanwhile the lifeboat was launched, manned by six sturdy oarsmen under Capt. Berry who succeeded in throwing a line and towing the Jersey into port, where hundreds waited for their safe return. Many a cheer went up when the crew landed, and the excitement for a time exceeded anything seen for years in the quiet village of Port Stanley.

An Expensive Trip.

BRANTFORD, June 30.—Some weeks ago a Beamsville liveryman eloped with the wife of a neighbor named Walker. The erring pair drove to St. Catharines, where they left the horse and proceeded by rail. Mrs. Walker, it is said, had $2,200 in a bank there, which she drew in order that they might not lack funds on the trip. Since that time they have visited various parts of the province, and in the latter part of last week reached Brantford. Here it is stated that the lady's money gave out, and so far as can be learned the pair left for Beamsville, where they expect to re-enter the bosoms of their respective families. Whether they will or not is another matter, but at all events they have had what satisfaction there may be in spending $2,200 in less than two months.

Mr. Conklin (Reform) has retired from Springfield and Smith (Independent) will be elected by acclamation.

AN EMBEZZLING EPIDEMIC.

MANY MERETRICIOUS MONEYMAKERS AT MONTREAL.

A Customs Clerk's Capture of a Check—The Providence Pitcher's Positive Position—Redmond's Defalcations.

MONTREAL, June 30.—The customs clerk of a large dry goods house was entrusted with a check for $1,200 a few days ago with which to pay duties on importations. He has not been seen since and is said to be in New York.

The counsel of Pitcher, the Providence absconder, said yesterday: "If Pitcher is charged with having brought stolen money into Canada he will plead not guilty and fight the charge to the last. The money, only $13,000, which was found upon him is his property. He was simply going to Europe, and he can prove that the money did not belong to the bank. If any of the authorities of that institution swear to the contrary he will be charged with perjury at once."

The Post has a story to the effect that A. M. Duhamel has absconded from Longueuil. He had charge in that town of the collection of water rates, the supervision of auction sales and was also the corporation bailiff. Mayor Morin personally loses several hundred dollars, being the proceeds of a seizure with which he recently entrusted him. He also acted for several lawyers and would obtain capiases and executions against certain persons and then collect the whole or accept part payments and retain the money for his own use. Three individuals who were arrested by him eight weeks ago on capiases were also allowed to clear out. The amount of the defalcation will not, it is believed, exceed $30,000.

CENTRAL BANK AFFAIRS.

Judgment Rendered by the Master in the Double Liability Cases.

TORONTO, June 30.—The Master delivered judgment yesterday in the Central Bank double liability cases. This is the crowning of all the litigation of the weary months since the liquidation proper began. The Master read his judgment, which was an exhaustive recital of the legal aspects of the downward progress of the bank towards its ruin, each stage of its disastrous progress being viewed in the light of English decisions and previous decisions of our own courts. The Master used language as strong as was consistent with judicial utterance when referring to the scandalous financial mismanagement responsible for the far-reaching ruin that the bank's failure caused throughout the province. Each of the pleas which had been entered on behalf of the shareholders was gone over, and the general tenor of the judgment was adverse to the contentions they were put forward to uphold. After the failure of the bank, the Master said, there were creditors and contributories; the question was, who was liable when the tree was cut down. Coming to the defence, urging that the charter of the bank was originally invalid, and that all acts done under its operation were void of binding effect, the Master cited a number of precedents in all of which the principle was upheld that such a defence could not be set up, the more so in view of the admitted acts of the shareholders in conducting the bank's affairs. In all the cases before him, with eight exceptions, the Master's judgment was that the shareholders are doubly liable in respect of their shares.

CANADA AND THE EMPIRE.

The Dominion's Advantages Set Forth by Sir Charles Tupper.

LONDON, June 30.—At the meeting of the Association for Promoting State-aided Colonization Sir Charles Tupper presented the advantages of Canada as a field for colonization, and urged it as a duty for the British Government to aid by every possible means such emigration as would result in great good to England and her Colonies. Lord Dufferin declared that the great Northwest was capable of supporting no less than forty millions, and this was only a section of the Dominion of Canada.

A PRONOUNCED CRANK.

Zachar, the Faster, 41 Days Without Food Now Much Longer.

RACINE, Wis., June 30.—Zachar, the faster, is keeping up his intention of beating the world's record. He has now been 41 days without food. That he is demented is certain. How much longer nature will sustain life in the man is a question. He may live ten or twelve days more, as he has not reached the stage of extreme weakness, but retains considerable vitality.

Comments on the Encyclical.

ROME, June 30.—The Popolo-Romano believes the Pope's Encyclical will not make any substantial change in the existing situation. The Francesa says that the utterance of the Pope is no longer a majestic affirmation of the permanent lordship of the Church, but rather resembled the cry of shipwrecked persons who see the waves rising around them. The Riforma says the Pope has the best means of knowing that the Government, so far from following a policy of persecution, has only pursued a policy of defence firmly applied, but carried on within the strict limits of equity and propriety. The Pope himself refutes the accusations of his own organs against the Government. The principal point of the Pope's second rescript relating to Ireland will be the Vatican's absolute neutrality in politics.

A Steam Scow Adrift.

TOBERMORAY, Ont., June 30.—A stern scow, with ties in tow for Stoke's Bay, broke her endless chain off Pine Tree Point, Lake Huron, there being no anchorage and strong off-land wind blowing. She drifted into the lake till ten miles abreast of Cape Hurd, where the fishing tug Chambers, of this port, sighted her in a sinking condition and took off her crew. The Chambers attempted to tow her in, but she immediately swamped in the heavy sea, and turned bottom up, losing her boiler and engine and a quantity of mill machinery. She was abandoned and is still adrift with her raft making towards the American shore.

A Careless Marksman's Work.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 30.—While Wendell Whitcomb was at his barn killing rats with a shotgun he fired a charge at one of the vermin, but the charge went wide of the mark towards the porch of his house where his two young daughters were sitting. The shot struck both, killing one and fatally wounding the other.

A Farmer's Suicide.

CAMPTON, June 30.—Albert Blossom, a well-to-do farmer, about 40 years of age, committed suicide by hanging about 5 p.m. yesterday at his home three miles from Campton Station, on the Easton road. Mr. Blossom has been in ill-health for some time.

Wreck of an Italian Bark.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The bark Carrara from Italy for New York has been wrecked at Squan Inlet, N.J. The crew were saved excepting one man, who was washed overboard.

The Poor Box Robbed.

NEWMARKET, June 29.—Yesterday two young men were seen by Father Bergin to enter the Roman Catholic Church here. Father Bergin went into the church and found the young men apparently saying their prayers. They remained some time longer in the church, and when they left it was found that the poor box had been rifled.

Williams, Leeds, Eng.; N. Williams, Leeds, Eng.; A. B. Wilmot, Oromocto, N. B.

Mr. H. Dean, one of the medalists, delivered an address on "No Need for a More Liberal Education for Farmers," very sensibly, and sometimes humorously, showing in which particulars the Ontario farmer was defective and how his status might be improved.

Medals and prizes were then presented to successful competitors as follows:

Gold: George Harcourt, Welland. Silver—First, H. H. Dean, Harley; second, R. M. Soule, South End, Welland.

Harcourt; 3, J. R. Hutton; 4, H. H. Dean. Mathematics and Book-keeping: 1, J. R. Hutton; 2, H. H. Dean.

Hon. Chas. Drury concluded the programme in a half-hour address. He dealt with the question of competition of foreign agricultural products with the Canadian exports to the English markets. They could not stop foreign production; they could not raise prices; the only thing they could do was to cheapen production in order that they might hold their own in a market where keen competition existed. He fully felt the responsibility that had been laid upon him. He trusted that he would be supported in the work he had to do by the farmers of this Province, and in return promised to devote his whole energy to the performance of his duty. He could say, after having kept careful accounts these last few years, that farming had not been very lucrative. But young men had to do something, and engaging in farming was, he considered, more likely to yield a happy contented life with fair competence than any of the professions. Young men were often attracted by the glamor of city life and reports of large incomes earned by professional men and merchants. But their attention had never been directed to the thousands of doctors and lawyers who, failing to gain prominence in their professions, eked out a bare existence. They had not, when reading of fortunes made by merchants, considered the track strewed with ruins of failure. The profession of farming was crowded, but not more than others. The cleverest doctor or the cleverest lawyer was the one that made a success in life, and so would it be with the farmer. The Agricultural College, as an institution to give farmer's sons an opportunity to gain knowledge and skill in farming, was of eminent worth.

A Carrier Pigeon Started for Toronto.

DETROIT, June 30.—Mr. Straith of the firm of Straith & McDonald started a carrier pigeon for Toronto yesterday morning at 9.10. The bird was let go off the roof of the Post office. It circled around for about two minutes, then it appeared to get its bearings and flew rapidly in the direction of its destination. A large number of spectators witnessed the flight of the bird till it was out of sight.

IN THE LAND OF PHARAOH

GROWING BELIEF THAT THE WHITE PASHA IS STANLEY.

White Captives at Khartoum Cruelly Treated by the Fanatical Followers of El Mahdi—Money Sent to the Captives.

LONDON, June 30.—The opinion is growing that Stanley is the great White Pasha, whose arrival in the Bahr-el-Ghazel Province at the head of a large force is agitating the native mind at Suakim and Cairo, and set the Mahdi's successors at Khartoum thinking of the best and most expeditious method of annihilating the daring intruder. Englishmen who believe England's fair fame was tarnished by the failure to relieve Khartoum, cherish the hope that the romance of Central African annals may culminate in the wiping out of that stain by Stanley, and clearing up the mystery of Gordon's fate. The idea is fascinating, but Stanley's mission is to join Emin Pasha, and the general opinion is that he is too practical a man to entertain the thought of ousting the Mahdi and reigning in his stead. The more immediate effect of his movements will be, it is feared, to make more miserable the sad fate of the Europeans who fell into the Mahdi's hands after Gordon's death, and most of whom are still in captivity at Khartoum. The great African traveller, Dr. Junker, has received hear-tmoving news of these poor people lately brought from Khartoum to Cairo by two Soudanese messengers, who risked their lives to deliver it. The news was brought in two small letters each about four times the size of an ordinary postage stamp. One was written by Statin Bey and the other by the widow of an Egyptian officer who lost his life in the massacre which followed the fall of Khartoum. The letters say that Lupton Bey, one of Egypt's most trusted Governors, who made the Bahr-el-Ghazel Province more than self-supporting, has until lately been compelled to work in the rude arsenal which the Mahdi's successor established, as a common laborer, perhaps to herd with common Arab labourers, naked save for a pair of drawers and a fez, and subject to the insults and ill-treatment of native overseers. Now his lot is somewhat ameliorated, as he has been allowed to work in the mint, from which Khalifa Abdullah, the Mahdi's successor, is turning out any amount of bare coin which his subjects are forced to pass current.

Poor Statin Bey is acting as Khalifa's forerunner, which brings him into uncomfortable relations with that potentate. Barefoot and half naked he has to run by the side of his mightiness' horse, carrying a lance and a small banner. One of his most important duties is to hold the stirrup whenever the fanatical potentate deigns to mount or dismount. But most to be pitied of all is a German named Neufeld, who is kept in chains, and out of the tyrant's mere wantonness has several times been ordered out for execution. The poor fellow is actually strung up to the gallows, and after suffering all the agonies of death is cut down and resuscitated. The Mahdi's successor used to derive much amusement from similar tortures inflicted on Baron Seckengorff's servant and a Prussian commissioned officer named Klos until death mercifully ended their sufferings about a year ago.

No wonder Dr. Junker congratulates himself upon the prudence which saved him from a similar fate. He was actually on the way to join Lupton Bey when he received warning and turned back and took shelter in Emin Pasha's province. Baron Seckendorff's servant disregarded the warning and duly fell into the black Nero's hands. Three missionaries and four nuns, Austrians and Italians, have been better treated, and beyond the inconvenience of being compulsorily married have not much to complain of except their actual captivity and agonising uncertainty in which they spend their days. One of the messengers who brought the foregoing news pluckily agreed to return to the captives, and left Cairo on June 5 for Khartoum via Berber, carrying tiny letters for the captives and a considerable sum of money for their use over and above the large reward paid him for his faithful services.

The Channel Tunnel.

LONDON, June 30.—In the House of Commons the Channel Tunnel Bill, introduced by Sir Walter Watkin, was rejected by a vote of 307 to 165.

A Clergyman Honored.

LONDON, June 30.—The dinner to Rev. Wm. Rogers was a remarkable compliment to a remarkable man. He has been forty-five years a clergyman at the East End, London, and much more than a clergyman. His recently published reminiscences tell the story of his life. Lord Rosebery presided at this dinner, supported by an extraordinary gathering of eminent men, in Mr. Roger's honor. The Bishop of London, the Master of Ballist, Lord Coleridge, the Dean of Westminster, Lord Herschell, Lord Londonderry, Lord Granville, Mr. Walter of The Times, Mr. Lawson of The Telegraph, Mr. Frederick Harrison and Lord Justice Power are only a few of the many distinguished names.

Offer to Take the Bonds.

PARIS, June 30.—A syndicate has agreed to lend the Panama Canal Company, on condition that the unsold bonds, amounting to 30,000,000 francs, be deposited as security, an immediate advance of one-sixth of the nominal value of the bonds, to be sold at the convenience of the syndicate and the proceeds to be handed to the company less the advance, the interest and a commission of ¼ franc per bond. It is believed that this will carry the company eighteen months without the necessity of making a fresh appeal for funds.

Exhibition Toasts.

BRUSSELS, June 30.—Commissioner Bigelow gave a banquet at the Hotel Brittannique to celebrate the opening of the American Section of the Exhibition here. Judge Lambert Tree, the United States Minister, proposed a toast in honor of King Leopold and Prince Chimar toasted President Cleveland. Mr. Bigelow, responding to the toast of Mr. Cleveland referred to the great qualities which the Belgians have displayed from the earliest times and acknowledged the kindness of the reception accorded to American exhibitors here.

PETERBORO'S PARLIAMENT

A Special Session of the Town Council.

A Big Grist of Petitions and Accounts—Mr. E. H. D. Hall Makes His Debut—New Streets to be Opened—The Fire Limit By-Law Must Not be Interfered With—Steam Whistling Must be Prohibited.

There was a bare quorum at the council meeting Friday night, Mayor Stevenson and Councillors Davidson, Kelly, E. H. D. Hall, A. Hall, Douglas, Moore and Langford being present. Later, Mr. Hartley came in.

The clerk reported the election of Mr. E. H. D. Hall to the vacant seat of No. 2 Ward, and his proper qualification for office.

A complaint from P. M. Dumble, regarding the ill-ventilation of the police court room and clerk's office, was referred to the Property Committee.

The Blythe Woolen Company applied for exemption from taxation. The matter was referred to the Finance Committee.

The report was adopted.

CHARITY.

Mr. A. Hall of the Charity Committee reported the expenditure for the month of $3.40; No. 1 ward, $3.00, No. 2, $21.90; No. 4, for April and May, $18.50. The report was adopted.

FIRE, WATER AND LIGHT.

Mr. A. Hall also presented the report of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, recommending that the application of Mr. Geo. Hilliard for a hydrant opposite his flour mill be granted; also that the petition asking for the laying of water pipes on Charlotte, Aylmer and Hunter streets be not granted, as the petition was not sufficiently signed. The committee recommended that a four-inch cut-off valve be purchased for the fire brigade; that Geo. Benton be paid 50c for removing the fire alarm bell at Louis Spry's, corner of Stewart and Dalhousie streets; that the fire alarm bell at the corner of George and Edinburgh streets be removed to the corner of Water and Cemetery streets. Also that the town solicitor be instructed to prepare a by-law to exempt from the fire limits the block owned by the G.T.R. Co., between Aylmer and Bethune streets. The report was adopted with the exception of the last clause, which was simply received. The opinion was expressed that it would not be right to exempt the railway company when other large taxpayers were held to its terms.

THE INVERLEA PROPERTY.

Mr. Langford presented a by-law to open out certain streets in the Inverlea property, to be called Hamilton Avenue, Donnelcona Avenue and Inverlea street.

Mayor STEVENSON said it was the expressed wish of a great many persons that this property should be used as a public park. It was adopted as no other place in town was for that purpose, and he would be sorry to see it cut up and built upon.

Mr. DAVIDSON stated that the place was not on the market as a park property. A good many of the lots were already sold, and it was too late now to talk of it as a park.

Mr. HARTLEY also had hoped that the place might be secured as a park, but as it was too late of course nothing could now be done.

Mr. MOORE objected on the ground that it would be a very expensive job to open out these streets through land in a state of nature, and the town would have to bear it all without compensation.

Mr. LANGFORD replied that the extra taxes levied on this property as town lots would more than pay for the road building.

The by-law then passed its several readings and was adopted.

EARLY CLOSING.

A by-law providing for the early closing of shops of the books, stationery, fancy goods and trunks, etc., class, prepared by the town solicitor, was read a first time. The terms of the by-law were considered too indefinite regarding the shops where trunks were sold, the "etc.", it was feared might include all shops where trunks were sold in conjunction with other things. The committee of the whole on the second reading rose and asked leave to sit again.

THE FIRE LIMITS.

A by-law to amend the present fire limit by-law so as to exempt from its provisions the G.T.R. block, bounded by Charlotte, Bethune, Aylmer and King streets, in order that the company might build a wooden elevator building, received a first reading; on the second reading there was some discussion. Mr. Hartley held that it would be unfair to other ratepayers to exempt this block.

Mr. Davidson pointed out that it was impossible to build an elevator of anything but wood.

Mr. E. H. D. Hall thought the difficulty could be overcome by the council exempting from the fire limit by-law, the elevator they proposed building, but it would be imprudent to exempt the whole block for the sake of the one elevator. When the block was exempted they might build half a dozen elevators, and they could not be prevented.

The Mayor and Mr. Moore concurred, and a motion that the by-law be laid over for the present was carried

SUPPLYING THE VACANCY.

Mr. Kelly moved, seconded by Mr. A. Hall, that Mr. E. H. D. Hall be put in Mr. McNeil's place on all committees except in the chairmanship of the Fire, Water and Light Committee—Carried.

STEAM WHISTLING.

Moved by Mr. Moore, seconded by Mr. Douglass, that the Mayor communicate with the chairman and secretary of the Railway Committee of the Privy Council for Canada, and represent to them that the council of the town have, without avail, endeavored to induce the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Railway Companies and their servants to cease the use of the steam whistles on their engines within the town; that such use has become of most excessive annoyance to the public, and is believed to be altogether unnecessary; and that this council respectfully requests that the said railway committee, under the provisions of the 13th section of the Railway Act, prohibit the use of steam whistles on the engines of the said companies within the limits of said town, and provide for the imposition of such penalties for breach of such regulations as the committee may deem proper.—Carried.

MOTIONS.

Mr. Davidson moved, seconded by Mr. Kelly, that the by-law relating to the fire brigade be printed in pamphlet form for the guidance of firemen.—Passed.

Mr. Moore moved, seconded by Mr. Hall, that the street inspector be instructed to put down a sidewalk on the east side of Bethune street, south of Brock street. Referred to the Street and Bridge Committee.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mr. Moore inquired why the conditions of settlement of the suit with the railway company, whereby they were to build certain sidewalks and crossings, had not been fulfilled. The Mayor replied that he would notify the company to have the work done.

A general discussion arose upon the condition of the streets in Peterborough. Mr. Kelly proposed that the planks taken up from George street when the new walk was built should be used on back streets. Mr. Langford replied that the committee had intended taking up the question at its next meeting. Then Mr. Hartley suggested that it would be better if some of the principal streets were paved with a cheap substance instead of planked. Mayor Stevenson called attention to the lack of gutters along the street, as every well-regulated town had. The matter had been passed time and again in council, but the work had never been done. He and Mr. Moore condemned the condition of the streets, and after some desultory discussion the council adjourned at the call of the mayor.

Bricklayers' & Masons' Union,

No. 12, Peterborough.

To the Architects and Builders of the Town of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN,—The members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 12, Peterborough, have decided to take no sub-contracts after the 1st day of June, 1888. We take this step, believing it to be to the interest of Architects and Proprietors of buildings, to deal directly with us, and not as heretofore, letting our branch of work to Carpenters, and then have them sublet it to us, frequently at a loss to owners of buildings through inferior material being used to secure the contractor a profit. We therefore, consider it would be to the interest of all concerned, to have each trade control its own line of work.

Signed on behalf of the Union,
J. J. HARTLEY, President.

Those interested in the success of the society and the promotion of its objects are requested to bear in mind that the society has been put to heavy expense, and that the nature of the expenditure has been such as to challenge general public sympathy and substantial support. The maintenance and additional beautifying of Court House Park has been a heavy draught upon the resources of the Society as well as upon the personal energies of several of the directors, and as the park is maintained exclusively in the public interest, the society can fairly claim the liberal assistance of the public. Meet the directors when they call upon you with a smile and a dollar bill.

He used a specially fine lens, and with his well known artistic taste and skill, and the beautiful park for a subject, it must be expected that the resulting photograms will be of especial excellence and value.

Splendid Building Stone.

Mr. J. B. McWilliams has on view a block of building stone from the quarry on his farm in Smowden. The material is a crystalline limestone very light ash gray, nearly white, is firm, seamless, takes a beautiful polish and is excellently adapted for building purposes. The deposit is practically inexhaustable, and being so close to the Ironsdale and Bancroft R.R. that stone can be loaded from the quarry on to the cars, its commercial value is very great.

Learning Shorthand.

(From Burdette.)

"How long does it take you to learn shorthand?" my son. "Well, that depends on what you want to learn it for. If you want to be a court reporter, in which you will have to report just exactly what the speaker says, and nothing else, it will take you two or three years to learn. But to report merely political speeches, in which occupation you merely look wise while you make hen tracks, and then go to the office and write down the speech from memory, making the speaker say whatever you think will please the managing editor, and hurt the other party, about six weeks' light study, with intervals of light recreation, will be a thorough university course". But if you wish to take a situation at a good remuneration, in an office, as amanuensis, Miss E. Harper will see that you are prepared in the shortest possible time, (if you will do the studying) at the most reasonable rates. See her card in another column of this paper.

Is Business Overdone in Peterborough?

Financial papers are publishing abundant articles to show that business of all kinds is overdone all over Canada, and there are many who think that business is decidedly overdone in Peterborough. We have certainly nearly enough lawyers and doctors and almost enough grocery shops. It is admitted that the dry goods business is too full and that there is no lack of clothing houses to supply the trade. Yet there is one clothing house which the public could not do without. If gough bros. were to remove from town it would be a public calamity. There is nobody to fill their shoes; nobody to stand between the people and the rapacity of the high-price clothiers; nobody to give the wonderful bargains now going on at the goughs' great thirty days' sale of superb readymade clothing. goughs are the daddies of them all. For cheap clothing, for good clothing, for nobby summer clothing, go to gough bros., the cheapest clothiers on the continent. Bargains by the bale; bargains by the bundle; bargains by the bushel; bargains every hour.

The Convent Closing.

Graduation [illegible] Convent [illegible] Address [illegible] Dress to His Lordship and Party.

Friday evening was the close of the school term at the Convent of the Congregation de Notre Dame, and as usual the good sisters had prepared an excellent and entertaining programme to signalize the occasion, which was also utilized for the presentation of the medals which had been presented to the institution for the encouragement of the art of music by His Lordship Bishop Dowling and Mr. J. B. Straubenzie, M.P.P.

The hitherto plain room was tastefully decorated with evergreens and flowers, and the pupils, clad chiefly in white, ranged in tiers, with a dais for the bishop and parish clergy, represented by His Lordship Bishop Dowling and Rev. F. Rudkins. As his lordship entered the convent an instrumental selection on three pianos was performed by Misses M. Merrow, E. Crummey, M. Doherty, L. Dineen and M. Foubert. Arrived at the chair rude a welcome song was sweetly sung by twelve little girls, to which succeeded a recitation by twelve other little girls, entitled "A Happy Reception Offering to the Bishop," [illegible] beautifully done to musical accompaniment. "Montana," a simultaneous recitation by twelve little girls, gave great pleasure as well as the Chit-Chat by fifteen of the pupils, dealing in juvenile manner with the subject of vacation. "The Closing Song" solo and chorus was pleasingly rendered and very appropriate to the occasion, the solo singing of Misses Gertie Sullivan, Minnie Begley and Annie Simcox, being well supported by a very effective chorus. Miss M. Begley recited, in a very commendable manner, "The Priest of God," extolling the virtues and good deeds of the priesthood

Then followed the presentation of the medals, beautiful specimens of the goldsmith's art, to Miss Mary Stratton and Miss Jennie McCabe, of Port Hope, "for," as the inscription on each indicated, "excellence in music." The presentation was made with a few appropriate words of congratulation and encouragement by His Lordship, in which he referred [illegible] to the [illegible] and [illegible] Bishop Walsh, was read by Miss O'Brien, in which reference was made to the encouragement extended by his Lordship to the school, the interest taken by [illegible] and [illegible], and, lastly, to the lamented death of Archbishop Lynch.

His lordship replied in a most happy little speech, all the more felicitious because it was simple in style and adapted to his little auditors, and sparkled with Hibernia humour. It abounded withal, with good pious advice, and was concluded by his Lordship delivering his blessing. As he passed out of the Convent, the gold medallists of the day Misses Stratton and McCabe gave a splendid rendering of Gotte chalk's "Pasquinade" and the pleasing exercises of the afternoon were brought to a close and a long good-by was said to books and study—till Sept 1st when the Convent school re-opens.

Over 300 bicyclists will be present in the city at the great Canadian Wheelman's meet, and $1000, divided into 25 prizes, will be competed for. Besides there are numerous other attractions in the Bay City, things worth seeing, for instance fine residential portions of the city known as Taylor's hill (east) and Murney's hill (west), Albert College, the Deaf and Dumb Institute, several grand churches, the market building and town hall, other public buildings, the waterworks, and the beautiful Massassaga Point a short distance down the bay. Fare from Peterborough to Belleville and return only $1.10, (children 55c) and in proportion from all stations on the G. J. R. Train in the Bay city. Train leaves town at 8.30 a.m., and starts from Belleville to return at 6 p.m. Be sure and join the crowd on Monday.

Dominion Day.

A Synopsis of the Events for Monday's Celebration.

The Driving Park will be the centre of attraction. After the parade of Pantamorphites, cavaliers and wild Indians, headed by the fire brigade band, just after dinner, the sports will begin in the Park, including horse races, fox and deer hunts and other attractions In the evening a grand fireworks display will be given in the P.A.A.A. grounds, as a fitting close to the celebration.

At St. Leonard's grove, Ashburnham, the annual picnic of St. Peter's Cathedral will be held. Everyone who has attended one of these picnics knows what enjoyable affairs they are, with their manifold attractions and excellent management.

On the P.A.A.A. grounds the Rosedale and Peterborough cricket clubs will strive for victory.

Then there are various outside celebrations. The Salvation Army excursion to Jubilee Point, the P.A.A.A. excursion to Belleville, the cheap railway fares to Port Hope and other places, will all draw their share of people.

The prices of admission are:—Afternoon and evening, double ticket, 25c.; evening, 15c. It is as cheap to buy a double ticket as a single one, as the admission to the driving park in the afternoon will be 25c., but for same money you will be given a coupon ticket for the fireworks display in the evening. For those unable to attend in the afternoon, 15c. will be charged in the evening.

The Lindsay Warder says:—"This week, under the system of the Methodist Church, Rev. Marmaduke L. Pearson leaves [illegible] to assume the pastorate of the George St. Church, Peterboro'. During his career in Lindsay his every move has been crowned with success. He has proven himself a faithful and instructive exponent of truth; and consequently his labors have borne great fruit. Years hence, many Victorians will remember and find direction and blessing from the words and example of Mr. Pearson. Here, he has attained to the high dignity of President of Conference, a dignity as great as that of Bishop or Archbishop in other churches. His sermon last Sabbath was a touching review of the past, consideration of the present, and survey of the future. He ever has appealed, not to the emotional or sentimental, but to the brain, the reasoning faculties of his hearers. May his future, and that of his family, be useful and glorious as has been his past."

"Why, Mrs. Jowsome, how can you insinuate such a thing? I drink or smell? I'm signed Scott Act. I know it's hard to believe, but Mrs. Bayclere, a regular prayer meeting woman she is, told me so with her own mouth—which it hardly ever does, goodness knows—that she went traipsing up to Toronto with the Masonic excursion. She went through all the shops and priced 'em all. She wanted to get a wedding present for Ann Jane Marina who is going to marry that half baked grawk, Ben Slewfit, and she was disgusted. She could do better at home. And she spent $1.50—$1.75 for her ticket and nine cents for cakes and a paper of pins. I got 'em at a seven-cent store—she bore that cashmere dress she's worn a little time, on car steps—O my! where was I?—O yes, I went straight to China Hall when she got home and got a lovely china tea set for so much less than she could in Toronto, that it made up for her expenses to the city. And she says they have terrible fine and cheap dishes at China Hall, and as she says, says she, 'Dead loads of 'em, see.'"

What We Notice.

That the Fun Season is over for the present.
That our Stock of Fans melted away rapidly during the hot spell.
That merit is the measure of success.
That it takes "sand" to get up head.
That it is often a little lonely at the top.
That we would like some of our competitors to "try, try again."
That we haven't pulled the ladder up after us.
That they can climb as well as we, if they learn how.
That our Pic-Nic Baskets are great sellers.
That it pays to advertise.
That a plain statement of facts is not boasting
That travel must be brisk judging from our large sales of Trunks and Valises.
That progression, not retrogression, is a good motto.
That there is no "long felt want" in our line which we have not got.
That "ROUTLEY" has become a familiar household word.
Even though he don't want all the earth.

AN ACCIDENT AT OTTAWA.

FALL OF THE GRAND STAND AT LANDSDOWNE PARK.

Only Two or Three of the Occupants Seriously Injured and None Fatally—The Princess of Wales Rifles.

OTTAWA, July 3.—Dominion Day was generally celebrated yesterday, most places of business being closed. The weather was splendid, large crowds visited the city and everything passed off satisfactorily except a little unpleasantness at the drill hall and a slight accident at Landsdowne Park.

In the morning the Princess of Wales Rifles of Kingston were inspected by Gen. Middleton and presented a very creditable appearance. After inspection the men went into the drill hall for dinner and here an unpleasantness occurred. The men were hot and hungry, and the dinner was good and plenty of it, but there were no knives and forks. It appears that the caterer could not supply so large a number and stipulated in the contract that the men were to bring their own knives and forks. This caused great commotion. The men kicked up a row, threw plates at Col. Smith and the officers had to be called in to quiet them. Finally order was restored and the men got their dinners the best way they could.

Just after the first heat in the free-for-all at Lanadowne Park this afternoon an accident occurred which it seems almost miraculous did not result in great loss of life. A portion of the grand stand, on which there were about 300 people, fell, and men, women and children were buried in the heap of ruins. Although a large number received slight injuries, only two or three are seriously injured and none fatally.

The First Sod Turned.

WINNIPEG, July 3.—The first sod of the Manitoba Central was turned on Saturday. Track-laying on the Red River Valley is progressing at the rate of a mile and a half a day.

The Provincial police force has been disbanded.

A 22-foot lot on Main-street sold for $663 per foot.

A Blood Indian on the reserve north of MacLeod was instantly killed by lightning, while a man named Hughes standidg near had his whishers burned off, and two horses were struck dead.

Dean Carmichael, Montreal, occupied the pulpit of Holy Trinity Church Sunday night. He is on his way to British Columbia. Richard White, of the Montreal Gazette, accompanies the dean.

The Northwest Elections.

WINNIPEG, July 3.—Elections were held in five districts in the Territories.

Wilson and Oliver were elected for Edmonton and Cunkskill for Battleford.

Plaxton and Betts lead in Prince Albert, but there are some places to hear from which will go solid for Bets and Hughes.

Batoche and Kanasisto have not yet been heard from.

The Government to Intervene.

LONDON, July 3.—In the appeal of the St. Catharines Milling and Lumbering Company from the judgment of the Supreme Court of Canada, confirming the right of the Ontario Government to deal with the lumber in the lately disputed territory, the solicitors for the Dominion Government have given notice of the intention of the Government to intervene and become party to the suit. The suit has hitherto been conducted solely in the name of the St. Catharines Milling and Lumbering Company. The Dominion Government have been constantly urged by the Ontario Government to take this step in order finally to decide the question, but have hitherto refused. The case opens on the 10th July.

Drowning Accident near Brantford.

BRANTFORD, July 3.—John Beer, a young man, aged about 20 years, while swimming at Lovejoy's pond was drowned. He took a dive, came up above the water standing on his feet, with both hands wiped the water off his face, then threw back both arms, fell backwards in the water and did not rise again. His companions thought he was in sport. His body was found about an hour afterwards a short distance from where he went down. Deceased was only from England about three months, and was stopping with his uncle, Wm. Beers.

Fire at Hespeler.

HESPELER, July 3.—Fire yesterday morning destroyed the barn and shed belonging to John Zrijd with almost the entire contents. The barn was owned by John Bond, and was valued at $3,000. About $100 worth of the contents of the barn, belonging to John Washburn, were also destoyed. Mr. Zrijd's loss is about $1,000, on which there is an insurance of $400 equally divided between the Economic of Berlin and Mutual of Guelph. The cause of the fire is unknown.

The Dark Secret Spoken.

BOSTON, July 3.—The little dorry Dark Secret, with its solitary occupant en route to Europe, was spoken 65 miles from Boston light at 10 a.m. Saturday by the pilot boat Hesper of Boston. Captain Andrews said he had been detained by the easterly winds of the two preceding days

A SENSATIONAL LAWSUIT.

SOME LIVELY FUN IN THE JOCKEY LIBEL CASE.

Mr. Gladstone enthusiastically received—Death of an Ex-U.S. Consul—Parnellism and Crime—A $50,000 Libel Suit.

NEW YORK, July 3.—G. W. Smalley telegraphs to the Tribune:—The verdict on the Wood libel case may be taken as an expression of opinion by the jury that they do not approve of the existing state of things on the turf. Small blame to them for that. But whether it does justice as between the parties to this action is another question. Lord Coleridge thinks it does. He sided strongly against Wood and summed up against him, and now says that he would deprive him of his costs if he had the power. A verdict with a farthing damages is of course more injurious to Wood than if it had been for the defendant. There was evidence to justify a verdict on either side. Many men of high position swore that Wood's reputation as a jockey was bad, and many others swore that though they had heard things said they did not believe them, and continued to employ him. Equally conflicting was the evidence as to pulling the horse Success, the only one about which a specific charge was made. But what seems clear enough is that if Wood has sinned, he has sinned in company with others. "All jockeys," said the Duke of Portland in his letter to Lord Durham, "are damned thieves." Wood's offence, if offence there be, consists in breaking the Eleventh Commandment.

The trial has been full of sensational incidents and the court full of famous people. If the reputation of the Prime Minister had been at stake the interest could not have been more intense. Nothing quite equalled the excitement when Lord Durham, who has really been defending Cox, produced a private letter from the Duke of Portland, his intimate friend, in hope of contradicting his evidence given on the stand. When Sir Henry James came to his closing arguments he denounced this act in terms seldom applied in court to a man in Lord Durham's position. "That letter," said Sir Henry, "was not the weapon of a warrior, but the Sir Charles or given him time to reflect. dagger of an assassin." He denounced, too, Sir Charles Russell, the leading counsel for the defendant, for using it. But this was perhaps a little Pickwickian, and was explained away; though Lord Coleridge said that he ought himself to have stopped "No friend will ever again," said Sir Henry, "write a letter to the Duke of Portland beginning 'My Dear Jacke.' They will begin 'Without Prejudice, My Dear Jacko.'" The Duke of Portland and Sir Henry James are men who meet socially on even terms, but their relations seem likely in future to be a little strained. Two powerful parties on the turf are in fact fighting out their quarrel in the court, and this Wood trial is hardly more than a reconnaissance in force.

Mr. Gladstone addressed a meeting at Hampstead. He was given an enthusiastic ovation. In his speech he said that coercion in Ireland was formerly a painful necessity and a momentary expedient, but now it was erected into a principle, a system and an institution which would have received a deadly blow yesterday had there been a few more Liberals in the Isle of Thanet. The majority in Thanet would have the noble satisfaction of reflecting on the fact that they have riveted the chains of force and renewed the power of injustice. Each individual of them would be answerable therefor to God.

PARNELLISM AND CRIME.

Mr. O'Donnell's $50,000 Libel Suit Against the Thunderer Begun.

LONDON, July 3.—The trial of the action of Frank Hugh O'Donnell against the London Times for Libel in its articles on "Parnellism and Crime" was begun yesterday. The court room was packed. Lord Chief Justice Coleridge presided. Mr. O'Donnell was represented by Mr. Reugg, a junior counsel, who is a lean, nervous, bilious looking man. Herbert Gladstone, Arthur O'Connor and many other prominent persons were present. Herbert Gladstone sat by Mr. O'Donnell's side. The Times was represented by Sir R. E. Webster, Attorney General, Sir Henry James, Lumbley Smith and William Graham Gwynne.

Reugg, in presenting the case for the plaintiff, declared that Mr. O'Donnell was not in sympathy with the Irish extremists, but held their methods in detestation. The Times had no ground for coupling his name with that party, and the plaintiff, therefore, claimed £50,000 damages. Mr. Reugg also said that Mr. O'Donnell had not been connected with the Parnellite party since 1884.

Mr. Reugg's voice was not strong and his manner of speaking was monotonous. The impression created upon the anditors was not altogether favorable and the court did not appear particularly interested.

The first witness was Henry Lucy, editor of The Daily News. He said he considered that the references in the articles on "Parnellism and Crime" included Mr. O'Donnell.

At this juncture Mr. Parnell entered the court room.

On cross-examination Mr. Lucy gave testimony which tended to prove that O'Donnell was present at National League meetings where violent speeches inciting to murder and arson were made, and against which he uttered no protest.

The Lord Chief Justice ruled that questions concerning Mr. Gladstone's anti-league speeches in Parliament were irrelevant.

A BUSY MONTH FOR CANDIDATES.

Large List of Competitors for Various Examinations.

TORONTO, July 3.—The departmental examinations for second and third class teachers' certificates commenced to-day. According to the returns recently received at the department 5000 candidates will write for both grades. The papers for second and first class certificates were prepared by the University examiners, and the third class by the Central Committee of the Education Department.

For the first time candidates for first class grade certificates will be examined at local points, of which there are 120. The examinations begin July 10. There are 300 candidates on the list for this examination. With regard to first class grade A and B, the department does not any longer exercise any control, these being graded after the candidates undergo a specified course at the universities. The examinations for admission to high schools and collegiate institutes will begin on Wednesday and will last until Friday afternoon following. These examinations are not exclusively held at High schools, the policy of the department being to set apart additional centres considered of convenience to pupils. It is estimated that 12,000 candidates will write on the entrance papers, and when other grades and university examinations are taken into consideration, no less than 20,000 boys and girls in Ontario will be examined on some sphere of educational work during the coming month. The University examinations will be conducted at the same centres and on the same days as those for teachers' certificates.

A STRATEGIC CONSIDERATION.

Further Measures Urged for the Severance of the Reichsland from France.

BERLIN, July 3.—The North German Gazette, referring to the passport regulations, says: "The absorption of Alsace-Lorraine by Germany was partly a strategic consideration with a view to the protection of Germany against a French invasion. The impression that the Vosges from the frontier line must be strengthened and made permanent. The passport regulations work in this direction, but they are not sufficient. Further measures will have to follow if the severance of Alsace-Lorraine from France is to be systematically obtained."

MADE A GENUINE DUCHESS.

DETAILS OF THE MARLBOROUGH-HAMMERSLEY MARRIAGE.

How an American Widow Was Made a Duchess—The Bride Given Royal Tone to the Duke's Family.

NEW YORK, July 3.—There were very few persons present in the Mayor's office to witness the marriage of the Duke of Marlborough to Mrs. Hamersley. His Grace and the handsome widow arrived a few minutes before one o'clock. The Mayor was neatly dressed, as he always is, but there was an added daintiness to his attire and a faint suspicion of a curling to the ends of his mustache that betokened special care. The party were beginning to be nervous when Mr. Hewitt at length drew from his coat tail pocket a shabby printed card, and having adjusted his spectacles he began the matrimonial catechism. Everything went along smoothly, though the deferential tone assumed by Marlborough was a surprise to almost everbody.

"Do you, George Charle Churchill Spencer, Duke of Marlborough, take this woman to be your lawfully wedded wife, promising to abide with her, and to cleave to her through sun and storm, prosperity and adversity, till death do you part."

"If you please," answered the duke with courtly grace. Then collecting himself he looked at the dazzled Mayor in an apologetic tone, and added firmly "I do."

Mrs. Hamersley made no mistake about her answer. She answered with a decided "I do."

The ring was then placed on her finger and the belle of Troy and the handsome widow of New York was a duchess.

The duke is 43 years of age the duchess is 34.

The sensation created by the marriage in society way very great, and no little comment was made because of its civil character.

"It is easily enough explained," said one of the witnesses of the marriage. "It was done to avoid any legal question that might arise in case of issue born of marriage as to their issue being entitled to the succession. The parties did not care to run any risk of having their children debarred from succession to the dukedom should any chance to be born to them. There is no marriage so binding legally as a civil one.

The Duke is the tenth in rank in the Kingdom, and with the money which his bride will bring him and the moral tone which she will lend to Blenheim, the Marlborough family may hope to regain some of the political and social prominence which once was theirs.

Regarding the legal status in his own country in which the Duke has placed himself by his marriage, a well known lawyer said: The sole ground upon which an absolute divorce can be granted in England is the same as in this State, and it is upon that ground that the Marchioness of Blandford obtained her divorce from the Duke, then a Marquis. Every decree granted in England for absolute divorce closes with the following injunction;

And it shall be lawful for the said plaintiff to marry again, as though the defendant herein were actually dead; but it shall not be lawful for the said defendant to marry again until plaintiff shall be actually dead.

The Duke has undoubtedly violated this injuction, but his marriage is none the less valid, in accordance with the English law, and would be so upheld by any court in the United Kingdom. He has merely been guilty of a technical contempt of court, the consequences of which are not serious.

So Mrs. Hamersley becomes the Duchess of Marlborough, without any shadow on that title whatever by reason of her husband's former marriage with Lady Alberta Frances Ann Hamilton, daughter of the Duke of Abercorn.

The "St. Leonard's" Picnic.

The Dominion Day Picnic a Splendid and Profitable Success.

The most pleasant and successful picnic ever conducted under the auspices of St. Peter's Cathedral, came off at "St. Leonard's" Park. This is a most beautiful spot for such a gathering, and it was taken advantage of to the fullest extent. The attendance was very large, and throughout the day there were the utmost good order and enjoyment. The grounds began to fill up at an early hour and all day long there was a busy throng. The clergy was represented by Rt. Rev. Bishop Dowling, Rev. Fathers Conway, Norwood; O'Connell, Douro; Kelly, Eamsmore; Fayolle, of Crookston, Dakota, and the resident priests, Rev. Fathers McEvay, Rudkins and Dubie.

The first stated event was the

BASEBALL MATCH

The match began at 10 o'clock sharp between nines from the Lock Works and the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Company's Works. The latter won after a closely contested seven-inning game. For the winners, Galley and Callahan proved an invincible battery. About half the men were struck out by Galley. Farley, for the Lock Works nine, though he pitched a ball that appeared to be rather easily taken, did perhaps the best all-round playing. He made three nice catches and a home run. Graham behind the bat was what the boys call a "dandy." The game was well contested throughout, there being very few errors credited to either side. Following is the score:—

The material wants of the people were by no means neglected, and the dinner tables and refreshment booths did a thriving business.

There were two refreshment booth's one the palace booth, presided over by Messrs R. Sheehy and John Lynch. They dispensed of a barrel of lemonade compounded of a bushel of lemons with ice and water ad lib. Their receipts totalled $80.

Another booth was conducted by Messrs. C. Butler, R. Donaghue, E. O'Neil and C. P. Murty. This also did a good trade and their receipts totalled about $63.

The dancing platform, was a special attraction from eleven o'clock when the music struck up till the shades of evening began to fall. A better platform, more snugly ensconsed in a circle of shady trees, was never laid down on a pic-nic ground and it never got cool, a steady procession of dancers passing on at one end and emerging at the other when the set was over. A little innovation in the shape of a nominal admission fee to the platform saved monopoly and had a very good effect, this alone adding to the funds $25.35. Excellent music was supplied by Prof. Doucet's Orchestra and Mr. James Coughlin the veteran master of ceremonies was in excellent voice.

THE DINING TABLES

were a most important feature. At 10.35 Ashburnham opened the ball, and soon the other three tables followed suit, and from that hour till two o'clock the ladies in waiting were kept busy supplying abundance of excellent edibles, and from five to six the operation was repeated. The following are the names of the ladies in charge of the different ward tables:

No. 1 WARD—Mrs. J. B. Dunn, Treasurer; Mesdames E. Phelan, Redmond, White, Tierney and Miss Martin. Ice cream tables—Miss Pimcon and Miss McFadden. Total receipts, $76.75.

No. 2 WARD—Mrs. Doherty, Treasurer; Mesdames T. Kelley, Hackett, LeHane, O'Meara, Carran and Donoghue, and Misses McCarthy, Navin, Barette and McLaughlin. Ice cream tables—Miss M. A. Sullivan and Miss D. McDonald. The receipts of this table were $66 37.

No. 3 AND 4 WARDS—Mrs. Delaney, Treasurer; Mesdames (Dr.) O'Sullivan, T. Dolan, Morrow (B.), McFadden, Muncaster, Moloney, Lynch (John, jr.), Dineen, Dwyer and Crowley, and Misses Comin, Haggerty, Hickey, Vinette (2), Marty, Archambault and Daly. Ice cream tables—Mrs. Dolan and Muncaster. Receipts at the treasurer's office, $72.86.

No. 5 WARD—(Ashburnham) Mrs. J. G. Sullivan Treasurer. Mesdames Brennan, Clancy, O'Connell, Wall, Mercier, Welsh and Thorne, Misses B. Nolan, M. Tobin, M. Wall and Malone. Total receipts, $75.

MISCELLANEOUS EVENTS.

There were other means employed for adding to the profit of the occasion. A twenty dollar gold piece was represented by a large number of tickets sold by young ladies and their success was remarkable especially that of Miss Maggie ("Flax") McAuliffe, who not only sold the winning ticket (1561) which give the coin to Mr. John Hays, jr., but also won for the persistent and energetic ticket seller the special prize of $20 for the lady selling the largest number of tickets, generously donated by Mr. John Hackett, and which was duly presented on the grounds in the shape of two $10 dollar bills.

The silk banner was won by Mrs. Bonhomme and the Bishop's picture was won by Mrs. P. Begley. A whip worth $2.50, kindly given by Mr. W. J. Devlin, brought $9.25 and was won by Mr. T. H. O'Shea, Asphodel. The shooting gallery conducted by Mr. P. Heffernan and Mr. R. Begley, realized $25.35.

The pic-nic was a very gratifying success in all respects, and much credit is due the energetic committee of which Rev. P. Rudkins is chairman.

The financial receipts of the pic-nic are indicated by the following recapitulation of the receipts of the different departments:—

For many years the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have offered, in good faith, $500 reward for a case of Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure. Rheumatic Pains

Require no description, since with rare exception, all at some time have experienced their twinges. Rheumatism is not easily dislodged, only the most powerfully penetrating remedies reach to its very foundations. The most successful treatment known, and it is now frequently resorted to by medical men, is the application of that now famous remedy for pain—Polson's Nerviline. It is safe to say that nothing yet discovered has afforded equal satisfaction to the suffering. A trial can be made at a small cost, as sample bottles of Nerviline can be had at the drug store for 10 cents, large bottles 25 cents. 6d28w

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

Well Tested.

"I was nearly dead with Cholera Morbus, one bottle of Extract of Wild Strawberry cured me, and at another time I was so bad with Summer Complaint that I thought I would never get over it, when two bottles cured me." Mrs. E. Askett, Peel, Ont. 2w26d

From Moropane, Man.

Mr. Joseph Clark writes—"All last winter I was so bad with Inflammatory Rheumatism that I was not expected to live. I used no other medicine but Burdock Blood Bitters and can now get around again feeling better than I ever was before I was taken sick, and I owe it all to Burdock Blood Bitters." 2w26d

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Worth Remembering.

Mr. Jas. Binnie, of Toronto, states that his little baby when three months old was taken with summer complaint that under doctor's treatment her life was despaired of. Four doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cured her. She is now fat and hearty. 2w26d

A Distressing Disease.

"I wish to give my testimony in favor of Burdock Blood Bitters. I had been troubled with Erysipelas and was induced to try this valuable medicine. I have used three bottles and am now well as ever." Mrs. L. Finch, Cedar Creek, Ont. 2w26d

Undeniably True.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and found it a sure cure for summer complaint. I was very sick and it cured me entirely." Mr. Alexander W. Grant, Moose Creek, Ont. 2w26d

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A Happy Aftermath.

A social in commissariat continuation of St. Leonard's Dominion Day picnic will be held in the Murray street Separate School grounds on Thursday evening next. Abundant refreshments, music, varied amusement and an evening of genuine enjoyment. Particulars hereafter.

Out of Town.

The excursions from town drew large crowds. Peterborough was well represented at Port Hope and Belleville, the P.A.A.A. excursion to the latter place being well attended. The crowded condition of the columns of the EXAMINER to-day prevents us giving a report of the proceedings at these places. The Salvation Army excursion to Jubilee Point, by steamer "Golden Eye," drew out its complement of pleasure seekers. They all seemed to have enjoyed Dominion Day.

The Colts Defeated.

The return cricket match between the Peterborough Colts and the second eleven of Trinity College school was played at Port Hope Saturday, the Colts being defeated by an inning and 46 runs. The scores were: Colts, 28 and 69; T. C. S., 133. The Colts comprised W. F. Hamilton, G. Boucher, B. Boucher, Pearson, Kincaid, Wise and Rogers. Four subs had to be put on, the visitors being that many short. Pearson and Hamilton bowled for the Colts, while the best scorers were Pearson 21, B. Boucher 10 and Coen (sub) 10. The Colts could not do anything with the bowling of the school boys. They were, however, well entertained, and on the whole enjoyed their trip very much.

Beautiful Property.

The Roman Catholic Park Lot which for so long a time has been looked at with hungry eyes is at last being put in the market. It lies between two of the best streets in Peterborough, Gilmour street especially is the fashionable street of the town. The lots will be sold off at low prices as money is needed for church purposes.

As soon as building operations are begun on this property there will be a rapid advance in value. The sale will afford a good investment for all who desire a safe thing and a chance for a little speculation. dw

A Tussle with a Burglar.

About two o'clock this morning the family Mr. Chas. Stapleton, Water street, were awakened by cries of "Burglars! Police!" from the next residence, occupied by Mrs. Burritt. Mr. Stapleton at once ran out without stopping to put on even his slippers, and as he reached Mrs. Burritt's gateway a man emerged from the porch, and ran across the sidewalk. Here he was tackled by Mr. Stapleton, who was armed only with a light walking stick that he had snatched up on his way out. They struggled for a few minutes, when the stranger broke loose and ran down the street, closely pursued by Mr. Stapleton. As they passed the house, the latter's son, Charles, rushed out of the door and dealt the fleeing burglar a stunning blow with a club that knocked him down, but he was up again in a trice, leaving his hat on the ground. He turned on his assailants and made a pass at Charlie with some sort of weapon he carried in his hand, but the latter rapped him over the knuckles and he turned and fled once more. At the corner of Brock street, both of his pursuers got another clip at the burglar, but he ran on, and after going about half a block further they gave up the chase. Mr. Stapleton cut his toe and barked his elbows and knees, while Charlie hurt his foot in the encounter. It seems that Miss Burritt had been awakened by the attempts of the man to open the door with a latch key and afterwards to force the window, hence her alarm. Mr. Stapleton has in his possession the hat left behind by the would-be burglar, of whom nothing more was seen or heard.

CANADA'S MAJORITY

The Dominion Comes of Age on Monday!

Celebrating Our Majority—The Firemen's Demonstration in Peterborough—Other Events in Honor of the Occasion.

Our Dominion came of age on Monday. Twenty-one years ago, on the 1st of July, 1867, the confederation of the Canadian states was accomplished and "the Dominion Canada" inaugurated. The period of maturity was marked in Peterborough as well as in other towns by a grand celebration. For a month or more past the firemen have been evolving and elaborating demonstration ideas and the brilliant programme of events presented on Monday was a proof of their capabilities. The affair was a decided success, graced by fine weather and large crowds. Following will be found a brief account of the day's proceeding:—

About half-past one the great, colossal, unparalleled and awe-inspiring Pantamorphic procession appeared on George street, which was lined with thousands of spectators whose shouts of admiration and laughter rent the clouds of dust that rose in the air and finally settled in their parched throats and on their gaudy raiment. First came Boneyard Billyjames representing death on a pale horse, (this bloke is said to have been death on pale brandy also.)

Then came the band of wild red men under chief Dontbiteoffmorethanyoucanchew, comprising in all about a dozen warlike, plumed, bedizened and painted braves, Pawnees, Knock-knees, Chicosaws, Hand-saws and other great and famous representatives of the gory scalper of the plains. Chief D—— was accompanied by his princess and family, drawn in a genuine 7 x 9 Indian cart.

Following them the tin band marched and poured fourth its mellifluous strains. Their rich uniforms of three cent print and the silvery sheen of their tin (trough) instruments fairly dazzled the public.

The cavaliers came next; there were about twenty in all, with rich costumes of every variety. Their part of the programme was one to be admired.

That great body yclept the town council of Peterborough occupied a waggon and succeeded in kicking up about as big a disturbance as it usually does once in two or three weeks. The wise-heads on the sidewalk thought the waggon didn't do them justice—in which way the intelligent reader can best surmise.

Several of Porter Bros' S & O'B road carts and carriages, (by the way, a splendid collection), were followed by the great Trent Valley Canal steamer (on wheels.) This splendid boat was said to have cost the government $00002.75 and was built for the express purpose of navigating that part of the T.V.C. route known to fame as Spaulding's Bay. The vessel was fully manned and well supplied with fishing tackle.

Gough Bros' [illegible] clothing wagon in line, and after it came the Rob[illegible] gentlemen encounter and walking match all around the outside of it. (P.S.—At the time of going to press we have been unable to learn the result of the match.) John L. attitudes and Weston strides were noticeable by their absence.

Next, the Darktown fire brigade. The huge engine, bright uniforms and generally strong (odor of onions) appearance of the fire laddies impressed the beholder with the idea that there was no danger of Little Lake being burned while they were around.

The only free menagerie extant next hove in sight. The spectators looked at the menagerie—and then turned their eyes on the next caravan, McGrath's city paint shop in a state of motion and commotion.

The Scott Act and Anti-Scott two-icle came next in order. Poker chips, cigar stubs and a black bottle with the cork drawn were the principal features, excepting the donkey that sat and watched the game and took a drink between deals. What did the Governor of North Carolina telegraph to the Governor of South Carolina? They promised to meet down below.

Twelve Dry Bums cried frantically for drinks on a platformed wagon, but the Chief had given orders to save the ice-water for a rainy day, so they had to get along without their favorite beverage. Their faces and figures badly needed reviving.

The ticket wagon closed the procesh, which paraded the principal streets to the Driving Park.

The Races.

There was a large attendance at the Driving Park, about $300 being taken in at the gate. The cabs and busses did a great business in conveying passengers to the grounds. The Fire Brigade Band was present and enlivened the occasion with music at intervals.

The horse races were begun, the judges being Messrs. Jackson Reid, Boboaygeon; G. W. Ranney and R. W. Muncaster, Peterborough; Jas. English, timekeeper.

OPEN TROT.

This was an easy win for the grey horse, who in every heat forged to the front and led the procession without a skip. The pacer and Royal Jim made frequent disastrous breaks. Purse, $200: $125, $50, $25.

Morgan's Grey Ned	1	1	1
F. J. Daly's pacer	2	dist.	2
W. Clancy's Royal Jim	3	2	3

Time, 2.26, 2.45, 2.37.

OPEN RUNNING RACE.

This was another walk-over, Lady Macdonald taking the lead every time, though hard pressed by Fred Hill. In the first heat both Fred Hill and Black D. bolted and left the track, the latter's rider being thrown but not hurt. Purse $100; $60, $25, $15; best two heats in three.

Stapleton's (Brighton) Lady Macdonald, C. Stapleton	1	1

A. Booth's "Black D," ridden by Deacon	3	3

Time 2.00½, 2.

INDIANS' AND CAVALIERS' RACES.

These races were open to those in costume. In the Indian race, Bickle, Kent, Deacon, Milburn, Corcoran, Wainwright and Batten entered their horses; Deacon's "Golden Sky" took first money, $10, Kent's "Squaw" second, $5, with Bickle's horse in third place.

In the Cavaliers' race, Snowden, Dean, McIntyre and Kennedy entered; McIntyre's "Nancy Lee" first, $10, Dean's "Greybird" second, $5, Keanedy's "Honest Charlie" third place, but no money.

While the races were in progress, a fox was turned loose on the grounds and the dogs set after them. Reynard succeeded in escaping under the fence and led the dogs and boys a lively chase across country for a considerable distance.

THE EVENING.

On the P.A.A.A. grounds in the evening a display of fireworks was held under the direction of Prof. Palmer, of Rochester. The attendance was very large, and it is said to have been the best display of the kind seen in Peterborough for many years. The band was in attendance and gave several selections. This concluded the day's proceedings, and the crowd seperated thoroughly satisfied.

NOTES.

An impromptu deer hunt followed after the races. Some mischievous boys let the deer out of the stable and soon half a dozen dogs and a big crowd of boys were in full cry after it. The animal was rescued after a lively chase.

The demonstration committee want all accounts sent in at once, as they intend to close up the business immediately.

The afternoon parade was generally admitted to be the best held in Peterborough for a long time.

Refreshment stands flourished on the park, and the shell-and-pea men found their gullible victims as ready as ever to bite.

The prize of $5 for the best dressed Indian was awarded to Mr. H. W. Kent by the judges, but he being the donor it was turned over to Doc. Stephenson as having the next best outfit.

Special inducements to farmers and all others during the busy season at J. T. Stenson's book and shoe shop George street. Prices are cut so low that no time is lost in making a bargain. Rapid sales and everybody delighted. Come and see.

Dominion Day Cricket Match.

In the morning a match took place between the Rosedale Cricket Club and a home eleven. It was not a very rosy out-look for our team and pessimistic winnerers foretold disaster for them, with several of the best men absent—Rutherford, Stratton, Rogers, Max Hamilton, etc. But a good day's cricket was put in and one full of enjoyment to both the competing elevens and to the very few spectators assembled. Peterborough went to the bat, and the side was retired for the rather respectable score of 88, to which Ray (16), Morris (20), Parker (10), Minore (10), contributed the conventional double figures. Montgomery, of the visitors, got the lion's share of the wickets, taken off the pitch—five—though Lyon's share as well as Gordon's, the other bowlers, was only one wicket. Rosedale's innings mounted up to 103 before lunch was called, Nicol, Ledger and Petman, with 24, 29 and 15 respectively, were the biggest scorers, though it must be admitted that the chances were in their favor and put new "life" into their batting. "Willie" Hamilton and Day did the trundling; the latter let "day"-light through five wickets. Hamilton pitched well for a colt and has the makings of a wicket-finder in him. Reinforced by refreshments the home team took their second go, with better results. Day settled down and compiled a very pretty 42 before Montgomery found his way to his bails. Barnham distinguished himself. His fine tally of 26 was made by good careful cricket. Sailsbery sailed in and put together 14 rattling runs, among which were two magnificent drives out of the grounds for four each. The total of 118 was reached with the fall of the last wicket. Stumps were to be drawn at 5 o'clock. Rosedale in the twenty minutes for play lost two wickets for 22 runs. By the first innings the visitors win the match, but it is pretty evident that if the game were played to a finish there would not have been much difference in the total figures. Following is the score:—

The National Game.

The Aetnas at Norwood.

A team of the Aetna Lacrosse club went to Norwood Monday ostensibly to play the second twelve of the village club, but on arriving there they were pitted against the seniors. This was owing to the non-arrival of the Millbrook club, who were billed to play the Norwoods while the Aetnas played the juniors. The natural result of the unevenly matched game was a defeat for the visitors in three straight games, scored by R. Hill, F. Pearce and W. Stephenson. The Norwoods were much heavier than their opponents and as a rule better players, though some of the Aetnas did brilliant work.

The teams were:

Norwood.		Aetnas.

The Y.M.C.A. Team Wins Again.

The third game in the pennant series between the Y.M.C.A. clubs of Lindsay, Port Hope and Peterborough was played at Port Hope Dominion Day and was won by the Peterboroughs. The visitors played all around the Port Hopers, who were kept on the defensive the whole time. For Peterborough Stevens, Armstrong, Hendricks, Foote and Rubidge played well in home, the others having very little to do, the rubber seldom getting beyond Mooney or Davidson in centre field. Connal, Metheral and Henderson also covered themselves with glory. Nattrass played a great game for Port Hope in goal, while Hamley, King and Kelly did good uphill work. Games were scored as follows:

1st by Stevens; time, 18 min.
2nd, scrimmaged through; time, 25 min.
3rd, by P. Rubidge; time, 5 min.
Game called after 20 minutes more play.

The second goal was disallowed by the referee, though Umpire Robinson declared it was game. Such a thing as a referee overruling an umpire's decision has never been known on the lacrosse field before.

The teams were:

I know it's hard to believe, but Mrs. Buycloes, a regular prayer meeting woman she is, too, told me so with her own mouth—which is hardly ever shut, goodness knows—that she went trapesing up to Toronto with the Masonic excursion. She went through all the shops and priced 'em all. She wanted to get a wedding present for Ann Jane Mariar who is going to marry that half baked gawk, Ben Slowit, and she was disgusted. She could do better at home. And she spent $1.84—$1.75 for her ticket and nine cents for cakes and a paper of pins, she got at a seven-cent store—she bore that old cashmere dress she's worn a life time, on the car steps—O my! where was I?—O yes! she went straight to China Hall when she got home and got a lovely china tea set for so much less than she could in Toronto, that it made up for her expenses to the city. And she says they have terrible fine and cheap dishes at China Hall, and as she says, says she, 'Dead loads of 'em, too.'"

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,673,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600.00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,482 69	$1,148,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,366 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	363,264 31	2,962,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,807 24	4,029,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,604 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

What We Notice.

That the Fun Season is not over yet.
That our Stock of Furs will have to be renewed again if the demand keeps up like this.
That merit is the measure of success.
That it takes "sand" to get up head.
That it is often a little lonely at the top.
That we would like some of our competitors to "try, try again."
That we haven't pulled the ladder up after us.
That they can climb as well as we, if they learn how.
That our Pic-Nic Baskets are great sellers.
That it pays to advertise.
That a plain statement of facts is not boasting
That travel must be brisk judging from our large sales of Trunks and Valises.
That progression, not retrogression, is a good motto.
That there is no "long felt want" in our line which we have not got.
That "ROUTLEY" has become a familiar household word.
Even though he don't want all the earth.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

THE LATEST GOSSIP ABOUT THE CABINET VACANCIES.

Probability that the Postoffice Portfolio will not be Awarded at Present—Probable Position for Dr. Montague.

OTTAWA, July 4.—There was a meeting of Council yesterday, at which it is understood only what Sir John calls "Paris work" was done. It is rumored that all that is to be done for the present in the way of appointments has been done and only the return of the orders-in-council signed by the Governor are awaited before making the announcements.

Whether a new Postmaster-General has been appointed to succeed Hon. Mr. McLelan is somewhat doubtful and it will not be surprising to find that the portfolio is left vacant until the fall. This view is supported by the fact that Hon. Mr. Chapleau, whom rumor points to as the coming Postmaster-General, leaves to-day or to-morrow for Sherbrooke from whence he will start on Monday for Boston on his way to the Maritime Provinces. He will be accompanied by Dr. Montague, M. P., and other friends.

Apropos of the Doctor, there is a whisper that when that reconstruction takes place and the Minister of Trade and Commerce is appointed, with Comptrollers of Customs and Inland Revenue, the member for Haldimand will get one of the minor positions.

Sir Hector Langevin will leave to-morrow morning for Montreal, where he will remain a few hours and then proceed to Rimouski for a three weeks' vacation.

Gen. Middleton left yesterday to inspect the camps at Sherbrooke and Three Rivers. He will afterwards visit the Maritime provinces.

Sanford Fleming has received a letter from Principal Grant, dated Cape Town, in which he states that his health was greatly improved by the sea voyage.

These customs ratings were given during June: Acid phosphate powder for making baking powder, starch being usually one of the largest component parts, is subject to duty as such except it can be shown that it contains no starch in any particular case, 2c per lb; bronze wire as copper or brass, free; building plans as drawings, 20 p c; clinical thermometers in board or rubber cases, 25 p.c; French capers in vinegar under item 364 and 365; granulated silver, not further manufactured, free; imitation leather gimp, 30 p c; inside sliding window blinds, 25 p.c; land plaster, ground, 10c per 100 lbs; patent turpentine, a compound of petroleum spirit, 75c per gallon; porcelain opaque ware 25 p.c; resin oil, 20 p,c; wire window screens, 25 p.c.

In spite of the pressure brought to bear on the Government it has been decided to adhere to the close season for lobsters, which commenced July 1.

The Body Identified.

BISHOPS AT CANTERBURY.

GREAT GATHERING OF REPRESENTATIVES OF COLONIAL CHURCHES.

The Whistling Lady—Debut of Ellen Terry's Daughter—Edmund Yates' Weekly Letter of London Gossip.

LONDON, July 4.—There is not the slightest foundation for the statement in an evening paper that the Queen has been suffering from insomnia. Her Majesty is in her usual excellent health. Sir William Tenner has been twice at Windsor since the return of the Court, but these were merely the periodical visits which he always pays when the Queen is at the Castle.

History was made at Canterbury on Saturday, when, in the Metropolitan Cathedral of the Mother Church of England, were gathered together not fewer than one hundred bishops, most of whom preside over dioceses in the over-sea dominions of the Queen. The whole ceremony was most impressive. Processions of the local clergy, mayors and corporations, missionary collegians and scholars heralded and followed the long train of 90 bishops, among them one of the West Africa descent. The bishops ranged themselves on seats on the celebrated rising tiers of altar steps, peculiar to Canterbury cathedral, and the Primate taking his seat in the midst, in the chair of St. Augustine, delivered them an arch-Episcopal welcome. The chief lay representatives of the home and colonial churches were accommodated in the choir stalls. Mr. Talbot, representing Oxford and England, was on the dean's side, supporting the colonial secretary, Lord Knutsford, while on the vice-dean's side Scotch and Colonial lay sympathies were fitly personated by Sir C. Dalrimple and Sir George Baden Powell, the latter busy showing the places in his prayer book to his neighbor, the Syrian Bishop, Mr. Gregorious. Luncheons in the deanries and canonries preceded and teas and strawberries followed the services. At about 6 p. m. the lavish hospitality of the precincts was reluctantly abandoned by many who were compelled to return to town by special train.

Social gatherings last week were characterised by almost as much variety as the weather itself. Beginning with the farewell dinner to their bachelor friends given by Lord Carew and Mr. Fitz Roy Stewart, they have ended in the pilgrimage to Canterbury of the Anglican Bishops. The vagaries of our climate have rarely made themselves more severely felt. On Monday one tasted all the discomforts of a tropical summer, Wednesday found us in the midst of torrential rain, while Saturday brought us back once more to the showers and chilliness of an English April. Wednesday night was very fully occupied. Mr. Henry Lennox gave a small dinner for the King of Belgium. Liberal politicians found a haven of rest either at Mrs. T. P. O'Connor's or Mrs. Campbell-Bannerman's. Lord Rosebery, supported by Lord Londonderry, Lord Granville, Lord Herschel, Mr. Justice Chitty, the Bishop of London and other peers, prelates and prebendaries entertained Mr. William Rogers, grand of feature, broad of shoulders and deep of chest, at a dinner in Drapers' Hall. The dances went to Lady Goldsmid'sor Mrs. Dudley Smith's. Lady Goldsmid's ball will be remembered as one of the best cailions of this or any other season. The staircase was hung with double wreaths of pink peonies, the alcoves were lined with red roses in baskets, in the ball room the great chandelier was very effectively wreathed in flowers. Lady Goldsmid wore an empire gown of pale blue crepe de chine; with narrow trimming of gold embroidery. Her daughters were very mainly dressed in white mousseline de sole. The cotillion was very well led by Lady Goldsmid and Mr. Murray, and lasted till nearly five. The most novel feature was the distribution of butterflies and bouquets. The presents were useful as well as ornamental.

One of the brightest parties was given by Mrs. Wynore in Berkeley-square. The Blue Hungarians played and Miss Decvignes sang in a room festooned with shaded red roses. But the essential novelty of the programme was the performance of Mrs. Shaw, the well-known American whistler. The strength and freshness of Mrs. Shaw's notes fairly astonished her audience. Those who had not heard her were pardonably enthusiastic in their expressions of admiration. The comely lady whistler's engagement book is very full. Before the London season is over she will have whistled before all the highest personages in the land.

A debut of some interest, which took place on Wednesday evening in St. George's Hall, was that of Miss Ailsa Kraig, the pseudonym chosen by Miss Wardell, the daughter of Miss Ellen Terry. The young lady showed remarkable confidence, and, as might have been expected, considerable ability, particularly in the lighter parts of the dialogue entrusted to her. The piece itself in which she appeared was devoid of the slightest literary merit. It was, indeed, absolutely worthless as a test of her powers. The announcement of Miss Ellen Terry's name on the bills in letters some four inches long had attracted a large audience. Her appearance as Mary Jane, in a cotton frock and white apron, to hand in a letter was hailed with a storm of applause; then she vanished, having uttered three words, and appeared no more. It would be unkind to say more than that a good many friends and admirers of the actress of the century considered that they had been victims of a sell, but much was forgiven in the cause of charity. EDMUND YATES.

The Pope and the Plan.

LONDON, July 4.—The Chronicle's Rome correspondent says: Cardinal Moran, in a lengthy conversation with the Pope, while supporting the condemnation of the plan of campaign and boycotting, advised the Pope not to take too stern a view of the national movement lest the Catholic Irish and their sympathisers in America adopt an attitude of defiance toward the Vatican, and the Pope appears to have been influenced, and it is probable that he will be publicly neutral in future while secretly enforcing his views upon the Irish Episcopacy.

An Interesting Debut.

LONDON, July 4.—A debut of some interest, which took place on Wednesday evening in St. George's Hall, was that of Miss Ailsa Kraig, the pseudonym chosen by Miss Wardell, the daughter of Miss Ellen Terry. The young lady showed remarkable confidence, and, as might have been expected, considerable ability, particularly in the lighter parts of the dialog entrusted to her.

Mr. O'Brien's Hope.

LONDON, July 4.—At a fortnightly meeting of the National League in Dublin yesterday Mr. O'Brien said that he hoped he would not enter jail till Mr. Dillon was out. It was not part of the campaign, he said, for them to be jailed together.

Presbyterians in Council.

LONDON, July 4.—The Pan-Presbyterian Council opened yesterday. An eloquent sermon was preached by Dr. Dykes. There was a reception by the Duke of Argyle in the afternoon. Most of the Canadian delegates were present.

Lundy's Narrow Escape.

BLYTH, July 4.—While driving into Blyth Edward Lundy of Hullett Township had a very narrow escape from being instantly killed. As he drove up to the railway track, just outside the village, the engine of the 10.10 express caught the horse and killed both instantly. Lundy received a severe shaking up.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING.

The Minister of Education Returns from His American Tour.

TORONTO, July 4.—The Minister of Education has decided to ask his colleagues to allow him to establish, in the coming autumn, a lectureship in mechanical engineering in connection with the School of Practical Science. The aid in this step is to afford Canadian mechanics an opportunity to qualify themselves for high positions in their own line of business.

He has come to this conclusion on visiting in company with Professor Galbraith of the School of Practical Science, the principal universities of the New England States, Cornell University, Lehigh University, Hoboken Technical School and the Boston School of Technology. In some of the schools the young men were required not only to take their course of lectures in mechanical engineering, but they were required to do the practical part as well. Shops for the purpose, fitted with blacksmith's tools, lathes, are attached to the schools. In others the same line was followed, but in place of using the school's shop the students had access to others. Most of the schools had sufficient endowment to allow of almost any scheme their respective senates thought fit to advance. In the Cornell University there is a department for the study of architecture, in which the history of architecture is taught in addition to designing, ventilation and all details of the subject.

During the past fiscal year $959,175 was collected in the Inland Revenue office at Toronto.

Real estate in Toronto is much quieter than it has been for a long time. At the Real Estate Exchange yesterday every property offered at auction yesterday, with one exception, had to be withdrawn.

The examination for junior matriculation into Toronto University began yesterday. In all 235 pupils are writing. Of these 47 present their second class certificates pro tanto, 10 are candidates for the partial or local examinations, and 7 for matriculation in medicine. Twenty-six ladies and 75 men write at the University in Toronto and the others at the High Schools they attend. In all 39 ladies write.

Mr. Acton Burrows, of The Winnipeg Call, is in the city. He is buying a new outfit for The Call, which had its regular burnout a few months ago.

Deputy Reeve Stubbs, of Caledon, insists that he will go to the polls as an Independent Conservative candidate for the Commons for Cardwell.

There are now three vacant seats in the Legislature. These are East Elgin, North Lanark and Frontenac. At the late general election the Liberals carried East Elgin by a majority of 90 and North Lanark by a majority of 92, and the Conservatives carried Frontenac by 335 of a majority. Each vacancy was caused by death.

The body of George Slee, 127 Davenport-road, who has been missing since Friday, was found yesterday morning in the Don. The manner in which he met his death is unknown. An inquest will be held.

Mr. A. E. Mackay, assistant-secretary of the Industrial Exhibition, has again resumed duties at the office of the association, having just returned from an extended trip to England, visiting there the different exhibitions and negotiating for special attractions suitable to Canada's Great Fair. Numerous applications have already been made for space. Intending exhibitors should give early notice.

The witnesses in the Buckley case who have been confined in jail since the coroner's jury brought in a verdict of wilful murder against Buckley, have been released by order of Judge MacMahon.

THE PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

Proceedings of the First Day's Session at Montreal.

MONTREAL, July 4.—The National Prohibition Convention opened here yesterday, about 200 delegates being present. Senator Vidal, President of the Dominion Alliance, was in the chair and made a brief address. The Executive Committee of the Dominion Alliance presented a report giving a brief review of the history of the movement since the former Montreal convention in 1885.

Ex-Mayor Howland of Toronto was elected Permanent President; S. A. Fisher, M.P., and John Parsons, Vice-Presidents; and J. H. Laud and Rev. James Kines joint Secretaries.

Most of the day was occupied in discussing the question whether the Scott Act was a failure, and several resolutions were offered, including one expressing confidence in the Scott Act, a second in favor of forming a prohibition party, a third in favor of more advanced legislation than the Scott Act, and a fourth in favor of the formation of a third party, but all were referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

A Partial Prohibition Scheme.

TORONTO, July 4.—James Beaty, jr., Q.C., has prepared a draft of an act which he suggests as a substitute for the Scott Act, recently repealed in so many places where it has been in force. His proposed bill aims at the prohibition of the manufacture and importation of all ardent spirits, such as brandy, rum, gin and whisky, or combinations thereof, also the adulterations of ales, beers or wines, and the adding thereto of ardent spirits in any form. By this means he hopes to accomplish a large measure of the results prohibitionists are aiming at, and he urges all temperance men and temperate people to unite in pressing for its adoption.

A Perilous Voyage.

MONTREAL, July 4.—A young Belgian named Arthur Liessens, living at Lachine, borrowed a boat on Friday last and went for a row, but never having handled an oar he was soon carried down by the current. When the rapids came in sight he abandoned the oars and lay down in the bottom of the boat. From wave to wave the boat was tossed, but strange to say he came through safely and reached the Jacques Cartier wharf, having been five hours in making the trip.

A MONTREAL BIGAMIST.

Who Sought the Seclusion of Boston—The Harbor Improvement Bonds.

MONTREAL, July 4.—Mrs. Hudson, a respectable milliner of this city, was a passenger by the train from Boston yesterday, where she had been instituting proceedings for bigamy against her husband, who she alleges deserted her and her two young children some years ago and married a Miss Alice Hall of Sherbrooke in Boston, with whom he has been residing ever since.

CONVICTED BY PERJURY.

A Sensational Development in the Doyle Murder Case.

HALIFAX, July 4.—The case of William Presper, convicted a short time ago of the murder of Peter Doyle, has assumed a sensational aspect by reason of the receipt of two letters by Mrs. Doyle, the murdered man's wife who is now in jail awaiting a new trial as an accessory, from her sister Emily Dillman, on whose evidence Presper was convicted. One of the letters was sent by post and fell into the hands of the authorities, creating no small astonishment, as it admitted that Emily's evidence at the trial was false. The other was brought to the jail by a sister of Mrs. Doyle and corroborated the statements in the former letter.

SCHOOL ACCOMMODATION.

Peterborough Must Have More of It.

A New Public School in the North Ward —The Inspector Says the Collegiate Institute Must be Improved or Reduced in Status—Other Educational Matters.

A quorum appeared for the school board meeting Tuesday evening, Chairman Stevenson and Messrs. Dumble, Deane, A. Rutherford, Kendry, Weir, Wrighton, English and Stratton assembling by eight o'clock. Messrs. J. L. Hughes, J. O'Meara, T. Rutherford and Dr. Burnham soon afterwards entered.

After the reading of the minutes, Mr. Dumble inquired if Mr. T. A. Rowan had accepted the $50 offered in settlement of his claim. The secretary replied that he had.

A communication was received from the Department stating that the Minister of Education would be unable to visit the Collegiate Institute, but was prepared to consider any statement regarding it.

Mr. Geo. S. Bean's letter of resignation of his position on the teaching staff of the Institute was accepted.

Miss J. Ellsworth asked leave to attend the Normal School a couple of months this fall and asked to be relieved from her duties in the meanwhile. Mrs. L. A. Fowler applied for the position in case Miss Ellsworth's petition was granted. On motion of Mr. Stratton, seconded by Mr. Hughes, Miss Ellsworth was granted leave of absence and Mrs. Fowler was appointed to fill her place pro tem.

Mrs. Katherine Chalmers notified the board that she had a claim on the property offered as a north ward school site, and would resist its sale. The communication was referred to the Property Committee

FEES.—Collegiate Institute, May $168, June $177; Public schools, May $8, June $7.

A couple of accounts, T. Menzies for $4.28 and the Review for $6.80, were ordered to be paid when certified to.

THE COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

The following report of Inspector Hodgson on his visit to the Collegiate Institute on June 11th and 13th, was read and received :

ACCOMMODATIONS (the grading ranges from I, the highest, to IV, the lowest).—Water closets, III, new tops to seats, partitions have been made, repainted; water supply, III; school grounds, 0, the park is close by and the pupils have the use of it; school buildings, III; class rooms, IV; halls, 0; waiting-room, 0; cap-rooms, 0; teachers' private rooms, III; desks, III; twenty-four new desks have been put in; lighting, IV; heating, II; ventilation, III.

EQUIPMENT.—Library, I, value at date of last inspection $492.60, value of additions since made $63.70 ; apparatus I, value, $479.-84 ; charts, maps and globes, value, $142.50, new maps of Africa and India are needed ; appliances for physical education, twenty pairs of wooden dumb bells and an equal number of Indian clubs.

[The attendance of pupils and the classification of their studies, the personnel of the teaching staff and the character of the teaching were next given] Organization, I, discipline I. As regards the teaching power of the staff this Institute is in a better position than on the occasions of my former visit. Sergt-Major Rundle's teaching of drill and calisthenics is worthy of special commendation.

MISCELLANEOUS—Subjects on the programme but not taught, shorthand and music ; the reading of the girls is far better than that of the boys ; text books used, the authorised list only ; state of school register, satisfactory, fees per year; residents $5, non-residents $22.50.

As regards "equipment" and (with an exception mentioned within) "staff," this Institute meets the requirements of the Education Department. As regards "accommodations," however, I have to call attention to the following defects :—(1) There is no gymnasium ; (2) the science class-room is not fitted up with tables for practical work by the pupils ; (3) the internal arrangement of the building is such that no adequate provision is made for (a) halls, (b) cap rooms, (c) waiting rooms and (d) very little for ventilation. The removal of these defects, especially 1, 2, a and d of 3, should be a condition of the retention of Collegiate Institute standing. I therefore recommend that the special Collegiate Institute grant be withheld until the regulations regarding accommodations have been complied with.

FINANCE.

Dr. Burnham presented the report of the Finance Committee, recommending payment of the following accounts :—

Sailsbury and Co	$ 4 85
W Bruce	1 50
J D Baptie	10 00
Times	3 38
Gas Co	3 25
D Baptie (when certified to)	7 00

The report was adopted.

THE NORTH WARD SCHOOL.

Mr. Kendry, chairman of the committee appointed to purchase a site for the new north ward school building, reported recommending the purchase of a lot from Mr. Geo. A. Cox, on Barnardo avenue for the sum of $1600. He moved its adoption.

There was considerable discussion on the report. Mr. A. Rutherford while favoring the purchase of a site thought the one selected not the best adapted for the purpose and it was, besides, too high priced. Mr. Stratton didn't find fault with the recommendation in the report, but moved that the report be not adopted, but that they appoint a special committee to look after it and the question of the Collegiate Institute building improvements, as per inspector's report, and, in conjunction, estimate the total cost and report. Messrs. Dumble, Deane, Weir, Kendry and T. Rutherford thought the report should be adopted, the first named trustee objecting only on the ground that the price was too high. Mr. Hughes believed in making haste slowly, and thought it would be better to consider the new school and the Collegiate Institute jointly.

Mr. Stratton then withdrew his former resolution and moved, seconded by Mr. Hughes, that the report of the committee be adopted and the matter be left in the hands of a committee composed of Messrs. Deane, Dumble, Weir, O'Meara, Wrighton, English, A. Rutherford, Kendry, and the mover and seconder. The motion was carried.

MOTIONS.

Mr. Stratton moved, seconded by Mr. O'Meara, that the chairman of the school supervision committee provide maps of India and Africa for the opening of the Collegiate Institute.—Carried.

Mr. Deane moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry, that in future no orders be accepted by the board unless ordered by the chairman of a committee or the board—Carried.

Mr. Hughes moved, seconded by Mr. English, that the salaries of no employes of the board be increased for at least one year from the date of their employment, and that the question of salaries shall only be considered at the commencement of each year.—Carried.

Mr. Dumble introduced a by-law to authorise the borrowing of $12,000 from the Ontario Bank for school purposes. The by-law was passed and the board adjourned.

No. 12, Peterborough.

To the Architects and Builders of the Town of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN.—The members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 12, Peterborough, have decided to take no sub-contracts after the 1st day of June, 1888. We take this step, believing it to be to the interest of Architects and Proprietors of buildings, to deal directly with us, and not as heretofore, letting our branch of work to Carpenters, and then have them sublet it to us, frequently at a loss to owners of buildings through inferior material being used to secure the carpenter a profit. We therefore, consider it would be to the interest of all concerned, to have each trade control its own line of work.

THE MARKETS REVIEWED.

Leading Features of Toronto's Local Grain and Produce Markets.

TORONTO, July 3.—Business was quiet on the St Lawrence Market this morning. Vegetables were in good supply, but there was no particular new feature in the market. New Canadian peas were cheaper, selling at 25c a peck, tomatoes were higher, selling at 12½c per lb. New gooseberries brought 10c per quart. There was no change in the meat market.

On the hay market business was brisk and wet timothy came down from $20 to $18 per ton.

On the street market this afternoon 500 bushels of wheat were sold at 98c for fall, 87c for spring and 76c for goose; a few loads of oats sold at 53½c per bushel.

Butter is getting scarce since the advent of the hot spell. Very little roll is offered. Tub sells from 15c to 16c; roll 16c to 17c. Creamery is moving rapidly at from 21c to 22½c.

Eggs are nominal and firm at 15c per dozen.

Fruits.

The receipts of strawberries were liberal to-day, coming from the Niagara district, Oakville and interior points. Quotations by the case are from 7 to 15 cents a box, according to quality. The general run is 9 cents. Gooseberries are quoted at from 70c to 80c a basket on the wharf. Watermelons are being sold by commission men at from 30c to 50c.

Hungary's Attitude.

PESTH, July 4.—Count Apponyi, in a speech yesterday said: "Foreign papers again predict that we will be forced to yield to Russia in regard to Bulgaria, but the whole Hungarian nation insists that it cannot allow even a hair breadth's infringement of the treaty rights of its Balkan neighbor. We do not arrogate to ourselves any special rights in the Balkans but neither can we allow other Powers to assume greater rights than are accorded them by the Berlin Treaty. We want peace. It is our firm conviction that resolution means peace, while vacillation means a long-continued war.

The French Government Sustained.

PARIS, July 4.—The Chamber of Deputies yesterday discussed an interpellation regarding the action of the Minister of Justice in removing an assistant procureur at Carcassonne for enforcing a sentence of imprisonment upon the Mayor of that town, who had been convicted of corrupt practices at an election. M. Floquet explained that the Mayor was seriously ill at the time of the election and could not have been guilty of the charge made against him. The Chamber by a vote of 336 to 176 declared its confidence in the Government.

Rheumatic Pains

Require no description, since with rare exception, all at some time have experienced their twinges. Rheumatism is not easily dislodged, only the most powerfully penetrating remedies reach to its very foundations. The most successful treatment known, and it is now frequently resorted to by medical men, is the application of that now famous remedy for pain—Polson's Nerviline. It is safe to say that nothing yet discovered has afforded equal satisfaction to the suffering. A trial can be made at a small cost, as sample bottles of Nerviline can be had at the drug store for 10 cents, large bottles 25 cents. 6d28w

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. From Moropane, Man.

Mr. Joseph Clark writes—"All last winter I was so bad with Inflammatory Rheumatism that I was not expected to live. I used no other medicine but Burdock Blood Bitters and can now get around again feeling better than I ever was before I was taken sick, and I owe it all to Burdock Blood Bitters." 2w26d

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Worth Remembering.

Mr. Jas. Binnie, of Toronto, states that his little baby when three months old was so ill with summer complaint that under doctor's treatment her life was despaired of. Four doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cured her. She is now fat and hearty. 2w26d

A Distressing Disease.

"I wish to give my testimony in favor of Burdock Blood Bitters. I had been troubled with Erysipelas and was induced to try this valuable medicine. I have used three bottles and am now well as ever." Mrs. L. Pinch, Cedar Creek, Ont. 2w26d

Undeniably True.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and found it a sure cure for summer complaint. I was very sick and it cured me entirely." Mr. Alexander W. Grant, Moose Creek, Ont. 2w26.1

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Daily Examiner.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4, 1888.

The Weather.

Moderate to fresh south to south-west winds; mostly fair, with a few local thunderstorms; stationary or higher temperatures.

From the Governor General's Wife.

This morning the wife of a prominent citizen received an autograph letter from Lady Stanley, stating that she was preparing for a summer boating and fishing cruise, and she had read so much in the EXAMINER about the golden lion that she would like to have samples of lawn tennis suiting materials, flannels, etc., sent to her at Rideau Hall before July 6th, so that she could make a selection and give her order.

Beautiful Property.

The Roman Catholic Park Lot which for so long a time has been looked at with hungry eyes is at last being put in the market. It lies between two of the best streets in Peterborough, Gilmour street especially is the fashionable street of the town. The lots will be sold off at low prices as money is needed for church purposes.

As soon as building operations are begun on this property there will be a rapid advance in value. The sale will afford a good investment for all who desire a safe thing and a chance for a little speculation. dw

A Bobcaygeon Burglary.

About two o'clock Saturday morning burglars entered the house of James Leary, postmaster at King's Wharf, eight miles south of Bobcaygeon, and made off with fifty dollars in cash, all being in a sound sleep until a terrible explosion in the neighborhood of the barn awoke the family. Mr. Leary, on looking out, saw his barn on fire. He ran out in hopes of saving some farming utensils, but was met by two tough looking customers who fired two shots at him, one taking effect in his leg, and the other passing through his shirt. The parties made off, and are still at large.

Thanks.

The committee of the Peterborough Protestant Home thankfully acknowledge the following donations for June:—Mrs. Aldridge, hat and toys; Mrs. Herbert Hammond, collection toys, twice; Mr. C. W. Sawyers, pair boots and parcel clothing; Mrs. Tom Rubidge, garden chair and mats; Mrs. H. Grundy, milk daily; Capt. Annesley, rhubarb; Mrs. Halliday, feather bed and couch; West end greenhouse, seedlings and rhubarb; from a friend, $1 worth of bread tickets; from Central school pic nic, cakes; from a friend, cushion, etc.; Mr. F. Mason, flowers; Miss Roger, table cover and stockings; Mrs. Ferguson, "High Park," provisions from social; Mrs. Joseph Lounsley, vegetables; Mr. Quirk, tobacco; Mrs. Stutt, parcel reading matter.

Another Burglary.

Last night a little before twelve the police heard a noise in the rear, as they thought, of of Routley's fancy goods store. Burglars were at once thought of and on investigation a burglar was found trying to effect an entrance in the rear of, not Routley's, but the store of Gough Bros., next door. The rascal was nabbed in the very act, and strange to say, he made no resistance, but treated his offence as a trifling matter. He said he wanted a suit of clothes; he arrived from Lindsay by train, after the shops were shut and he didn't think it would be any harm to take a suit of clothes, for Gough Bros., advertise clothing so cheap that it was like giving them away and he thought it would be all right, under the circumstances to help himself. See how the fame of this great clothing house extends itself. The biggest stock of clothing in Peterborough offered so cheap that the public think the price is a mere formality. Call at Gough Bros.

Expanding.

It is a pleasure to record that Mr. W. H. Hill has just added to his Central Ontario agency for the Sun Insurance Company the counties of Lennox & Addington. Six years ago he began with one county (Peterborough) and now his agency comprises seven counties with Peterborough as headquarters. Mr. Hill has a staff of six men employed, with Mr. Jas. Little as inspector. The business of the Central Ontario agency in 1887 was largely in excess of that in any previous year; and the business in 1888 promises to much exceed that of 1887, as the life and accident policies written, up to the end of June (first six months of '88, are far beyond that written for the same, time in, 87. The Sun Life stood second to none in point of profitable business for the year 1887, as its printed reports show. Its progress has been simply astonishing considering the hard times, and few companies are now as well and favorably known as the Sun. Mr. Hill is to be congratulated upon the success he has attained in the insurance business.

The Land side Capture of Quebec.

A latter-day rival of Gen Wolf has arisen in Peterborough. The hero of the capture of Quebec from the water side, over a century ago, was in the harness of war, but W. J. Devlin captures Quebec from the land side with the harness of peace, and first class harness they are too. On June 27th he received a letter from Quebec, enclosing draft for the price of an order for harness filled by Mr. W. J. Devlin, Hunter street. The harness gives satisfaction in every respect. One man gets a tip top lot of harness and tells his neighbour how good they are and Devlin gets another order. No higher praise can be given to the excellence of his harness. He gives no "cut" prices with his harness, yet Quebec customers pay the price without grumbling, and the added freight. W. J. Devlin, Hunter street, will soon be as well known for good work abroad as he is at home.

An Ashburnham Missioner Abroad.

The Cobourg Sentinel-Star has an extended report of the successful nine-days' mission conducted at Centreton by Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, Rector of St. Luke's, which closed on June 27th. The report says:—"The missioner entered upon his work in a very hearty manner, which was quite readily taken up by those who were present during the whole series of services. A well-considered scheme of subjects, covering the ground of all that it is necessary for a Christian to know and believe, was faithfully carried out, comprised the following: Preliminary address based on the motto, Zach. iv., 6, "Not by might, etc.;" God's call, means of grace, God's love, prayer, sin, Holy Scripture, repentance, value of soul, impurity, forgiveness, public worship, faith, self-examination, conversion, communion, obedience. Throughout the "mission" the attendance at all the services was markedly good. * * * * * The addresses of the missioner were characterized with an earnestness in delivery and simplicity of language which never failed in riveting the attention of all present, and in bringing home to each individual his or her weak point, and at once indicating the source of strength and salvation. On Sunday the missioner kindly undertook the whole of the morning service, with celebration in addition to preaching the sermon. In the afternoon (of Sunday) at 3.30, a special service for men only, and boys over fourteen, was held, at which a lengthy address was given. The attention paid to the speaker on this occasion was something wonderful; eyes and ears were actually strained to catch what was being said. Though the subject—Impurity—was a difficult one to handle, as those of experience in such matters are aware, great caution and precision was used in dealing with it. Much good has already resulted from the work, and we feel that God has been with us, blessing us and speaking to our souls through the instrumentality of His servant, who freely and willingly undertook to come amongst us. A number of persons received the Holy Communion for the first time at this service."

Bicycle Race.

At a meeting of the Peterborough Bicycle Club Tuesday evening it was decided to hold races on the P. A. A. A. course some evening next week. It is probable the races will be run under the electric light. There will also be an illuminated bicycle parade of the wheelmen through the streets. The programme and other particulars of the races will be announced later.

The Regatta.

Next Monday evening another regatta will be held on Little Lake, under the auspices of the Lansdowne Rowing Club and the Otonabee Canoe Club. A complete programme of races will be arranged.

A meeting of the Canoe Club is called for Friday evening at the boat-house to prepare for the regatta.

Spots of Sport.

Mr. Harry Allen, of Peterborough, was a judge at the Port Hope Dominion Day races.

Refering to the lacrosse match on Dominion Day the Port Hope Times says:—"More practice is all Port Hope wants; the men who practice played well and to win, but the raw material was, we are sorry to say, not "too rare." Peterboro' has a fine lot of fellows, who play a winning game and show their practice and team work. In this, as in the last Lindsay match, it was team play that told against Port Hope's strong single-handed fighting.

The semi-monthly meet of the P. A. A. A. lawn tennis club which was to have been held on Thursday last, but was postponed on account of the rainy weather, will be held to-morrow (Thursday the 5th inst., at 4.30 p.m. All members and their lady friends are invited to be present.

A cricket match has been arranged between Ontario County and Peterborough, to be played here on Friday, July 13th.

A baseball match will be played on the P. A. A. A. grounds this evening between the Peterborough team and a picked nine of the Lock Work's and Wm. Hamiltons work's clubs.

Mr. Geo. Schofield, of Peterborough, was a "clerk of the course" at the Belleville bicycle meet.

The Belleville Intelligencer says:—"R. M. Roy, of Peterborough was in the press stand at the meet races yesterday photographing the finish of the more important and best contested races. When the quarters became too crowded he moved his operations to the roof of the caretaker's building and worked from the top of a chimney. He was bound to get there."

Following are the results of this morning's International League baseball games, all played at the American cities:—Rochester 7, Toronto 4; Syracuse 12, Hamilton 3; Buffalo 3, London 4.

Picnic and Presentation.

On Tuesday, the 26th ult., the Sunday School in connection with the Wesleyan church, 16th concession, Smith, held their annual picnic in Montgomery's Grove. A large crowd was present. Games and amusements were indulged in until tea was served. It was a grand spread. After tea Mr. J. R. Craft, Superintendent of Sunday school, was called to the chair and a programme, consisting of music, readings and speeches, was rendered, to the satisfaction and delight of all. Towards the close, the pastor, Rev. A. L. Adam, solicited subscriptions in aid of the Sunday school fund, and $22.00 was raised. Afterwards he made a short address, in which he referred to the progress of the work during the past two years, which he attributed to the faithful work of his predecessors, and the zeal that the people had manifested throughout the mission for the cause of God.

The following address was then presented to Mr. Adam:—

REV. MR. ADAM:

DEAR SIR,—We, the members of Wesley Sunday School, together with a few friends, desire to convey to Mrs. Adam, through you, our sorrow and regret at her departure from among us. During her short sojourn here, she has won the good will of all. As Sunday school teacher and church organist, she filled her place with more than ordinary ability. We now request her acceptance of this ten dollar gold piece as a small token of our esteem. We are sorry she is unable to be present on this occasion, and trust she will soon be restored to her usual health. In conclusion, we take the opportunity, on this, the eve of your departure from our midst, of wishing yourself and your amiable and estimable lady (Mrs. Adam) all the blessings of life, and trust that your pathway may be illumined by the sun of prosperity and happiness, and that we may all meet in the upper and better world, to part no more.

Signed on behalf of the Sunday School and friends—

J. R. CRAFT,
STEPHEN HARRISON.

Mr. Adam replied in suitable terms, referring to the kindness of the people throughout the circuit during his pastorate.

Mr. Adam was also kindly presented with a purse of about $14 00 by his Bible class in Buckhorn on the preceding Thursday.

"It's the great conundrum of my life how to make ends meet. Two years ago I was a prosperous man; I built a nice new house, and my ambitious wife must have new furniture, which was got. Then she must have new dishes, but there was nothing good enough for her in Peterborough. I went to Toronto to get them, fell in with a fast set and kept it up with another fast set at home, and above you see a picture of my present self as a tee-tal wreck. If I had had sense enough to resist my wife's idiotic vanity and had purchased our dishes at China Hall, Peterborough, where they, as well as every thing else in it's line, can be bought cheaper and better, I'd have been a happy man to-day, and would have a plate and something to eat of it, too. Moral.—Don't be a second hand fool—even if your wife wants to play first fiddle in that line, but when you want anything cheap, tasty and good in Crockery, Glassware or Silverware, go to

THE TIMES LIBEL SUIT.

AN EXTREMELY SHARP MOVE BY A JUNIOR COUNSEL.

More News About Stanley—The House of Commons to Remain in Session till September—A Buoyant Feeling in Berlin.

LONDON, July 5.—The decision of Junior Counsel Reugg to put his client, Mr. Frank Hugh O'Donnell, in the witness box, was an extremely sharp move in the libel suit which he brought against The Times, since it prevents Mr. O'Donnell's cross-examination upon political matters and practically kills The Times' scheme contemplating a gigantic onslaught upon the National League and Parnellism, and confines the case to two points, the first one being the question whether Mr. O'Donnell was a prominent Parnellite and the second whether The Times' articles applied to him.

A great deal of fun has been had by The Times' partisans at the expense of Mr. Reugg, whose insignificant appearance beside the imposing presence of some of The Times' counsel, together with his inexperience at the bar, has led his opponents to hold him very cheaply as an antagonist, but his conduct of the case thus far has certainly shown the opinions of his critics to be unwarranted. As far as the case has gone Mr. Reugg unquestionably has had the best of it. Among the Irish witnesses for The Times in court yesterday were Col. Forbes and Capt. Plunkett, of the Irish police, and the daughters of Farmer Curtis, who was killed by moonlighters a year or so ago. The Times' counsel was palpably irritated at the Lord Chief Justice's exclusion of extraneous questions and plainly showed that their case was greatly weakened thereby.

When the trial was resumed yesterday Attorney-General Webster for the defence quoted from speeches in favor of boycotting made by Parnellite members of parliament. He said the defence intended to prove the genuineness of the documents published in The Times, but they would not reveal who disclosed them, even though such action should result in a verdict for the plaintiff. He then read letters with a view of showing that the League instigated the Phœnix Park murders.

The reported intention of Emperor William to propose that the powers greatly reduce their armaments has created a decidedly buoyant feeling in Berlin. If the Emperor really does make such a proposition, and it is agreed to by the Czar, all of the powers outside of the triple alliance will be compelled to follow the example set. It is believed, however, that France would resist such a move on the ground that it was merely a device on the part of Germany to impair the military strength of a supposed enemy, and perhaps Russia would not accede to the proposition if France strenuously and reasonably objected to it.

The report comes from an excellent source and is probably correct, that the House of Commons is likely to remain in session until September. The slowness with which the Local Government Bill moves toward final action is due chiefly to technical objections based on the wretched draughting of the measure, which defective construction may possibly lead to its defeat at the hands of its friends.

The Emin Pasha Relief Committee in London has received letters from Major Barttelot and Messrs. Troup and Ward, by which it appears that the stories of Stanley being wounded and his expedition in peril are alleged to have come from deserters from his force who reached an Arab camp thirteen days' march from Yambuga. No white men had seen the deserters, and the three writers said they did not believe the rumors.

A SORROWFUL MEETING.

The Mother of Maxwell, the Condemned Murderer, Visits Him.

ST. LOUIS, July 5.—Mrs. S. N. Brooks, mother of Hugh M. Brooks, alias Maxwell, the chloroformer, and her daughter Annie, arrived here on Tuesday from Hyde, Eng., and later in the day had an interview with young Brooks at the jail. They were not permitted to enter the cell department of the prison, that being contrary to the rule, but they held a long and earnest conversation with the son and brother through the wire screen or netting which separates the jail proper from the cage in which friends or relatives are allowed to see and talk with prisoners. The meeting was tearful and affectionate and continued for more than two hours, but the particular nature of the conversation is not known.

When it was learned that the ladies were in the jail a crowd congregated in the halls leading to the cage, but the doors were closed and nobody was permitted to intrude upon the privacy of the visitors. Mrs. Brooks is stopping at the house of one of the attorneys of her son, and will remain here at least until it is decidedly known whether her boy's sentence will be commuted. She will be at Jefferson City on July 8, when Governor Morehouse will hear an appeal for commutation of sentence by Brooks' attorneys, and she and her daughter will make personal pleas for the life of their son and brother, and present letters and documents in his behalf.

CONCOCTED BY SCHEMERS.

THE STORY ABOUT SMALLPOX AT QUEBEC DENIED.

The Tare Pleuro-Pneumonia Rumor also Fabricated by Interested Parties—The Northwest Experimental Farms.

OTTAWA, July 5.—Hon. Mr. Carling, Minister of Agriculture, on being interviewed denied that any cases of smallpox had just developed themselves among passengers who had landed from one of the ocean steamers after a clear bill of health had been declared. "These stories," said Mr. Carling, "are concocted by interested parties. The same thing occurred at Tara in regard to alleged pleuro-pneumonia and we exposed the fallacy of it. It would be almost impossible for any steamer to arrive at Quebec with smallpox on board and should this occur the vessel would have to return to Grosse Isle under heavy demurrage."

No decision has yet been arrived at with regard to appealing the Ayer case. The talk of suing the Crown for damages is nonsense, as a suit cannot be entered against the Crown without its consent.

Struck by Lightning.

MACLEOD, July 5.—During a severe thunder storm on Monday at the upper agency of the Blood Reserve, the lightning struck and killed a Blood Indian, and also struck a white man named Hughes. Two horses were also killed and another Indian, and a mule received severe but not serious shocks. Hughes and the Indian were hauling wood for the agency, and at this time they were near the house and about 100 yards apart. No one knew just how the thing happened, but Hughes seems to have been struck on the top of the head, the fluid passing down his left side, burning off his whiskers and tearing his clothes off on that side. His left boot was ripped off, and not a vestige of it could be found. The Indian, 100 yards away, was killed. One of Hughes' horses was killed, and then, the lightning skipping the next two horses, killed the farthest one away in the Indian team. The other horses escaped injury, being only slightly stunned. Jos. Healey, another Indian, was stunned, but came around all right. Dr. Girard, who was at the lower agency, was sent for, and did all in his power for Hughes, but his recovery is doubtful.

Gone to Live with No. 2.

BELLEVILLE, July 5.—Rosa Arabella McDonald, convicted of bigamy, was discharged from custody yesterday. She served just one week from the time of her arrest. At the trial Saturday afternoon witnesses were called to prove her marriage to both husbands. At the first wedding the story of the girl that she was drunk before the minister arrived was denied by several witnesses. The whisky was brought out after the ceremony was over. Husband No. 1 who has a cork leg gave Rosa $200 as a wedding present but he took it away from her again. He was seeking alms about the city at the time, while from the evidence it would appear he had plenty of money. When Rosa was discharged to-day she went to live with her husband No. 2.

FOOLHARDY FLACK FAILS.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF THE NIAGARA MAELSTROM.

The Fate of the Phantom and its Solitary Occupant—The Tragic Voyage Viewed by Thousands of Spectators.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 5.—True to his announcement, Robert William Flack of Syracuse, with his life-saving boat the Phantom, attempted to shoot the rapids yesterday afternoon, and his foolhardy trip cost him his life. The Phantom was taken down to the old Maid of the Mist landing on the American side and launched in the river just above the Cantilever Bridge. Flack left the hotel at 2.15 o'clock and at 2.45 he was seated all ready for the start. Above the sides of the boat from above the hips to the top of his head he could be seen by the thousands of spectators that lined both sides of the river. At 2.25 he commenced to turn the crank and the Phantom began to move out into the river under the Cantilever Bridge. By the time he passed under the Cantilever Bridge the craft was in the centre of the river in the swift current and moved faster and faster, Flack throwing kisses to the spectators.

When it reached the railway suspension bridge it dashed under it like an arrow from a bow, Flack doing his utmost to steer it towards the Canadian side, and when it reached the first rapids one struck it broadside and turned it in a complete summersault, after which she righted herself and Flack was seen working the paddles, and the little craft soon righted herself and rode the other large rapids gracefully until it reached the whirlpool rapids observation pavilion, where the waters roll mountains high. Here a large wave struck and swelled over the boat, completely submerging it and its occupant for fully thirty seconds. When she emerged from the breaker Flack was seen to shake his head and wave both his hands.

The Phantom then rode all right until it reached the maelstrom of the Whirlpool, at the place known as Capt. Webb's point. At this point the little craft was struck broadside by a large breaker and turned upside down. It remained that way sailing into the Whirlpool, and undoubtedly Flack was unable to right it, and the weight of his body keeping it in that position drowned him. The Phantom made five trips around the pool upside down before anyone could reach her. It took about one hour for her to make these circles.

Alock Percy, the young man who successfully navigated the rapids last summer by means of his air-tight boat, and was to race Flack through the rapids provided he was successful yesterday, was present as a spectator at the American side of the whirlpool, and knowing there would be no opportunity to secure Flack and his boat from the pool before passing out of the whirlpool and down the lower rapids, he engaged a hack, drove across the bridge and down to the Canadian side of the whirlpool, and when Flack, under his boat, was making the usual last circle around the pool he jumped into the river and swam out and towed the boat ashore.

When the Phantom was turned over there was Flack dead and the pin in the buckle of the belt out. Undoubtedly Flack seeing he was unable to right the boat attempted to extricate himself from the fastening and failed. His body was brought up to the top of the river bank and brought up to the bridge where Coroner Lewis viewed it and allowed his friends to take it across to the American side of the river.

THE PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

Compensation Denounced—A Vote of Confidence in the Scott Act.

MONTREAL, July 5.—At the National Prohibition Convention this resolution was adopted: "That, whereas the question of compensation to those engaged in the liquor business in case of prohibition has engaged the attention of Parliament, this convention utterly denies that they are in any wise entitled to such compensation."

A report of the Committee on Law Enforcement, holding the constitutional authorities responsible for the due enforcement of all liquor laws and deprecating in strong terms any attempt to take away from citizens the right of private prosecution was adopted.

Another report expressing confidence in the Scott Act, and calling upon friends in Scott Act counties to stand loyally by it, was adopted.

A resolution in favor of the formation of a third party was negatived—109 to 60.

Pitcher's Case.

MONTREAL, July 5.—In the Pitcher case yesterday, Judge Desnoyers overruled the objection by prisoner's counsel as to Detective Kellert giving evidence regarding his admissions. He also rejected the application to have Kellert, before proceeding with further evidence, to state what inducements were offered him before he made any of the alleged admissions. Questions were also asked regarding other moneys besides that found on the prisoner's person, to which his counsel objected, but the objection was overruled, the magistrate deciding that they should give all the information they could.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE OR HIGH SCHOOL?

For some time past there has been considerable attention devoted to the matter of equipment of our Collegiate Institute, in regard to making it answer to the demands of the Departmental regulations. More than one inspector has reported upon the subject, and the last report of Inspector Hodgson is very much like an ultimatum which cannot be disregarded without our Institute being degraded to the standing of an ordinary High School, with the loss of government grant and prestige involved. The question is not of the utility of the Collegiate Institute as a complement of our system of popular education, nor of its existence in the interests of the people, though the fact must not be disregarded that upon the success of our higher schools depends that of our public schools. In 1886 out of 7674 pupils of the higher schools, 5,777 were preparing for the teaching profession. In fact the Collegiate Institute or the High School is the only means available to the ambitious and studious son or daughter of a poor man for fitting himself or herself for teaching, commercial life or other station requiring the knowledge an Institute is designed to impart. The Normal Schools are in urban centres and the expense of attending them bars those of moderate means from taking advantage of them. But the higher schools can be used and the students remain at home—enjoying Collegiate advantages at their own doors at a merely nominal expense. The loss of prestige the town will sustain will be another important consideration as a consequence of the degradation of the Institute to the level of a High School. Peterborough is pointed to as the first town of the Province in every respect, but if she relinquishes her lead in the matter of education, other rival and jealous towns will be able to point the finger of scorn at her, and this will have a material effect. Outsiders seeking a place of residence,—people who have made a competency in business—seek a place which has the most advantages, the first of which are educational advantages. We should be a pretty laughing stock if in educational or other respects we fell behind other and smaller towns. In Ontario there are twenty-four Collegiate Institutes. Of these, thirteen are maintained in towns of less population and far less commercial importance than Peterborough. Ridgetown, with a population of less than 1,000, has an Institute, and even Cobourg maintains one. And what would the world say if Cobourg kept her institute and Peterborough allowed hers to lapse? A straight issue has been presented to the Board. Inspector Hodgson, as his report states, will recommend—and on his recommendation the the Department will doubtless act—that unless the Peterborough Board of Education, complies with the regulations in regard to institute requirements by Sept. 1st 1888, the Collegiate Institute will be degraded into a high school.

A CHANCE FOR THE T. V. C.

Canada is enjoying at the present time a plethora of riches—the Dominion has a surplus of about fourteen millions. The sum of twenty millions was borrowed when there were only five million needed and consequently there is money going a begging. The government is paying 3½ per cent on this idle fourteen millions, while the banks decline to take it at 1½ per cent. and the question is, what shall be done with the money? We can solve the problem. Lack of funds has been among the "refuge of lies" through which the Government evaded the extension of the Trent Valley Canal system. Now they have the money, and as paying interest on it; let them devote a generous share towards building the Trent Valley Canal. Thus they can redeem in spirit, the promise of the Commons representative of the West Riding to the effect that a thousand men would be working on the Peterborough Lakefield section last summer. Now's their chance. There's "lashins" of money and nothing to prevent the work going on. Suspend the Commission, pay the members off and begin the work. Let fooling cease and business begin.

Mr. Wm. O'Leary, whose buildings were destroyed by fire last summer, erected last Friday a fine barn, 40x56. Mr. O'Leary had, at the time of his misfortune, the sincere sympathy of the entire community, which is to day eager to offer him their hearty congratulations for the fine buildings he has erected.

The farmers of this vicinity seem to appreciate home industries, for already so early in the season, four new twine-binders, manufactured by P. Hamilton, have come into our neighborhood; the purchasers are Wm. Fife, John Borland, H. T. Moore and Ed. Christie.

Our friends down east will have to get along a little earlier in the morning if they don't want to get left again, for, as time and tide wait for no man, neither will an express train on the C.P.R.

Mr. J. S. Borland lost a fine milch cow last week, valued at $60.

Mrs. Duff of this village had a visit from her brother last week, Rev. John Beckett, of Thamesville; he looks hale and hearty.

Pat'k. Moher, shipped another car-load of cattle and pigs from here last week. Go-ahead, friend Pat.

Great traffic on the C.P.R. just now, 3 freight trains heavily loaded passed down east inside of 20 minutes last Friday.

Mr. Armstrong, apple tree agent for Stone & Wellington, seems to be doing a thriving business in this neighborhood.

The band of farmers and their better-halves was not a little surprised when they were getting on the train here for Peterborough last Saturday when the train officials hustled their baskets into the baggage car and made them pay 15c each. But our good looking agent, Mr. Arnold, thinks that will not last long.

The pic-nic in O'Grady's grove was a grand success but would have been much grander had not one of the committee been troubled with a very grevious sore.

Dummer.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OPENING OF A NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL BUILDING.

On Friday last, a beautiful new union Sunday School building was opened near the Warminster Factory, 3rd line of Dummer. To celebrate the occasion a most successful and enjoyable pic-nic was held. There were addresses delivered by Rev. John Powers, Methodist, Rev. Richard Hyde, Presbyterian, Warsaw, and Rev. Wm. Peer, Baptist, Norwood, and by Mr. D. W. Dumble, Peterborough, who occupied the chair and gave an excellent address, the address of the day. Including the proceeds of the pic-nic, there was raised by subscription $750, the amount of indebtedness upon the Sunday school house, so that it is now practically free from debt. It is a most tastily built edifice of brick, with neat grounds, enclosed with a neat wire fence. It is a fine monument to the liberality of the people of the vicinity.

Dandruff, Baldness, Thin or Grey Hair

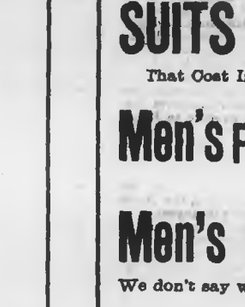
Everybody knows how disagreeable it looks to see Dandruff falling from the head to the shoulders of either lady or gentlemen. The head may be washed ever so often, but it will not clean out this evil. The only sure way to get rid of it is to use

DR. DORENWEND'S



GREAT GERMAN HAIR MAGIC

It keeps the Hair and scalp in a healthy condition, prevents premature grayness, and stops all falling out of the hair. A person may be bald, but the roots may only be dormant and simply require stimulating to encourage a luxuriant growth of hair. "Hair Magic" will be found invaluable in these cases.

Do not delay, but get a bottle at once while there is a chance of successful results. All Druggists sell it.

Rheumatic Pains

Require no description, since with rare exceptions, all at some time have experienced their twinges. Rheumatism is not easily dislodged, only the most powerfully penetrating remedies reach to its very foundations. The most successful treatment known, and it is now frequently resorted to by medical men, is the application of that now famous remedy for pain—Polson's Nerviline. It is safe to say that nothing yet discovered has afforded equal satisfaction to the suffering. A trial can be made at a small cost, as sample bottles of Nerviline can be had at the drug store for 10 cents, large bottles 25 cents. 6d28w

A Distressing Disease.

"I wish to give my testimony in favor of Burdock Blood Bitters. I had been troubled with Erysipelas and was induced to try this valuable medicine. I have used three bottles and am now well as ever." Mrs. L. Finch, Cedar Creek, Ont. 2w26d

Worth Remembering.

Mr. Jas. Binnie, of Toronto, states that his little baby when three months old was so bad with summer complaint that under doctor's treatment her life was despaired of. Four doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cured her. She is now fat and hearty. 2w26d

Well Tested.

"I was nearly dead with Cholera Morbus, one bottle of Extract of Wild Strawberry cured me, and at another time I was so bad with Summer Complaint that I thought I would never get over it, when two bottles cured me." Mrs. E. Ashott, Peel, Ont. 2w26d

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

A Large Excursion.

The Baptist church Sunday school excursion to Jubilee Point this morning was the largest that has gone down the river this year. The "Golden Eye" was unable to receive the crowd that was in waiting, and a great number had to walk to the locks, where a scow was picked up and sufficient accommodation found for all. They are having a beautiful day for the excursion.

The Central Exhibition.

A meeting of the Directors of the Central Exhibition was held Wednesday afternoon. The prize list was revised and an adjournment was made while the directors skirmished about town soliciting special prizes. They were successful and upon resuming a number of special departments was added to the list. Other minor business of no public importance was also transacted.

Pic-nic From Port Hope.

Mr. E. Peplow and Mr. N. Hoskin of Port Hope are in town to-day arranging for the Port Hope Brown street Methodist S. S. pic-nic which will be held in Peterborough on Tuesday next. The syndicate have kindly placed at their disposal for the day the beautiful grounds of Inverlea. It is expected about 500 will form the excursion, and it has been arranged with the Grand Trunk local authorities to land the excursion party within a short distance of the park on either side of the river desired.

A Cold Curiosity.

Mr. G. W. Hall, grocer, Simcoe street, today un-sawdusted a curiosity in ice. In the middle of a large block of ice there was a hollow somewhat in the shape of an ordinary fountain, almost perfect in symmetry and presenting from the outside the appearance of the most beautifully frosted silver. It was beautiful beyond the conception or execution of the highest art, but the thermometer had no artistic taste and the crystal environment of the rare curiosity was soon reduced to its "native element."

The New Bridges.

The Street and Bridge Committee met this morning and held a consultation regarding the proposed new bridges on King and Charlotte streets. It was decided to build the abutments of wood, as it was considered that the sandy bed of the creek would not be a safe resting-place for stonework. No contracts were let and the work of rebuilding the bridges will be begun as soon as possible by Street Inspector Pope. They will be of wood throughout.

On the War Path.

P. C. Adams was around with a double barrelled shot gun and a pocketful of cartridges to-day. When a limb of the law is seen with such a destructive weapon in his hands, it may at once be inferred that there is going to be bloodshed. And so there will be—that is, if he is a good enough shot to kill the tagless dogs he is after. The time for taking out dog licenses has expired, and the police intend to enforce the by-law. It is their avowed purpose to shoot all dogs without tags that they see.

A Windy Day on the Lake.

A couple of gallant young men constituted themselves a life-saving crew on Little Lake Tuesday afternoon, and were kept busy rescuing other canoeists who were in distress from the force of wind and waves. One young man, whose civil engineering principles that he had imbibed did not provide for any such emergency, was picked up in the middle of the lake, where he was clinging gracefully to his upturned canoe. Another party, a young man and two ladies, were rescued from a perilous position among the logs, where they had been blown and drifted, and were unable to extricate themselves.

In Capable Hands.

The George street church Sunday school people are making every effort to render their excursion next Tuesday one remarkable for its comfort and complete arrangement. Able committees have been struck to look after all the departments. Messrs. T. W. Robinson, W. F. Hilliard and W. A. Mason are the provision committee, who will provide the refreshment promised; Messrs Sanderson, Smith, Cooney, Ventress and Eastland will constitute the commissariat department and look after the baskets; Messrs. A. E. Scott, R. J. Kidd, F. Wesley and R. M. Henderson are the committee on sports. What more could be desired. These committees are composed of young and energetic men who are bound to make the pic-nic a success; and nothing succeeds like success.

Casting Strong Reflections.

That the sun was hot to-day was demonstrated by the experiment of some men working on a tin roof. One of them held a piece of felt paper against his knee in such a position as to catch the focussed reflection of the suns rays off the bright tin, and in a few moments the paper was in flames.

Lacrosse Notes.

The Y.M.C.A. team are arranging for the return match with the Lindsay team for next Wednesday on the home grounds.

A special request is made to the members of the Y.M.C.A. club to turn out for practice to-morrow morning at six o'clock. A match will take place between the first and second twelves. The boys wish to be in good condition to meet Lindsay.

The Bold Tramp.

Last night about one o'clock a young man who had not yet gone to bed heard a noise in Rathbun's lumber yard, Bethune street, and looking out of his window he saw a couple of men with a dark lantern trying to open the stable door. He made a noise and they rapidly decamped. It is supposed they were tramps trying to get inside to sleep, as almost every night two or three of that ilk bivouac in the yard. They may however have had more serious intentions.

Beautiful Property.

The Roman Catholic Park Lot which for so long a time has been looked at with hungry eyes is at last being put in the market. It lies between two of the best streets in Peterborough, Gilmour street especially is the fashionable street of the town. The lots will be sold off at low prices as money is needed for church purposes.

As soon as building operations are begun on this property there will be a rapid advance in value. The sale will afford a good investment for all who desire a safe thing and a chance for a little speculation. dw

Special inducements to farmers and all others during the busy season at J. T. Stenson's boot and shoe shop George street. Prices are cut so low that no time is lost in making a bargain. Rapid sales and everybody delighted. Come and see.

The 12th of July.

The large posters for the monster demonstration at Port Hope on the 12th of July, in commemoration of the bi centenary of the landing of William the third at Torbay, are out They announce a procession in the morning composed of the County Lodges of South Hastings, Prince Edward, Northumberland, Durnham, Peterborough and Victoria, and speeches in the afternoon at the town park by Rev. John Shaw, D.D., Toronto; Wm. Johnston, P. G. M., Belleville; E. Cochrane, M.P.; S. Hughes, Lindsay; H. A. Ward, M.P.; J. D. Craig, M.P.P. and others. Special railway rates have been arranged for from Peterborough.

A Few Accidents.

This forenoon a laborer was rather severely hurt at the Nassau mills by a tier of lumber falling off a lorry on his leg. He was brought down to his home in town, corner of McDonnell and George streets.

Yesterday afternoon Messrs George and Bert Wainwright were injured, the former being thrown from the ice waggon. His arm was badly bruised and nearly broken. Bert while operating a sausage machine cut his hand, making a very painful gash.

A $1.000 Accident policy in the Manufacturers, brings $5 per week during disablement.

Learn to Swim.

The few remarks contained in the following paragraph are pointed and practical, and should be borne in mind: The season is upon us when paterfamilias and his belongings will his themselves away to the summer resorts for their annual holidays. Boating accidents are always numerous at this season of the year; in fact, have already begun, and no doubt will be repeated with fatal results. Every boy ten years of age and upwards, imagines he can manage a canoe or a boat, even though he had never seen one before. The result is seen in the many fatal accidents that annually occur at the summer resorts. The moral is: learn to swim even if but a little. Nine-tenths of the drowning accidents would never happen if people could swim, even only a dozen yards. Girls as well as boys should learn to swim.

Baseball Notes.

Next Tuesday the return match between the Peterborough and Cobourg-Port Hope Baseball Clubs will be played on the grounds here. The visitors will come out with an excursion party. The Peterboroughs were defeated last time but they hope to even up matters next Tuesday.

Wednesday evening a match took place on the P.A.A.A. grounds between the Peterborough team and a nine selected from the Paralyzers, the Lock Works' team and the Wm. Hamilton Works' team. After a five-inning game the score stood 8 to 5 in favor of the Peterboroughs. The batteries were: Galley, Cameron and Billings, for Peterboroughs; Platt and Evans, for picked nine. Cameron did some beautiful pitching, and if he only does as well next Tuesday the visiting team will be defeated.

Personal.

Miss Tempest, of Port Hope, is visiting friends in Peterborough.

Rev. John Malloum, of Lakefield, addressed the Sunday School Convention at Smith's Falls, on Wednesday, July 4th.

Belleville Intelligencer:—"Mr. R. A. Morrow, of Peterborough, visited the city yesterday to see his son, one of the visiting wheelmen, who was suddenly taken ill here and had to remain for treatment.

R. P. Rogers, of Grafton, who has recently passed the entrance examination to the Royal Military College, Kingston, has been, since September, a boarder in Mr. Daff's private school, and has received regular instruction from Mr. Daff in all the subjects of his examination.

Sergt. Harry S. Rogers, son of Col. H. C. Rogers, at the late examinations in the Royal Military College, won the third year class and artillery prize, and for having stood highest in six subjects is entitled to wear two stars, with the rank of Senior Com. Sergt-Major.

It is probable there will be two baseball matches here next Tuesday. An excursion will be run from Whitby to Peterborough on that day, and the club of that town have written asking for a match. They will probably be accommodated. Port Hope might be played in the forenoon and Whitby in the afternoon.

The crops are promising well, though fall wheat and hay are rather scarce. The spring grains have all a fine appearance.

The popular game of football in Otonabee, 27th ult., drew some attention, and also the presence of many to look on. An extra kick, it was said, was dealt one of the winning team; but it turned out to be just a simple twist.

The following excursions, pic-nics, &c., all of which were taken in more or less, were pleasant events of June.

To Hastings, June 1st, members and friends of the Lacrosse team. This is annual, and, so far, has been profitable and enjoyable.

To Cameron's Landing and Foley's Point, Rice Lake, June 20. Popular comments were:—suitable day, beautiful sail, handsome profits, and a very enjoyable trip throughout. This was by the Union S. School, and was their first excursion.

From Oak Orchard, to Bewdley and Idyl Wild, June 21st, by Zion Public School. Those who took it in say that all didn't agree on all points. The day was suitable however, and on the whole enjoyable.

A sprinkling took railway and connections to Sturgeon Point with the Centreville S. school; but it was considered too much travelling.

Also patrons and friends of the new cheese factory had a very enjoyable and pleasant time, June 23rd, on the lake shore. The popular steamer for the above excursions was the "Beaver" (Capt. J. Harris, Gore's Landing).

Jubilee Point, central for Dominion Day celebration, attracted quite a number. As the whole sway was said to be with the Salvation Army, even the small boy succeeded in evading customary parental restrictions and confidently wended thither. The day was exceedingly suitable and the whole trip from Peterborough per steamer "Golden Eye," was immensely enjoyed.

Warsaw.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

On Thursday the 27th inst. our usually quiet village was somewhat startled with what—at first—appeared a wedding party passing through the streets, and wending its way to the residence of Miss Lukey, where the Rev. John Toseland and family were visiting, prior to their departure to their new home on the Fenella Circuit. It was soon discovered however that the party consisted of about 100 of the rev. gentleman's warm friends and admirers, who had determined to pay him a parting tribute of respect.

Baskets filled with dainty sweetmeats in abundance, were provided by the ladies of the party. After the usual salutations were exchanged in the most cordial manner, the party was invited to the largest room the house contained, which was soon packed to the door, after which an address was read containing choice sentences that amply set forth the way in which the rev. gentleman's labors had been appreciated, with fond hopes for the future success and happiness of himself and family. Mrs. John Jory on behalf of the parish, then presented him with a purse containing $42. His reply thereto was one of unusual emotional tenderness and thanks. The eatables being partaken of, a few select and appropriate songs were rendered by the musical portion of the party. One of the most successful entertainments that it has been our lot to attend, was brought to a close by singing the doxology and the benediction by our much respected pastor Rev. John Toseland.

THE O'DONNELL-TIMES CASE.

Mr. Parnell Accused of Having Created the Fund to Collect Funds.

LONDON, July 4.—When the trial of the O'Donnell-Times libel suit was resumed yesterday, Mr. Lucy of The Daily News was further cross-examined, with a view to showing that O'Donnell and Parnell were chiefs of the Irish party when Gladstone denounced the League Counsel called Joseph Cowen, formerly M. P. for Newcastle-on Tyne, for the purpose of obtaining certain evidence, but the Lord Chief Justice refused to allow its introduction. Mr. Bain, M. P. for Morpeth, gave testimony, and then the case for the plaintiff was closed.

Attorney-General Webster opened for the defence. He animadverted upon the non-appearance of Mr. Parnell and prominent members of the League in the witness-box, and declared that The Times' articles on "Parnellism and Crime" referred to the whole League and not to Mr. O'Donnell personally. He taunted Mr. Reugg (plaintiff's counsel) with failing to prove his client's case. He (Webster) intended to prove The Times'. Mr. O'Donnell, he said, was formerly the editor and controller of United Ireland, of Dublin, and he did not dare to go into the witness-box because of the fear of being questioned concerning incidents damaging to the League. Mr. Webster said seven persons were murdered between January, 1880, and March, 1882, who had been guilty of no crime except that of offending the League. When these murders were mentioned in Parliament the Irish members neither made an explanation nor repudiated them. He would prove that remittances were made to the League from America by men of the worst possible character. He asked where the books of the League were, and expressed the belief that they had been removed to Paris. If the acts of the League had been lawful the books would have been produced. The Attorney-General then read extracts from speeches made by members of the League, which advocated boycotting and violence. Sometimes, said Mr. Webster, murder followed these speeches. He said that American money supported the Leaguers. Mr. Parnell had especially crossed the Atlantic to collect funds.

Mr. Parnell, entering the court at this moment, heard the Attorney-General's allusion to him. The court at this point adjourned.

A MALIGNED POLYGAMIST.

Aldrich Brown Says He Has Only Seventeen Wives, Not Twenty-three.

DETROIT, July 5.—John Wellington Aldrich Brown, the much-wanted polygamist, was brought here from Chicago by Detective Myler yesterday. The Chicago police were loath to part with Brown, who had added to the long list of his wives at the Garden City recently. His latest victims were Kate Sautelle and Belle Brownell of Chicago. After his arrest by the Chicago officers Brown had taken a cup of laudanum, as he said, and he was sick when he arrived here. Detective Myler says that Brown will plead the insanity dodge. The detective said to-day:

"Before we left Chicago a despatch was received by the police from some place in Iowa where Brown is wanted for bigamy. He is also wanted in Baltimore, Md., Niagara Falls, N.Y., and in almost every town in this State. Brown was very nervous when we passed through Battle Creek and Marshall. He made every effort not to be seen. Evidently he was afraid of someone. Brown spoke of Annie M. Hagel of Pontiac, one of his victims, and said he feared her brother, who had threatened to kill him.

"'The Hagel family was my ruin,' Brown said to me. 'When I married Annie I resolved to quit my bigamistic career and to be a good man and husband. But the members of her family poisoned my wife's mind against me and drove me into the old rut.' Brown claims that seventeen is the number of his wives, and not twenty-three, as has been reported."

Detective Myler is now looking for Annie Winters, the German girl who was married to Brown on March 24 in this city by Rev. K. L. Moll. She is said to be employed in a laundry. Her report to the police led to the discovery of Brown's polygamistic proclivities.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600.00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,482 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,386 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	363,264 31	2,962,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,607 24	4,029,373 65
Total in 1887	$495 831 54	$1,750,004 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

FRIDAY, JULY 6, 1888.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

ANOTHER MEETING OF COUNCIL HELD YESTERDAY.

No Appointments Announced—It is Said that Big John Haggart Will Get the Postoffice Portfolio.

OTTAWA, July 6.—There was a meeting of Council yesterday, but no announcement of appointments was made. There will be no meeting again until Saturday, which will probably be the last for some time, as Sir John is expected to leave on Monday or Tuesday for the Maritime Provinces, and nearly all the other Ministers who have not already gone will be off in a few days.

Although no official announcement has been made it is generally understood that Mr. Dewdney has been appointed Minister of the Interior and Mr. John G. Haggart, M. P. for Lanark, Postmaster-General. The latter has been in town and left for home in good spirits after an interview with Sir John.

Mr. Patterson of Essex has been here for a couple of days and had a long talk with Sir John after Council. He assured your correspondent that there was no truth in the rumors that he was about to enter the Ministry, but gave no hint as to what may happen later in the year.

It is generally understood that Major-General Cameron, son-in-law of Sir Charles Tupper, has been appointed to succeed Col. Oliver as Commandant of the Kingston Military College. General Cameron acted as official secretary to Sir Charles on the Fisheries Commission at Washington.

It is understood that it has been definitely decided that when the new Departmental Building is finished and the attic occupied by the model room, the patent office will be entirely divided from the Department of Agriculture and made a branch of the Department of the Secretary of State.

The Journal gives currency to the following curious report:

Information of a presumably trustworthy character has reached here to the effect that Bishop Lafleche of Three Rivers signed an order on Tuesday suspending the Jesuits from religious ministrations in his diocese. The members of the order own several colleges there and direct several churches. The order only prevents them from performing their sacerdotal functions in the diocese but they can still hold property. The step, it is stated, was undertaken after an investigation which went to show that Catholics were influenced on their death beds to change their wills in favor of Jesuits. Thirty families, it is stated, refused to attend mass because of the experience with the fathers.

It has been decided that in future traffic on all the St. Lawrence canals and Welland Canal shall only be discontinued on Sunday between the hours of 8 in the morning and 9 in the evening.

Sir Adolphe Caron and Hon. Mr. Thompson contemplate a trip to the Saguenay next week. Hon. C. H. Tupper, Minister of Marine will probably not come to Ottawa until after the Cumberland election.

Painful Accident to Mr. Trow, M.P.

STRATFORD, July 6.—A painful accident occurred to Mr. Trow, M.P., on Monday. Anxious to spend part of the holiday with his friends in Mitchell he arrived in town by the noon train, and after dinner was induced to visit the driving park where horse races were in progress. In the park he was invited to a seat on the judges' stand, and while chatting with those around him the plank on which he and others were sitting slipped off its support, and in falling Mr. Trow's leg was caught under it and severely bruised.

Stratford's New Locomotive Shops.

STRATFORD, July 6.—Mr. Herbert Wallis, mechanical superintendent of the Grand Trunk Railway, Montreal, has been in town examining the new locomotive shops, which are now about complete. The machinery is being put in place, and will be ready by the middle of August.

The Milton Bonanza.

MILTON, July 6.—The analysis of the red clay found at Milton shows that it is largely impregnated with lime. This will prevent it from being used for terra cotta ware or even the better kinds of pottery, so the Terra Cotta Company of Milton has a bonanza on a par with the Smithville coal find.

Close of the Prohibition Convention.

MONTREAL, July 6.—At the closing meeting of the Prohibition Convention last night addresses were delivered by Mrs. Youmans, Mrs. Keefer, Senator Vidal, J. S. Robertson of Toronto, W. H. Rogers of Nova Scotia and James Baylis of Montreal.

Joseph R. Perry of Indianapolis, manager of the Cyclorama Battle of Atlanta, has been discharged for painting the face of Gen. Harrison upon the body of a war correspondent shown on the canvas.

At a Saginaw (Mich.) celebration of the Fourth a premature explosion of fireworks killed Etta Bloodworth and seriously injured three others. William Moriarty put a bullet in his leg, 6-year-old Eddie Germain fatally wounded himself with a toy cannon, an excursionist had his foot cut off by a train, and a railway conductor was knocked from his train and badly hurt.

SALON PRIZE WINNERS.

DISTRIBUTION OF MEDALS TO THE SUCCESSFUL COMPETITORS.

A Ceremony of Much Interest—How an "Old Master" was Touched by His Pupil's Success.

PARIS, July 6.—I called on Mr. Henry Mosler, the artist, and asked him to furnish an account of the ceremony of the distribution of Salon prizes as it struck him. Mr. Mosler said:—I was told by a friend to go earlier than 10 o'clock, the time appointed, as the place would be filled long before the hour. In that way I should not have to wedge through a lot of people to get my medal. I did arrive at 9.45, and even then the place was nearly filled. The ceremony takes place in a large hall, commonly called the Salon d'Honneur. It appeared quite appropriate, there still being portraits of President Carnot on the wall. One one side of the hall, nicely draped, red velvet cushions had been placed for visitors, victors and their friends. Before us stretched a few rows of gilt chairs. These were intended for the Government officials, the staff of the Ministre des Beaux Arts and groups of juries of the Association on painting, sculpture, engraving and architecture. In the centre was a table for Minister Lockroy and M. Bailly, president of the Artists' Association. Before long all the seats were taken and the heat was increasing. At last the Salon's guards drew back the red velvet curtain and everything was hushed.

All were eager to see the Minister and juries make their entry. This soon occurred, and M. Bailly read a cut-and-dried speech, which, no doubt, must have been excellent and appropriate, but the white-haired, noble-looking, old gentleman's voice was scarcely heard. He was applauded though. When he had finished M. Lockroy followed, also with arranged notes, and he was rather nervous, judging from the way his hands shook while holding the sheets of manuscript, but his delivery was excellent, his voice musical, and his speech flowery and full of nice sayings, for which the French language is so well adapted. He was repeatedly and enthusiastically applauded.

Then M. Vigneron called forth like a herald of old the names of the victors. First was the winner of the medal of honor, Detaille. There was great applause, and as in all instances shaking of hands with the Minister and President Bailly. Bougereau then stepped over to old Meissonier, whose face still wore the expression of a mourner for the loss of his wife, which only occurred last week. He clasped his pupil and friend to his breast with repeated kisses. As I sat nearly opposite, I saw tears in the old master's eyes and came to the conclusion that this was not simply a piece of affection, but real, profound, and honest admiration and love for the young master, who returned to his seat carrying with him his medal and diploma. So one followed the other.

The American artists received their share of applause. My modesty will have to be discarded, and I must say that when I stepped forward to receive my medal what pleased me most, above all the applause, was that of the jurors themselves. Well, I admit that I was excited, deeply impressed and highly honored. It was an event in one's life to be remembered. The honorable mentions were simply called out. No one applauded. The distribution of prizes reminded me of my early days when at school.

When the ceremony was at an end and all began to rise and disperse, there was again a great deal of shaking of hands and felicitations from all sides. Although the idea of suppressing the medals has been argued of late, I feel that in this competition there is something that excites artists to greater achievements and spurs on ambition. No doubt one of the great reasons for this wonderful success and the high standard of the French school and the great number of great foreign painters that have gathered here is due to a great extent to the desire of getting recognition, and as these honors are of professional character it draws them like a will-o'-the-wisp. When you get accepted you would like to have mention honorable, next a medal making you exempt from the jury of admission. Afterwards you want to become Hors Concours, Legion of Honor, etc. This is the great secret why they have retained that foreign element and still attract from all parts of the world the very best power, and keep them here, and so Paris has become, without doubt, the modern Athens of the world.

RUSSIA WON'T INTERFERE.

She Will Soon Wash Her Hands of Bulgaria—A Matrimonial Project.

LONDON, July 6.—Official despatches from St. Petersburg state that M. de Giers, the Russian Prime Minister, has informed Sir R. D. Morier, the British Ambassador, that after Dec. 17 the Bulgarians may do anything and everything they please, from cutting each other's throats to declaring their country an empire. Russia, M. de Giers declared, will not move a finger to prevent them from following their own inclinations, and will wash her hands of the whole concern. The Ambassador is of opinion that Russia does not intend to provoke war.

The Standard's St. Petersburg despatch says it is reported that a marriage is being arranged between the Czarewitch and one of Emperor William's sisters. General Von Pape, during his visit here, broached the subject to the Czar, who gave his entire approval. Prince Bismarck is in favor of such a match, and this was his main reason for opposing the Battenburg-Victoria match, which would have rendered impossible a match between Victoria's sister and the Czarewitch.

An Alleged Conspiracy.

BERLIN, July 6.—There is much talk now of an alleged conspiracy to oust Prince Bismarck during the brief reign of Emperor Frederick, some persons professing to have ascertained upon unquestionable authority that the Chancellor's dismissal was actually signed by the Kaiser, but for some reason withheld and finally destroyed. It is also asserted that several highly important political papers belonging to Emperor Frederick's series of state documents are missing. These, it is asserted, would shed much light upon the true relations existing between the Emperor and the Chancellor, but no theory is advanced to account for their disappearance.

A Hint to Tenants.

DUBLIN, July 6.—Divisional Magistrate Cullen has directed the police authorities to report to him all contemplated evictions of an important character and which will be likely to provoke comment before granting police protection to the evictors. United Ireland says that every tenant who does not take the hint to make his eviction of such a nature as to provoke comment, deserves eviction.

The White Pasha.

ALEXANDRIA, July 6.—Zobehr Pasha thinks that the "White Pasha" seen in the region of Bahr-Gasel is not Stanley but Emin Pasha. Emin Pasha told Zobehr's messengers that if pressed he would strike for Bahr-Gasel, where the people are hostile to the Mahdi.

Winnipeg Wire Whispers.

WINNIPEG, June 29.—The temperance associations presented Gov. Aikens with a farewell address in which they congratulated him on maintaining temperance principles in dispensing hospitalities at Government House.

Grading of the link to Portage commenced to-day.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

THE FOUR CANDIDATES.

The medallion cuts below are accurate likenesses of the four great Americans now before their countrymen as candidates for the highest offices in the land:

Democrats and Tariff Reformers.

Grover Cleveland. Allen G. Thurman.

Grover Cleveland of New York was born in New Jersey in 1837—fifty one years ago. His father was a Presbyterian preacher. A lawyer by profession. Sheriff of Erie County, N.Y., in 1870; mayor of Buffalo 1881; Governor of New York 1882; President of the U. S. in 1885. Married at Washington two years ago. A Presbyterian and a Tariff Reformer.

Allen G. Thurman of Ohio was born in Virginia in 1814—seventy-four years ago. A lawyer, a judge and a U. S. senator. He uses snuff and carries a red bandanna. He is known as the old Roman. A Tariff Reformer.

Republicans and Protectionists.

Benjamin Harrison. Levi P. Morton.

Benjamin Harrison of Indiana was born in 1833—fifty-five years ago. A lawyer by profession. Served in the war and came out of it a General. He was married in 1854 and has two children, a son and a daughter. United States Senator for Indiana 1880—86. He is a Presbyterian and a Protectionist.

Levi P. Morton of New York was born in Vermont in 1824—sixty-four years ago. His father was a minister; he was brought up in a store; became a successful Boston merchant, then a banker in New York and London. Has been Minister to France and Congressman. A Protectionist.

Wedding Bells at Oshawa.

OSHAWA, July 6.—In St. George's Church Mr. Prince of the Woodstock branch of the Bank of Commerce was married to Miss Middleton, eldest daughter of Rev. J. Middleton, of St. George's. Canon Dumoulin officiated. The bride was attended by her sister and Miss Ellwood, and the groom by Mr. Middleton, brother of the bride, and Mr. Roy of Woodstock.

Deductions for Breakage.

BELLEVILLE, July 6.—Maud Bird, a servant employed at the Dominion House, sued Mr. Mackie for $4 wages. The landlord showed that he offered the girl her wages less certain deductions for breakage, and the magistrate ruled that if she thought the amount ($2) which Mr. Mackie wanted to withhold was too great she must replace the articles.

The Largest Horse in the World.

PARIS, Ill., July 6.—John Roll, residing in Redmon, Edgar County, is the owner of a horse that is twenty hands high, weighs 2,500 pounds, and is said to be the largest horse in the world. It is 5 years old, never was off Roll's farm, never has been broken and has never been shod. The blacksmith at Redmon is afraid to shoe the horse.

Music Teachers at Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The third day's session of the Music Teachers' National Association convention began in Central Music Hall yesterday morning. A paper was read by J. E. P. Aldous of Hamilton, Ont., on "The Best Means to be adopted for the Spread and Fostering of a Healthy Taste for High Class Music outside the Great Musical Centres."

Hamilton Notes.

HAMILTON, July 6.—Thomas Hines, Charles Hines and Edward Geary were each fined $5 at the Police Court yesterday for offering veal for sale which was unfit for food.

Four 14-year-old lads were found guilty at the Police Court yesterday of the larceny of a jar of preserved fruit and a lamp, but were allowed to go under deferred sentence.

Peter Maule was arraigned before Judge Sinclair for assaulting a Dundas man named Fitzpatrick and robbing him of $18. He pleaded not guilty. The trial will take place before the county judge next Tuesday.

The Ontario Fruit Packers' Association was in session yesterday at the St. Nicholas Hotel. Among those present were: W. Boulter of Picton, Mr. Fenton of St. Catharines, W. E. Brown of the Rising Sun Canning Company, and A. E. Carpenter of the Ontario Canning Company.

About 220 candidates are being examined for admission to the Collegiate Institute. Most of them are from the city.

Excursions from Port Dover, Guelph and Georgetown swelled the crowd at the concert of the 13th Battalion Band at the Beach.

Mr. James A. Robb and Miss Minnie Hammond were married at the Hannah-street Methodist Church, Rev. A. C. Crews, assisted by Rev. Mr. Elliott, officiating.

The Halton Election Case.

MILTON, July 6.—The Halton election case came up here yesterday, before Chief Justice Armour, and after the examination of a few witnesses, the personal charges were withdrawn and the counsel for D. Henderson, the respondent, admitted the charge of bribery, and the justice declared the election voided, the costs to be paid by Mr. Henderson.

A Blaze at Southampton, Ont.

SOUTHAMPTON, July 6.—A disastrous fire occurred here last evening at 8 o'clock, about 4,000 ties, two cars belonging to the Grand Trunk and about 150 feet of the south landing pier, the property of the Government, being burnt. Nothing definite is known as to the origin of the fire.

THE TIMES LIBEL SUIT.

A VERDICT RETURNED FOR THE DEFENDANT.

The Assertion that the Bringing of the Action was Suggested by Mr. Parnell Denied.

LONDON, July 6.—The trial of the suit for libel brought by Mr. O'Donnell against The Times was resumed yesterday. Attorney-General Webster continued his presentation of the case for the defence. In the course of his remarks he said no man was libelled to a greater extent than Mr. Parnell, yet O'Donnell was put forward to meet The Times' charges.

Lord Chief Justice Coleridge intimated that the plaintiff had presented no case for The Times to answer.

Mr. Reugg, counsel for O'Donnell, said he thought the case might go to the jury on the note in which O'Donnell's name was mentioned.

The Lord Chief Justice remarked, "Very well, if you go on you take the responsibility."

Mr. Reugg then asked the court to give him a half hour for the purpose of consulting his client. Mr. Reugg subsequently announced that he had decided to address the jury on the two instances in which O'Donnell was named in The Times' articles, and that all the other charges embodied in the complaint would be abandoned.

Upon the conclusion of Mr. Reugg's address, the Lord Chief Justice charged the jury. His charge was strong against O'Donnell. He said: "If O'Donnell intended his letter to The Times to vindicate his character, it was difficult to conceive a weaker protest."

The jury returned a verdict for The Times.

Mr. O'Donnell's assertion that his conduct in bringing the action against The Times was suggested or arrived at after consultation with Mr. Parnell, is contradicted. Mr. Parnell will make a personal explanation on the subject in the House of Commons to-day.

THE MANITOBA ELECTIONS.

Gelley Opposed in Cartier—Lieut.-Gov. Schultz's First Reception.

WINNIPEG, July 6.—There were only ten elections by acclamation, Gelley (Lib.) being opposed in Cartier by Hamelin (Ind.)

The members of the Government are reported as saying that satisfactory arrangements are being made with the Northern Pacific for operating the provincial railways.

Gov. Schults held his first reception today, which was largely attended.

A wild man who had been the terror of Stonewall for some time has been captured. He is demented and scantily clad.

James Allan has been arrested for stealing several horses in Winnipeg which he sold at remarkably low figures.

Boston O'Brien who figured in the Rat Portage troubles some time ago, has been shot at Neche, Dak., by an unoffending farmer whom he assaulted. O'Brien will probably die.

William Dickson fell off a dredge at Selkirk yesterday and received injuries from which he will probably die.

A STARTLING DISCLOSURE.

Large Amounts of Forged Paper Left Behind by a Montreal Defaulter.

MONTREAL, July 6.—The creditors and customers of absconding Carriagemaker Quesnel were startled when they heard that more than half of the accommodation paper he leaves behind him is forged. One of the largest creditors says that of $40,000 of paper not more than $5,000 is genuine.

Detective Kellert continued his testimony in the Pitcher case yesterday. Nothing new was developed.

Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock a student of the Presbyterian College named Hugh Clark was found dead in one of the bath-rooms of the institution.

A young man named Bonacina, employed as bookkeeper in the upholstering establishment of James Steel, asked permission from his employer to go out for a little while, as he wanted to see a lady friend off by train. The clerk's absence being rather prolonged an investigation was made which disclosed that $500 had disappeared. Bonacina was arrested at Rouse's Point and brought back.

J. B. Couture, jeweler, St. Catharine-street, has absconded, leaving several creditors to mourn his departure.

A Clever Arrest.

SARNIA, July 6.—Frederick Stiss, who kept a small grocery in the woods about half way between Oil Springs and Dawn Centre, learned the art, it is said, of manufacturing intoxicants for himself, and was making quite a business of supplying shanty men and mill men with the "orather," when an information was laid against him by Inspector Palmer some time in March last. He was accordingly summoned to appear before Police Magistrate Campbell at Oil City, but failed to put in an appearance. On proof of service of summons upon him by Constable Noah Wafle of Dresden, the police magistrate imposed a fine of $50 and costs or fifty days. Stiss thought to take a short way of paying demands and removed to parts unknown. Thinking all had been buried and forgotten he returned to the same shanty on Friday evening last, when to his great surprise and chagrin, before he had time to unload his goods from the wagon on which they had been conveyed thither, Constable Wafle accompanied by the chief of police from Dresden were upon him, and although strenuously assisted by his brother-in-law they succeeded in placing the manacles upon him, and on Saturday last he was safely landed at "Fort Allen" to spend fifty days of the heated season.

Run Over by a Wagon.

LONDON, July 6.—Arthur Johnston, the 4-year-old son of Samuel Johnston, was killed at 6th line of North Courtright by being run over with a load of brick driven by his father. The lad was seated on the load with his father and fell off, the hind wheel passing over his chest.

THE FOLLIES AND MISTAKES OF LIFE.

SERMON BY LAYMAN.

(Written for the Examiner.)

There is nothing so common in this world as the follies and mistakes of life. They belong to everybody and to every land. Nearly all human miseries are traced to them, and yet people think they are wise and can govern themselves. And the more inexperienced they are, the more confidence they possess. And the person with the least judgment thinks he knows the most of all. The young, more especially, think they alone can rule the world. And the more ignorant and inexperienced they are, the wiser they imagine themselves to be. It is an old saying that "young folks think old folks are fools." Let parents and friends undertake to advise the young about their present and future conduct and see how quick the answer comes: "We can take care of ourselves. It is time enough for you to offer advice when we ask it." But wait a little and see the result. That young man or young woman has gone astray. They each acted over their own impulses. They could not reason because they possessed no knowledge which alone could enable them to reason. They simply shut their eyes and jumped to a conclusion. They severed the last link which bound them to their old home. They sinned and they suffered, and both went to ruin. When it was too late they saw their mistake. And they mourned their mistake in sackcloth and ashes. The warnings of the old father and mother were disregarded when they might have done good, but now they are too late. The son has drifted off into unknown lands, ashamed to acknowledge his fault and ask to be taken home again, while the daughter is a poor outcast and wanderer. Their fate is but a representation of the fate of others, in a greater or less degree. Father and mother stand at the door of their humble, peaceful home, straining their eyes, looking up and down the road, but they see not the objects of their search, and no sound of their approach greets their listening ears. Then the dark night covers the earth and they retire to the common fireside where they and the son and daughter were once accustomed to sit in quiet converse, and where visions of future peace and happiness were once so often seen. But now how changed. There is silence now where formerly there was domestic happiness and love. The time hangs heavily and the long hours of night bring no rest to their weary bodies or their suffering minds. And with the first dawn of day they rise and go their weary round again. Far away from home, far away in a distant city by the light of the street lamp, may be seen the figure of a poorly clad and hungry, emaciated being, pushing forward on her way, sad, sorrowful and alone. She looks around for one word of kindness, one look of sympathy, but it is all in vain. She sits down upon a door step and there she cries and thinks of home. She calls for mother, but mother does not hear. And so the night wears on. She thinks of the follies and mistakes of her past life. She calls to mind the good advice so often given her by her father and mother, and their warnings against following her own foolish desires. How they told her of the trials, and difficulties, and troubles, and dangers of the world, which as yet she knew nothing about. And oh, how she wishes she had taken and acted on that advice. And how she prays to be delivered from her present sorrows and to be permitted once more to go back to the old home and live and die there. In her dreams she sees that dear old home, and she hears father and mother talking of their lost children, and she sees the hot tears of parental grief coursing down their cheeks. And in her agony she resolves to arise and go to her father and mother and ask them to forgive her, and to give her ever so small a space in their household where she may work out the remainder of her days in penitence and peace. And this is only one instance out of tens of thousands of similar cases and which are occurring every day. Some are even worse and some are not quite so bad, but the best is bad enough. And all this misery and wretchedness and what comes from the follies and mistakes of life, come from neglecting good advice, come from ignorance of the world and from our confidence in one's own strength. How many well-to-do farmers and artisans are there today who are similarly suffering from the follies and mistakes of life. Who have sold out and left comfortable homes and gone away to a new country, of which they knew nothing and there commenced again to build up new homes, but scarcely ever successful. When too late they have discovered their mistakes, and now they find themselves struggling against hardships and difficulties and privations and want and wish themselves back to their old homes again. Read of the many young men and boys, who, not content with their lot, have rushed, against good advice, to leave home and friends, and, as they fondly thought to push their way in the world, without the least idea of what difficulties were before them, but in the end meeting with disappointment and sorrow and ruin. And they may be seen in hundreds wandering about the streets of some large city in idleness, looking for employment but finding none, every day going down lower and lower in depravity until they either die or are forever lost to respectability and comfort. Not two years ago a young man, of respectability and good family, left his home in Toronto and went to Chicago, where he thought he was sure to succeed. He wandered about day after day looking for employment but getting none, when at last his money was all gone and he was reduced to poverty and want. Then he began to realize the mistake which he had made. And he wished he had remained at home. Like many others before him he gave way to temptation, and in order to provide himself with means, he one night broke into a house intending to get enough to take him away. In the course of his investigations he went into a room where the daughter was sleeping, and, thinking she resembled his sister at home in Toronto, he went up to the bed and kissed her. She awoke and gave the alarm and he was arrested and brought before a judge for sentence and punishment. The judge happened to be a kind-hearted man, and he asked the young man what induced him to commit such a crime. The young man told him the whole truth, and how he was in poverty and want, and how he had determined to go to some other place, in hopes of succeeding better. He said that when he saw this young woman lying asleep she reminded him so much of his own sister that he could not resist the temptation to kiss her. And thus he was discovered. This moved him, for the judge saw that he could not be very bad, and he felt sorry for the forlorn condition of the young man; and he told him he would give him his liberty and advised him to go home again without delay. This he did, and it is to be hoped that his troubles and experience will be a salutary lesson to him for the remainder of his life. Here was another instance of the follies and mistakes of life. If people would think twice before they act, if they would consult others as to their future conduct, and if they would but be content to let well enough alone, they would experience fewer difficulties and troubles, and they would get on better in the world. And a vast amount of wretchedness and misery would be avoided. Here is another instance. A young woman, daughter of well-to-do and respectable parents, in the exuberance of her romantic feelings, ran away with a worthless fellow. In a short time she discovered her mistake. Destitute of the means of living, they removed to a large city, where their poverty was only increased. The husband became reckless — became the associate of vile, worthless men and in a short time sank down, to the lowest depths of vice and misery. And he abused his foolish trusting wife who had sacrificed all for him. Her condition was indeed a sad one, but it was only the repetition of hundreds of others before. What she was to do she knew not. At last, in desperation, and as a last resource, she resolved to make her way back again to her old home. She had no money and so one day she set off on foot trudging her weary way along, buoyed up with the prospect of seeing father and mother, brothers and sisters once more. It was a long tedious journey, but she succeeded at last, and tired, and dusty, and careworn she entered the home which she had left a short time before, and was received and forgiven. These instances of folly and mistakes are occurring every day and can be counted by the hundred of thousands. And yet how few take warning by them and learn to do better. In every station of life the same thing happens and continues to happen. Young and old are constantly committing follies and mistakes. But the worst and most ruinous results fall upon the young. Many of them do so thoughtlessly and through influence and treachery. They want to do right, they wish to avoid evil, but their feelings are influenced by falsehood and trickery, their better judgments are set aside, and soon they find themselves in the toils of their deceivers, shut out from the sympathy and encouragement of their friends. Then comes the dread reality. Their lives are made miserable, their days and nights are spent in grief and misery, with no friend to comfort and no hope of relief. Dark and desolate, and dreary is their lot now, and in a short time they go down to an early grave. It might have been different. Their lives might have been honored, and useful, and happy. But through their follies and mistakes they lost all.

Practice Economy

By taking advantage of the opportunity offered you to buy Superior Teas at Honest Prices from the undersigned.

You May Try

Everybody's Teas in Town and compare them with our Strictly Uncoloured Japan, English Breakfast, Oolong and Young Hyson and you will be convinced that none will suit your taste as well as ours.

To Buy Teas Right

Is something which requires close study and observation. The cultivation of a trained sense of smell, taste and inspection is needed, which takes a long time to acquire and many never can acquire it. C

To Keep Teas Right

After they are bought is another thing which no one can succeed in doing unless he is an enthusiast in looking after the "small details" of the Tea trade.

The Unflagging Attention

We give to the Tea branch of our business has demonstrated the truth of the above, and our lengthened experience gives us confidence in guaranteeing superior qualities which we invariably handle. We pride ourselves in our Tea Trade.

Our Finest Coffee

We positively guarantee to be of finer aroma and greater strength than the coffee usually sold. The properties of coffee require constant care and attention in order to retain its delicacy and purity. No one will be disappointed by using our Coffees regularly.

All Lovers

Of good Tea and Coffee know how easily both drinks may be spoiled on the stove. To secure the best results, therefore, a fair trial by the practical housekeeper is of course necessary to insure success.

Bricklayers' & Masons' Union,

No. 12, Peterborough.

To the Architects and Builders of the Town of Peterborough.

GENTLEMEN.—The members of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 12, Peterborough, have decided to take no sub-contracts after the 1st day of June, 1888. We take this step, believing it to be to the interest of Architects and Proprietors of buildings, to deal directly with us, and not as heretofore, letting our branch of work to Carpenters, and they have them sublet it to us, frequently at a loss to owners of buildings through inferior material being used to secure the carpenter a profit. We therefore, consider it would be to the interest of all concerned, to have each trade control its own line of work.

Signed on behalf of the Union.

The Daily Examiner.

FRIDAY, JULY 6, 1888.

The Weather.

Moderate to fresh winds, mostly west and north to-day southeasterly to-morrow; fine weather, stationary or lower temperature.

The Excursion and Picnic Fever.

The public has a bad attack just at this season and there is nothing more delightful than to see throngs of fresh, bright girls and ladies going out clad in fresh, bright print, purchased at the golden lion, where there are now offered 150 pieces of imported prints, worth fifteen, at ten cents per yard.

Keeping up the Population.

Next Tuesday is a day of excursions. Two from towns along the front, Whitby and Port Hope, will invade the town, and it is expected will pretty nearly balance off the large efflux of people who intend taking in the George street church Sunday school excursion to Sturgeon Point. This place is one of the finest summer resorts in Ontario, and everything is being done to give excursionists a comfortable and enjoyable time. The rates are most reasonable, and can be had from any member of the committees. Everyone who can should attend the excursion next Tuesday.

That Waste Paper.

"Say," said Chief Rossel to the EXAMINER this morning, "why doesn't that man that is complaining about the systematic dumping of waste paper on the streets come and tell me about it? How am I to find out who does it if he and the others who know all about it won't tell me? It's all very well to complain to the press, but it's quite another thing to pick out the guilty man."

The chief is about right, too. The police can't always be on George street watching for people to empty paper on the streets. If some of these people who see it done would complain he would be only to willing to act.

The chief further stated that most of the waste paper that has been flying about the streets this week was thrown around on Dominion Day.

A Brilliant Success.

The social and promenade concert in the Murray street school grounds last night was a most enjoyable affair. It is estimated that fully 400 people were in attendance, and the total receipts from the gate and refreshment stands are expected to foot up about $75. At the booths strawberries, ice cream, cake, etc., were sold, while one could stroll 'neath the electric lights or dance upon the platform to the music of Prof. Doucet's orchestra. Mr. James Coughlin was the efficient floor manager. The evening was thoroughly enjoyable for all parties.

[NOTE.—In the report of the pic-nic at St. Leonard's on Dominion Day the name of Miss Mary Morency was inadvertently omitted from the list of ladies in charge of No. 2 Ward table.]

The Contracting Carpenters.

A meeting of the large majority of the contracting builders of the town was held in Snowden's new hall on Simcoe street, Thursday night. There were present, Messrs. A. Douglas, D. Gamble, W. Fitzgerald, Thos. McKee, W. Langford, W. Roberts, A. Rutherford and T. Rutherford. Mr. A. Rutherford was appointed chairman, and Mr. T. Rutherford secretary. After general discussion of the action taken by the Bricklayers Union in its relation to building interests in the town, it was decided to adjourn for further consideration till next Tuesday evening, when the contracting builders will be prepared to take formal and decided action. They say that it is their desire to shape their actions as contractors in the public interests and that they will endeavour to take such a course as will retain to them the confidence of the public, which they have enjoyed in the past. The general feeling of the meeting was opposed to combinations of any kind.

Avoid Hasty Judgments.

Don't judge a man by the clothes he wears. God made one and the tailor the other. Don't judge him by his family for Cain belonged to a good family. Don't judge a man by his failure in life, because many a man fails because he is too honest to succeed. Don't judge a man by the house he lives in, for the lizard and the rat often inhabit grander structures. Don't judge a town councillor by the wind he emits; he may be a solid citizen a good councillor and a "good provider" at home. Don't judge an insurance agent by his "gall," for he may be a very modest man in private life; his business demands cheek as much as a newspaper man's requires honesty and modesty. Don't judge Gough Bros., clothing by its price for they have the best goods bought at a bargain and the prices are marked down to the bottom, on the genuine good Samaritan system. Every thing in the line of men's boys and youth's clothing at the cheapest bottom prices. High price goods at hard time prices. The pinnacle of superlative unapproachable, preeminent cheapness rears its lofty crest in the store of Gough Bros., George street Peterborough.

Harvey Hospitality.

A gentleman from Peterborough, who has been travelling in East Harvey, says that the people of that township are ahead of us in some respects. On his way up the Buckhorn road he had occasion to call at Mrs. McMartin's, Lark Hall, and this lady, with her customary hospitality, invited him to dinner. He was surprised at seeing on the table new potatoes, good-sized and dry, grown in her garden, and huckleberry pie, the first of the season. Needless to say he enjoyed the treat. This probably accounts for the robust, comfortable and well-kept appearance of the residents of Harvey.

Accident to Mayor Stevenson.

This forenoon as Mayor Stevenson was carrying a pail of water across the lawn attached to his residence, in passing under the knotted limb of a tree, the sharp point tore his scalp from back to front, making a very painful though not serious wound. Mr. Stevenson will fortunately not be confined to the house.

A $10,000 accident policy in the Manufacturers, Wilson & Morrison agents, would have brought $50 per week if disablement had followed.

A New Paving Brick.

Samples of an English paving brick were received by Mr. James Stevenson this morning from the old country. The bricks are made at the Staffordshire potteries of a composition of blue clay and glass, and are 10x5 inches and about the thickness of an ordinary brick. The bricks are largely used in England, and are laid down with mortar. They are said to cost $40 per thousand delivered here. A thousand would pave about 29 lineal feet of a 12-foot walk. The substance is hard and very durable. For crossings and stable floors a thicker brick is used. The samples may be seen at the Mayor's office.

Meeting the Minister.

Thursday night a social gathering of the congregation of the Charlotte street Methodist church took place at the school room and grounds. There was a large attendance and in the grounds a large tent, generously supplied by Mr. J. J. Turner, was placed and devoted to refreshments and in the grounds the Fire Brigade Band was also placed, and during the evening, excellent music was supplied. In the Sunday school room small tables were spread about and at these ice cream, strawberries and other refreshments were served in abundance by the ladies. The occasion was meant to afford an opportunity to the congregation of meeting their new pastor, Rev. S. J. Shorey, who was present and was kept busy during the evening greeting new parishioners and exchanging a few genial words with each. His urbanity and unassuming cordiality of manner gave as favorable and assuring impressions of a personal nature, as the reverend gentleman's pulpit ministrations have afforded in regard to the satisfactory discharge of his public trust. The occasion was a most enjoyable one, successful in every sense, and the spirit evoked by it suggests a favorable augurry of the cordial relations and active co-operation likely to exist between the people and pastor for the next three years.

The Gazette's Retraction.

In response to the representation of Mr. J. O'Meara, solicitor of Mr. H. LeBrun, the Barrie Gazette publishes the following retraction of its libellous statements against Mr. H. LeBrun, and its apology therefor:

In a report of the Peterborough v. Barrie lacrosse match, which appeared in the Gazette on the 13th instant, and which was furnished by one of the players (not connected with the Gazette office,) to one of our office hands and by accident published, without our knowledge until our attention was drawn to it after publication, there appeared the following statements: "These drawbacks, however, were trivial to others their other opponents presented, viz: the crowd and an umpire, by name LeBrun, whose decisions, of a most partial and unmanly nature, won what the Peterborough papers truly state 'a remarkable victory.'"

Also: "Another face, another throw, and another game allowed by Mr. LeBrun, although the ball did not go within 2 feet of the flags. LeBrun, it was afterwards ascertained, had money on the match—hence his extraordinary zeal."

We retract these statements as they are wholly false and untrue. Mr. LeBrun is a gentleman we have no acquaintance with and we certainly have no ill will towards him. We regret that any untrue statements should have appeared reflecting on his reputation as umpire in the Peterborough v. Barrie lacrosse match.

The Collegiate Institute Question.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—I noticed with pleasure your article in yesterday's issue in reference to the Collegiate Institute. While I agree with it and think it admirable so far as it goes, I recognize the fact that you could not exhaust the subject in one brief article. Permit me to add my quota. The public and those interested will remember that the present buildings were erected a long time ago, and were at that time amply sufficient for all purposes required of them. But, while the buildings have remained stationary, the growth of the town has been rapid and great. The school population has largely increased, and has forced the problem of providing further accommodation upon the town. The present union school buildings are far too small for the uses demanded of them. Now we must have either increased public school or Institute accommodation. It is doubtful if, under the most favorable circumstances, the buildings can be brought to meet the requirements of the department for Collegiate Institute purposes, and the public are therefore face to face with the solution of the problem in the shape of a new institute building. I am told that the popular feeling is not in favour of a new building. This is most unfortunate. The abolition of the Collegiate Institute would be a blow to the reputation and progress of the town from which it be a long time recovering. If the people would look at the question in the right light their objections would disappear. I fear they are not properly educated up to a full appreciation of the value and import- of an institution of higher education, and I fear that those who are in a position to do so and are directly interested in the maintenance of a Collegiate Institute, the teaching staff, do not take sufficient interest in instilling into the public mind a proper sense of appreciation of the advantages conferred by an Institute. Indeed to much apathy exists in all classes in regard to the subject, but the time has come when decided and prompt action must be taken. Certain requirements must be met, and in default of meeting them the interests of education and the reputation of the town will suffer. I sincerely hope that the committee to which the matter was intrusted at the latest meeting of the board will take such action and pursue such a course as will avoid the disgrace—for I cannot regard it in any lighter sense—of the town of Peterborough being deprived of its Collegiate Institute.

Yours faithfully,
VIGIL.

The Muskoka Judgeship.

The following article, in reference to the judgeship of Muskoka and Parry Sound, is clipped from the Canadian Freeman, Kingston. It is understood that Mr. O'Meara, of this town, was led to believe that he would receive the appointment; yet his claims were ignored and set aside, notwithstanding the strong influence exercised in asserting his right to such a recognition of his political services. This action on the part of Sir John creates no surprise, and it indicates his opinion that he has so firm a grip upon the allegiance of his following that he can afford to overlook the services of even those to whose influence he owes, to a very last extent, the fact of the government having a supporter in this riding. The Freeman says: "We have learned with deep regret that the Dominion Government has seen fit to appoint Mr. Mahaffy of Bracebridge, Judge of the Provisional County of Muskoka and Parry Sound. We regret it for two very special and telling reasons the first being Mr. Mahaffey's unfitness for the position, of which unfitness Senator Gowan knows something, the second being the injustice done by this appointment to the claims of meritorious Conservative barrister's such for instance, as our friend Mr. O'Meara of Peterborough. The government, when the the latter gentleman's application was first put before them expressed a desire — other things being equal to give the place to a local man. We freely admit that there is a good deal to be said for the assumption of such a position by the government, and would offer no emphatic opposition to Mr. Mahaffy's appointment did we feel convinced "that other things were equal." Let us be precise. The position demanded an able lawyer, a lawyer without professional taint or tarnish. Party requirements exacted also, the appointment of a Conservative. Mr Mahaffey has some ability—so at least, we would believe—but, from gentlemen capable of judging of mental grasp and legal requirements, we learn that he is in both respects very inferior to Mr. O'Meara. Our readers already know our opinion of this gentlemen. That we hold him to be one of the very best lawyers in the country, and that he is professionally as personally without taint or tarnish."

Apsley.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Ball playing in Apsley is a nuisance. The boys ought to be fined for breaking windows and tramping gardens looking for the ball when they knock it away.

Crops look well, except hay, rather light.

Mrs. Samuel Dobson and Mrs. Albert Tamblin, of Orono, have been visiting at Mr. John Young's, in Anstruther. They went away by train from Coe Hill.

There is nothing doing at the iron ore there now, but Mr. Walsh is running a steam shingle mill; he has just sent off on the cars, at Coe Hill, six hundred thousand shingles.

The Rev. Mr. Moran is living in one of Mr. Coe's houses. He expects to get up a parsonage pretty soon, at Coe Hill.

We had a nice rain on Thursday, and on last Friday week we had a big thunder shower. The lightning killed three head of cattle belonging to Sandy Trotter, of Chandos.

The Orangemen of Apsley are to have a pic-nic on the 12th at Lean's grove.

The Salvation Army of Lakefield would be invited up on that day, but the temperance hall will be occupied on the 12th by a concert in the evening.

A Business-like Offer.

For many years the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have offered, in good faith, $500 reward for a case of Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure. The Remedy is sold by druggists at only 50 cents. This wonderful remedy has fairly attained a world-wide reputation. If you have dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; if the eyes are weak, watery and inflamed; if there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice being changed and has a nasal twang; the breath offensive; smell and taste impaired; sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility, you are suffering from nasal catarrh. The more complicated your disease, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians. b

Mr. J. B. McWilliams is confined to his residence by a sharp neuralgic attack. His condition showed improvement this morning.

Mr. Albert Dawson, of Port Arthur, is in town for a few days' visit. He has been absent from Peterborough for about seven years. Latterly he was in business in Port Arthur with Mr. John Wells, but disposed of his interest to Mr. Wells with the intention of going to New York to secure a more complete knowledge of the plum bing.

Another practice match, the Peterboroughs against a picked nine, will be played on the grounds to-night. All the players are requested to be on the grounds before seven o'clock.

Spots of Sport.

The Riverside Lacrosse club is scheduled to play at Bradford next Thursday, the 12th, but it is expected they will let the game go by default. If, however, the Bradfords promise a return match in August (the return not being scheduled till September) the Riversides may get up a team and go Thursday.

The lawn tennis meet Thursday afternoon was well attended and a few hours' healthful recreation were indulged in by the young people.

Picnic and Presentation.

On Tuesday, the 26th ult., the Sunday School in connection with the Wesleyan church, 16th concession, Smith, held their annual picnic in Montgomery's Grove. A large crowd was present. Games and amusements were indulged in until tea was served. It was a grand spread. After tea Mr. J. R. Craft, Superintendent of Sunday school, was called to the chair and a programme, consisting of music, readings and speeches, was rendered, to the satisfaction and delight of all. Towards the close, the pastor, Rev. A. L. Adam, solicited subscriptions in aid of the Sunday school fund, and $22.00 was raised. Afterwards, he made a short address, in which he referred to the progress of the work during the past two years, which he attributed to the faithful work of his predecessors, and the zeal that the people had manifested throughout the mission for the cause of God.

The following address was then presented to Mr. Adam:—

REV. MR. ADAM;

DEAR SIR,—We, the members of Wesley Sunday School, together with a few friends, desire to convey to Mrs. Adam, through you, our sorrow and regret at her departure from among us. During her short sojourn here, she has won the good will of all. As Sunday school teacher and church organist, she filled her place with more than ordinary ability. We now request her acceptance of this ten dollar gold piece as a small token of our esteem. We are sorry she is unable to be present on this occasion, and trust she will soon be restored to her usual health. In conclusion, we take the opportunity, on this, the eve of your departure from our midst, of wishing yourself and your amiable and estimable lady (Mrs. Adam) all the blessings of life, and trust that your pathway may be illumined by the sun of prosperity and happiness, and that we may all meet in the upper and better world, to part no more.

Signed on behalf of the Sunday School and friends—

J. R. CRAFT.
STEPHEN HARRISON.

Mr. Adam replied in suitable terms, referring to the kindness of the people throughout the circuit during his pastorate.

Mr. Adam was also kindly presented with a purse of about $14.00 by his Bible class in Buckhorn on the preceding Thursday.

Cold Springs, Otonabee.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Foot Ball Match.

The Cold Springs F. B. C. and Crystal Springs F. B. C. played a return match on the evening of 27th June on a field kindly given for the occasion by Mr. B. Crowley of that neighborhood. The match resulted in a complete victory for the Cold Springs, the Crystals did not score a single goal. In the beginning of the match Willie Fawcett while playing in the Cold Springs forwards got his leg badly hurt and had to be removed from the field. This unfortunate mishap left the Cold Springs team a man short for the balance of the time, and must have made it harder work for the rest of the club. Mr. Armstrong, of Benefort, performed the duties of referee in a most acceptable manner to all concerned. About 300 visitors were present, and as the weather was fine they enjoyed the fun splendidly.

[The captain of the Cold Springs club wishes the EXAMINER to say that there was no match played with the Fraserville "Checkers," as mentioned in the correspondence in last week's issue.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

What We Notice.

That the Fan Season is not over yet.
That our Stock of Fans will have to be renewed again if the demand keeps up like this.
That merit is the measure of success.
That it takes "sand" to get up head.
That it is often a little lonely at the top.
That we would like some of our competitors to "try, try again."
That we haven't pulled the ladder up after us.
That they can climb as well as we, if they learn how.
That our Pic-Nic Baskets are great sellers.
That it pays to advertise.
That a plain statement of facts is not boasting
That travel must be brisk judging from our large sales of Trunks and Valises.
That progression, not retrogression, is a good motto.
That there is no "long felt want" in our line which we have not got.
That "ROUTLEY" has become a familiar household word.
Even though he don't want all the earth.

Two Hundred Lumber Kings at the Capital—Appointments and Notices from the Gazette—Killed by an Engine.

OTTAWA, July 7.—The following appointments which have been already announced are gazetted to-day:

Hon. A. W. McLelan, Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia from July 1.

Hon. Joseph Royal, Lieutenant-Governor of the Northwest Territories from July 1.

Hon. T. Galt, Chief Justice of the Common Pleas Division of the High Court of Justice of Ontario, Administrator of the Province of Ontario during the absence of the Lieutenant-Governor.

Mr. Wm. White to be Deputy Postmaster General from July 1.

Mr. W. D. Lesueur to be Secretary of the Postoffice Department from July 1.

An order-in-council has been passed which will give great satisfaction to contractors. Hitherto contractors, who are required to deposit 5 per cent. of the contract as security, have not been allowed any interest on their deposits unless they made special arrangements with the bank in which the deposits was made. This they often neglected to do, and great dissatisfaction was felt on the completion of the contract to find that no interest was allowed. The new order requires that all securities shall be deposited in the Government Savings Bank and the usual interest is allowed.

The Canada Screw Company of Hamilton give notice of application for supplementary letters patent increasing the capital stock from $100,000 to $500,000, the additional $400,000 to be added to and invested in the American Screw Company of Providence, R.I., and also granting additional powers to the company.

The Bank of Nova Scotia gives notice of a semi-annual dividend of 3½ per cent., and the Merchants' Bank of Halifax of one of 3 per cent.

An order-in-council has been passed transferring the Inland Revenue division of Peterboro from the inspection district of Toronto to that of Kingston.

It is said that Mr. Reynolds, at present in the land office at Brandon will succeed Mr. Chipman as private secretary of the High Commissioner of London, Mr. Chipman returning here as private secretary of Hon. C. H. Tupper, Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

Hon. Mr. Foster will probably leave Monday for the Maritime Provinces.

A portable sawmill owned by Wright & Spear caught fire about two miles east of South Indian, on the Canada Atlantic Railway, yesterday afternoon about 4 and was entirely destroyed, together with seven carloads of lumber and a large quantity of cordwood. About 300 feet of track took fire and was destroyed.

H. Dutton, roadmaster of the Canada Atlantic, was killed at Valleyfield yesterday morning by a shunting engine.

One of the largest limit sales ever held in Ottawa took place at the Russell House yesterday afternoon when the Hamilton Bros' estate was offered. The property consisted of a mill at Hawkesbury, limits on the Gatineau and tributaries and the Dumoine and tributaries, farms at Hawkesbury and on the Gatineau. About 900 timber kings were present and the aggregated wealth was estimated at $80,000,000 to $100,000,000. The first lot was the Gatineau limits, 934 square miles, bought by W. C. Edwards at $128,000 for the limit, about $32,000 worth of plant and supplies to be taken at valuation. The second lot, 751 square miles on the Dumoine, after very lively bidding, was knocked down to H. H. Egan for $396,000, exclusive of plant and supplies, worth about $30,000, to be taken at valuation. No bid was made for the Hawkesbury mill and all the other property was withdrawn on account of the low prices offered. The Dominion limit is said to have been bought by Mr. Egan for a syndicate composed of himself, Hiram Robinson, Robt. Blackburn and W. R. Thistle.

The gross debt of Canada on June 30 was $261,321,855, and the net debt was $227,242,784, showing a decrease during June of $745,632. The expenditure on capital account to June 30 amounted to $4,627,000. revenue statement for June shows the receipts to be $3,177,133, and the expenditure $2,409,253.

Found in the Niagara River.

FORT ERIE, July 7.—The body of Jacob Kimmick, a resident of Buffalo, was found floating in the Niagara River yesterday, just below the International Bridge. It is said Kimmick was recently prevented from committing suicide in Buffalo and it is believed that he jumped into the river with suicidal intent.

Some Rich Ore.

PORT ARTHUR, July 6.—Mr. Turnbull, representing a Duluth firm, at the head of which is Mr. Mouger, is working on a silver lead vein in the unsurveyed part of the township of Dorion. The vein is a very strong one. For several miles it can be walked on as easily as walking on the sidewalk. Mr. Turnbull is getting out some fine ore.

THE GOSSIP OF LONDON.

MR. PARNELL AND THE LIBEL SUIT AGAINST THE TIMES.

Grave Charges against the Irish Leader—Points from the New Life of Mr. Forster—Phyllis Broughton Gets $1,000.

LONDON, July 7.—The verdict for the defendant in Mr. O'Donnell's action against The Times satisfies nobody, except perhaps those, if any there be, who had reason to dread coming disclosures. Lord Coleridge practically stopped the case, and is sharply criticised for doing it. The Times gets a verdict which is no consolation. Mr. O'Donnell's reputation remains what it was. Nor is Mr. O'Donnell's reputation a matter of prime interest to the English public. Everything pales in importance when compared with the new charges brought by The Times against Mr. Parnell.

The statements made on Wednesday by the Attorney-General are admitted by both sides to be of the gravest character. The question is whether they can be proved. The main points alleged by the Attorney-General are in substance that Mr. Patrick Egan, during the year before the Phœnix Park murders, was in correspondence from Paris with the Invincibles and with Mr. Parnell; that Mr. Egan told Harris that Mr. Parnell was for prompt, decisive action; that Mr. Egan was sending Carey, one of the assassins, money and asking when they should get value for their money. Then early in 1882, comes a letter from Mr. Parnell written in Kilmainham jail to Mr. Egan in Paris beginning, "Dear Egan," and saying, "What are these fellows waiting for? They undertook to make it hot for old Forster. Why don't they?"

The body of Mr. Parnell's letter from Kilmainham is admittedly not in his handwriting, nor is it known who wrote it. The signature is alleged to be genuine. How it came into the hands of The Times is not disclosed. Nor, said the Attorney-General, would they, even if the refusal cost them a verdict, say how they got it. But they expected to prove by experts and otherwise that the signature was really Mr. Parnell's. He, of course, denies it, as he denied and still denies the signature to that alleged facsimile letter which has been so long before the public. Many other things are denied, and everything would have been for the jury. But on the issue now raised all men are agreed. If these letters are genuine and these accusations true, Mr. Parnell will be driven from public life in England. If the letters are forged, and the Egan and Byrne stories not proved to the satisfaction of the public when occasion offers, The Times will have to step down and out and the reaction in favor of Home Rule may even bring Mr. Gladstone back into power. Failure to make good The Times' case would, in short, be regarded here as evident that these charges were the result of conspiracy, but now nobody can say what steps it will next be taken. The situation is equally difficult for The Times and for Parnell. The Irish leader, though repeatedly challenged, has steadily refused to bring an action for libel. He could not, as Mr. O'Donnell has done, refuse to enter the witness box. Once in questions would be put to him which he would have either to answer or to decline to answer, and either alternative would be damaging. He is not protected by privilege as a minister or ex-minister would be. Such Gladstonians as I have seen since the verdict say that they presume Mr. Parnell will content himself, as he has done hitherto, with a blank denial of the authenticity of the letters.

Mr. Forster's life just published supplies Unionist journals with a text from which they one and all preach anti-Home Rule sermons. This book brings suddenly to life those life and death issues in which Mr. Forster as Irish Secretary bore so great a part. His letters were admirable. They are the man, simply manly, frank and true as steel. The stories of his escape from assassination read like so many romances. Their literal truth is now conceded. But what the Unionists most dwell upon is the contrast here seen between the Gladstone of 1881 and the Gladstone of to-day. His letters to his own colleague, now published, show the eager advocate of that very policy which he condemns wholly as practised by the present Ministry. He denounces the League, upholds coercion and condemns not only boycotting, but combination. If the existing law did not make it illegal he is for amending the law—nay, he wanted in 1881 to hold an autumn session to put down the League, his own fancy, as he says, against the opinion of the Cabinet. Many are the points of contrast now brought into relief. It is pleasant to find how loyally Mr. Gladstone for a time stood by his colleague, nor when he sacrificed him did he do it without deep reluctance. Putting politics and controversies of every kind aside, the excellently written life abounds in interest. Mr. Wemyss Reid has done his work well and has done justice, so far as I can judge thus early, to one of the best Englishmen of his time. Mr. Forster's private letters show him to even better advantage than did his public life. His utter sincerity, his unflinching courage, his high aims, his readiness at all times to sacrifice himself to a cause he had at heart, his perfect independence, his astonishing ability, and his still more astonishing power of work—these, and many other fine traits and qualities, are now more than ever clearly visible.

Phyllis Broughton's suit for breach of promise against Lord Dangan has been withdrawn. I am told that her former lover sent her his autograph to smoothe her ruffled feelings, and that unless she keeps it as a memento it is good for £2,000. G. W. S.

BISHOPS AT LONDON.

The Successor to the Late Archbishop Lynch Discussed Yesterday.

LONDON, July 7.—A conference of Bishops of the Catholic Church was held here yesterday at the residence of Bishop Walsh, there being present among others Bishop Cleary, of Kingston, and Bishop Dowling of Peterboro'. It is understood that the object of the meeting was to take some steps towards having a successor to the late Archbishop Lynch recommended to the holy office.

To Meet at Toronto.

LONDON, July, 7.—The Pan-Presbyterian Council has accepted an invitation to hold its next meeting at Toronto.

The Committee on Foreign Missions submitted a report on the question of co-operation with other churches. Dr. Murkland supported the report. Dr. McMaren, of Toronto, advocated encouraging native churches to assume an independent position. Dr. Fraiser, of New York, argued that if divisions in the Church continued missionaries could hardly be expected to act in a different spirit while laboring among the heathen.

The Need of a Canada-Australian Cable.

LONDON, July 7.—The complete breakdown of the Eastern Telegraph Company's system between Java and Port Darwin is creating a strong feeling among the commercial public in favor of a Pacific cable from Vancouver and Australia. The opinion is expressed that the Imperial and Colonial Governments should hasten the proposed survey of the route.

Winnipeg Jottings.

WINNIPEG, July 7.—It is reported that the survey party on the Manitoba Central has been withdrawn and the work of grading suspended. All negociations between the Government and the company have been broken off. The Northern Pacific officials left for St. Paul this morning.

The Ogilvies will buy 5,000,000 bushels of wheat next fall.

THE EDUCATIONAL CENTRE.

A Law Faculty to be Established at Toronto University.

TORONTO, July 7.—The Minister of Education has almost perfected the plan for the formation of a law faculty in connection with Toronto University and entirely independent of the Law Society. It is expected that the faculty will be completed before the opening of the University in October. Arrangements are now making with a number of distinguished men for a course of lectures in all departments required for the degree of LL.B.

It is expected that Mr. W. J. Ashley, M.A., who has been appointed to the chair of political science in Toronto University, will sail for Canada in September.

It is understood that Hon. G. W. Ross will ask the Legislature for a grant of money to provide accommodation at the Normal School buildings for a department of manual training and for carpenters' benches and tools and other necessary equipment. In its inception it is proposed that experiments shall be made in wood only, and that instruction shall be confined to the senior form of the Model School. The primary and correct purpose of manual training is not to teach a trade but to encourage habits of observation, to afford muscular exercise, and to give the benefit which is derived from change of occupation.

The annual meeting of the Stock Exchange was held yesterday, when the following officers were elected for the coming year:—President, H. L. Hime; Vice-President, W. S. Cassels; Treasurer, C. S. Gzowski; Secretary, J. W. Beatty. Committee, R. S. Cassels, H. C. Hammond and J. Stark.

The remains of R. W. Flack, the rash adventurer who lost his life while attempting to navigate the whirlpool rapids at Niagara Falls, on the anniversary of Independence Day, will be interred this afternoon in St. James Cemetery. The body will arrive at the Union depot at eleven o'clock this morning, and will be taken in charge by the brethren of Mystic Lodge, R. of P., of which lodge the deceased was a member in good standing at the time of his death. His widow will receive $1,000 from the Endowment Fund of the Order.

Judge Robertson yesterday gave his long-expected decision on the application for an injunction to restrain Judge McDougall from proceeding further with the investigation into the civic Board of Works department. His lordship in effect holds that Judge McDougall had no power to go outside of Inspector Laskie's dealings with the Board of Works, and therefore enjoins him from further doing so. This will practically shelve the investigation.

Arrangements have been completed for the Orange celebration here of the bi-centenary of the landing of William III. at Torbay. The Orangemen will attend divine service in the Bond-street church on Sunday, and on July 12 a monster procession of the city Orangemen and those from the surrounding counties will march through the principal streets to the Exhibition grounds, where speeches will be delivered by Mayor Clarke, Prof. Goldwin Smith, Prof. Wm. Clark, of Trinity College, and others.

John Grulish was yesterday sentenced to three months' imprisonment in the Central Prison for larceny by the police magistrate.

The Central Bank Liquidators obtained a direction from Judge Robertson yesterday to notify the creditors of the bank by advertisement of an application by petition that the liquidators who are mortgagees of the estate of D. Mitchell McDonald have leave to acquire the assets of the departed under their blanket mortgage.

An order has been issued by Judge Robertson in Queen Victoria Niagara Falls Park v. Howard, restraining the defendants from proceeding with certain excavations on the land bordering upon the river near the Falls.

The Police Commissioners have consented to permit Policeman Jarvis to enter an action for libel against The Evening Telegram in connection with the Wilson case, and the officer will commence proceedings at once.

At 11.30 last night a stabbing affray occurred in Mother McKinley's dive, 60 Ontario-street, in which a young man named Samuel Downey, residing with his mother at 160 Euclid-avenue, was seriously and perhaps fatally wounded.

A Big Lot of Logs Adrift.

RAT PORTAGE, July 7.—Lumbermen, in cutting logs on the Rainy Lake and tributary rivers to the Rainy river, place the logs in booms and leave them until they get the number out ready for towing to the mills. This season the water in the river has risen to an unusual height, and has raised the booms over the guards, letting all the logs in booms loose, to float promiscuously over the lake. As near as can be ascertained the following is a correct amount of the logs which have got loose: Keewatin Lumbering and Manufacturing Company, 10,000,000; Dick & Banning, 2,000,000; H. F. Holmes, 300,000; Minnesota and Ontario Lumber Company, 5,000,000; Rainy Lake Company, 4,500,000; Hughes & Kennedy, 100,000.

A School Mistress' Pluck.

BROCKVILLE, July 7.—Byron Loverin, of Greenbush, fell from a vehicle in which he was riding the other night near Bellamy's station, and the horses becoming frightened dragged him for a considerable distance while they were running at a high rate of speed. The alarmed steeds were brought to a standstill by Miss Webster, who teaches in that vicinity, and Mr. Loverin was rescued from his perilous position. He was quite seriously bruised, but miraculously escaped fatal injuries.

Attempted Suicide.

MRAFORD, July 7.—Geo. Tomlinson, one of the sureties for the late bailiff, A. Watt, attempted suicide by wading into the river. He was noticed in time, and his son went in and brought him out. It is believed his mind has been affected by thinking of his responsibility for the amount of the late bailiff's shortage, and also the loss of money loaned him prior to his departure.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Representative McKinley of the Ways and Means Committee says that the passage of the Tariff Bill in the House is a foregone conclusion.

MR. PARNELL'S DENIALS.

THE IRISH LEADER'S STATEMENT IN THE COMMONS.

He Denounces as a Forgery the Letter said to have been Smuggled from Kilmainham Jail to Egan.

LONDON, July 7.—On the assembling of the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. Parnell rose to make an explanation concerning certain statements made in connection with the O'Donnell-Times trial. He declared that he never saw Patrick Egan's letter of Feb. 24, 1881, which was read at the trial with the view of showing that the League instigated the Phœnix Park murder. He was convinced it was a forgery. The imputation against the O'Learys was false. In regard to his letter dated simply "Tuesday" and saying "I see no objection to your giving the amount asked for. There is not the least likelihood of what you apprehend happening," Mr. Parnell said it might be genuine, but he could not recollect it. As to Egan's letter of Oct. 23, 1881, to Carey, saying, "I sent you £200. When you get to work give us the value of our money," and which Attorney-General Webster stated the police found in Carey's house, Mr. Parnell said that doubtless genuine letters from Mr. Egan were found there, but Mr. Egan had never been legally charged, and he had sent a cablegram denying the authorship of the letters attributed to him. Mr. Parnell denounced as an absolute forgery the letter which it was alleged he wrote, and which, it was claimed, was smuggled from Kilmainham Jail to Egan, urging him to immediate action, and to make it hot for "old Forster." He never wrote, signed, saw, nor authorised the communication.

Mr. Parnell then reiterated his assertion that he had neither signed nor authorised the letter dated May 15, 1882, which bore what was alleged to be his signature and which was published a year ago. He said he had not used a signature similar to the one attached to to this letter since 1879. He had then adopted a different style of signature. ("Oh!" from the Ministerial benches.) The letter of June 16, 1882, was also a forgery. The Byrne letter was doubtless genuine, but he had never sent Byrne any money. He had subscribed a small amount to the Byrne testimonial.

"The great majority of the letters read at the trial," Mr. Parnell continued, "are palpable forgeries. If they are credited it must be supposed that I deliberately put myself in the power of murderers, that I was accessory to the Phœnix Park murder before and after the fact, and that I entered Kilmainham jail desiring to assassinate Mr. Forster. The absurdity of the whole series of letters, with a few exceptions, shows them to be forgeries."

Mr. Justin McCarthy followed Mr. Parnell with an explanation of the statement that he had given Byrne a cheque for £100. He acknowledged that he gave the cheque to Byrne, but said that he had never suspected Byrne to be anything but a hard-working servant of the societies devoted to winning Home Rule for Ireland by constitutional means.

The Lanark Mine.

VICTORIA, B.C., July 7.—The Selkirk Mining Company have made the last payment of $8,000 due upon the Lanark mine. The report of the committee sent last week by the directors of the company to inspect the mine is very satisfactory. The ore body in the 100 feet level has widened to 20 feet, a part of which is composed of lead carbonates, similar in appearance to the Louisville and Eureka ores. They are slightly richer than the galena hitherto found, assaying nearly 90 ounces of silver to the ton, and 65 to 70 per cent. of lead. The vein seemed to extend in the direction of the Red Fox ground. A purchase of the latter ground was made while the inspecting committee were there for the Selkirk Company. It now seems highly probable that the Lanark mine will become one of the famous mines of the Pacific coast.

The Canadian Packers' Association.

HAMILTON, July 7.—At the meeting of the Canadian Packers' Association Mr. Boulton reported that in the Bay of Quinte district the strawberry crop is a complete failure and that the crop of tomatoes and peas will also be poor owing to the drought. It was reported that in the Niagara district the outlook for tomatoes and corn is not as favorable as was expected owing to the ravages of a grub that attacks the young plants. The next meeting will be held in September in Toronto during exhibition week. Officers will then be elected. J. B. Maclean of Toronto was elected secretary-treasurer pro tem.

The Massett Extradition Case.

DETROIT, July 7.—United States Commissioner Davison's office was thronged with a crowd of people from Huron County, Ont., who were present to attend the extradition proceedings of a marble-cutter named Henry Massett. Massett's alleged offence is that of forging the name of a man named John Price to a note for $45. Commissioner Davison gave the defence more time to procure witnesses.

A Jockey's Fatal Experiment.

ST. THOMAS, July 7.—David Adams, an employee in Shaw's livery stable, Ridgetown, on the advice of one Graveline, took five doses of epsom salts in succession to lighten his weight while acting as jockey for Dr. Lumley in the Ridgetown races. He was found on Tuesday morning on the Benton House steps asleep and overcome by the treatment, and has since died.

Fire at Oshawa.

VANCOUVER, July 6.—The new workshops of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Vancouver are in running order. The round house contains twenty stalls. An area of about ten acres is covered by these workshops and sidings. Their capacity for turning out work is very large.

The Adulteration of Milk.

The First Case of the Kind in this County—A Full Resume of the Evidence.

The first case in this district of milk adulteration was tried at the Court House Tuesday, June 26th, before P. M. Edmison. The plaintiff was Mr. Robert Rollins, milk inspector and cheese instructor for this district, appointed by the Dairymen's Association, and the defendant was Mr. John Wasson, of Warsaw. The trial aroused a deal of interest amongst dairymen in this section, and for their benefit we give a resume of the evidence.

Mr. S. B. Burdette, of Belleville, conducted the prosecution; Mr. E. B. Edwards appeared for the defendant, and declined to plead whereupon the magistrate entered a plea of "not guilty."

Robert Rollins, sworn, said he was a milk inspector and cheese instructor appointed by the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association. He saw the defendant at Warsaw cheese factory on June 4th, and again at his house in Dummer. On that day he (the inspector) set all the milk at the Warsaw factory in cream guages to ascertain its quality, and found the usual quantities of cream except in two samples, one showing about ¼ inche and the other from ½ to ¾. The average in the section was 1¼ inches. He (the witness) further deposed:—"I was testing the milk in the factory when the defendant came in and asked me if I was the milk inspector. I said yes. He asked me who sent me there. I said the Association. He asked me who paid me. I said the Association. He said if our milk was not right we can manufacture at home. Nothing was said about whose milk it was I was then handling. The milk I was then testing contained from ½ to ¾ of an inch of cream, and butter fat 5 marks by the other test. The tests I made showed that the milk was lacking a little over ½ of cream and butter fat as compared with the sample of milk I took from his stand at his farm, and nearly half of the average of the milk at the Warsaw factory. After making the tests at the factory I went to the defendant's farm and told him I wanted a sample of the milk taken from his cows on the evening of the 4th June. He told me it was on the stand, and I went and took a sample of the milk. I took it to the hotel at Warsaw and tested that milk next morning with both cream guage and other tests, and it showed a little over one inch of cream and between nine and ten marks butter fat on the other test. The tests I made were honestly and accurately made and were made very carefully. At the factory I tested with the cream guage about 35 samples and found the average about 1¼ inch cream on the cream guage. I tested only four samples with the other test. I found Mr. Kidd's and Mr. Smith's good; the other two were five and eight marks respectively. The one marked eight was milk said to be taken from one cow, which would not be a fair test, different cows and different breeds [illegible] as varying in quantity and [illegible] give milk fair average we tak[illegible]antity, and to get a milk sam[illegible] a whole herd or all the [illegible] to the factory. I only knew whose milk it was I tested at the factory by what the cheesemaker and the milkdrawer told me. I have been testing milk for eighteen years and I have never known the cream guage and other tests to prove incorrect.

To Mr. Edwards the witness said it made no difference whether milk is tested soon after being drawn from the cows or after having been kept for a time. It ought to show the same quantity of cream and fat; but some milk will give off its cream much quicker than other kinds. He had no idea as to the average time cream takes to rise. He never had any special training in the business, but had been handling cream guages for about 18 years; the other test only since 21st of May last. He had a week's instruction from Prof. Whitton. Witness said he had found milk at other factories as defective as that said to be the defendant's. To the question, "Does it make any difference in the facility and quickness with which the cream will rise to the surface, whether the cream be warm or cold at the time the vessels containing it are placed in cold water?" witness replied, "No." Continuing, he said he took the sample of milk from the defendant's cans, but did not know whether the milk from all his cows had been placed in the cans or not. The sample then taken proved to be below the average of milk at the factory. In making the tests mentioned he had never used the lactometer.

James Whitton, sworn, said he was cheese instructor and milk inspector for the Eastern Dairymen's Association, and had been so employed for six years; had been engaged testing milk and making cheese twenty years. The cream guage and other test were both reliable tests. Assuming the evidence of Mr. Rollins to be true, it would be his (witness') opinion that the milk in question had certainly been tampered with by the cream being removed. The other test was introduced about three years ago, and he had used it ever since. The mode of testing adopted by Mr. Rollins he considered right and proper. The milk referred to might have been tampered with by putting water in it, but from the evidence he thought the cream had been removed, though he would not like to swear positively that the defect might not have been caused by the addition of water. The keeping back of the strippings and removal of the cream from one can would show the same result as Mr. Rollins' tests showed. Keeping back the strippings alone would not do so.

Robert Rollins (recalled) stated that the defect he found in the milk, said to be that supplied by defendant, at the factory was not caused by the addition of water; if it had been he would have discovered it.

Mr. J. K. McCargar, sworn, said he was president of the Eastern Dairyment's Association. He had had over eighteen years' experience in testing milk. He had heard most of Mr. Rollins' evidence and the whole of Mr. Whitton's; he heard Mr. Rollins describe the mode in which he had made the tests, the instruments used and the result found by him. He said the instruments were reliable and the mode adopted correct, and he would say that the milk which he referred to as showing four or five marks only, by other tests, was skimmed, that is, the cream had been removed therefrom. If the milk had been adulterated with water, either test made would have shown it. If only the strippings had been kept back, that would not show the same result, but keeping back strippings and removing part of the cream would.

Mr. A. E. Kidd, sworn, said he was a partner of the factory spoken of, which is at Warsaw. He was present at the factory when Mr. Rollins made two tests. Mr. Rollins explained to him that it was what was known as the other test which he was making. He apparently made the tests with care. There was a very marked difference in the two samples of milk tested. One was said to be his (Mr. Kidd's) and it showed, as it seemed to him, about three times the quantity of butter fat that the other did.

[At this point the prosecution asked for an enlargement for the purpose of procuring further evidence to prove that the several samples of milk said to have been tested by Mr. Rollins were the milk actually furnished by the parties whom he believed furnished the same, and in order to save such enlargement Mr. Edwards agreed to admit this on condition that it be understood that the case should be closed so far as the prosecution was concerned.]

THE DECISION.

P. M. Edmison to day rendered judgment, finding the defendant guilty and imposing a fine of $20 and costs. The full text of the judgment will be published on Monday.

A CONFIDENCE OPERATOR.

A So-Called Circus Agent Fails to Secure Victims.

Victoria, B. C., July 6.—On Tuesday a young man giving the name of H. L. Vanderbilt, and describing himself as the contracting agent for an immense circus which would exhibit in Victoria, introduced himself to the newspaper men of the city. He related a big story about the size of the show, which was represented to have 30 elephants and 200 people, and said it was the intention of the proprietors to sail from Victoria for Australia on the steamship Nicaragua early in August. He was a little, dapper dude, closely shaven, with a light summer suit and white hat, and generally had the appearance of a lemonade vender at a circus. Inquiry at several places of business revealed the fact that he had made contracts for supplies, and afterwards asked for a percentage on the amount of the order, or a loan of fifty dollars. Finding that he was suspected, he left the city this morning, having purchased a new suit of clothes and leaving his old duds in the room of his hotel. As far as we have been able to learn he failed in his game and departed no richer than he came.

Collingwood's Natural Gas and Salt.

Collingwood, July 7.—Mr. E. R. Carpenter bagged a quantity of the natural gas the other night and lit it alongside a gasoline jet. The lights were almost identical, with the difference in favor of the natural gas, inasmuch as it burns without smoke. It gives a clear white light, of great brilliancy.

Mr. C. E. Stephens also launched out as an experimentalist and secured a pitcher full of salt water from the bottom of the well in No. 1 ward. The water is exceedingly briny, and has salt in large quantities. There is evidently salt, as well as gas, in No. 1 ward, though whether in paying quantities or not remains to be seen. One experimentalist obtained a quantity of salt by boiling a pot full of water.

Dandruff, Baldness, Thin or Grey Hair

Everybody knows how disagreeable it looks to see Dandruff falling from the head to the shoulders of either lady or gentlemen. The head may be washed ever so often, but it will not clean out this evil. The only sure way to get rid of it is to use

DR. DORENWEND'S

HAIR MAGIC

It keeps the Hair and scalp in a healthy condition, prevents premature grayness, and stops all falling out of the hair. A person may be bald, but the roots may only be dormant and simply require stimulating to encourage a luxuriant growth of hair. "Hair Magic" will be found invaluable in these cases.

Do not delay, but get a bottle at once while there is a chance of successful results. All Druggists sell it.

A MISSING BOARDER.

Several Hamiltonians Would like to Find Mr. Thomas Vanderlip.

HAMILTON, July 7.—Joseph Miller of 32 Hunter-street east would like to interview Thomas Vanderlip, a good looking and well dressed young man, who boarded at his house for a couple of days, and is supposed to have skipped out. A suit of clothes belonging to Mr. Miley and another suit owned by a boarder named Thompson disappeared simultaneously with Vanderlip, and it is suspected that they were taken by him. The same gentleman hired a horse and buggy from Frank Post and he has failed to return them. The horse was a favorite one of Mr. Post's and was valued at $225. When Vanderlip went away he had a damsel with him who claimed to be his wife.

While James Mills, a teamster employed by Hendrie & Co., was loading a lorry at the Northern and Northwestern freight sheds, he fell over in front of the wagon under the horses' feet and one of the horses stepped on him. He sustained serious injuries about the chest.

The date of the laying of the new City Hall corner stone has been definitely fixed for July 19 at 11.30.

Constable Watson arrested Arthur Scranton for neglecting to support his children.

THE KING COUNTERFEITER.

Charles Johnston Arrested by the Toronto Detectives.

TORONTO, July 7.—At an early hour yesterday morning the Toronto detectives, assisted by Dominion Detective O'Leary, arrested Charles Johnston, who is credited with being the King counterfeiter of the new world. The charge on which he was arrested is that he has engraved plates of the currency of the Bank of British North America, and it is from these plates that the bogus bills of this institution with which Canada, and more particularly Ontario, was flooded, were printed.

Three weeks ago Johnston was arrested in Michigan, but succeeded in making his escape. To elude the U.S. detectives he came to Canada, but the detectives here were on the look-out for him and found him last night. When arrested he was in bed at the house of the Johnston family in this city. He was taken to Sarnia last night, where an indictment for counterfeiting awaits him.

The Laudanum Route.

GRAVENHURST, July 7.—William Rorke, formerly of Kingston, procured an ounce of laudanum at a drug store early yesterday morning and drank the entire quantity. Physicians were immediately summoned and made every effort to save his life, but he died about noon. Rorke was much addicted to drink and has been on a protracted spree for some time.

Jumped and Broke His Leg.

LONDON, July 7.—While engaged at work on the new Graham-road bridge recently, Mr. David Watterworth, brother of the young man who lost his life in the late accident, was drawing on a rope, which slipped, and seeing he was about to fall he jumped to the ground, a distance of ten feet, breaking his leg at the ankle.

A Singular Death.

ORILLIA, July 7.—Last week a little son of Mr. Madden had a tooth pulled and on the day following the operation he went out barefooted and caught cold. The gum inflamed, and the result was that the boy died from blood poisoning.

Rheumatic Pains

Require no description, since with rare exception, all at some time have experienced their twinges. Rheumatism is not easily dislodged, only the most powerfully penetrating remedies reach to its very foundations. The most successful treatment known, and it is now frequently resorted to by medical men, is the application of that now famous remedy for pain—Polson's Nerviline. It is safe to say that nothing yet discovered has afforded equal satisfaction to the suffering. A trial can be made at a small cost, as sample bottles of Nerviline can be had at the drug store for 10 cents, large bottles 25 cents. 6d28w

A Distressing Disease.

"I wish to give my testimony in favor of Burdock Blood Bitters. I had been troubled with Erysipelas and was induced to try this valuable medicine. I have used three bottles and am now well as ever." Mrs. L. Finch, Cedar Creek, Ont. 2w26d

Worth Remembering.

Mr. Jas. Binnie, of Toronto, states that his little baby when three months old was so bad with summer complaint that under doctor's treatment her life was despaired of. Four doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cured her. She is now fat and hearty. 2w26d

Well Tossed.

"I was nearly dead with Cholera Morbus, one bottle of Extract of Wild Strawberry cured me, and at another time I was so bad with Summer Complaint that I thought I would never get over it, when two bottles cured me." Mrs. E. Askett, Peel, Ont. 2w26d

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. dw

From Moropane, Man.

Mr. Joseph Clark writes—"All last winter I was so bad with Inflammatory Rheumatism that I was not expected to live. I used no other medicine but Burdock Blood Bitters and can now get around again feeling better than I ever was before I was taken sick, and I owe it all to Burdock Blood Bitters." 2w26d

It Can't be Done.

The engineers have examined Hunter street at Cummings' woolen mill and say that it is impossible to run the C.P.R. spur line under the street by tunnel. An engine stands 19½ feet high, and consequently the tunnel will have to be 20 feet high. They say it can't be done. But it can be done, for the golden lion sells splendid prints, worth fifteen cents, at ten cents per yard. A choice range of imported prints, 150 pieces. Having Her Ears Pierced.

Friday afternoon a couple of young ladies entered a jewelry store. One of them wanted her ears pierced, and the other had come along as "company." As in a case of tooth-pulling, exaggerated fears troubled the victim of the operation, and as the incision was made her strained nerves gave way, and she fainted. An effort was being made to revive her, when the other young lady's strong sympathies overcame her, and she, too, fell prostrate to the floor. Business was at once suspended, and all hands were called forward to the work of resuscitation. After a few minutes both recovered, the other ear was pierced without a quiver, and the two ladies left, thoroughly satisfied with their experience.

Warkworth also has an Orange demonstration, and the Orangemen of North Ontario intend celebrating the 12th at Omemee.

Baptist Pic-Nic.

For want of space we we unable to give the notice it deserves to the Baptist church pic-nic on Thursday, which was the largest as well as most successful held down the river this season. To the scholars of the school ninety tickets were gratuitously distributed, yet the total proceeds were over $60. The credit of the great success of the pic-nic is due to the teachers and senior pupils of the school, among whom may be mentioned Mr. and Mrs. Duff, the Messrs Matthews, Eastwood, Webber and Scott, (Dr.), also Mrs. and the Misses Aldridge, the Misses Stratton, Miss Maggie Matthews, and others. No efforts were spared by these to make the stay at the point enjoyable to the utmost, and special attention was given to the enjoyment of the children. The return trip was enlivened by voluntary contributions of vocal selections, Mr. W. H. Wrighton being conspicuous. The excursion and picnic were unanimously voted a complete success in every respect circumstances, no doubt, referable in a large degree to the influence of the pastor, Rev. P. Clifton Parker, who since his assumption of the pastorate, has shown himself an earnest worker, and has infected the congregation with his energy, especially the younger members of it.

Successful Students.

Commencement Exercises of the Peterborough Business College—A Large Number of Graduates.

A few friends of education and the Peterborough Business College attended the commencement exercises Friday evening, when the graduates of the last term were awarded their diplomas. The students were all there and evidently felt proud of the occasion. The rooms were brilliantly lighted and ornamented with evergreens and flowers. Mr. D. J. Bannell Sawyer, the Principal, and his new associate in business, Mr. G. S. Bean, were there to receive their guests.

Mr. James Stevenson, M.P., took the chair, and in a brief introductory speech commended the Business College as operating in a sphere of education not touched by the public schools. He was personally aware of the success of the Peterborough Business College, and was sure that under the new management its past record would even be improved upon.

THE STUDENTS' WORK.

The Glee Club rendered "Just To day," after which a number of essays on "Success" were read by a number of the pupils. The essays were all written by the students. The judges, Messrs Earl, Bean and Colbeck, found no difficulty in awarding the first prize to Miss Collins, with special mention to Miss Martin's essay, further adding that all were very fair. The others were Miss Montgomery and Mr. Marshall Next an exhibition of typewriting and shorthand was given by Miss Robinson and Messrs. Pratt and Matthews. These departments are ably attended to at the college, and the test showed how thorough was the training of the pupils.

AWARDING DIPLOMAS.

After a song by Miss Collins, the diplomas were awarded to the following graduates:—Miss Ipsa Martyn, John C. Anderson, Miss M. Montgomery, W. H. Bradburn, Miss B. Morgan, Miss Maggie Halliday, Josiah A. Marshall, Miss Bessie Allen, Miss Flora Rutherford, Fred. J. Pratt, Arthur R. Cook, James Cumming, Miss Grace Robinson, Silas W. Carter, W. G. Matthews, and Arthur Stewart.

[The last four named had before graduated from the College, but had remained and taken special courses, for which they received diplomas on this occasion.]

In presenting the diplomas, Mr. Principal Sawyer congratulated the recipients, urging a few sound words of advice upon each of them for future guidance.

A FEW ADDRESSES.

Mr. G. S. Bean, the new partner in the firm of Sawyer & Bean, then made a few remarks touching upon the advantages of a practical business education and the difference between a business college and public schools and universities. The education of a business college was not intended to be an end in itself, he said, but simply the means to an end.

Ice-cream and cake were passed around among the audience, Mr. Sawyer and Mr. Dumble meanwhile making brief addresses. The latter admitted the advantages of a business education, but while the public school education would not, perhaps, fit a young person so well for life's struggle, it was necessary for the sake of the expansion and culture of the brain it afforded. A business college course was entirely practical; a school or university education tended to cultivate the higher instincts and finer perceptions.

PRIZE WINNERS.

The Principal announced that the following students had won the prizes offered for excellency in the different departments of the college education:—

Miss Bella Griffith, Peterborough, general proficiency.
Miss Grace Robinson, Bobcaygeon, type writing.
Mr. Fred J. Pratt, Ottawa, Shorthand.
Mr. J. A. Marshall, Orangeville, writing and improvement.
Miss Minnie Collins, Cobourg, best essay.

FAREWELL WORDS.

Mr. Sawyer, in conclusion, thanked those present for their attendance, which was an additional encouragement to him to persevere. Three years ago on the 30th of June he and Mrs. Sawyer had come to Peterborough and established the College, and though at first the prospects were not bright, in three months they had about fifty or sixty pupils, and since that time the College had prospered steadily. He took for his motto, "animo et fide," and he had held steadfast to its principle.

The chairman, on behalf of the audience, thanked Mr. Sawyer and pupils for the entertainment provided them, after which the National Anthem was sung and the audience dispersed, highly impressed and pleased with the evidence the occasion afforded of the thoroughness and extremely practical nature of the knowledge imparted by the Peterborough Business College and the eminent adaptability of the course to the preparation of students for the practical duties of life in a wide range of departments.

The flowers and plants used in decorating were kindly loaned by Mr. James Long, confectioner; the bouquets for the students by Misses Martyn, Rombough and Richardson.

An assault case, arising out of a quarrel at a restaurant, was settled by the defendant, T. Coonan, being fined $5. The complaint was laid by Richard Foster.

A case of forestalling on the market, brought by P.C. Adams against Mrs. Minorgan, was dismissed.

Pope vs. Beavis, the enlarged case respecting the building of defendants' house on Simcoe street, was further enlarged to allow Mr. Beavis to fulfil the provisions of the fire limit by-law.

J. Little charged H. Stevenson with obtaining goods under false pretences. It seems the defendant bought a load of hay from the plaintiff, and there was a dispute about the pay. The case was enlarged till Monday. Mr. E. B. Edwards for plaintiff, Mr. G. W. Hatton for defendant.

Spots of Sport.

The Norwood Register complains bitterly of the funk of the Millbrook lacrosse club on July 2nd. After faithfully promising to play they back out without notifying the Norwood team, who went to the train to meet them but were "fooled." They also complain of "dirty" treatment when they played at Millbrook, and the Register adds: "We would warn all clubs in this section against holding any intercourse whatever with the Millbrook Club. Honor and veracity are unknown vitues among its members."

The Peterborough Baseball Club played a picked nine who styled themselves the "Paralyzers" last night. The score was 12 10 in favor of the Peterborughs after five innings. Cameron pitched two or three innings for the winners and very few runs were made off him.

The Whitby Chronicle has the following item as a special advertisement for the excursion to Peterborough from that town next Tuesday:—"There is to be a ball match at Peterborough that day between Peterborough and Port Hope, supposed to be the champion amateur clubs of Canada." Hear, hear! See what it is to become famous.

It has been decided to postpone the regatta announced for Monday night till Thursday night, as the lake is crowded with logs at present. A good programme is promised Thursday evening.

After the weekly run of the Bicycle Club Friday night the wheelmen in line were invited to the residence of Mr. F. E. Bell, a member, where they were given refreshments and a jolly termination to their evening's enjoyment.

The Lindsay Y.M.C.A. Lacrosse Club cannot play here on the 11th. The return match will not now be played till the latter end of August or early in September.

Both teacher and student are to be congratulated.

How Engineer Ryan was Drowned.

ST. THOMAS, July 7.—Mr. F. Verboyck, Chief of Division No. 379, B. of L. E., of Ashland, Wis., arrived in the city yesterday afternoon with the body of Mr. John Ryan, formerly Michigan Central Railway Engineer, who lost his life by drowning at that place on Monday last. It appears that Mr. Ryan was engaged in shunting near a high trestle work, across a body of water, in which was a large number of logs. The deceased got off his engine to talk to a friend, leaving the engine in charge of his fireman. The two were standing on the trestle engaged in conversation when the fireman backed down on the trestle with a number of cars. Both men had to jump into the water to save their lives. The deceased, it is thought, must have struck his fireman on one of the logs in the water, for when he rose to the surface he appeared to be dazed, wiping off the water from his face with his hand, but making no attempt to take hold of a plank and sticks reached out to him.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

PERISHED IN THE FLAMES.

Four Persons Burnt to Death in a Sault Ste Marie Farm House.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., July 9.—The farm house of George Dobbs, located seven miles from here on the Canadian side of the river, was burned early Friday morning. George Dobbs, aged 72; David Merrifield, 21; Alice Thomson, 9, and another child perished in the flames. The fire started from a smudge, and when discovered by Mrs. Dobbs, who is 70 years old, was beyond control. Mrs. Dobbs quickly awoke her husband and Mr. Merrifield and descended to the lower floor. While groping about in the stifling smoke she stumbled and fell through a trap door into the cellar, and from there made her escape to the open air. The two men, unable to find any exit, fell back into the flames and were consumed. The children were asleep in another part of the house and were suffocated. The woman, who had no time to put on any clothing, lay exposed to the chilly air till the morning, when her cries attracted the attention of a neighbor. There is little hops for her recovery.

No Insurance.

CAMILLA, July 9. The shingle mill of Mr. James Smith, Elba, was destroyed by fire about 3 o'clock Saturday morning. How the fire origiaated is not known. The loss is estimated at $1,000. No insurance.

Serious Fire at Bowmanville.

BOWMANVILLE, July 9. -Fire Saturday afternoon totally destroyed the Alma Hotel, Trinity Congregational Church, the residence of Mrs. Shaw and the outbuildings of David Fish. There was an insurance of $4,000 on the church.

PITCHER'S BOODLE.

All the Union Bank's Stolen Securities Recovered in London.

PROVIDENCE, July 9.—The Union Bank officials have received word by cable that the whole bundle of securities, bills receivable and other property, stolen by Charles A. Pitcher, the defaulting teller, have been received in London. Pitcher had mailed them to "J. A. Roberts," his assumed name, and believed them safe from the bank and that it was in his power to keep their hiding place a secret until the bank would be ready to compromise and come to terms on a basis of Pitcher's holding out for $50,000 cash. His stealings aggregated $700,000.

The Examination at Montreal.

MONTREAL, July 9.—The preliminary investigation in the Pitcher case was continued on Saturday when the evidence of officials of the bank as to Pitcher's sudden departure and the abstraction of the funds and securities of the bank was heard. A number of letters written by Pitcher confessing his crime were also read.

Quebec Shipping Statistics.

QUEBEC, July 9.—The comparative statement of arrivals and tonnage at this port to date shows thirty-nine ocean sailing vessels and 12,076 tons less than at the same time last year, and eighteen ocean steamers and 13,792 tons less than last year. Of the Lower Province vessels there were seventeen and 13,252 tons less than last year.

Mr. O'Donnell writes to a news agency that his counsel adopted the mode of procedure taken at the trial of his libel suit at the instigation and on the unasked advice of two eminent Gladstonian members of the House of Commons.

HONEST BUT PREJUDICED.

MR. PARNELL'S FRIENDS SATISFIED WITH HIS DENIAL.

His Opponents do not Consider it Convincive of his Innocence—Davitt Challenges the Government to Try Him.

LONDON, July 9. The press on the O'Donnell trial is not very instructive. The views expressed are on both sides partisan; honest no doubt, but prejudiced. All the Unionist papers consider a strong prima facie case against Mr. Parnell made out. All the Home Rule papers are confident that the letters on which the prima facie case rests are forged. Mr. Parnell's statement in the Commons convinces, so far as I can see, only those who were convinced before. His denials covered the whole ground. He spoke coldly and contemptuously, amid silence hardly broken except by Irish cheers. The Liberals observed in the House an attitude of reserve which they certainly do not in private or the Gladstonian press. Mr. Parnell's speech was the result of a conference with his English allies, who profess entire confidence in his innocence.

The Times retorts upon him with two long articles, and makes its points sharply enough. Mr. Parnell based his denial in part upon the theory that Mr. Egan's letter to Carey was admittedly found by the police in Carey's house, and the police evidence is worthless. No, says his accuser, that was not alleged and is not admitted. Mr. Parnell says that his "Dear E." letter about "making it hot for Forster," is alleged to be in the handwriting of his secretary, Mr. Campbell. It was not so alleged, answers The Times; the Attorney-General expresely said that he did not know whose handwriting it was. Mr. Parnell told the House that he had been two days in court, ready to give evidence. "Yes," replies The Times, "you were there on a subpœna and would have to go to jail if you had not obeyed the summons of the court." "The signature of the fac-simile letter," says Mr. Parnell, "is one I had not used since 1879." "But you told the House last year" cries The Times, "that that signature was an audacious fabrication, containing only two letters which bore any resemblance to any letters in your own signature!" And The Times winds up with a fresh challenge to Mr. Parnell to bring an action for libel. Other Unionist journals think that in no other way can the issue be fairly tried.

You may judge of the heat generated by this controversy from Mr. T. P. O'Connor's remarks. Nobody would think of calling Mr. O'Connor, to use an expression which this trial has made classical, mealy-mouthed, even in ordinary matters. He now observes that Sir Henry James told a deliberate falsehood in court in order to gain an advantage over his political opponents; that the Attorney-General, who is the head of the English bar, was guilty of a scandalous violation of all the decencies and of all the traditions of his profession; and that Mr. Walter, the proprietor of The Times, uses the foulest weapons ever employed since—note the phrase—since the well-merited death of Titus Oates. Yet I think that Sir Henry James continues to practise in court, the Attorney-General is still Attorney-General and The Times comes out as usual.

The Daily News follows Mr. O'Connor's lead, and pronounces the charges against Mr. Parnell absurd and the documents produced in support of them mere rubbish. Then this zealous advocate discharges its whole armory of adjectives on Mr. Walter and the Attorney-General. It accuses the latter of using his position as a member of the Government to obtain official information for the purpose of his private practice, of bringing silly and infamous charges, and of making defamatory aspersions of the grossest kind, which he declined to support in any way, and concludes: "It is he, not Mr. Parnell, who stands upon his trial."

The judgment of the English people like that of the press, follows to some extent party lines, but is among impartial men—if such there be—held in suspense; nor will it be determined by mere violence on either side.

A Variety of Opinions.

LONDON, July 9.—The Pall Mall Gazette says the ministers obviously do not consider Mr. Parnell's denial as conclusive of his innocence. Their supporters declare the denial is false. The ministry, the papers say, must either expel Mr. Parnell from Parliament or dismiss Attorney-General Webster. No middle course is compatible with the honor and responsibility of the Government.

The St. James Gazette calls Mr. Parnell's statement a flabby mixture of denial, inaccuracy, inconsistency, misrepresentation and mendacity.

The Star, O'Connor's paper, rejoices over the fact that Mr. Parnell will not fall into The Times' trap and subject himself to Attorney-General Webster's dishonorable treachery and unscrupulous cross-examination before a London jury. Mr. Parnell, it declares, is now and always has been ready to submit his case to a committee of inquiry appointed by the House of Commons.

A Protest.

LONDON, July 9.—A demonstration was held at Glasgow on Saturday to protest against the imprisonment of Mr. Dillon. Mr. Michael Davitt challenged the law officers, if they believed Mr. Parnell guilty of the gravest crimes, to try him. The Government, he said, were false to their oaths if they did not put both himself and Mr. Parnell in the prisoner's dock.

They Had to "Move on."

LONDON, July 9.—A crowd assembled in Trafalgar-square on Saturday afternoon with the intention of holding a meeting. A strong force of policemen tried to break up the gathering. Sir Charles Warren, the Chief of Police, instructed them to keep the crowd moving but to make no arrests. In accordance with his instructions Messrs. Saunders and Conybeare were allowed to make speeches. The assemblage also succeeded in passing resolutions denouncing Mr. Balfour, Chief Secretary for Ireland. Scrimmages occurred constantly during the proceedings, and finally the police lost their temper and charged and dispersed the mob, making a number of arrests.

The Canada-Australian Cable.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., July 9.—The Japan Gazette says that H.M.S. Egeria is to survey a track 200 miles wide for a telegraph cable from Australia to British Columbia, a task which is expected to last three years. The route is to be from a point on the Australian coast to the north end of New Zealand and Fiji and thence to the terminus of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

English Imports and Exports.

LONDON, July 9.—The returns issued by the Board of Trade show that the imports for June increased £2,920,000, as compared with the same month last year, and that the exports increased £1,730,000 as compared with June of last year.

Signed the Scale.

PITTSBURG, July 9.—The Linden Steel Company of this city has signed the scale and will resume operations this week. The scale bow has eighteen signatures, including two of the largest firms in Pittsburg.

The Cote St. Louis Rioters.

MONTREAL, July 7.—Police Magistrate Dandurand gave judgment yesterday in the case of the Cote St. Louis rioters. The three worst were sent to jail for six months, the ringleader, Beaudry being also fined $50 or another six months for having brutally struck a constable when he was down. Four others received lighter sentences, and one

ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE.

A MYSTERY OF TORONTO BAY WHICH BAFFLES INVESTIGATION.

A Deadly Blow Dealt in Sport—Manitoba Matters—A Betrayal Stabber Seeks Refuge in Windsor.

TORONTO, July 9.—At 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon Mr. Thomas Ackroyd, proprietor of a boat house at the foot of York-street, dragged up from the bottom of Toronto Bay the body of a young girl, about 18 years of age, and apparently as pretty as she was young. The circumstances which caused him to drag the bay were as follows: Early on Saturday morning a laborer in the employ of the Conger Coal Company found a hat and parasol on the company's dock, just west of Lorne-street. Shortly after, a handkerchief, 7 cents in money and a pair of gloves were discovered on some piling immediately to the east of Hick's boat house. These two circumstances caused suspicion to be aroused that some woman had committed suicide. Esplanade Constable Williams was informed, and he spent all the morning in the neighborhood of the Conger dock, but not finding anything to reward his efforts he gave up the search.

The body was attired in a dark brown dress of corded material, closely fitting. The hair was dark and long, the complexion somewhat sallow. The cheek bones were prominent, and the eyelashes black and long. There was nothing to indicate violence and the features wore a tranquil expression. The only article which might serve to establish identity was a small gold ring with four white stones in the shape of a cross, which the unfortunate girl wore on her left hand. So far her identity remains shrouded in mystery.

On Friday night a gentleman who said he was from Orangeville, inquired at the Union Sation amongst the hackmen whether they had seen a girl answering the description of the deceased. He refused to give his name, but it is thought he may be able to clear up the mystery. An inquest will be held.

Another descent by the police Saturday afternoon on the various hotels at the Island resulted in the seizure of eleven kegs of lager at Heber's.

Mary McGinley, Thos. Downs and Sarah Downing, alias O'Hara, appeared in the court on Saturday to answer to the charge of having feloniously wounded Samuel Downey by stabbing him in the head. They were remanded till Tuesday. Downey is expected to recover unless inflammation sets in.

The remains of R. W. Flack, who was drowned while attempting to navigate the Niagara whirlpool rapids, were interred in the St. James Cemetery on Saturday.

Thos. Kenny, who jumped from the second story window of his house in a delirium caused by illness, has died from his injuries.

Dr. Wild preached the annual sermon to the Orange Order yesterday afternoon. There were over 3000 members of the various lodges in the procession.

Thomas Norman Gilding, aged 15, was drowned yesterday morning near the waterworks. He was playing at the wharf and fell into the water.

A 13-year-old colored lad named Jackson fell on a sharp pointed stick which entered the calf of his leg, forcing in with it a portion of his sock. The dye from the sock poisoned the blood and he died on Saturday night in terrible agony.

SUICIDE AT WINNIPEG.

The Knights of Labor and the Red River Valley Railroad.

WINNIPEG, July 9. -Work on the Manitoba Central has been discontinued, and it is said that there will be nothing done till after elections, when a caucus of Government supporters will be held and some policy decided upon.

The Knights of Labor warn Greenway of the alarming rumors afloat regarding the non-prosecution of the Red River Valley Railway, and want to know if it is to be built this summer to Winnipeg, and if so, by Government money, and if it is to be under Government control. The chances are that there will be lively times between the friends and opponents of the Manitoba Central.

Robt. A. Haskins jumped out of the third story window of the Leland House and was instantly killed. He was an old resident and was at one time worth $100,000.

Young Stockton shot Alex. O'Grady in the face yesterday, fortunately with a blank cartridge. O'Grady was badly hurt. Stockton tried to escape but was arrested.

Mitchell (Conservative) has retired from Russell, leaving the fight between the Reform and Independent candidates.

A BLOW STRUCK IN FUN

Causes the Death of an Inmate of the Hamilton Asylum.

HAMILTON, July 9.—Saturday afternoon a number of the inmates of the Asylum for the Insane were engaged assisting the gardener, when one of them named Joseph Burns struck another named David Moore in sport with the flat part of spade on the head. The blow left no mark on Moore's head and nothing was thought of the affair until the men were taken into the institution for supper, when Moore began to complain of his head. Shortly afterwards he became stupid. His breathing and other symptoms indicated apoplexy. In an hour the man died, despite all that could be done for him. Burns is a quiet sort of a man, and the officers of the institution are quite sure that he had no intention of doing any harm.

Word was received here this morning that Conductor A. Manners of this city was killed at Tottenham, on the Northern and Northwestern Division of the Grand Trunk Railway while coupling cars.

Drunken Rioters Killed.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., July 9.—A drunken mob attacked Thomas Tiernay's saloon and when they began to batter down the doors Tiernay fired several shots into the crowd. Richard Owens, a bricklayer of New York, was killed and Cornelius Walsh was mortally wounded. Both were young men. Eight of the attacking party were arrested on a charge of rioting and Tiernay was also locked up.

UNHAPPY QUEEN NATALIE

A ROYAL BLACKGUARD'S SCANDALOUS INTRIGUES.

Unionist Peers Decide to Support Lord Salisbury's Bill to Reform the House of Lords—The Vatican and the Slave Trade.

LONDON, July 9. The movements and counter movements for divorce by King Milan attract general attention throughout Europe. Queen Natalie receives almost universal sympathy on account of her husband's scandalous and unfaithful conduct. Even King Milan does not allege that the Queen has been unfaithful, yet because she will not condone his offences and resents the betrayal of Servia's interests to the Austrian Court the King asks the Ecclesiastical Synod to punish her, which it obediently proceeds to do. The Pall Mall Gazette asserts that a more vile job was never undertaken by a spiritual court at the dictation of the temporal power. King Milan proposes a separation a mensa et thoro, provided Her Majesty accepts the conditions which will be made known to her by Bishop Demetrius, who has taken them to Wiesbaden.

It is said that at a state reception Queen Natalie refused to follow the Servian custom and kiss a foreign minister's wife who was notorious for certain of her actions. When King Milan demanded an explanation Queen Natalie said: "I will leave that agreeable duty to Your Majesty."

Mr. Gladstone was present at a garden party at Lord Aberdeen's at Dallis Hill but he would not speak, pleading a sore throat. The Liberal leader was otherwise beaming and happy.

At a meeting of Unionist peers it was decided to support Lord Salisbury's bill to reform the House of Lords.

The relations of women to politics grow closer and closer. The Primrose League provoked the foundation of the Women's Liberal Federation for Gladstonian missionary work, and that in turn has given rise to the Women's Liberal-Unionist Association, which starts into being under the roof of that wonderful and admirable relic of an earlier generation, the Dowager Lady Stanley of Alderney. The Duke of Argyll made a speech; Mr. Chamberlain, whose gout is better, sent an approving letter, and Mrs. Fawcett spoke. The new league seems fairly launched, and more fair fingers are to dabble in the dirty water of politics.

Anxiety about Mr. Stanley is once more quickened by a statement imputed to Zobehr Pacha. Zobehr, who knows all about the Soudan, thinks that the White Pacha is not Mr. Stanley, but Emin Bey. The military authorities at Suakim and Cairo, however, still say it is Mr. Stanley who is marching on Khartoum.

Lady Salisbury's second Foreign Office party, given on Wednesday, is said to have been the least brilliant ever known in those great rooms. No royalties were among the guests; court mourning is still in a stage too strict to allow of their presence. The two kinfolk of the Queen who are supposed to have been granted some sort of dispensation for social purposes are Princess Mary and the Duke of Cambridge. They are to be seen in the world, but even they were not at the Foreign Office party. This assembly was given to soothe the feelings of the humbler politicians for whom no room was found at the first. A consolation party is what people call it. Lady Salisbury, whose command of idiomatic English is considerable, calls it a wash-up. Many diplomatists, however, put in an appearance, the smart world was not wholly absent, but there was a moment when some of the rooms seemed nearly half fall.

There are few places in London this week where there are no bishops.

A religious treaty has been ratified between the Vatican and the United States of Columbia. Pope Leo is making strenuous efforts to suppress the slave trade throughout the world and non-Catholic governments are invited to assist in the endeavor to put down the infamous traffic.

THE CZAR AND THE KAISER.

A Russian Protectorate to be Proposed for Bulgaria.

BERLIN, July 9.—The Czar has asked in an autograph letter to Emperor William that Prince Bismarck accompany the Emperor to St. Petersburg, where M. de Giers will formally present a proposal for a nominal Russian protectorate in Bulgaria.

The Pan-Slavist party of Russia does not approve the Czar's rapproachement with Germany. A Warsaw paper, the acknowledged organ of Gen. Gourko, asserts that the National party, with whom the Czar must reckon, is determined to reap the fullest results for the blood and money expended in the wars with Turkey.

The report of the doctors concerning the late Emperor Frederick's disease will be published this week. Each doctor is to give his individual opinion, dealing with the nature of the disease alone.

The Emperor in receiving the resignation of Gen. von Caprivi conferred upon him the Grand Cross of the Red Eagle and assigned him to the command of an army corps at the autumn manœuvres. The Emperor appears to attach the greatest importance to these manœuvres.

The South Pole expedition, planned several years ago by Dr. Neumeyer of the Marine Observatory of Hamburg, is likely to start in the spring. The Imperial Government has been asked to defray part of the expenses. Emperor William has made a favorable response, and has referred the question of the expedition to a committee of the Admiralty.

The Meinengen Company will start for the United States on Sept. 1 on a four months' tour. They will take all the properties and scenery of the Meinengen Theatre. The material will be insured for 1,000,000 marks.

His Pocket Picked of $224.

DETROIT, July 9.—As the 11 o'clock passenger train on the Grand Trunk line was leaving the Brush-street depot Saturday evening, David Fisher of Goderich, Ont., had his pocket picked of $224. The money consisted of two $100 bills, one $20 and two $2 bills. The Milk Adulteration Case.

Full Text of the Judgment Rendered by Police Magistrate Edmison—The Defendant Convicted and a Fine of $20 Imposed.

ROLLINS VS WASON.

In this case the defendant is charged with having, at the township of Dummer, in the county of Peterborough, on the 4th day of June, 1888, knowingly and wilfully sent and supplied to the Warsaw Cheese Factory milk to be manufactured into cheese from which the cream or part of the cream had been taken or removed, contrary to the statute in that behalf. The information is laid by Mr. Rollins, milk inspector for the Eastern Ontario dairymen's Association, under the Ontario statute, 51 Vic., chap. 32, sec. 1. On the trial the prosecution was ably conducted by Mr. S. Bardett, of Belleville, while Mr. E. B. Edwards appeared as counsel for the defendant.

At the opening of the trial the defendant's counsel took the objection that the statute under which the information is laid is ultra vires the Ontario Legislature, and declined to plead to the information until the court should rule on this point. I declined to decide the point but entered a plea of not guilty for the defendant and directed the prosecution to proceed, and I am still of opinion that I was right in doing so, for, although it may be that the objection was well taken, I do not consider it my duty, nor do I think it desirable, even if I have the power, acting in the capacity of judge of a court of limited inferior jurisdiction to undertake to decide a question of such importance, and if I should deem it my duty to find on the evidence against the defendant he can still have the full benefit of his objection by certiorari to the High Court of Justice which seems to me to be the proper tribunal to deal with such questions. I therefore refrain from expressing any opinion as to whether the objection ought to prevail or otherwise.

The first section of the Act under which the information is laid provides that:—

"No person shall knowingly and wilfully "sell, supply, bring or send to a cheese or "butter manufactory or the owner or manager thereof, to be manufactured, milk "diluted with water or in anyway adulterated or milk from which any cream has been "taken, or milk commonly known as skimmed milk, without distinctly notifying in "writing the owner or manager of such "cheese or butter manufactory that the milk "so supplied or brought to be manufactured "has been so diluted with water, or adulterated, or had the cream so taken from it or "become milk commonly known as skimmed "milk, as the case may be." The second and third sections provide against certain other frauds or offences not coming within the first section in dealing with milk sent or supplied to a cheese or butter manufacturer. The fourth section provides that "any person who by himself "or by his servant or agent violates any of "the provisions of the three preceding sections, upon conviction thereof before any "Justice or Justices of the Peace, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than $5, nor more "than $50, together with the costs of prosecution in the discretion of such Justice or "Justices, and in default of payment of such "penalty and costs shall be liable to be committed to the common jail of the county "with hard labor, for any period not exceeding six months, unless the said penalty and "the costs of enforcing the same be sooner "paid."

The fifth and sixth sections provide ways and means whereby the manufacturer may require the owner or custodian of cows whose milk is being bought for or supplied to his factory to submit such cows at his farm or other premises where such cows are usually kept, to such milk test, by persons named by the manufacturer, as may be necessary to ascertain the quality of the milk of such cows, and also to obtain samples of milk from such cows for the purpose of such test, and the seventh section provides that "For the purpose of establishing the "guilt of any person under the first three "sections of this Act, it shall be sufficient "prima facie evidence to shew that such "person, by himself, his servants or agent, "sold, supplied, sent or brought to be manufactured to any cheese or butter manufactory milk substantially below the standard "of that actually drawn, or by the accused "represented as having been drawn from the "same cow or cows within the then previous "week, provided the comparison or test is "made by means of a lactometer and cream "gauge, or by some other adequate means "of making the comparison." On the trial of this case, no witness was called to prove that the defendant was seen removing the cream or otherwise tampering with the milk he sold or supplied to the "Warsaw Cheese Factory" on the fourth of June; it was not even alleged that any such witness could be found, nor was it proved or alleged that any servant or agent of his was seen doing so, and if such direct evidence be indispensable to establish a violation of the first section of the Act, this prosecution must fail, for there is no such direct evidence. But is it necessary that such direct evidence should be given in every case in order to warrant a conviction? I think not. It seems to me quite clear that the Legislature intended by the statute that the offence might be established by evidence of a different kind. The 7th section of the Act expressly provides how the guilt of a party accused may be established in the absence of any such direct evidence by means of certain milk tests and by comparing the quality of milk sold or delivered by the accused with milk drawn or represented by the accused as having been drawn from the same cow or cows within the then previous week. And in this case the evidence of the complainant shows, and it is not disputed, that on the morning of the 4th of June the defendant supplied and delivered milk to the Warsaw cheese factory for the purpose of being manufactured into cheese and the quality of that milk was ascertained by testing it by means of a cream gauge and what is known as the other test. And by such tests it showed from a ⅛ to ¼ of an inch of cream in the cream gauge and 5 marks butter fat by other test. It has also been proved, and is not disputed, that on the evening of the same day the complainant obtained a sample of milk out of the defendant's milk can at the farm where the defendant's cows were usually kept and each sample was also tested by means of a cream gauge and other test and it showed a little over an inch of cream on the gauge, and between 9 and 10 marks butter fat by the other test; in other words it showed about double the quantity of cream and butter fat that the milk delivered at the factory that morning showed, and if the sample of milk taken by the complainant from the defendant's milk can at the farm on the evening of the 4th of June was drawn or represented by the accused as having been drawn from the same cows that supplied the milk which was taken to the factory that morning, and if it had been obtained within the then previous week, it seems to me that a prima facie case would clearly have been made out under the seventh section; for, although that section expressly provides that milk tests may be made by means of a cream gauge and lactometer, it also provides that such tests may be made by some other adequate means of making the comparison, and I find as a fact on the evidence that the sample of milk taken by the complainant from the defendant's milk can on the stand at the farm on the evening of the 4th of June was milk represented by the accused as having been drawn from the same cows as the milk delivered that morning by the defendant to be manufactured into cheese at the Warsaw cheese factory.

(Concluded to-morrow.)

Wesley Park Hotel Burglarized.

NIAGARA FALLS, July 9.—A daring burglary was effected at the Wesley Park Hotel during the early hours of Saturday morning, the burglars effecting an entrance, it is supposed, by opening the front door with skeleton keys. They cleared two rooms of their valuables by fishing them through the transons at the top of the doors. Rev. Nathaniel Sites, the Chinese missionary, loses $26 in money and $100 in jewelry and clothes. Mr. Strawn, the proprietor of the hotel, loses $15 in money, $600 in notes, checks for $81 and $70, a book of tickets for the Chicora and Cibola and jewelry and clothes amounting to $100. Canadian Yachts Win Prizes at Buffalo—Ball Record—Standing of the Clubs.

BUFFALO, July 9.—The Canadian yachts carried away $210 out of a possible $270 in prizes at the regatta here last week. Instead of being envious at the success of their nautical brethren from across the border, the Buffalo boys say it is the best thing that could have happened, inasmuch as it will spur them on to build faster boats. The Caprice of Toronto, which captured first prize in the second class, met with an accident which prevented her from going to Cleveland. She was lying in the harbor near the life-saving station preparatory to being placed on board a steambarge when the tug Maytham and steamer Mascotte came racing out of the harbor. A huge swell from the Mascotte struck the Caprice and the yacht dashed against the dock, smashing her spar. The White Wings and Cypress of Hamilton were towed to Cleveland to participate in the races of the Cleveland Yacht Club. From Cleveland these yachts will go to Put-in-Bay, where the White Wings will sail against the famous Alice Enfield of Toledo.

There was not the usual number of worshippers in church yesterday on account of the heated term and—other attractions. One hundred and fifty pieces beautiful print at the golden lion at ten cents per yard, worth fifteen.

Both Mrs Thompson and her late husband were well known to the older residents of Peterborough. Previous to her failing health she was an active member of St. Paul's church, a zealous helper in all good works. The funeral, which took place this afternoon, was largely attended.

Waggons will leave their respective stations at 7 o'clock sharp. Hot water for tea will be provided by the committee.

St. Luke's Anniversary.

The twelfth anniversary of St. Luke's church was celebrated yesterday by services of somewhat special character. In the morning, morning prayers, a sermon by the rector and Holy Communion, and in the evening, evening prayers and sermon. The rector prefaced his morning sermon with a reference to the establishment of the parish, in humble style twelve years ago, contrasting it with its present condition of advanced growth and prosperity, and made this one great cause of the theme of the sermon—from the text, the 1st verse of the 92nd Psalm—"It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord." In recounting the progress of the parish the preacher referred feelingly to the sight of familiar faces, who had shared with him the burdens and heat of the day, and who had helped so willingly and faithfully in promoting the advancement of all the interests of the church. There were good congregations at both services, and at both a strong choir rendered special music of a most satisfactory character. The parish of St. Luke's is flourishing under the ministration of an energetic rector, backed by a sympathetic and co-operative congregation. To-night, in continuation of the anniversary services, a garden party will be given on the rounds of John Burnham, Esq.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The Orangemen's Sermon.

Delivered by Rev. M. L. Pearson in St. Paul's Church—An Imposing Parade.

Sunday afternoon the Orangemen of Peterborough and Nassau paraded to divine service in St. Paul's church. The order of procession, which comprised over 100 men in regalia, was as follows:—

Fire Brigade Band.
Jubilee Lodge No. 7 'Prentice Boys.
M. A. Jamieson, Master.
King William Lodge No. 35, True Blues.
J. J. Smith Master.
No. 30 L.O.L., Peterborough.
C. W. Sawers, Master.
No. 49 L.O.L., Peterborough.
J. Wainwright, Master.
No. 457 L.O.L., Nassau.
A. Hamilton, Master.
Royal Black Knights of Peterborough Preceptory.

Arrived at the church the brethren occupied the front seats. There was besides a large congregation. Special music was rendered by the choir, under Prof. Parker's leadership.

Rev. Mr. Pearson read as a lesson the 13th chapter of the 1st epistle to the Corinthians, and chose as a text, Esther, vii, 9:—

"And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the King, Behold also the gallows, fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the King, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the King said, hang him thereon."

The book of Esther had not mention in it anywhere the name of God, and on this account some persons demanded its exclusion from the Canon of divine inspiration; but it was doubtful if in any book in the Bible there was a more convincing proof of the presence and agency of God in all the deeds it recorded than in this book of Esther. This was clearly shown in the sequel to the text. All of Haman's planning was in vain. God listened to the prayers of His people, and Haman was hanged on the very gallows he had intended for Mordecai. God is in association with all the events that are transpiring in the world, either as an originating cause or as a preventive influence. A most familiar proof of this was known to everyone. Did not the enemies of Christianity imprison John Bunyan, purposing his destruction, but God took hold of the circumstance and brought out that grand book, the Pilgrim's Progress? The freedom of our political and religious institutions in this land were owing to the association of God with the plot to destroy the brave men and women who crossed the Atlantic in the "Mayflower" for the sake of their religion. The illustration of Haman shows that God always overrules the conduct of the wicked for their destruction by their own plans. All this taught that God well works out his own ends, and men should place themselves in entire harmony with God's will. The attempts at the confutation and destruction of Jesus Christ resulted in the utterance of those beautiful parables that were the gems of the New Testament. What an immense amount of trouble Haman went to, to accomplish his own destruction. The years 1858 and 1863, as well as many other epochs in the history of the world, have exemplified Haman's case, wherein the wicked brought about their own destruction. United together as the brethren before him were for the accomplishment of the divine purpose, how needful it was that they should be in harmony with the divine will. Theirs, he said, was a specially religious organization. There are other societies that command esteem, but they are not strictly religious; they do not embody any of the special features of Christianity; their principles were so comprehensive that they merely admit the general principles of religion, principles that the Mahommedan may believe in as well as those who live in Christian lands. But Orangemen professed to found their organization upon the teachings of the Bible, and it was presumed there was a regulation in connection with their processions providing for the display of a copy of the word of God. Other than for the defence of their religion and country, the reverend gentleman said he knew of no purpose they had at all. How necessary was it then that there should be a most prayerful and earnest effort to harmonize the lives they lived with the doctrines of the book they so sacredly guarded. There was nothing so damaging to Christianity to-day as the inconsistent lives of those who professed to regard the Bible. The preacher said he feared the example of inconsistent lives far more than the combined influences of all the infidelity and Roman Catholicism in the country. Drunkenness, profanity, Sabbath-breaking, violations of the known and well established precepts of our holy christianity; these were what damaged the cause of Christ. It was of immense advantage that the brethren should meet together for public worship, as near the important anniversary that they held so sacred, and the minister urged them to hallow the service and make it ever memorable by the re-consecration of their purposes and lives. The best thing they could do in defence of their Bible, their Protestantism and their country was to be dutiful, and loyal, and faithful in the service of the Lord Jesus Christ. In conclusion he urged all who might not yet have received divine pardon and become followers of Jesus, to resolve to abandon everything sinful at once and consecrate their lives to Him.

Upon returning to the lodge room a vote of thanks was tendered Rev. M. L. Pearson for his sermon, and to the choir and stewards, the latter for placing the church at their disposal.

Suicide with a Razor.

Robert Northcotte Cuts his Throat and Bleeds to Death—Legal Difficulties Said to be the Cause.

Sunday evening about six o'clock the cold, stiff body of Robert Northcotte was found in the barn adjoining his house, his throat cut from ear to ear and his clothing and the hay on which he lay saturated with blood. On a box by his side, closed, was the razor with which the deed had been committed, the blade dyed in gore. The body was lying in a cramped position on some hay in the bottom of the mow, and in such a posture as to lead to the inference that he had stepped over the beam into the "bay," or mow, and, grasping the beam with his left hand, with his right he had drawn the keen razor across the throat, death resulting from the bleeding. His hands were tightly clenched and he was dressed only in a woollen shirt and trousers. It is supposed by the physicians that he died Saturday evening, some twenty-four hours before his body was discovered.

On Sunday he was missed by his relatives. No one had seen him since Saturday noon. He was to have called at the law office of Messrs. Hatton & Wood that afternoon, but did not. The house, in which he lived alone, was closed up and the key found where he had been accustomed to leave it. On Sunday the house was searched and everything found in order, his best clothes, gold watch and some money being undisturbed. This proved that he could not have gone away on a trip. The police were notified of his disappearance, and the search was continued, resulting in the finding of the corpse as described.

Deceased was aged about 65 years, was well connected, reputed wealthy, and generally respected. He was a widower, and lived alone in a little cottage just south of the driving park. It was known that he was troubled by legal difficulties, and some papers found prove that these depressed his mind and caused him to take his own life. In a drawer among other papers was found a letter giving directions for the disposal of his property, and on the back of an old account were noted some debts owing him. Along the bottom of the sheet was written, "I don't owe anyone anything." Across the middle was, "Somebody is swearing my life away," and along the side of the paper was written, "No more now; good-bye," and "You will find me in barn." The terrible act must have been seriously contemplated indeed, when he could thus calmly state where his body would be found.

Coroner Bell and Chief Rossel visited the house, but an inquest was not deemed necessary; the circumstances of the case were plainly apparent. The greatest sympathy is expressed for the relatives of the dead man; their feelings may easily be fancied.

The return match between the Bankers and Colts was played Saturday afternoon. In the first match the Bankers secured a nominal victory by 1 run, but on Saturday the Colts had ample revenge. The Bankers were easily put out for 64 runs, Smith getting 15, not out, and Parker 13, by careful play. Macdonnel was unluckily run out for 9, and Morris bowled for 0. For the Colts, G. Boucher, Kincaid and Irwin went out for 31 runs, but Pearson and W. F. Hamilton made a stand and soon ran the score up to 90. The Bankers were thus beaten already, and as there appeared to be no near prospect of Pearson and Hamilton being got rid of, the latter retired and Anderson and B. Boucher took their places. They fell an easy prey, but Hay and Orde batted steadily, and after sending up the score a bit higher the game was dropped, the Colts winning by 43 runs and 3 wickets. Irwin, Pearson and W. F. Hamilton trundled the ball for the Colts; Miles Hamilton, Parker and Morris for the Bankers. Following are the scores:—

Bankers.

McGill, b Hamilton	2
Parker, b Irwin	13
Miles Hamilton, b Irwin	3
Morris, b Irwin	0
Macdonnel, run out	9
Crane, b Hamilton	5
Shaw, b Irwin	1

Hamilton, not out	22
Anderson, b Parker	0

A Few Questions.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—Will you please let me ask through your columns the name of your correspondent, "Vigil," and permit me to ask how much Canadian money he has made out of the public purse? How much he expects to make and what he expects to gain by the erection of a fifty-thousand dollar building for the manufacture of non-producers, and if he has any real estate? If he will answer these questions I will talk to him.

Yours, etc.,
K. C. HILL.

K. C. PARK LOT.

There is a good deal of excitement over the sale of the K. C. Park Lot, which takes place on the ground at 2 p.m. to-morrow, 10th July. This land has been walked over, and stepped off and measured by scores of intending purchasers, till the people on the other side of Gilmour Street said they were as thick as crows.

The Church authorities have changed the plan, and, in deference to the intending purchasers, have decided to add 15 feet to the width of Gilmour Street, leaving the lots about 100 feet deep, to a lane in the middle. The lane will enable people to put their sheds right up to it and so save yard room, as wood, coal, etc., can be taken direct from the lane.

We expect to see a very lively sale to-morrow.

A "Bare" Escape.

The rivermen in charge of the drive of logs now passing through the lake are camped in Ashburnham and usually go about town in groups. Sunday one of their number got into an altercation with a young fellow living in town, and when late in the evening a number of the rivermen met him alone near the C. P. R. bridge they pounced on him, kicked and buffetted him unmercifully, and ended by stripping him and throwing him into the river, at the same time hiding his clothes. Upon swimming to shore he was again thrown in, and again and again, until the rivermen tired of their sport. This may lead to a feud between the town boys and the "drivers."

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

SAYS HE HASN'T SEEN IT.

HON. MR THOMPSON KNOWS NOTHING OF HANRAHAN & CO.'S PLAN.

It Rests with the Provincial Authorities to See that the Bucket Shop Law is Enforced—Sir John's Wisdom Tooth.

OTTAWA, July 10.—Hon. Mr. Thompsen, Minister of Justice, was asked by a reporter if his attention had been drawn to the plan by which Messrs. Hanrahan & Co. of Toronto intended to evade the Bucket Shop Act. "No," said Mr. Thompson, "I have not seen it and it has not been brought under my notice."

"Do you intend to take any action to prevent this procedure."

"That does not rest with us. The provincial authorities have to see that the law is carried out. As I have not seen the plan that Messrs. Hanrahan intend to pursue I cannot express my opinion."

About four years ago Sir John A. Macdonald cut a wisdom tooth which has hurt him nearly all the time since. Yesterday he decided to have it out, and out it came. The gums bled so profusely that he was exhausted and finally the hole had to be plugged. Then his face began to swell, and this morning he was unable to attend Council, which met at 11 o'clock. By 4, however, he felt sufficiently well to carry out his intention of leaving for Dalhousie, which he did, accompanied by Lady Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Macdonald and Sir John's young grandson. Sir John will be absent about a month.

The meeting of Council to-day finished up routine work. No more meetings are expected for some time. It is understood that no Cabinet appointments will be made until after the summer holidays.

IN WICKED HAMILTON.

A Young Lady Charged with Assault—Precocious Burglars.

HAMILTON, July 10.—Minnie Cleaves, a most respectable looking young lady, was charged in the Police Court yesterday with assaulting Nettie Street. The latter went to collect some money for a Mrs. Dallas from Miss Cleaves' brother. She did not receive the complainant very courteously, but pushed her out of the door when she wanted the young man to settle up. The case was dismissed without costs, the magistrate telling Miss Street that she had no right to be so persistent in asking Miss Cleaves for the money.

Three boys named Frank Grice, George Owen and John Hoar pleaded guilty at the Police Court this morning to the charge of breaking into the stand at Dundurn Park and stealing four boxes of cigars. They were each fined $5 or forty days. James Walton, the lad who pleaded guilty on Saturday to having stolen a silver watch, a chain and $30 belonging to his employer, was sent to the Reformatory at Penetanguishene for three years.

The horse and buggy which Thomas Vanderlip got from Frank Peet have been recovered. They were found at Oakville on Saturday. Vanderlip has not yet been found nor has one of the suits of clothes that were supposed to have been stolen by him.

THE BISHOPS IN LONDON.

CANADIAN AND U. S. PRELATES IN HISTORIC PULPITS.

The New Papal Encyclical—The American Duchess—Indications of a First-Class War in Zululand.

LONDON, July 10.—Many London pulpits were on Sunday Americanized. Bishop Potter preached at the Chapel Royal, Savoy, in the very private dominion of the Queen, before a fashionable congregation and in an edifice many hundreds of years old. Bishop Coxe officiated in a still older church, Westminster Abbey. St. Paul's Cathedral gave ecclesiastical hospitality to the Bishop of North Carolina. Surrounded by a grand army of clericals the Bishops of Springfield and Milwaukee, respectively in the morning and evening, pleased the West End congregation of St. Matthias in the Earl's Court District. The Bishop of North Dakota grew eloquent in the Church of St. Stephen's, South Kensington, not far from the Museum, and the Bishop of South Dakota occupied the pulpit of the Church of St. Pancras, which all tourists will remember as that grand representative of church architecture flanking the attractive entrance to the Liverpool railroad station. The Bishop of Mississippi went southwestwardly to the Church of St. Gabriel, situated between the former residence of Carlyle and the romantic territory of Pimlico. The Bishop of Iowa conducted two services in extreme East London, in St. Margaret's-on-Lea and St. Peter's in Brockley. The Bishop of Oregon assisted at the services in St. Paul's, in Great Portland-street. His brother bishop from Washington Territory was welcomed not far away in St. Phillip's church, Regent-street, near the famous Oxford circus.

In the afternoon the Bishop of Quebec took charge of the parish of St. Luke's, known one hundred years ago as St. Luke's-in-the-fields, in Chelsea. The Bishop of Toronto was heard at the parish church of Stepney, near the great collection of docks.

A prelate from Zululand was at the St. Paul's Cathedral in the evening. One from Caffraria filled the pulpit of St. Martin's Church, Trafalgar-square; another from Honolulu that of St. John's, near the great cricket ground, Kensington, and fourteen other home or colonial bishops officiated at as many other parishes; thus the sixth Sunday after Trinity may be said to have been as extensive a day for bishops as ever was known anywhere in the civilized world.

The new Papal encyclical is nine columns long, and, while eminently dignified and elegant in language, seems so carefully designed to hurt nobody's feelings that its effect on the political situation in Italy and elsewhere will not be great. It defines at great length the proper attitude of a Roman Catholic towards modern liberalism. So long as liberalism does not interfere with his belief he is free to act as his judgment dictates, and to support any form of government he prefers, as long as it is Christian and tends to promote Christian interests. The State, however, must not be separated from the Church, because such separation tends to encourage a belief among the masses that religion may be disbelieved in according to caprice. The Pope does not think the liberty of the press should be diminished, except where it offends religion and degenerates into licentiousness. The document is worthy of careful perusal by everybody, as it is exceedingly broadminded and contains advice to the believer concerning his attitude in the present era of theological discord that can be profitably followed by the followers of any faith.

The Duke and Duchess of Marlboro had a stormy passage in the Aurania, which had rather a depressing effect on the Duchess. She was compelled to remain in her stateroom nearly all the voyage, and consequently the Aurania's 430 saloon passengers had but little opportunity of associating with her. Those who did state that she is a most attractive and amiable woman, and through her gentle disposition is sure to make a host of English friends. The Duke and Duchess will proceed immediately to Blenheim Palace, their future residence. The Duchess arrived in London yesterday afternoon. She was cordially received by her mother-in-law, Lady Churchill and other members of her husband's family.

There is every indication of a first-class war in Zululand, but Parliament, as on a former occasion, is so busy with politics that no attention has been paid to the situation. For months past there have been whispers now and then of a conspiracy among the Boers to revive the old trouble. They have a natural conviction, born of the English policy after the battle of Majuba Hill, that only one good defeat is necessary to bring the English to terms. The breach shows no sign of healing, and boats are being turned from the Cape to the scene of action as fast as possible. The Boers are known to be arming vigorously and organizing horse artillery. They are excellent fighters, and that they are behind the uprising nobody doubts. Altogether, between South Africa, Afghanistan and Thibet, several outlets are becoming apparent for British military activity which for some months past has mainly confined itself to speeches.

The French Branch of the Congo Society has decided to send an expedition to look for the White Pasha of Bahr-el-Gazel, and African exploration is taking on the pleasing air of a geographical parlor game, in which everybody is hunting for everybody else. Emin Pasha is hunting for Stanley, Stanley is hunting for Emin Pasha. Major Barttelot is looking for Tippoo Tib, Tippoo Tib is searching for Barttelot; and now the French Society proposes to search for any and all of these seekers. Volunteers to look for the French expedition will be called for shortly.

QUEEN NATALIE TO THE SYNOD.

An Innocent Woman's Protest Against a Cruel Injustice.

LONDON, July 10.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes a number of telegrams which have passed between Queen Natalie of Servia and the lay and ecclesiastical authorities of the Holy Synod in relation to the troubles between herself and King Milan. In her despatches Queen Natalie charges that the Synod is conspiring with King Milan to perpetrate a cruel injustice against an innocent woman. Queen Natalie's last despatch was addressed to the Metropolitan of the Holy Synod. In it she declares that the Synod is not qualified to concern itself in the question of a divorce between her and her husband. A divorce granted by the Synod would, under the circumstances of the case, be contrary to the laws of Servia, and the Queen declares that she will energetically protest against the iniquity and illegality of such a divorce if granted by the Synod.

A BURGLAR BORED.

Policeman Craig of Toronto Makes it Hot for a Marauder.

TORONTO, July 10.—Last night Policeman Craig perceived that a hole had been made in the window of No. 23 Jarvis-street, occupied as a clothing store. He crept quietly through the hole into the store, and presently heard a slight rustle beneath the counter. He made a jump in the direction of the sound, but as he sprang forward a man dashed past him and made for the window. The policeman had his revolver in his hand, and levelling it called on the fellow to stop. By this time the burglar was disappearing through the hole he had made to enter by, and the policeman taking aim fired at the retreating form. Almost at the same moment the burglar uttered a cry and tumbled into the street, but he quickly recovered himself and darting to King ran down that thoroughfare and got away.

The plumbers' strike seems to be nearing a close. Owing to the increase of work about a dozen men were taken on yesterday morning by the bosses who have already signed the agreement. A good deal of indignation was created among the men on account of a recent circular from the Master Plumbers' Association, in which the former were referred to as "botches who should be driven from the trade in the city."

A young immigrant named Fulcher has been convicted of stealing $50 from hotelkeeper Jones on Queen-street, who had generously given the boy employment. He will spend the next two months in jail.

A MORMON BISHOP.

How a Salt Lake Refugee Surprised the Citizens of Lunenburg, N. S.

LUNENBURG, N. S., July 10.—Chester has had during the past week a genuine sensation. About six weeks ago there arrived from parts unknown a white-haired old patriarch and three very vivacious young ladies. One was introduced as his better half, the others as his wife's sisters. The ladies were invited everywhere and when not accompanied by the old man had a good time. About a week ago the youngest became infatuated with one of our young men, and, in a moment of confidence, disclosed the fact that the old patriarch was a Mormon bishop, a refugee from Salt Lake, Utah, and that all the women were, according to the rites of the Mormon Church, his wives. The next thing to an impossibility is to keep a thing secret in Chester, so the whole matter leaked out. The "bishop" got wind of the affair, and with his three wives skipped out Saturday night at 10 o'clock for Windsor.

PARNELL'S PROPOSAL.

The Irish Leader Asks for an Investigating Committee.

LONDON, July 10.—In the House of Commons yesterday Sir Wilfred Lawson (Home Ruler) asked whether the Government would grant the appointment of a committee of the House to inquire into the charges against the leaders of the National party in the House of Commons.

Mr. W. H. Smith, the Government leader, said the House was incompetent to inquire into the charges. A proper inquiry could be obtained through the ordinary tribunal.

Mr. Parnell later gave notice to the House that on Thursday he would submit a motion for the appointment of a committee to inquire into the authenticity of the letters published by The Times in its articles on "Parnellism and Crime," and those read at the trial of the suit of O'Donnell v. The Times, in which he and other Nationalist members were charged with serious crimes. He would also ask the Government to appoint a day to discuss the subject and give him an opportunity to repel the foul and unfounded charges made against him by Attorney-General Webster in the trial of the suit of O'Donnell v. The Times.

Mr. Parnell's remarks were greeted with loud cheers from the Irish benches.

Mr. W. H. Smith subsequently stated that the Government will decline to give a day for the discussion of Mr. Parnell's motion.

In announcing the death of Mr. Mandeville, Mr. O'Brien declared in the House of Commons yesterday that Mr. Mandeville had been injured by brutal treatment in prison.

BETRAYED TO HER DEATH.

A DOMESTIC TRAGEDY IN WHICH ONE OF THE SINNERS SUICIDES.

Jennie Irving of Walkerton and Her Sad Story—Chapter in the History of the Glassey Family—Some Spicy Letters.

TORONTO, July 10.—The mystery surrounding the death of the young girl whose body was picked up in the bay near Cooper's Wharf on Saturday last, has been practically dissipated. Two weeks ago last Saturday a young girl, apparently about 19, called at No. 10 Mission-avenue, occupied Mrs. E. Glassey, dressmaker, and applied for sewing work. Mrs. Glassey wanted help at the time and took her in.

There are two Mrs. Glasseys. Mrs. E. Glassey is a widow lady, and Mrs. Alden Glassey is her sister, they having married brothers. Alden Glassey and wife were at Norval, where he worked in a mill until the Saturday before Dominion Day, when, accompanied by their two children, they arrived at Toronto to pay Mrs. E. Glassey a visit. On Tuesday following the holiday Mrs. A. Glassey, who had been out all day, retired with her husband and children to bed about 11 o'clock. At 1 on the following morning Mrs. E. Glassey, who was attending to her sick baby, happened to step noiselessly into the parlor when she found her sister's husband and Jennie Brown together. She ran up-stairs and at once informed the wife, who naturally incensed, would not rest until her husband and the girl had left the house.

On July 5 an expressman came to Mrs. Glassey's for the girl's trunks which he had been engaged to take to No. 28 Park-road. The injured wife visited that number and secured an interview with the girl who, as soon as she saw Mrs. Glassey, burst into tears, and at her request gave her the following confession written in her own hand:

"TORONTO, July 5th, 1888.

"This is to certify

"that Alden Glassey has not been true to his wife he came to me on Sunday night the first of July and forced me to go away with him * * * * and also on Tuesday night when we were caught by Mrs. Glassey sister he also told me he did not love his wife and made me promise to go away with him he also took a diamond ring that I had which belonged to another young man, my proper name is

"Jenny Irving

"When I went to Mrs. Glassey's I called myself Miss Brown."

After writing the confession Jennie told Mrs. Glassey that she would never love a married man again as she intended to throw herself into the bay. When Mrs. Glassey read the description of the unfortunate girl yesterday morning she at once concluded that it was Jennie Irving and communicated her suspicions to the police. In the evening she went to the Morgue to view the body and the moment she saw the corpse she exclaimed: "Yes! Yes! that is poor Jennie!"

Little is known of the girl's antecedents. She told the Glassey ladies that she had an uncle a Presbyterian minister in Walkerton and had left home because she was unhappy four years ago. She had been in the city all that time and had worked in various families, among them the Rev. Dr. Rose.

The girl's two trunks are at No. 10 McCaul-street. One of them contains a Post-office Savings Bank book, showing a deposit of $5, and a number of letters, one of which, to "My Dear Jennie," dated at the Rossin House, June 5, 1887, signed Michael J. Cummings, asks her to meet him on Thursday evening at a street corner and has this postcript; "Burn this when you read it."

Another dated June 12, 1887, to "My Dear Jennie," signed Tom. C. Cary, is of a similar purport.

Jennie according to the Glassey's was a little flighty in her conduct, and at times appeared far from evenly balanced. She once said that both her mother and father were dead, but generally was very silent regarding her family affairs. Coroner Duncan opened an inquest on the body at noon yesterday, and adjourned it until Thursday evening. Drs. A. R. and R. N. Pyne made a post-mortem later in the day, and it is understood that the result showed no signs of violence.

A man named Harry Hartly was to have met Jennie at the foot of York-street on the night previous to the finding of her body. It will be recollected that on that night several persons saw a young man walking with a girl answering Jennie's description in the neighborhood of where the body was found.

Negotiating for a Loan.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 10.—The Sultan, learning that Austria may be induced to make concessions to Russia in Bulgaria that may be an equivalent to a restoration of Pan-Slavist interests and that will threaten the interests of the Ottoman Empire, has ordered the Treasury to create an extraordinary resource of $10,000,000. TORONTO CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

About a year ago, on receipt of the calendar and prospectus of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, we drew attention to the claims and prospects of the institution, in an article entitled, "Musical Culture." We pointed out the advantages it would be to the country. Now we are glad to see, after a year's experience, our sanguine predictions verified in a manner both unexpected and gratifying. The conservatory at once secured popular favor, as testified to by the fact that over six hundred pupils have been in attendance during the first season. As was to be expected the greater number of these was from the city of Toronto, still we are informed that by ones and twos pupils have been drawn from no fewer than one hundred and two towns, cities and villages in all quarters of the Dominion and the United States. The Toronto press have been unanimously complimentary, and with no uncertain tone, in their references regarding the success of the conservatory in the fulfillment of its function of supplying solid musical instruction. The fullest opportunities have been afforded of marking the progress of the performing students by about eighteen conservatory concerts. On every occasion the pupils have acquitted themselves in a manner to be a credit to themselves and their evidently excellent instruction, and to win the praise of the best musical critics.

The conservatory by means of its "Free" advantages affords its students an opportunity of dipping into that—to the lay mend—abstruse subject, harmony, with the result that harmony, the indispensable substratum of all true musical knowledge, has been taken up as a regular study by the more advanced pupils. By means of the "free" advantages, it is reasonably claimed that a broader musical education is secured for the pupil, than he or she can hope to attain by exclusive pursuit of ordinary practical studies.

For next season the management propose still further increasing the attractiveness and value of the "collateral advantages" by introducing free elementary classes for the study of the violin, which, it is to be hoped, will develop an increased taste for the study of an instrument, whose votaries must necessarily become real, not merely mechanical, musicians. This feature of action is to be highly commended.

The directors of the Toronto Conservatory of Music are gentlemen of eminence and high reputation, and, in having their administrative assistance as well as securing the services of an admirable staff of teachers, Mr. Edward Fisher, the musical director, has full scope for his high abilities, both as a musical director and an enthusiastic promoter of musical culture. The success which has attended the first year of his management entitles him to congratulation, and the indications are that the future of the institution is of the brightest. Negotiations are even now pending for the purchase of a site for a large conservatory building, concert hall and art gallery. We have much pleasure in referring the reader to the announcement of the Conservatory, appearing in our advertising columns.

The Milk Adulteration Case.

Full Text of the Judgment Rendered by Police Magistrate Edmison—The Defendant Convicted and a Fine of $20 Imposed.

ROLLINS VS WASON.

On this point I cannot arrive at any other conclusion. The complainant was well known to the defendant as the Milk Inspector. He saw him at the factory that morning engaged testing the milk, and enquired of him if he was the Inspector, and the complainant directly informed him that he was. And he knew the object of the Inspector's visit to his place that evening was for the express purpose of obtaining a sample of milk from the same cows as supplied the milk delivered to the factory. And when the Inspector informed him that he wanted a sample of the milk drawn from his cows that evening, he told the Inspector it was on the stand, and there from the milk can the sample was taken and I have no doubt, whatever, but it was the milk drawn from the same cows. If it was the milk of other cows, it was the defendant's duty to himself and all concerned to have said so, and, doubtless, he would have done so, but the sample of milk taken from the defendant's milk can and which was tested for the purpose of making the comparison, was not drawn or represented by the accused as having been drawn from the same cows within the then previous week, and in that respect there was not a literal compliance with the letter of the Act, for the purpose of establishing the guilt of the defendant by means of milk tests and comparisons, provided by the 7th section, and the only evidence before me to fasten the alleged fraud upon the defendant, is the evidence of the Inspector, that he tested milk said to have been supplied at the factory by the defendant on the morning of the 4th of June, and that it showed from ¼ to ⅝ of an inch of cream on cream gauge, and five marks butter fat by the other test, and that he also tested the sample of milk which he took from the defendant's farm on the evening of the 4th of June, in the same manner and by the same means, and it showed about double the quantity of cream and butter fat that the milk delivered at the factory that morning showed, and he swore that the tests were honestly and accurately made, and were made carefully, and that the instruments and means used were proper and reliable. Mr. Kidd also swore that he was present and saw the Inspector making the tests and that they were carefully made, and he also observed that the milk said to be the defendant's and which the defendant's counsel has admitted was the milk supplied by the defendant, was very much lacking in cream and butter, fat as compared with other milk he saw tested at the factory that morning. Thus we have the evidence of Mr. Whitton and Mr. McCarger, who were present and heard the Inspector give his evidence, and heard him describe the means and instruments used, and the mode adopted to make the tests and they both swear that such tests were made properly, and by proper and reliable means and instruments, and the result, in their opinion, showed that cream had been removed or taken off the milk delivered at the factory on the morning of the 4th of June. Mr. McCarger swears that, if the milk had been adulterated by the addition of water, by the other test that would have been discovered. He also swears that the keeping back of the strippings alone would not have shown the same result, and the witnesses, the Inspector, Mr. Whitton and Mr. McCarger, all reliable men, and doubtless are such or they would not have been chosen to fill the offices they hold under the Association, and they are in no way personally interested, and they are all men of large experience in the business, and I believe their evidence to be true, and I am of opinion that it was properly admitted. The seventh section plainly shows that the Legislature intended that convictions should be made upon such evidence but if the 7th section of the Act had never been passed, I think such evidence would be admissable to prove the fact of the cream having been taken off the milk before it was delivered at the factory and on the admission made at the trial that the milk tested at the factory and said to have been supplied by the defendant was the milk supplied by him, I must find that it was then in the same condition as when he supplied it for if I should give any effect to the suggestion made by Mr. Edwards, it may have been tampered with in transit, I would be doing away with the effect of his admission for if it had been tampered with in transit it would not be the same milk as the defendant supplied. I, therefore find as a fact on the evidence that the cream or part of the cream had been taken off the milk supplied to the factory on the morning of the 4th of June by the defendant, without notice in writing or otherwise to the manager or owner of the factory that such cream had been taken off. There has been no attempt to prove any such notice and it was not urged or even hinted at the trial that any such notice was given, and if such notice had been given the defendant would certainly have proved it and it would have been a complete defence, and I am inclined to the view that the onus of proving such notice was on the defendant. Where the complainant has established the defective condition of the milk supplied by the defendant as he has done in this case, I think I ought to hold the case has been made out. I therefore find the defendant guilty of the charge preferred against him, and I impose a fine of $20.00 and costs, $18.30, and in default of payment I adjudge the defendant to be committed to the common jail of the county of Peterborough for ten days.

GEO. EDMISON,
Police Magistrate.

[The EXAMINER has been requested to state that the rumour that the milk supplied by Mr. A. R. Kidd to the Warsaw factory, was subjected to doubt, and was what is commonly called "short milk," is incorrect, as the evidence printed above shows that it was above the average.]

WE BOOM UP THE GOODS! WE BOOM DOWN THE PRICES!!

Right we are. Right we shall be. We hew to the line, let the chips fall where they may. The dealers who buy at six month's time pursue the even tenor of their way. They are content to do business as hundreds of others are doing, and get left. How can the six months' time men compete with GOUGH'S. The Wonderful Cheap Men, the High Pressure Electric Clothiers, who seize the opportunity to buy at Spot Cash, and buy Awfully Well.

Read you Noble Sons of Toil, what the Clothiers of the Age are going to do for the next 30 days, and when you read, reflect, and when you reflect, come and buy from them, for you cannot buy from any Wholesale House in Canada at the following prices:
